Maxine Hostetler, of Meyersdale, and Grace Berkley, of Somerset, are spend-ing several days with their grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Faidley. On Sunday while Eugene Lepley was trying to lower a swing fastened to a limb of an apple tree he slipped and fell-off the limb. Fortunately one of his feet caught in a rope loop back of him and he found himself suspended between the earth and the apple limb. His mother heard his screams and imme-diately came to his release. He was none the worse for his experience.
