SUICIDE OF A NUN. Said She Had Disgraced Her Family

by Falling in Love. New York, Aug. 27 .- The French line steamer L'Aquitaine, which ar-rived yesterday from Havre, had a death among the cabin passengers. Margaret Minehan, a former nun, com-mitted suicide by jumping overboard at 5 a. m. on Aug. 23. The alarm was quickly given, a boat was lowered and the woman was picked up, but too late to restore her to consciousness. A Roman Catholic priest among the passengers performed a burial service over the remains, assisted by a number of other priests and nuns who were on board the steamer, and the body was committed to the sea. Miss Minehan had confided to some of her fellow passengers that she had been a nun, but her love for a young man caused her to leave the convent, and she felt she had disgraced her family. She said she was on the way to her brother, a priest located in Pennsyl-

Our Warship to Support a Claim. Tangiar, Morocco, Aug. 27 .-- A United States warship has arrived here to support the claim arising out of the murder last June of Marcos Essagin, a naturalized American citizen, who was he manager of the Fez branch of the French firm of Braunsweig & Co. Essagin, while riding on horseback through a narrow street in Tangier, folded against the mule of a Moroccan religious fanatic, and a dispute en-sued, the crowd siding with the priest. ## PRINCE TUAN'S AMBITION.

French Consul Says It Fomented the

Troubles in China. Marseilles, Aug. 28.—M. Francois, French consul at Yun Nan Sen, arrived here yesterday afternoon aboard the steamer Tonkin. When questioned with regard to the causes of the troubles in China he replied that the first cause was the hatred the natives felt for the foreigners. After that, in his judgment, came the overwhelming ambition of Prince Tuan, the inspirer of the imperial policy. "Tuan, it was," said M. Francois,

"who prepared everything. able by his Machiavellian skill and by the assistance of his creatures to get an imperial order delivered the same day in all the provinces of China di-recting the massacre of foreigners if they refused to leave the country." Referring to the danger run by a colony so small as that at Yun Nan, he said:

"It was so great that I am certain a formal order to massacre us had already arrived from Pekin. Fearing our means of defense, the mandarins dared not act, but they tried to hinder our departure by pillaging our bag-gage. Finally the fan tai, or secretary general, proposed to accord to us an authorization to leave on condition that we placed hostages in the hands of the Chinese authorities. This I refused with indignation, declaring that I intended to leave June 24, and that I was ready to cut my way through all obstacles. It was just then that the dispatches from M. Delcasse
