HE MUST FIX A DATE.

A young lady, of Summit township, appeared before Esq. Hay last week and made information against a young man, a neighbor, charging him with breach of promise of marriage.

Officer Cramer brought the accused in for a hearing, when he confessed that he made the promise, that he recollected it distinctly but that as he had fixed no date for the fulfillment of his promise and that it made no difference if a promise was broken, that another could be made just as good.

The Justice, however, was not inclined to be pessimistic in the matter of promises and gave him eight days in which to keep and perform, and fulfill his promise, else he would be committed before the Great Cadi at Somerset.

BOROUGH CANDIDATES

One must be a skillful dodger to get along the street these days, and avoid running into some one with a petition for a friend for some borough office. All are good men and no doubt would fill the office satisfactorily to which he aspires.

The office of Burgess seems to be the one most eagerly sought and no doubt all of the names below will appear on the official ballot, as many persons were signing for each. No one was experiencing any difficulty in procuring the necessary number of names.

For Burgess.
Joseph L. Reich Democrat
H. M. Cook Republican
Fred Hare Republican
H. Clay Staub (Saxe) Republican

For Council.
James Lechemby Republican

A. W. Poorbaugh " "
J. J. Bowser " "
H. J. Ebbecka Democrat
E. L. Donges " "
Dennis Kneirnam " "
J. L. Tressler " "
W. H. Hay Justice of the Peace
Emory George Assessor
J. Carl Poling Tax Collector

There are four Councilmen to elect, the terms of C. H. Dia, Howard Saylor, Harry Staub and James Lechemby expiring. Mr. Lechemby is a candidate for re-election, the others deciding that they have had honors enough for the present.

The primary will be held Wednesday, September 19th.

The primary election is the most important election the people are called upon to register their verdict. The local taxes amount to much more than one half of the taxes the people are called upon to pay, and the assessment, collection and expenditure of these taxes are made by the officers nominated at that election. Care should be taken to secure the best men possible for candidates at these elections and their election is then easy, if the voters will take any interest.

WAS PINCHED

James Jones, of Baltimore, was arrested by Constable Cramer last week and hailed before Judge Hay. Now the narrative reads like fiction, only the heroine does not appear to secure James' release.

James, along with others of African descent, was residing in the monument city, happily and contented, when a labor agent alluringly told a tale of wealth to be secured at Sand Patch by working in a section gang for the B. & O. James and his brother, in a fateful hour, bit at the bait and when they landed, found they were to replace some men who were on a strike. Being of a sensitive nature, and the weather being hot, they could not relish the idea of being called "scabs" and refused to go to work.

They then went to Johnstown and on their return James was arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. When given a hearing he stated that his brother had given him the gun to carry about fifteen minutes before his arrest. The Magistrate agreed to let him depart in peace if he would deposit 25 iron men for use of the commonwealth and pay the costs. This being more lucre than James was seized with or possessed of at that time, he parted with his weapon and the Justice, and, with Constable Cramer, left for Somerset where he awaits the next session of the assizes.

Former Salisbury Boy to Preach.

This will be the opening of the Chautauqua to be held in Salisbury on Sept. 2-8th. These union services have become an annual custom, and large crowds are always present. Everybody is pleased to know that Rev. Baumgardner has accepted the invitation. He will be greeted by an immense crowd.
