The pavement of the First National Bank building has been completed. Physicians say that the recent hot wave left a train of those unpleasant ailments known as summer colds.

Now for the annual wrestle with humid August. Numerous properties throughout the city have been repainted and otherwise improved during the past few months.

About 100 National Guardsmen are already at Mt. Gretna. They are preparing the camp sites for the various regiments.

The butchers say that the hot weather is beginning to affect their trade. Notwithstanding their complaints they continue to display a great variety and the choicest kinds of meats for their customers.

The superintendent of Berks county says the lowest salary paid a teacher in a Berks county township is $25 a month and the highest $40.

One half hour after the nomination of R. K. Polk by Northumberland county Democrats a telegram was received from the gentleman. It was read to the convention which he thanked for its endorsement.

Monday twenty-two telegraphers in the Pennsylvania railroad superintendent's office at Harrisburg were given a wage raise dated July 1.

Now that the month of August is here and sickness is prevalent it would be well for the residents of this city to see that the gutters in front of their homes are thoroughly cleaned.

The Masons of Catawissa will hold a picnic at DeWitt's park Tuesday, Aug. 7th.

A Philadelphia firm yesterday erected a handsome monument over the grave of William Faux, in Mt. Vernon cemetery.

STEEL WORKERS SEEK EXONERATION

At the Hands of the Amalgamated Association. The steel workers of this city, who refused to fill the places of striking workmen at the plant of the Potomac Steel Company, at Cumberland, Md., are now after exoneration at the hands of the Amalgamated Association.

Fell From a Passenger Train. J. M. Levy, a Philadelphia traveling man, fell from a Lackawanna railroad passenger train yesterday and narrowly escaped serious, if not fatal, injuries.

Working on a Big Contract. The employees of the marble yard of T. L. Evans & Sons are now hard at work upon the big contract, which that firm has taken to supply the stone work for the front of the new Market street National Bank, Shamokin.

New Factory in Operation. The firm of Rosenstein & Lipschitz have commenced operations at their overall and shirt factory in the Ammerman building, on East Market street.

Will be in the Big Combine. The P. L. Brewing Company, of this city, yesterday received a communication from the Schuylkill Brewing Company, the corporation organized for the purpose of securing control of the breweries of Montour, Northumberland and Schuylkill counties, which stated that all of the $4,000,000 capital stock has been pledged.

Attorney Scarlet Appeared. C. G. Voris, Esq., attorney for the Mountain Water Company and James Scarlet, Esq., of Danville, representing the M. Iton Water Company, were before the attorney general at Harrisburg Tuesday, arguing the application of the latter corporation for a writ of quo warranto to restrain the Mountain Water Company from putting in a plant in Milton. The decision was reserved.

A Big Appropriation. The free rural service is expected this year to be widely extended, as it has a larger appropriation than ever before, the whole amount available July 1, this year being $1,750,000.

Taken Ill at the Picnic. As the result of eating something which did not agree with him, Frank Keas was taken suddenly ill at the K. of P. picnic yesterday afternoon and was brought home in a cab. Dr. Paules gave him medical attention and Mr. Keas was much improved last evening.

Clothing Did Not Arrive. The members of Company F will not receive their flannel shirts and duck trousers until they reach camp at Mt. Gretna. Requisitions for these articles were made some weeks ago, but they failed to arrive.
