Mother-My-Love-

O MOTHER-MY-LOVE, if you'll give me your hand,
And go where I ask you to wander,
I will lead you away to a beautiful land—
The Dreamland that's waiting out yonder.
We'll walk in a sweet-posic garden out there
Where moonlight and starlight are streaming,
And the flowers and birds are filling the air
With fragrance and music of dreaming.

There'll be no little tired-out boy to undress, No questions or cares to perplex you; There'll be no little bruises or bumps to caress, Nor patching of stockings to vex you. For I'll rock you away on a silver-dew stream, And sing you asleep when you're weary, And no one shall know of our beautiful dream, But you and your own little dearie.

And when I am tired I'll nestle my head And when I am tired I'll nestle my head
In the bosom that's soothed me so often,
And the wide-awake stars shall sing in my stead
A song which our dreaming shall soften,
So Mother-My-Love, let me take your dear hand,
And away through the starlight we'll wander—
Away through the mist to the beautiful land—
The Dreamland that's waiting out yonder!

the household. She, more than all ncomparable privilege of shaping the Little as we know of that simple home in which the child Jesus was reared, sufficient is told us to indicate

His mother's influence as well as her

Poets and painters have exhausted retes and painters have extansive their genius in portraying this sacred relationship. The modern mother may find in this lowly home at Nazareth an ideal of transcendent loveliness. We may change our customs and our institutions of government. A good home stands for good citizenship, and

Thought For the Day

HAT would you think of a boy who would strike his mother? You hate to think of anything so unpleasant, don't you? Words can-express your opinion of one who would intentionally injure his

W stop a minute. Probably some time in your life you have had

Which really hurt the worst? The nose or the knee was better

w hours or a few days, but your injured feelings bothered you meaning of all this is clear: You have only contempt for a boy would strike his mother, but do you realize that an unkind o her may hurt her feelings more than a blow? Boys-and girls, re so much more careless with their tongues than with their

Don't you be one to let your tongue inflict pain.

T'S a good thing to think about on Mother's day bloody nose or a skinned knee. And probably some time ife some one has made an unkind remark that hurt you dreadong time after that unkind remark.

The Savior's Mother.

thers' Virtues ut on Record

t Beautiful Descripof Wife and Mothhood Ever Penned Found in Book of Proverbs.

tongue is the law of kindness. bs 31:26. er tribute to feminine graces in the thirty-first chapter of to of Proverbs. It is a glowing to wifehood and motherhood. art of her husband doth safely her; she will do him good and all the days of her tife." Of ailing devotion to her house-e writer says: "Her candle ot out by night; she stretcheth hand to the poor; yea, she forth her hands to the "She looketh well to the ways cousehold and eateth not the Little wonder is children "arise up and call that is here written concernis more significant than the "In her tongue is the law of s." There can be little higher way of the fulfillment of the standing heart. It will not red or distracted through mis-ndings nor will it yield to the moyances that day by day ction and unhappiness. dness will not reckon with of a household dissimilar in and practice. The law of resists and overcomes the un-d and thoughtless utterance ily forgives the unwitting act dience. The mother of the like Mary of old, penetrates the surface of things, weighs discrimination the differ those who constitute the It is safe to say that this gift of mother love is one of est factors in the shaping cter, and that it contributes an orderly and peaceful home all else. It is the source of nt and the inspiration to not thinking, concerning this tue, of that kind of cheap tality that discloses itself in inating kindness. Kindness the loving word of counsel is that reckons not with

Grand Jury Makes Report to Court

We, the members of the Grand Jury converse of secrets in the control of the contr

All the inmates are encouraged to be industrious and are helped in any line of endeavor for which they may display an inclination. In the mentally ill-this it conducive to the comfort and well being of the unfortunates in enabling them to emply their minds and hands.

There are 48 milch cows of the Holstein strain in the dairy barn, besides numerous other livestock. One cow produces 90 pounds of milk per substituted for those holler responsi-bilities that have to do with home and family life. The greatest trust that God has committed to His children is that which is given to the mother of others, determines the moral worth and strength of our domestic and so-cial life. To her hands is given the cow produces 90 pounds of milk per characters of her children. The moral and spiritual ideals of the nation, as a whole, are largely determined by its day. Everything is perfectly sanitary in the dairy barn. The livestock and poultry exhibit would do credit to a selected county fair.

The poultry farming is especially commendable. All hens are trap nested and there are more than 1000 hens. The eggs of about 200 hens being the best producers are used for hatching.

Eventually through this culture the first producers are used for hatching. eggs of about 200 hens being the best producers are used for hatching. Eventually through this culture the farmers of the county will be enabled to buy surplus hens of the highest grade. From 700 to 800 eggs are collected daily. Formerly the institution was obliged to buy eggs. There are six incubators of 300 capacity. Many hens have a record of 29 eggs per month over a long period.

Enterprising farmers and His mother's influence as well as her understanding sympathy. She, above all others, discerned the high and holy purpose of His ministry. With pro-phetic instinct she saw from His earli-est days what no other eye could dis-

We may change our customs and our ways of living, but we dare not lower those high and holy standards that give to the mother the sovereign place to which by divine sanction she was appointed. She must continue to be the guardian of a nation's character.

Enterprising farmers and agriculturists would do well to visit the institution. Such think much of my voice, professor. The people next door say I ought to go abroad to study."

"Professor: "Yes, but I don't live civied and reciprocated.

In the vicinity of the the guardian of a nation's character.

High and Holy Day

Mother's day, and its proper observance, means more than a mere gesture. It is legally required that every person shall associate the love of mother, whether living or passed, with the love of country. It is a day set aside for concentration upon the ideals of home and the institution. Such the institution. Such the institution. Such the institution. Such the institution is desirable to co-operation would be cordially received and reciprocated.

In the vicinity of the new building are a number of tree stumps and stones that might be removed by prison labor so as to render the environs of this building more sightly from the highway. If the prisoners who languish throughout th dependents of such prisoners during their confinement. This labor also might be used on the farm during the summer months to great advantage in more tensive farming, the fruits to be applied to the dependents of such labor.

The grand jury also through this medium wishes to express to Dr. Wilson and his estimable wife and the entire ement their sincere appreciation cordial treatment accorded them

MISSION HELD IN

Md., which will continue all week. vices morning and evening. First Mass at 5:30 and second at 8 o'clock. Services in the evening at 7:30. Every body in vited to attend.

STEAM ENGINE TO FORD

The two-cylinder engine of the first late Saturday afternoon in a fall steam-driven automobile made by the slate. He suffered fractures of the Pope Company at Toledo, Ohio, more pelvis on both sides and underwent than a quarter century ago, will be placed in the Ford Museum, at Dear-hospital. The patient was employed really good remedy.

SOMERSET COUNTY MAN Timely Topics from HEADS NEW CONCERN

erset County Ministerial Association was held Monday morning at the Ferner Hotel, in Somerset. Rev. J. A.

Even the grave and dignified Brituberculosis at the institution.

The big business man had died and in all parts of the town during the open But "season" hours. gone to—well, not to heaven. But hardly had he settled down for a nice long smoke when a hearty hand slap-ped him on the back, and into his ear boomed the voice of a persistent salesman who had pestered him much ment.

"What appointment?"

A mission was opened here Sunday orning in the Catholic Church, by edemptorish Father from Baltimore.

Ser- MINER BADLY HURT

ried who lives in Hooversville, is, in a very serious condition in Memorial for the Baker-Whitely Coal Company.

the Game Commission

The following is the report made by the May Grand Jury to Judge John A. Berkey, Friday, after making an inspection of the several county buildings.

Report of Grand Jury: To the Honorable John A. Berkey President Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace of Somerset County.

We, the members of the Grand Jury convened for the regular session of the May term of Court, 1929, hereby beg leave to submit the following report:

By the direction of your honorable Court this 3rd day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric can Manus the following report:

By the direction of your honorable Court this 3rd day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric and Manus the following reports.

Court this Ard day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric and Manus the following reports.

Court this Ard day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric and Manus the following reports.

Court this Ard day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric and Manus the following reports.

Court this Ard day of May, 1929 we have visited the Somerset County Home and the Westinghouse Electric and Manus the following reports.

Prayer of Thunksgiving

"I give humble and hearty thanks for the safe return of this book, which, having endured the perils of my friend's bookcase, and the bookcase of my friend's friends, now returns to me in reasonably good condition.

"I give humble and hearty thanks that my friend did not see fit to give this book to his infant as a plaything, nor use it as an ash tray for his burning cigar, nor as a teething-ring for his martis." cigar, nor as a teething-ring to mastiff.

"When I lent this book, I deemed it as resigned to the bitterness of

ADMITTED 32 NEW PATIENTS AT CRESSON SANITARIUM

Thirty-two new patients at the State Sanitarium at the Summit were admitted recently. There are now 716 patients receiving treatment for

KISSING FESTIVAL HELD

at labor of this kind on the farm we believe it would be more humane to the prisoners and certainly would be more advantageous to the taxpayers of the county who are obliged to support the United States."

The applicant wrote: "1491 None."

—Printers' Ink Monthly

dea handed down from ancient rites took so well, that "smacks" were heard

RECALL FURLOUGHED MEN

Increase in business on the Yonghi gheny Division of the Pittsburgh and Lake Eric railroad has resulted in recal "Well, Mr. Smith," chortled the of furloughed engineers and salesman, "I'm here for the appoint- Ten acting firemen were returned to their posts as engineers and fifteen fire

GOODNESS GRACIOUS!

"Anything besides collars, shirts and handkerchiefs, sir? How about

MINER BADLY HURT
IN HOOVERSVILLE MISHAP
William Farkas, aged 54 and maried who lives in Hooversville, is, in a

"I ain't no social rounder, young feller, I don't join any big parades; when night comes, I go to bed."
—Portland Advertising Spotlight

VERY ANXIOUS TO HELP

Youth (making conversation)-Do

She Was Hunting a Hero

By AD SCHUSTER

61 HAVE no objection to your being athletic and independent," Caroline's mother spoke slowly, "but doesn't it strike you that you are in-tolerant of those who have other lightly. "But this I know. I am going West to the mountains. I am going to see big strong men who fear noth-Ing and who are of a different breed than those I have known. I am going to escape from the sissies and the highbrows and when I come back I—well, maybe I will have entirely reformed."

They grinned when the waiter spoke to me in Greek, but their laughter changed to astonishment at my ready reply: "I wanna roasta bif san'wich, str-romberw nie tree and about the complex street."

waited for the hero of the open spaces and the first man she saw, other than old Abe Potter, who with his wife owned the retreat, was Leroy Boone. Boone was tall and slen-der. He wore nose glasses and spoke in a low voice. Except for his woods-man's clothes he looked like a college man. Caroline was disappointed and yet Leroy was the only man within sight."
"I have been waiting to meet a man of the West," she said, giving him one of her best smiles. "I want to learn all about the customs and people."

"It is probable you will find us much like the men of any other place." He was amused at her en-thusiasm.

"You don't understand. I come from a little town in the East. I am vigorous and independent, in a place where girls are quiet and ladylike and men are studious and timid. I wish to forget books and science, and live with the trees and the hills. When I meet a man I want him to be a miner, hunter, or even a stage rob-ber. Can't you see?"

The man of the West removed his spectacles, drew out a handkerchief and cleaned the lenses with delibera-

"They don't rob stages out here any more," he said, "and most of the cow-boys have gone in the movies." After a moment of deliberation he added, "Maybe, by hunting long enough, I could scare you up a man whose fa-ther had been a cattle-rustler?" "I see," Caroline was offended. "You do not understand. But if life is so unexciting here why are you in the mountains?" mountains?"

"I might be a tourist like yourself but I'm not. You see I work for the biological survey."

biological survey."
"Mercy that's a queer thing to have in the hills! It means college education and books; that you are a student and not a real wild westerner after all. I didn't think," she caught herself before confessing she did not think his appearance was promising and continued, "I didn't think it would be so difficult to meet the kind would be so difficult to meet the kind of men I've read about."

When Leroy Boone came by again he brought her a rare flower he had found on the trail and again he smiled oddly when he saw she was not pleased.

"Your western man," he said, "the one you have pictured, would not have picked a flower and carried it so carefully. No—I think he would have been shooting the lights out of a sabeen shooting the lights out of a sa-leon or rescuing a leather-skirted girl from the hands of the villatinous fore-man of a rival ranch. It's too bad there isn't a motion picture house up here." He went his way, walking leisurely as a man with plenty of

"He's angry because I didn't thank "He's angry because I didn't thank him for his flower," Caroline decided. "Well, as soon as he understands I do not wish biological surveyors bringing me posies, I will be better satisfied. I can see plenty of men like him at home." And when she returned to the cabin she said nothing to the Pot-ters of the man who had no place in her picture or scheme.

her picture or scheme.

Several times more the girl met him and at last she admitted to herself there was something in his quiet, almost tolerant manner that attracted her even while it exasperated. But she would not surrender. She had taken the superior attitude and until he proved himself a hero, worthy of his environment, she would continue disdainful. By the time she came to distantial. By the time sine came to the leave they were as well acquainted as the peculiarly strained situation would allow.

"I am sorry you are going," he said,
"sorry because I will miss you and because you should stay long enough to get the real values of our West."

Was the man going to propose? And what would she say? Caroline felt suddenly her values had changed and that she was going to miss him. Then came that tantalizing smile and the hanter which enraged her. "If I were the sort you have been looking for I would kidnap you, throw you over a horse and take you to the parson. But as it is, I can only "Say good-by," finished Caroline and she hastened to the cabin vowing she would be glad to forget this man who had no right to pretend to be of her West. As Abe Potter drove her over to the station he mentioned Boone.

"He works for the biological survey," he said drawing the words out importantly. "They hires him to hunt mountain lions. Last week he got five ou often have indigestion?

Girl (astonished)—No!

Youth—What a pity! I know a leally good remedy.

—London Passing Show

Tm going to stay another week."

Memorial Day To Be Observed at Somerset

Two programs will be observed in Somerset on Memorial Day. At the Soldier's Monument, the address will be delivered by Rev. Leonard Hoover, pastor of the Somerset Methodist Episcopal Church. Music will be furnished by the Sons of Veterans Drum Corps, and Don Kimmel's band. Burgess W. H. Beachy will be chief marshall of the procession, which will move to Husband cemetery, where another schedule has been arranged in which the high school band with other organizations will take part.

FIFTEEN MINUTES A DAY DID IT

Caroline, in the mountain cabin, raited for the hero of the open paces and the first man she saw.

He: "I can tell you how much water

She: "If you know, tell us."
"Two pints."

Prices That Fairly Shout at You! We are "value headquarters" when it comes to furniture! Our policy of large volume and small profits, saves you money!

Buy on Terms!

A dignified, easy way to buy — no fuss or red tape! Ask about it!

SOMERSET, PA.

Moth by Glow

"Mc

Men and The Rom empire is a said, "Paracers." A Scounce of m lin's love and is axiomatic her, but ga "moidore," ward chaise Whistler's That erra Neill Whis this pictur gray and bl ly touched cellence. T as an old rene dignity gown, with ease, with earlier of h To the Wi which is

England's