Gentry Bros. Circus Coming to Meyersdale

With the arrival here today of J. C. Admire, one of the contracting agents of the Gentry Bros. Circus, preparations were actively started for the showing of this big circus in Meyersdale on Wednesday, May 29. Mr. Admire is traveling about one month in advance of the show and will be followed by scores of advertising :nen in the near future.

The Gentry Bros. Circus, now on its 41st annual tour, is said to be pre-senting a program of unparalleled merit this season. Always known for its high-class, clean and thrilling per formances the Gentry Bros. Circus has added new features this season that will give this circus a predomin ant position in the circus world.

Although most of the big circuse have discarded the traditional no day parade the Gentry Bros. Circus still retains this superb feature, Mr Admire stated today. Leaving the showgrounds promptly at 11 a.m. the gorgeous pageant will wend its way over the principal downtown streets. This will be one of the big features of the holiday for the circus-loving Only a few cities are being played by the big show in this section this season and much interest has been aroused in its approaching visit here Among the big features in the stu ndous program will be the Dare Devil Pacheco troupe of six, direct from Argentina, on their first tour of America; the famous Davenport fam ily of riders; the O'Neal Trio, intre pid gymnasts; the Perez-LaFlor troupe of aerialists; Arthur Borella the world's highest salaried clown and 30 assisting famous functors; the Cottrell-Powell troupe of equestrian artists; Royal Koban troupe of Japa nese acrobats and thrilling ground tumblers: Prof. John Griffin's Military band of 28 Musicians: Miss Jane Hinton one of the greatest Girl bare back riders the world has ever known; The Six Nevarros; Tommy and Peggy Holman wire walkers; in addition the big show is augmented with the Gen try Bros. Wild Animal exhibition Connellsville Port ards, tigers, pumas, jaguars,
