KEYSTONE PARAGRAPHS

On his way from Corry to Warren, Pa., Wake Morgaridge, former president of the Lake Erie Trotting association, was pinned beneath a burning automobile, while Morris Cohen, Archie Cohen and Charles Hall, all of Corry, were thrown to safety, when the machine overturned on a curve three miles west of this city. The automobile was lifted off Morgaridge before his clothing caught fire. He was only bruised. The others were hurt slightly. The machine was destroyed.

A runaway caboose of a Baltimore and Ohio freight train struck an automobile at Atlas crossing on the National pike, near Uniontown, demolished the automobile and injured its three occupants, one seriously. The injured are: William Small, aged sixty-five, of Hopwell; Ellis Boswell, thirty-eight, driver of the automobile, who is cut and bruised, and Mitchell Tennis, forty-two, Hopwood, cut and bruised. A defective coupling on the caboose is blamed for the accident.

Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania approved the general highway bill. The only reduction is in the item of $2,000,000 to pay the state's share of the state aid highway work done under the law of 1911. This item is approved in the sum of $1,500,000. The general highway bill, as it passed finally in the house and senate, carried an appropriation of $10,373,470.40. The appropriation for the construction of state highways is $6,000,000.

Two workers in the hot mills of the American Sheet and Tinplate company have been granted an increase in wages of 14.57 per cent, effective July 16. This means that since February, 1916, six advances in wages, equivalent to 73 per cent above the base rate, have been granted. The present rate is the highest that has ever prevailed in the tin plate industry and rollers are making over $20 a day for eight hours.

"I am bringing you greetings from the people of free Russia. Join me in giving hearty cheers for the United States. Long live the United States of America!" Thus spoke Lieutenant General Vladimir Roop, a member of the military division of the Russian war commission, in acknowledging the rousing welcome accorded him and his party by 400 Russians in Pittsburgh, where the mission spent Sunday and Monday.

Dorsey S. Mullen, aged thirty-five, of Pitcairn, was killed at Sang Hollow, near Johnstown, when he was struck by the New York express on the Pennsylvania railroad. Mullen alighted from a freight train and stepped in the path of the express.

Three persons were killed and four seriously injured when two Pennsylvania railroad freight trains collided near Norristown. The dead are Brake-man Halvig, Fireman Gross and an unidentified railroader. The injured are all railroad men.

Announcement was made by Congressman O. D. Bleakley of Franklin that if nothing prevents and the weather conditions are good he expects to make another flight from Philadelphia to Washington within the next two weeks.

Very Funny—Tommy—Do you go to bed very early, Mrs. Peck?
 Mrs. Peck—Yes, Tommy, sometimes when I feel tired.
 "You wouldn't go so early if you were married to my father, would you?"
 "Oh, Tommy, you funny boy! Why not?"
 "Cause my father told mother that if he were your husband he'd make you sit up!"—Exchange.

Mean Comment—Grace—Don't tell anybody for the world. See this ring? George slipped it on my finger last night. Ethel—Yes, it's nice looking, but it will make a black circle round your finger before you've worn it a week. It did on mine.—London Tit-Bits.

Pennsylvania State Normal School of Indiana, Pa.

The mind that is equipped to give true service is the mind that secures the best rewards. The demand for practically trained teachers always exceeds the supply. A course of study—which includes actual teaching experience—at the famous equips one for a life of successful service. Indiana is a school of ambitious workers under the guidance of a faculty of fifty-five experienced teachers.

Beautiful and healthful location. Christian influences. Athletics. Modern buildings splendidly equipped. $225 covers all expenses (excepting books) for school year for one preparing to teach. In connection with the Normal School are—The Indiana Conservatory of Music and The Indiana School of Business. The Indiana Catalog—one of the most beautiful and interesting of books about schools ever published—free on request. Address the Principal, J. A. H. KEITH, Indiana, Pa.

John W. Norton, chief clerk of the W. J. Rainey company, coal and coke operators of Uniontown, was sentenced to the Western penitentiary for not less than eighteen months nor more than three years, by Judge Van Swearingen, on a charge of larceny by clerk. Several weeks ago Norton, who pleaded guilty to the charge, appropriated checks on the W. J. Rainey company to the amount of $5,200.

Wholesale rates of potatoes were quoted at $5 at the Pittsburgh produce yards. A barrel contains two and a half bushels. While there is an abundance of tubers reported, it is not known whether a further drop in prices will be experienced. Cabbage, peas, beans and other vegetables are reported abundant by the food supply division, but no noticeable reduction in cost was reported.

David Halliday of New Castle went to pay for his marriage license, issued by the county clerk in Beaver, when he discovered his pocketbook containing $500 and a certified check on a New Castle bank for $1,500 was missing. Only the fact that his bride had money enough to pay for the license and ministerial service enabled the couple to be married.

Driving It Home!

Let us drive home to you the fact that no washwoman can wash clothes in as sanitary a manner as that in which the work is done at our laundry. We use much more water, change the water many more times, use purer and more costly soap, and keep all the clothes in constant motion during the entire process.

It is simply a matter of having proper facilities.
