Illman's Training School for Kindergarten, in Philadelphia. Mr. Robinson is a graduate of St. Luke's School, Wayne, Pa., and is Vice President and Treasurer of Charles T. Robinson, Inc., burlap bag dealers, Philadelphia.

Knew the Schedule

He was a very popular curate and when he gained his earthly reward of a pleasant living, and left the country parish, he was much missed by all. His successor, not much of a countryman, went to call on old Mother Brown one Monday afternoon, who at once took his parochial education in hand.

"I be main sorry t'other curick's gone," she said, "for this I will say for that there curick, he allus did know when 'twas washing day."—Auckland Weekly News.

JEROME MINER FATALLY INJURED

WHY NOT TELL A GOOD ONE?

"A fish has been discovered which can walk overland from one lake to another and can live out of water six months at a time." It would make a better story to have the fish carry an umbrella.—Toledo Blade.

Maryland Forest Reserve Owned by Pittsburgers

The work of planting 30,000 red pine trees on the forest reserve of P. F. Nicola, of Pittsburgh, owner of Rock Ledge, near Bittinger, Md., is under the direction of Carl E. Pfeiffer, assistant state forester. Ten thousand trees were planted during the latter part of last week by 16 men.

The work of reforestation has been going on every year since 1921 on the Rock Ledge reservation and there are now many acres of red pine, Norway spruce, Scotch pine, white pine and locust, showing healthy growth. Last year a similar number of red pine trees were set out under the direction of Pfeiffer on his land. The trees will eventually cover the mountain which was swept by fire several years ago.

The territory being reforested was once covered by the finest and largest growth of native white pine in Maryland, the tract being known as "The Rights of Man." The timber was made into lumber many years ago.

SOMERSET VOITURE HOLDS FINE AFFAIR

The Somerset County Voiture, No. 609, "Forty and Eight," play ground of the American Legion, again demonstrated its ability to open up the Spring wrecks with a "bang" on Wednesday evening of last week, at the Recreation Hall in Windber. All roads lead to Windber that evening, with the result that twelve P. G.'s from Somerset, Berlin, Meyersdale, Salisbury, Boswell, and other places gladly presented themselves for the highly sensitive and painstaking wrecking crews, for which Voiture No. 609 is becoming quite prominent.

One of the high spots in the promenade was the presence of four trumpets and drum corps, representing Salisbury, in their French uniforms, Meyersdale in their doughboy outfits, Somerset in their blues and the Windber Yellow Jackets, who took part in the parade preceding the "wreck" in which 40.8's members participated. Voyagers and Legionnaires in the line of march showed the spectators on the sidelines that they are justly proud of their organization, and the wonderful co-operation between the Voiture and the Legion Posts again brought results. James Baird, Conductor of the Somerset Wrecking Crew, and the officers of the Voiture thank the Legionnaires and city officials for their efforts in paving the way for a successful parade and the privileges permitted.

Among the P. G.'s who went through the obligation Wednesday evening was County Treasurer, Walter McNutt.

The Windber Yellow Jackets Trumpet and Drum Corps sponsored a picture in the Arcadia Theatre on the same evening for its benefit and all visiting drum corps members were given passes to the theatre, from the Somerset Voiture and also enjoyed a feed that the committee prepared.
