

Dr. Frederick V. Fisher

Dr. Frederick V. Fisher, who was head of the lecture bureau for advertising the Panama Pacific Exposition, will lecture here at the Chautauqua, the second day, on "America Before the World." His evening lecture is illustrated by 400 dissolving hand painted lantern slides.

Hon. Frank Houx, acting governor of Wyoming, said this after hearing the lecture:

"Grand! Wouldn't have missed this lecture for anything."

George W. Middleton, regent of the University of Utah, said, "Dr. Fisher's lecture is the finest thing of its kind ever shown in Salt Lake."

"Dr. Fisher's lectures created more editorial comment in the middle west in 1916 than any others,"—Robert Ellingwood, Superintendent Ellis & White Chautauquas.

"Great! Now, I want to hear the lecture on Utah,"—Hon. William Spry.

"I never knew America till I heard Dr. Fisher's lecture," Professor Barker of Weber Academy.

The superintendent of the schools at Salt Lake boded his comment on Dr. Fisher down to this, "Superb pictures and superb lecture."

Necessities of War.

When Lloyd George in England undertook to organize the ministry of munitions a glazier began to stamp out cartridge clips; a manufacturer of music rolls used his equipment to make gauges; a concern engaged before the war in preparing infants' food began delivering plugs for shells; an advertising agency manufactured shell adapters; watchmakers began adjusting fuses; a manufacturer of baking machinery became a contractor for six inch high explosive shells; a jewelry house devoted itself exclusively to periscopes; a diamond concern sent millions of delicate shell pieces to the assembling stations; a firm which made nothing but sheep shearing machinery started turning out shell cases; a cream separator factory manufactured shell platters. Among other products of shell cases were candle-makers, tin mills, tobacco manufacturers, shell makers and the manufacturers of sporting goods.—World's Work

Species of the National Parks.

The United States is carrying on a very interesting work in exchanging the wild animals of one region for those of others—transplanting elk and deer and Rocky mountain highorns from regions in the United States where they are plentiful to others where, so far as known, they have not lived. Some of the animals are being shipped long distances, says the Popular Science Monthly.

Wyoming is full of elk. The herd in the Jackson Hole country are the largest of any of North American wild animals since the days of the countless buffaloes. But the big Yosemite National park of California, with its three-quarters of a million acres, until recently had no elk, or at least only a very few scattered specimens. But the elk shipped in from Wyoming have become very much at home and are breeding and multiplying rapidly, adding to the charm and picturesque quality of this popular national playground.

Registration.

On Tuesday the registrars in the Borough sat to perform the duties of their positions and in the First Ward, W. K. Holshu, Charles Plitt, Henry Hocking and R. G. Miller, as registrars, enrolled the names of 182 men between the ages of 21 and 31, the majority of whom are subject to military duty, as no other town in the county can turn out more husky men than Meyersdale.

In the Second Ward, M. F. Baer and Harry Younkin enrolled 65 which brought the total enrollment to 247 in the Borough.

In addition to this number 47 young men have already enlisted in Co. C, 10th Regiment, and but a very few of these were subject to the provisions of the Conscription act.

Frank Elwood Gordon

Dr. F. E. Gordon, whom we presented to our Chautauqua audience, is striking in stature and forcible in logic. His voice, enunciation and message popularize him with the public. His lectures are characterized by wit, sound sense and human sympathy. His word pictures show the skill of an artist. His illustrations reveal a student of science, biography, poetry and art. Dr. Gordon is in constant demand for the platform, where he always "makes good." He will be talked of long after the Chautauqua is over. He will deliver his lecture, "Shooting the Goal," the first afternoon of the Chautauqua.

E. W. Hoch, ex-governor of Kansas, says: "I have heard Rev. Gordon's lecture 'The Fruitage of Ideals,' and greatly enjoyed it. The lecture is thoughtful and wholesome and must make all who hear it better—the real test of value in a lecture." Dr. Gordon has a fine voice, a very pleasing manner and a real message."

of the Y. M. C. A. and in that connection managed one of the largest Lyceum courses in his state. In that way he came in touch with lyceum and Chautauqua work and in the past ten years has appeared on many of the oldest lyceum courses and chautauquas in the country. He carries with him to demonstrate his art lecture an old fashioned potter's kick wheel. He gives much valuable information of the history of making vessels of clay, and his lecture is interspersed with many witty turns as well as philosophical teachings. His subjects are "The Potter and the Clay" and "The Master Potter."
