TORNADO IN WISCONSIN.

Eight Large Buildings and Two Hundred Small Houses Blown Down. Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 21.-A tervific wind storm struck this city yesterday, coming suddenly from the north. Eight large buildings were completely wrecked and 200 small houses were blown down, causing a loss of $300,000. At noon it was as dark as night and intensely hot. A few moments before 1 o'clock the storm broke, increasing in force until it became a tornado. People were thrown down and fences and signs hurled hundreds of feet. The storm, which raged for only ten minutes, was two miles wide and wrecked the buildings.

The street car barns were wrecked and cars were smashed to pieces. The electric wires were all blown down The roof of the warehouse of the Crocker Chair company was blown off and thrown against the factory, wrecking the building. The tent on a horse and pony show was torn from the ground and blown away, leaving the animals to run panic stricken through the city. The roof of the Schrier brewery was lifted from the building and carried over 150 yards. The steeple of the Lutheran church was blown down onto two residences, smashing in the roofs. The fourth ward school house was completely wrecked.

The wind wrecked buildings with the greatest rapidity, and there was little warning of the approach of the storm. The people in every case, however, were out of their houses before the storm struck and those who were hit by flying debris were only slightly infured In the factories the employes were in many cases bruised and cut from wreckage.

Four Persons Drowned and One Burned to Death.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.-Four drownings and one death by burning is Pittsburg's fatal accident record for the day. The dead are: Chris. Paffenbach, aged 50, fell from a raft in the Allegheny river, years old, fell from a raft while fishing in the Allegheny river and was drowned before he could be rescued; James Gallagher and Hugh McGrady. boys, were drowned together while swimming in the Monongahela. Mc-Grady got beyond his depth and Gallagher in attempting to rescue him was pulled under, and neither came to the surface again. Mrs. Mary C. Boyd, wife of the assistant superintendent of the New York and Cleveland Coal company at Oak Hill, was burned to death n a peculiar manner. She was cleaning a rusty saw and was using what she thought was elaine oil as a cleanser. She placed the five gallon can on the floor about six feet from the stove and turned around to get a rag. Immediately there was an explosion. She ran from the house a mass of flames, and though her husband quickly wrapped her in a blanket and smothered the flames, she was so badly burned that she died in agony three hours later. Mr. Boyd thinks his wife had the gasoline can instead of the oil can, which would account for the explosion. While the neighbors were working over Mrs. Boyd her house burned to the ground.

Insane Fugitive Captured. Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Aug. 20 .- Harry N. Hancock, the young man from Fish-kill, who escaped from an attendant who was taking him to th Hudson River State Hospital for the Insane Saturday, appeared at a farm house on the country place of John A. Roose velt, on the Hyde Park road yesterday and asked for breakfast. He was on the verge of collapse. He was still wearing the clothes of the Italian laborer whom he halted in the woods and forced to exchange attire. The farmer recognized him, gave him something to eat and sent word to the hospital authorities and a number of attendants arrived and overpowered the fugitive.

Brother Finds Sister Murdered.

New York, Aug. 20. — Catherine Scharf, aged 22, was beaten to death with a hammer in her rooms on the second floor of 674 Second avenue some time during Saturday, the body not being found until yesterday morn-Her brother made the discovery when he came home early in the morning. The woman's body lay in a pool of blood, face downward. Nearby on the floor was a bloody hammer and the rooms had been ransacked of everything of value. It is the opinion of the police that a thief entered the house and was surprised in his work by the girl and that he killed her to prevent identification.

Date of Big Fight Again Changed. New York, Aug. 20.-The management of the Seaside Athletic club has again changed the date of the Fitzsimmons-Sharkey fight. The date originally set for the contest was Aug. 24, but on account of the great crowd that would be drawn to the island on the 25th to see the Futurity run at Sheepshead Bay race track, the management, with a view of obtaining an increased attendance, made the date of the bout Saturday, Aug. 25.

Thursday night a determined effort was made to wreck a Plant system passenger train at Aimars Mill, where the negro Small, one of those said to have taken part in the murder of Curtis, was killed. The switch lock was broken and crossties were placed on the track, but the arrival of a freight train ahead of the passenger prevented the wrecking of the passenger. Three miles of wire along the line of the Plant system have been cut, it is believed, by negroes. During the night several negroes were taken from their houses and severely whipped by crowds of whites for alleged incendiary speeches they had made. This incensed the negroes very much and was condemned by the more conservative whites of that section. About 1 o'clock in the morning a small shop occupied by a negro at Liberty City was found on fire. A crowd gathered and a man named Gordon threw a keg of powder into the flames. Gordon was seriously if not fatally burned. It was with great difficulty that surrounding property was saved. The rumor then began to spread that the negroes intended to attack and fire every house in and around Liberty City. This led the sheriff to call on the governor for troops, saying the latter was beyond his control. Detachments of the two cavalry troops in Liberty county and armed citizens are patrolling the streets of Liberty City and most of the vomen and children have left the

John James Ingalls was born at Middleton, Mass., Dec. 29, 1833. He graduated from Williams college in 1855, and two years later was admited to the bar. He then moved to Kansas. He was a lawyer and a hater slavery. In 1859, when he had been in his new home only a year, he was a delegate to the Wyandotte constitu tional convention, and was a leader among those by whom slavery was excluded from the territory. He was secretary of the territorial council in 1860, and when Kansas was admitted into the Union he was made secretary of the state senate. From 1863 to 1865 he was in the volunteer service of the state, serving as major, lieutenant colonel and judge advocate. In 1873 he was elected to the United States senate to succeed Senator S. C. Pomeroy. He was re-elected to the senate in January, 1879, after a spirited contest, and was a second time reelected in 1885. He retired from the senate, however, at the end of his third term in 1891, when he was de-feated by William A. Peffer, the Popu-list, by a vote of nearly two to one in the joint convention of the legislature. This was the first time in the history of Kansas that a United States senator had been chosen who owed no allegiance to the Republican party, and was elected without its aid.

Mr. Ingalls went to Washington to take his seat in the senate a bitter partisan, and such he remained to the end of his 18 years of service in that body, as it was probably not in his na-ture to change. Since Mr. Ingalls' retirement from the senate his attention had been devoted chiefly to literary pursuits, and his name has frequently appeared in daily and monthly periodieals as the author of descriptive or controversial articles.

a Letter He States That St. Paul New York, Aug. 20. — Governor Roosevelt yesterday gave out for pub lication a letter which he had written on Aug. 9 to Gen. John M. Palmer, of Springfield, Ills., relative to the St Paul speech made by the governor, in which he had been quoted as making derogatory remarks concerning Democrats. The letter says in part:

"You have evidently seen a report which was not merely garbled. *:t falsified. I stand by this speech was lutely, and have nothing to exp'an in connection with it, but I do wish to point out where its meaning was deliberately inverted. "In my speech I began by saying:

'We appeal not only to Republicans but to all good citizens who are Americans in fact as well as in name to help us in re-electing President Mc-Kinley.' I ended by saying: 'Study the Kansas City platform and you cannot help realizing that their policy the policy of its makers and sponsors is a policy of infamy, that their tri-umph would mean misery so widespread that it is almost unthinkable and a disgrace so lasting that more than a generation would have to pass before it could be wiped out. They stand for lawlessness and disorder, for dishonesty and dishonor, for license and disaster at home and cowardly shrinking from duty abroad. We ask the support of all Americans who have to 75 cents per piece. the welfare of the country at heart, no matter what their political affilia-tions may have been in the past."

CUBA'S CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION. Gomez Wants Everyone but Revolu- 51065. tionists Barred Out.

Havana, Aug. 21.-Gen. Maximo Gomez publishes a letter in La Lucha regarding the election of delegates to the forthcoming constitutional convention which he asks all the papers of the island to print. Gen. Gomez says in part:

"Ideas must not be confronted with ciples should be saved even at the cost of life. The convention should consist of genuine revolutionists and it will so consist, unless the people, flattered by fine words, allow what they have conquered to be taken away from them Nobody should be allowed to enter the convention who formerly defamed the revolution, unless Cubans wish to outrage honor and sacred duty.

"The enemy is working hard, but let Cubans remember that those who opposed the revolution cannot be ac cepted at the last moment. Many rich and intellectual persons have shown opposition to the revolution. All these should be left out. Patriotism has the right to chose the most worthy-not the most wise-until the republic is established.

PINANCE AND TRADE. Dun's Mercantile Agency's Report on

Business Situation. New York, Aug. 18.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: After a great wave of advancing prices, optimism as to business is generally dangerous. But the top was reached the middle of March, since which time reaction has come in every great industry, so that consumers whether in some directions the decline may not have been unreasonably large, as was the advance, and whether buying on the present basis of prices is not fairly sure. There are further evidences of weakness in raw materials, notably the break in structural iron, but each one is availed of to place heavy contracts. It is becoming more apparent that the bottom has been reached in prices of iron and steel. The decline was severe and recovery must be slow, but gradual advances and moderately increasing activity are more healthy than violent changes. In no single division is the improvement more striking than in any other. Except steel rails, all forms of iron, from the ore to the finished product, are being sought more eagerly and with less effort to secure further concessions in

The first effect of the report of the wheat condition, indicating a total crop of only 513,997,000 bushels, was to strengthen prices, but when the secretary of agriculture was reported as oredicting "dollar wheat" before the end of the year, the market showed an inclination to disagree, and the September option fell below 80 cents at New York for the first time in two and 24 in Canada, against 24 least year
