ATTORNEY GARMAN ACCUSED.

Denies Charges of Attempting to Bribe a Wilkesbarre Councilman, Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 8.-The in-vestigation of the bribery charges in city council were continued yesterday. Councilman Santee, who swore on Monday that he had been offered a bribe by George J. Llewellyn, was called for cross examination. When ques-tioned as to why he waited seven months before he informed councils that one of its members had been bribed or an attempt made to do so, he said he was reluctant to inform on his friend Llewellyn, and he knew it would be hard to prove a charge.

Councilman Thomas Wheatley, who was instrumental in bringing about the investigation, testified that he met Attorney John M. Garman in an eating house in this city a little over a month ago, and that they started to discuss municipal affairs, including the efforts of a new electric railway company from Scranton to gain admission in Wilkesbarre, Witness knew that Mr. Garman was attorney for the company. Mr. Garman asked the councilman what he would take for his vote. Mr. Wheatley wanted to know what he was willing to pay, and the attorney said $600. Witness said the other side were paying $800. Mr. Garman then said that in case the Scranton franchise was secured Wheatley's vote might be worth $5,000. This ended the conversation, and the witness said nothing to any one until he exposed the matter in council. Mr. Garman swore that he never ofed the matter in council.

fered Wheatley a cent of money, that he was not authorized to offer it and that the company he represented did not have money to spend in that way. Another witness corroborated Mr. Garman's testimony to a more or less extent, Mr. Wheatley's testimony was not corroborated.
