The captain stopped.
"What," he asked, pointing to an expensive medal on the bulging bosom of the newest private, is that?"

"That," said the newest private proudly, "is the medal our cow won at the country fair last year."—Stars and Stripes.

TWENTY-EIGHT VACANCIES

Short Items of Interest Gathered at the Various State Departments Touching Affairs of the People of the Commonwealth.

Harrisburg, Pa.—Married men who are under forty years of age may be enlisted in the Pennsylvania State Police to fill the twenty-eight vacancies which now exist in the force under conditions laid down by the department according to information from the Capitol. The draft has taken eight experienced men, and while those in service until a short time ago have been put into deferred classes, the men whose terms are expiring have been going to war or in service of corporations and railroads where there is more attractive pay.

The men to be enlisted will be required to spend several nights a week at barracks. They must be between thirty-one and forty and they will be taken close to the latter age if in good physical condition and able to stand the work of the policeman.
The usual summer demand for presence of state policemen is appearing.

State Registers 60,551 New Men.
Returns from all of the 282 local draft districts in Pennsylvania show that 60,551 men who attended the age of 21 in the last year registered June 5. Enlistments and failure of aliens in some of the cities to register are given as reasons why the registration was not larger.

OLD PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it.

A prominent druggist says, "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."
According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that, so many people claim, it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Nothing to Do but Wait.
Jones was a raw recruit just arrived. The second day of his army life he was put on the picket line grooming horses. The stable sergeant, having given the command to groom, sauntered around to see how the work was progressing. He found Jones with an anxious and expectant look on his face.
"Well, Jones, have you groomed your horse?"
"Yes, sir," he replied obediently.
Jones hesitated.
"No, sir—he's been standing on them, sir, and I've waited over ten minutes for him to lie down."—Judge.

Natural Difficulty.
"I want this boy flogged, sir. He is a bad egg." "In that case, it is no use trying to whip him."

Oh, You, "Dixie" Tune.
The Houston Post notes that "some Cincinnati feller is writing new words for 'Dixie,'" and it discourages him with—
"No use. Few people have ever learned the old words. It is the 'Dixie' tune that plays the wild with human emotions and makes a patriot want to yell and shoot holes through the enemy."

Most Startling Endorsement Ever Published

Mr. A. W. Cramer, Registered Pharmacist and Druggist of Plano, Illinois, writes under date of December 12, 1918:

"Eatonic Remedy Co., Chicago, Ill.
Gentlemen—The following incident which happened in my place of business I know will be of great interest to you, and, I hope, of great benefit to humanity, morally and physically.
I keep a quantity of EATONIC piled on my show case. I recently missed a box, and knowing neither myself nor clerk had sold it, I could not account for its disappearance. Yesterday morning a man walked into my store and said: "Mr. Cramer, I owe you fifty cents for a box of EATONIC which I stole from your show case. I am bothered with stomach trouble and, not having the money to spare to get a box, I took it. EATONIC has done me so much good my conscience bothered me until I had to come back and pay for it."
This is the most wonderful testimonial statement in all my experience in the interest of any preparation. It is positive proof, to my mind, that EATONIC is all that is claimed for it. If it had not helped this man his conscience would have left him unmolested. Very truly yours,
A. W. Cramer."

EATONIC costs little—a cent or two a day. Buy EATONIC from your druggist.
