

FIFTH AVENUE CLOTHING CO.

Suits and Topcoats

$12.75

For College Men
For Business Men
For High School Chaps
For Dress-Up Wear

Fifth Avenue Suits and Topcoats are the best values in the country for the money.

Correct in cut, in line and drape, in button spacing, in trouser widths, in fabric and pattern. Whether you are going to college or to work, you'll want the kind of clothes that will help you get the right start—Fifth Avenue Clothes will give you that appearance—at a very moderate cost.

YOU MUST BE SATISFIED—otherwise we are not.

BASEMENT ROOM—GOODSTEIN-BALIS BUILDING

The store is under the personal direction of
HERMAN BALIS

NORTHAMPTON NEWS

The decoration service at Mt. Lebanon last Sunday was very largely attended. The service was beautiful and impressive. A large number of Sons of Veterans and Legions were present and took an active part. Rev. Gindlesperger delivered a very interesting address.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brant and Frank Raupach and wife and Laura Wiles motored to Mt. Pleasant last Sunday to see Mrs. Edgar Wagner, who is confined to her bed at this writing.

Mrs. Jacob Spaugy, of Garrett, visited at John Hittie's, last Monday.

D. H. Bauman and family visited at M. H. Bauman's, last Sunday.

Rose Bauman who was a student at California State Normal returned home last Saturday, to spend her vacation.

Ralph Poorbaugh, of Bucktown, visited his mother over Sunday.

Homer Pike, of Mt. Savage, and Joe Pike, of Keystone Mines attended decoration services at this place last Sunday.

Lydia Hartman was a shopper at Berlin, last Friday.

Emma Hartman, of Somerset, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Adam Cook.

Some of the farmers are still sowing oats and planting potatoes.

Our weather prophet said we had a heavy frost one night last week.

COAL RUN ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bisbing and Mrs. Susan Bisbing spent Sunday with Mrs. James Walker.

Harry Sheets and Pauline and Grace Walker spent Sunday at Fort Hill.

Mrs. Wm. Witt and son Leroy are spending a few weeks in Ohio.

Visitors at Mr. and Mrs. George May's on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence May and children, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hare and children, Mr. Stafford, all of Nanty-Glo, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stahl of Jerome.

Mrs. Harry Bluebaugh and children spent Monday evening with Mrs. F. F. Nolte.

Mr. Harry Bluebaugh and son Earl and Mr. Charles Wahl and son Charles and Mr. George Fisher were fishing at the Yough river on Thursday and Friday.

Robert Vought and family moved on the Bird farm vacated by Charley Stevanus.

Mrs. George Walker is spending a week at Fort Hill.

Mr. James Walker who is employed at Fort Hill is spending a few days at home.

Visitors at Charley Wahl's Sunday evening were Ray Wahl of Cumberland, Ethel and Ellis Pritts of Meyersdale and Hazel Ringler of Ohio.

Birthday Dinner

A birthday dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Nolte on Sunday, May 26th, in honor of their daughter, Edna, and Wilda Blanche Mellinger, their birthday being on the same day. Those present were: Mrs. Frank Mellinger and granddaughters Wilda Blanche and Mildred Mellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Johnston and Miss Pearl Johnston of Swanton, Md., Mrs. Jonas Bittinger of Bittinger, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell and daughter Doris, Mr. and Mrs. F. F.

Nolte and Edna Nolte. They both received a beautiful birthday cake and other pretty and useful gifts. A delicious dinner was served.

Miss Mabel Coughenour Expires at Glen Savage

Miss Mabel Coughenour, aged 24 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Coughenour, residing at Glen Savage, near Berlin, died Saturday in the Leech Hospital, at Pittsburgh. Death was caused by tuberculosis.

The deceased is survived by her parents and several brothers and sisters.

The body was brought overland late Saturday to Berlin by Undertaker J. N. Johnson. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Shaffer Lutheran Church, conducted by the Rev. C. P. Bastian, pastor of the Berlin Lutheran Church. Burial in the church cemetery.

A man up in Canada challenges Commander Byrd in the Antarctic to a game of chess by radio. It occurs to us that a game of freeze out would be more appropriate.

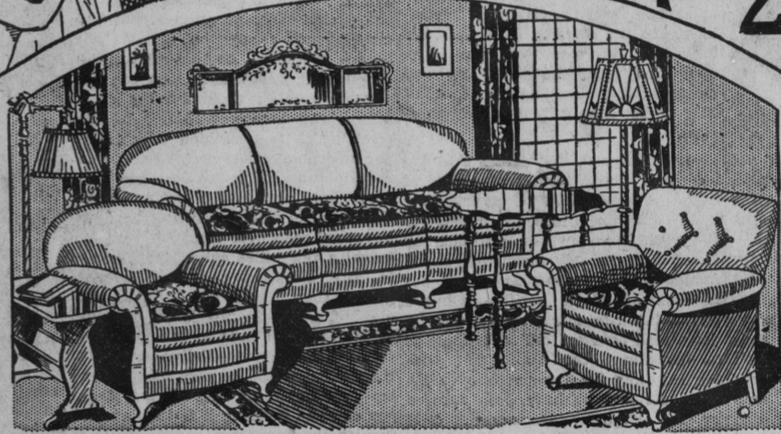

A LOVABLE OUTFIT

for June Brides

An outfit fit for the most exacting June Bride. Quality is high—workmanship the best. Buy any room separately at prices as shown below:

4 ROOMS
$299

9 Living Room Pieces

$131.75

If bought separately. Including handsome mohair davenport, and either club or button back chair. Loose spring filled cushions, with damask reverses. Other pieces are: junior lamp and shade, bridge lamp and shade, large mirror, occasional table and book trough end table. All for $131.75.

The 3 Bedroom Pieces

$97

A wonderful suite for very little money! Walnut veneered. Well made. A new and graceful style. Bed, dresser, and vanity included.

Kitchen Outfit

White enameled, porcelain top kitchen table, and two sturdy chairs to match are included in the 4-room outfit, or sold separately at..... $9.50

The 7 Dining Pieces

May be bought separately at $89! Buffet, large extension table, with 5-ply veneer top; six chairs, with velour seats, and cut-out backs. A suite beyond comparison at..... $89

Penn Furniture Co.

SOMERSET, PA.

ST. PAUL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Speicher and children of Akron, Ohio, spent from Friday until Monday at the home of Mrs. Speicher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McClintock.

Mrs. Amy Sipple and family spent Sunday visiting at the home of her brother-in-law, Samuel Thomas at Rockwood.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brenneman spent several days last week visiting relatives and friends at Bittinger, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Compton, who had been living in the Irvin Engle property here, moved to Compton's Mills last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKeeran recently moved on what was formerly known as the Simon Engle property, where Mr. McKeeran is engaged in raising chickens.

Rev. and Mrs. K. H. Beck and children went to Martinsburg, Pa., the first of this week to visit relatives there.

Mrs. Eber Cockley and daughter Evelyn of Boswell are spending this week at her parental home.

Norman and Pius Zimmerman dug a well for George W. Beals and struck a splendid stream of water.

B. J. Winters had a narrow escape with his life one day last week, while at work in the mines, when a car jumped the track and he was caught between the car and a cross beam. Fortunately no bones were broken.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Reformed Church will meet in regular session at the home of Mrs. Geo. Beals on Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

Pauline Sechler of Friedens spent last week at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Faidley.

BLOUGH NEWS

Ball Game
The Bough Independents suffered their first defeat of the season by the Bon Air ball team on the latter's diamond, the score being 10 to 6.

Falls of Bridge
Miss Josephine Bennock had the misfortune of falling off the Stonycreek Bridge into Stonycreek river. Miss Bennock was leaning on the railing which gave away. She was rescued by Walter Yunish. Miss Bennock received bruises of the back and lacerations of the head.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Short, Alma Dobbins and Pearl Heipple have gone to Akron, Ohio, for employment.

BOSWELL NEWS

Mrs. Charles White has returned from spending a few days in South Fork.

Irvin and Stewart Berkebile and Mrs. Leonard Shaffer, were called to Johnstown, on account of the serious illness of their sister, Mrs. Carl Adams.

Pete Greley and George Dove, moved their families and household goods to Boswell.

Wilhelma Howell spent Friday evening at Pete Lepley's.

Mrs. John Seders spent Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Ed. McGown.

Mrs. Chester Dobbins is on the sick list.

Nine airplanes passed over Blough, Sunday evening, all in a row.

Josephine Bennock, Wilhelma Howell, Blanch Bennock, Irene Howell, Mary Bennock and Madeline Howell, hiked to Maple Ridge on Sunday.

The old saying is, rain on Whit Sunday, rain for seven more Sundays, but the writer thinks it is the reverse, as it rained seven Sundays before Whit Sunday and it hasn't rained the past Sunday.

The Odd Fellows Hall Association of Boswell have advertised for bids for the erection of a two story fireproof building 50 by 80 feet on the lot recently purchased by the Association from Dr. C. R. Sprows on Main street. Directors of the Association are C. R. Ankeny, chairman; Eber Cockley, secretary; F. E. Shaffer, treasurer; L. L. Sprows and M. C. Warnick.

Warren Friedline was a Tuesday business caller in Somerset.

D. J. Williams and family motored to Berlin, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kirby were week end visitors in town.

Isaac Weinstein, of New York, was a business caller here Monday.

John Kircher, local insurance man, was a business caller in Kimmelton, Mostoller and Shanksville the past week.

John Sprows, of Claysville, was a Sunday caller in town.

R. R. Straub, C. R. Ankeny, A. O. Lape, M. C. Warnick, W. B. Hay, Clyde Zimmerman and C. J. Boyer were Thursday evening callers in Somerset.

A. W. Zimmerman, of Ralphton, was calling on Boswell friends, Monday.

The Boswell I. O. O. F. degree team visited Stonycreek Lodge Tuesday evening and conferred a degree on a class of candidates.

Mrs. H. Vincent and son, Clyde, were week end visitors to Akron.

L. L. Sprows and George Burket were Monday visitors to Davidsville.

Alex Jeffreys was a Sunday visitor to Lonaconing.

J. H. Deardorff was a business caller at Cherry Tree.

Park M. Weimer was a business caller in Somerset, Monday.

SALISBURY NOTES

George Miller and granddaughter, Miss Mildred Miller, of Accident, Md., visited Mr. Miller's brother, Frank Miller and family; also his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Menhorn.

Irvin McKinzie, of Uniontown, Pa., visited his brother, Henry McKinzie, a few days, who has been very sick is very slowly improving, owing to having high blood pressure and other ailments.

"Curt" Showalter is very busy planting this morning, all that is necessary afterwards is free use of the hoe. That is where we all get our start. Hope he gets a good crop.

Mrs. Henrietta Smouse and Mrs. Jake Glotfelty and son, Mike, and three grandsons of Mrs. Glotfelty's, of Maryland, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffman, of near town, called on Henry McKinzie, Sunday evening, also near neighbors during the week.

Herman Menhorn and grandson, Albert and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, spent a few hours at St. Paul Cemetery cleaning up, one day last week.

Mr. Handwerk is moving his belongings to his son, near Springs, Pa. Ralph Hazelbarth has rented the property vacated by his grandfather, and will raise feed for his rabbits, as he is in the rabbit business and has some very fine ones, if you want to buy give him a call, if it is quality you want.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Bowers and children, of Somerset, were Salisbury visitors, Sunday.

MT. VIEW

Visitors at Ed. Humbertson's Sunday were: Mrs. Milton Opel, Mrs. Milton Bodes and children, Ray and Anna, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Humbertson and family, Mr. Ralph Humbertson.

Miss Edna Maust spent Sunday with Miss Margaret Gowns.

Clyde Newman and children, Mildred and Paul, were callers at M. H. Opel's, Monday.

Miss Dorothy Opel is spending two weeks at Clyde Newman's near Frostburg, Md.

Sunday visitors at Lewis Maust's were: Mr. and Mrs. Omer Bender, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Maust and family, Mr. and Mrs. Noah Maust and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Maust.

Misses Nannie and Verma Maust and Asa Maust spent Sunday at Maryland. Harvey Maust's spent Sunday at Evans Miller's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Saylor spent Sunday at Howard Maust's.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Opel and family, were callers at George Witt's, on Sunday evening.

SUBSCRIBE FOR COMMERCIAL