THE LUCKY ONES.

Last Friday's drawing of choice young men resulted in drawing 300 names from the 1st Somerset Exemption district.

In the course of a few days the ones drawn will report for examinations, and those having claims on which to base exemption will then present their claims duly authenticated by affidavits and witnesses.

The board to whom the men called must report consist of Dr. Charles P. Large, of Meyersdale; William J. Glessner, of Somerset and Frank A. Harsh, of Casselman.

Notices of their being drafted and orders to report for examination, giving the place will probably be received by the men very soon.
