1,716,000,000 Pounds of Flour Saved

if each of our 22,000,000 families use this recipe instead of white bread.

One loaf saves 11,000,000 pounds; three loaves a week for a year means 1,716,000,000 pounds saved!

Enough to Feed the Entire Allied Army

Corn Bread with Rye Flour

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 cup corn meal | 1 teaspoon salt |
| 1 cup rye flour | 1 cup milk |
| 2 tablespoons sugar | 1 egg |
| 5 teaspoons Royal Baking Powder | 2 tablespoons shortening |

Barley flour or oat flour may be used instead of rye flour with equally good results. Sift dry ingredients into bowl; add milk, beaten egg and melted shortening. Stir well. Put into greased pan, allow to stand in warm place 20 to 25 minutes and bake in moderate oven 40 to 45 minutes.

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR

Dr. Shumac, of Summit Mills, was in town on Saturday with some medical supplies for the boys in France. He forwarded them in care of his grandson, Lloyd Shumac, who is with the Engineering Corps.

Dr. Shumac is a man who believes in nature's own remedy of this system of treatment. At the age of sixty-nine he is as agile as most young men of twenty, with equal powers of endurance. He is a living example of the practicability of this system of treatment. Remedies that will assist nature to throw off trouble and overcome disease. With his young men of twenty, his purpose is to work in harmony with nature. He is a living example of the practicability of this system of treatment.

COAL RUN.

John Ohler and Herman Miller were Garrett visitors last week.

Fred Nolte and George Robinson were Berlin visitors Saturday last.

Mrs. Wilton Sheetz, who has been on the sick list for some time past, is now improving.

Con Hemmings, who has been confined to his bed for some time, is able to be about again.

Marshall Lowery has had the bandages removed from his finger which he had the misfortune to break some time ago.

Richard Hickson has passed the medical examination for military service and will be leaving us in the near future for the front.

The weather we are having at this writing is certainly very pleasant and very much appreciated after the long siege of the past winter.

Mineworkers, why not all deposit a little sum of your hard earned money in the U. M. W. A. and draw interest on it every two weeks in your pay envelope?

John Gray, of Garrett, is confined to bed at George Gray's home here, with blood poison in his leg, as a result of a small cut which he received while at work in the mines some time ago.

ST. PAUL.

Mrs. Maurice Hostetler and children, of Meyersdale, were visiting her mother.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bodes, a girl; to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Engle, a girl.

Miss Sadie Christner, of Stoyestown, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. John Whisler, our expert machinist, was called upon to put Irvin Engle's Ford car in running trim Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Yoder and children, of Summit Mills, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman G. Lepley, Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fresh and children, of Listonburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sechler on Tuesday of last week.

Salome Beachy, of Norfolk, Va., was visiting her sister, Miss Lucy Beachy, who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Beachy.

Mr. William Sechler is furnishing sweets to St. Paulites by the gallon. Go to it, William, but do not try to boil syrup out of rain water.

Miss Mildred Snyder, of Pocahtontas, spent the week end at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sipple, and with other relatives here.

Practice for the Easter services which are to be held in the Reformed Church on Easter Sunday evening is making good progress under Rev. Wilson's able direction.

About three hundred people attended the funeral services for George Porter Gray. The sermon was preached by the Lutheran minister, Rev. Charles Lambert, assisted by Rev. L. N. Wilson.

Mr. N. D. Hay is trying out a new Huber tractor on his farm. It is supposed to do the work of four men and twelve horses. Such machines should be a great help in speeding up the production of foodstuff and in making up for the shortage of farm labor in times like we are experiencing at present.

Since the business relations of a number of our residents will call them elsewhere in the near future, we bid them farewell with best wishes for continued success, and recommend this place to others who are looking for a good healthy place to locate. Come and fill the places of those who are going to leave us.

The contest in the Reformed church here between the Men's Bible Class, Mr. D. Compton, teacher; and the Young Men's class, Rev. L. N. Wilson, teacher, is proceeding with much enthusiasm. There has been a marked increase in membership, in interest shown in the study of the lessons and in col-
