REUNION OF KEEFER CLAN

The first annual reunion of the Keefer Clan was held at the Andrew Glessner Farm, near Fairhope, Somerset county, Sunday, September 22. One outstanding feature of the reunion was the fact that there were no Keefer's present, due to the fact that there was only one son, Hiram Keefer in the Daniel Keefer family, and he migrated to the far west in his early youth and has only been back to his native county, once, and that was about fifteen years ago.

There were twelve daughters present: Miss Gertrude McIntyre, of Johnstown; Mr. and Mrs. William Rayman and daughter, Glenda, of Friedens; Mr. and Mrs. Forest Swearman and children, Evelyn, Ruth, and twins, Estelle and Esther, of Somerset; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Platt and children, Pearl and John, Goldie and Ella May, of Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. George Baer and children, Leo, Glen, Mary and Allen J., of Meyersdale; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gindlesperger and children, Ruth, Helen and Dorothy, of Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. John Keller, of Shanksville, and daughter, Miss Evelyn Stall, of Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glessner and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Weigle and children, Ruth, Hazel, Alberta and Delbert, of Listie; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Mostoller and children, Gladys and Miriam, of Coleman; Mrs. John Brick and daughter, Mrs. Herman Hostetler, of Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. George Brick, of Johnsburg.

Other friends and relatives present were: Mrs. E. M. Swearman, of Meyersdale; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Groff, of Berlin; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaffer and Mrs. Emma Gindlesperger, of Berlin; George Groff and daughter, Myrtle, of Fairhope; Howard Hostetler, Miss Grace Brick, Mr. and Mrs. Reno Mostoller and children, Kathryn and Marian.

Mrs. Lester Weigle and Mrs. Forest Swearman had charge of the reunion. The oldest sister present is eighty years old and the youngest one is twenty-six. It was a very happy occasion for the family and also the first time some of the sisters had ever met.

They are now delivering frankfurters by aeroplane in New York, but so far as we are concerned we are not in such a great hurry for ours.
