Advertise in the Commercial

How much do you invest in advertising each year?

John Wanamaker, the Merchant Prince of Philadelphia, is quoted as saying that if he was to start in business tomorrow he would take his capital and put 25 per cent in stock and 75 per cent in advertising. His entire success was due to advertising. Get in his class.

Give us Your Printing

Let the Commercial print you cards, circulars, letter heads, note heads, statements, bill heads, books, programs, or anything in the commercial line of job work. All printing handled by competent workmen. Satisfaction guaranteed on all jobs handled at this office.
