

THE MEYERSDALE COMMERCIAL.

VOL. 40, NO. 52. PRICE 2 CENTS.

SOMERSET

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brydon and children who are spending the winter in Baltimore are spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Harrison.

Miss Valoy Picking, a Bethany College student, is enjoying a vacation with her mother on West Patriot st.

Mrs. Elsie Stahl Barron of New York is visiting at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stahl of West street.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Cromwell of Port Allegheny, Pa., are visiting at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Kate V. Cromwell.

Charles S. Vought who returned a few days ago from a business trip to Paris, is spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Belle Vought. Mr. Vought is assistant general manager of sales for the American Steel Export company and sailed for France last July.

Miss Mary Louise Casebeer, a Sargent School girl, arrived home from Boston and will spend two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Casebeer of West Main street.

Charles Glessner of Company C, is enjoying a ten day's furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Glessner of East Somerset.

Mrs. Hattie Speck of Gloucester, Mass., is the guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. J. Harrison, Jr.

Ex-judge F. J. Kooser left for New York to spend the holidays with Mrs. Mary Kooser Sargeant and family.

Jacob M. Krappier and son Alvin, of Brothersvalley, were transacting business in Somerset Thursday.

First Sergeant, Robert Duppstadt, of the 41st Aviation Squadron, Mt. Clemens, Mich., spent his Xmas furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Duppstadt of North Main Cross street.

J. B. Schrock of Berlin was a recent visitor to Somerset.

Jeff Sides of Berlin was visiting relatives and friends in Somerset Thursday.

Miss Hulda Powell has returned home after spending several days with friends in Meyersdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levy have returned home after a few days' visit with relatives and friends in Meyersdale.

R. A. Stoughton of Addison, was transacting business in Somerset recently.

Miss Gladys Deeter is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deeter of Meyersdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blades of Akron, Ohio, spent several days at the home of Mr. Blades' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Blades.

Ernest Stern and Miss Eva Stern, of Pittsburgh, have returned after spending several days at the home of their parents, on Union street.

Ernest Gasteiger, a student at the University of Pittsburgh has returned after spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Gasteiger on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breunelsen have returned home from Pitcairn, where they were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Monahan.

Mrs. Sarah Baer, of Meyersdale is visiting at the home of her son, Henry Baer of West Main street.

Misses Catharine Lenhart and Bessee Thornton of Pittsburgh have returned home after spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rutter, West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Barron have located at Tampa, Florida for the winter.

James A. Farrell and family have removed to Barronville.

Edie Public School or which Prof. J. C. Begley is principal held a Parade Post Sale January 4, 1918. The funds were given to the New Library which has been started at Edie.

Prof. James C. Begley, of Edie, was transacting business in Somerset.

E. P. Brown has moved his family from Somerset to Punzutawney, where Mr. Brown will manage a grist mill.

Guy Bowman of Harrisburg is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Bowman.

William Hutzel, a track foreman on the S. & C. Branch, having the Border section under his control, received a check for $25.00 from the

B. & O. company for keeping his section in good condition.

George W. Buckman, of Berlin, was a recent caller to Somerset.

Charles Barchfeld of Philadelphia, is visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Clara Barchfeld.

Prof. H. H. DeLong of Mt. Pleasant was a recent visitor to Somerset.

Miss Myra McCrum of New York is visiting friends in Somerset.

I. W. Saylor has been substituting as night policeman for Ross F. Davis, who fell on the ice recently and sprained an ankle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Barkman of Port Allegany, Pa., are visiting at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Kate V. Cromwell.

Charles S. Vought who returned a few days ago from a business trip to Paris, is spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Belle Vought. Mr. Vought is assistant general manager of sales for the American Steel Export company and sailed for France last July.

Miss Mary Louise Casebeer, a Sargent School girl, arrived home from Boston and will spend two weeks' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Casebeer of West Main street.

Charles Glessner of Company C, is enjoying a ten day's furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Glessner of East Somerset.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Craver, were visiting relatives and friends in Johnstown, Thursday.

Clark J. Bucan the Windber Coal operator was transacting business in Somerset yesterday.

Merchant Herman Ballis was transacting business in Pittsburgh recently.

Mrs. I. J. Schrock of Friedens was returning relatives and friends in Somerset Friday.

Miss Frances Schlagg is visiting her mother who is a patient in a Hospital at Pittsburgh.

District Attorney Virgil R. Saylor of Somerset, was a recent business visitor to Boswell.

Frank Vanear of Company E, Camp Hancock, Augusta, Ga., is spending several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vanear of the East End.

Master Bruce Luther of Tressler Orphan Home, Logsville has returned to Somerset and will make his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elcher of Main street.

James B. Slicer of Wissahickon, Barracks, Cape May, New Jersey is spending a several day's furlough with his mother, Mrs. John Slicer of the East End.

Master Bruce Luther of Tressler Orphan Home, Logsville has returned to Somerset and will make his home with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elcher of Main street.

James B. Slicer of Wissahickon, Barracks, Cape May, New Jersey is spending a several day's furlough with his mother, Mrs. John Slicer of the East End.

Charles Flegel of Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia returned home and will spend several days with his mother on North Main street.

Senator N. B. Griffield of Harrisburg spent several days with friends in Somerset.

Charles Fraze of Johnstown spent over Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Alice Fraze.

Misses Bessie and Edith Bauch have returned to Philadelphia after spending several days at the home of their mother, Mrs. Laura K. Bauch.

Miss Mabel Vogel, of Johnstown, has returned home after spending several days with relatives and friends in Somerset.

Charles Flegel of Camp Hancock, Augusta, Georgia returned home and will spend several days with his mother on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Levy have returned home after a few days' visit with relatives and friends in Meyersdale.

R. A. Stoughton of Addison, was transacting business in Somerset recently.

Miss Gladys Deeter is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deeter of Meyersdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blades of Akron, Ohio, spent several days at the home of Mr. Blades' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Blades.

Ernest Stern and Miss Eva Stern, of Pittsburgh, have returned after spending several days at the home of their parents, on Union street.

Ernest Gasteiger, a student at the University of Pittsburgh has returned after spending a week with his mother, Mrs. John Gasteiger on North Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Breunelsen have returned home from Pitcairn, where they were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Monahan.

Mrs. Sarah Baer, of Meyersdale is visiting at the home of her son, Henry Baer of West Main street.

Misses Catharine Lenhart and Bessee Thornton of Pittsburgh have returned home after spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rutter, West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Barron have located at Tampa, Florida for the winter.

James A. Farrell and family have removed to Barronville.

Edie Public School or which Prof. J. C. Begley is principal held a Parade Post Sale January 4, 1918. The funds were given to the New Library which has been started at Edie.

Prof. James C. Begley, of Edie, was transacting business in Somerset.

E. P. Brown has moved his family from Somerset to Punzutawney, where Mr. Brown will manage a grist mill.

Guy Bowman of Harrisburg is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Bowman.

William Hutzel, a track foreman on the S. & C. Branch, having the Border section under his control, received a check for $25.00 from the LOCAL REALTY TRANSFERS.

Clara Bender to Milton E. Bender, Elk Lick twp., $1,400; Enoch Bender's Extr., to Clara Bender, Elk Lick twp., $1,400; Mary J. Flesher to Meyersdale Fuel Co., Elk Lick twp., $2,500; Joseph J. Yoder to Meyersdale Fuel Co., Elk Lick twp., $1,225; W. H. Beal to George W. Beal, Elk Lick twp., $720; A. C. Miller to Fred Durr, Larimer twp., $460; Christia Newcomer to J. D. Gnagy's Extr., Meyersdale, $800; Mountain Smokeless Coal Co. to Daniel Reisinger, Summit twp., $28,000; Lewis B. Keefer to Howard F. Speicher, Summit twp., $5,500; William H. Holzhu to Jacob H. Wagner, Meyersdale, $100; John N. Cover to Martin Meyers, Meyersdale, $1,500; John N. Cover to Martin Meyers, Meyersdale, $1,000; Herman Muhlenberger to Mollie G. Poorbaugh, Meyersdale, $200; William H. Haber to Bruce Pike, Summit twp., $450; Edward J. Schrock to Herman Muhlenberger, Meyersdale, $200; Clara J. Miller to Jennie D. Long, Meyersdale, $4,500; Jennie D. Long to Frederick E. Rowe, Meyersdale, $1; Samuel J. Miller to John S. Mathias, Meyersdale, $90; William F. Quecker to M. Christiner, Summit twp., $1,500; William P. Meyers to Norman P. Meyers, Summit twp., $1.

STATE FIREMEN'S CONVENTION COMING HERE.

Messrs. I. Bradburn, Jr., and W. P. Holzhu, respectively President and Secretary of the Meyersdale Fire Department, attended a meeting of the Board of Control of the Western Pennsylvania State Firemen's Association at Braddock on December 29, and report an interesting and well attended meeting. The next meeting of the Board of Control will be held in Meyersdale on January 26th, and the State Firemen's Convention will also be held here sometime in August, the exact date to be announced later. The local fire department is maintained wholly on the volunteer system and is deserving of the support of all property holders as well as of all other residents of this community. The fire boys will hold a social meeting in the near future to which all business men will get an invitation, and a large attendance is expected.

The local company is filled up to its full quota, which is fifty members, and a number of applicants are waiting their turn to be admitted.

LARIMER TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Following is the program for the Larimer township teachers' institute to be held at Geiger School, January 11th, at 7:30 p. m.

Opening Address, Grace Suder, Song.

"Need of Teaching Pupils How to Study," W. A. Hay.

"Principle of Questioning," Eleanor Hannan.

"Importance of the Study of Geography," Sydney Lenhart.

Song, Pine Grove School.

"How Time is Wasted," John Ravenscraft.

Reading, J. H. Suder.

Debate, "Resolved, That the United States has reached the zenith of its glory," Affirmative, W. A. Hay, W. A. Habel and Simon Murry; Negative, C. M. Christiner, Owen Murry and J. L. Kendall, Esq.

PIANO FOR SALE.

Good Kroeger Piano for sale at $150. Party leaving. Address H-1, Commercial Office.

Adv.

to Johnstown after spending a few days with his mother.

D. W. Meyers of Lincoln township, transacted business in Somerset last Wednesday.

Prof. Russell Moore and wife of Greenburg spent several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Moore in Jefferson township.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lape have returned home after spending several days at the home of Mrs. Lape's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, of Berlin.

Judge W. H. Ruppel has returned home after spending several days in Pittsburgh.

Miss Besse Crise of Windber, spent her Xmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Crise.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brydon and children have returned home after visiting several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Rutter, West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Barron have located at Tampa, Florida for the winter.

James A. Farrell and family have removed to Barronville.

Edie Public School or which Prof. J. C. Begley is principal held a Parade Post Sale January 4, 1918. The funds were given to the New Library which has been started at Edie.

Prof. James C. Begley, of Edie, was transacting business in Somerset.

E. P. Brown has moved his family from Somerset to Punzutawney, where Mr. Brown will manage a grist mill.

Guy Bowman of Harrisburg is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Bowman.

William Hutzel, a track foreman on the S. & C. Branch, having the Border section under his control, received a check for $25.00 from the

MEYERSDALE, PENNSYLVANIA, JANUARY 9, 1918.

Local and Personal.

Mrs. Thomas Edwards of Markleton, was shopping in Meyersdale Thursday.

George Gray of Coal Run recently visited in Garrett and in Meyersdale.

Councilman James Darnley, who was confined to the house since Christmas with pleurisy, has recovered and is out again.

Norman Kelley of Markleton was a recent visitor here.

B. & O. Supervisor, B. F. Hanna, of Rockwood, was in town Thursday afternoon.

Thomas Carey of Somerset visited his parents here on Thursday.

Bert Rush, the popular agent of the B. & O. R. R. at this place, was calling on friends in Confluence on New Year's Day.

Mrs. Elizabeth Younkin is visiting Mrs. Shannon Smith, Boswell, Pa.

Miss Verne Baer visited friends in Frostburg, Md. this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. May, Mrs. Elizabeth May, Johnstown, Pa., and Mrs. R. M. May, Pittsburgh, Pa., are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Livingood.

Grant Turvey and daughter, Mary of Amsterdam, Ohio spent Christmas with the latter's aunt, Miss Fannie Clark.

Miss Julia Tipping of Turtle Creek