PENN'A R. R.
EAST. 7.13 A. M. 10.17 " 2.21 P. M. 6.09 " SUND.	WEST 9.14 A. M. 12.38 P. M. 4.53 " .51 " DAYS. 1.53 P. M.
		10.17 A. M.	1.55 Г. М.
		D. L. & W	V. R. R.
		EAST.	WEST.
		6.58 A. M.	9.09 A. M.
		10.19 "	12.47 P. M.
2.11 P. M.	1.35 "
6.10 	8.20 "
SUND	and the second
6.58 A. M. 6.10 P. M.	12.47 P. M. 8.20 "
PHIL'A & RE.	ADING R. R.
NORTH.	SOUTH.
7.42 A. M. 4.00 P. M.	11.25 A. M. 6.05 P. M.
BLOOM S
7.44 A. M, 4.02 P. M.	11.23 A. M. 6.04 P. M.
B. J. S. MEISFO SURGEON DE DEPICE ON MILL ST. , Op Operative and Mechanic erformed, Teeth positi- ain, with Gas, Ether an i , and Filling teeth as:	ENTIST, posite the Post Of cal Dentistry Care vely extracted wi d Chloroform: T

WM. KASE WEST,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Office over Paules' Drug Store MONTGOMERY BUILDING. ILL STREET. . . DANVILLE, PA

J. J. BROWN.

THE EYE A SPECIALTY. Eyes tested, treated, fitted with glass es and artificial eyes supplied.

311 Market Street, Bloomsburg, Pa. Hours-10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Telephone 1436

A RECEPTION FOR NEW PASTOR.

large numbers, the reception tendered working for Robert Adams. Thursday night to the new pastor. Rev. B. F. Dimmick, D. D. The reception was held in the church parlors, which were tastefully decorated for the occasion, and during the evening Dr. Dimmick had an opportunity to see and aged 20 years, son of Erick Seaholm, a speak with nearly all of the members prominent resident of this city, was of the church, for very few stayed killed in a battle in the Philippines last away.

Dr. Dimmick was born in Pennsylvania and educated at Ohio Wesleyan university graduating in the class of '74. He received his doctor's degree as an international courtesy from Toronto university, Canada. Dr. Dimmick has serv ed many churches during the past years, and in all of them has made a fine record. The members of Wesley Chapel have taken on new life with his appearance here, and say every effort is to be gardless of party affiliations. made to regain lost ground.

During the evening, chocolate, coffee and wafers were served and Bonelli's orchestra furnished the music.

HOLD UP A PAY WAGON.

Connellsville Coke Company's pay wagon about a mile west of this place yesterday afternoon. With double team Elect him and you will have a man in and wagon, in which was a safe con- office that is worthy of the honor. taining some $5,000 for the Alverton workmen, were the paymaster. Will-and James White. his cousin, fatally wounded yesterday. Josiah White, an uncle of the two men, is alleged to have done the shooting, which it is claimed, was the result of a family quarrel. do in Paris. Ths Whites are farmers and their home is in Sweet Valley, near here. They were engaged in a lawsnit last Friday. This is alleged to have precipispectively "teasers" and "ticklers." tated the tragedy. A posse is in pursuit of Josiah White, who, it is claimed. fled immediately after the shooting. When you go to vote keep in mind the conditions that existed in business affairs during the last Democratic administration.

STRUCK IT RICH. Scranton, Pa., Oct. 30.-Word was received here yesterday that Daniel Meiss, formerly a tailor of this city, had struck it rich during the past week in Montana. having acquired possession for a trifling sum of a mine which later develoyed into a bonanza. His strike is said to be worth $100,000.

For Jury Commissioner vote for J. Press.

F. Patterson of Derry township. KILLED HIS LITTLE SISTER. Carlisle, Pa., Oct. 30.-Herman Kutz, 18 years old, of near here accidentally shot and killed his three-yearold sister yesterday. Kutz had returned home with a gun which had just been repaired, and, not knowing it was loaded, pulled the trigger. The entire charge of shot took effect in the tot's head.

DEATH CLEARS A MYSTERY. McKeesport, Pa., Oct. 30-Word has pern received here that Otto Seaholm, Tuesday. He was a member of Company F. Seventeenth Infantry.

Seaholm had been mysteriously miss ing from his home for two years. The notice of his death was the first heard of him in that time.

John G. Brown of Danville, who is running for Register and Recorder, is worthy of the support of all voters re-

Great Cure of an Editor. "For two years all efforts to cure Eczema in the palms of my hands failed," writes Editor H. N. Lester, of Syracuse, Kan., "then I was wholly cured by Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's the Mount Pleasant, Pa., Oct. 31 .- Four world's best for eruptions, sores and all Hungarians held up the South-west skin diseases. Only 25c at Paules & Co Sheriff David Ruckel sounds well.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.

IS TEA A POISON? AMERICANS MORE RATIONAL. We Are Falsely Charged by Euro-

Rabbits. peans With Being Undignified. Dr. J. H. Kellogg declares that tea is Our crowds may and do have ripan active poison-that its active princi- important, but autumn's possibilities roaring times when the occasion demands it, but surely they do not becan be tilled from tort, is facul to life. illed from tea in a dry recome asinine as do European crowds.

paper offices looking at bulletins, but even on election night they don't rush away in mad, screaming hordes, every few moments yelling hysterically "a bit, and 712 grains will kill a cat. In tractive. There is nothing radically bas" something or somebody, as they a pound of tea there is an ounce of poion, enough to kill 50 cats.

In London wherever crowds gather Ten grains of thein will make a mat for any purpose, from an unveiling to ill, and a half ounce of tea contains an excursion, street hawkers are on rom 10 to 16 grains. hand with two things that they call re-Professor Lehmann, a German physicated.

ian, gave several men from eight to The "teaser" is an empty bladder tied ten grains of thein each by way of exto a stick, and the "tickler" is a long periment. None of them was able to feather. The "teaser" is affected most ork for two days. by the male representatives of English There are tea drunkards. There have should be just "sweetened to taste," dignity, and the "tickler" captures the ea drinking. By chewing tea leaves people can become thoroughly intoxi-The woman who is tired takes a cup of tea and is relieved of her weariness. But the sensation of weariness is a langer signal. Under the influence of lies alone must keep to the old propora stimulant she does not know when tions to give them proper consistency. she goes beyond the limits of safe ex-are as undignified as are the coster-mongers of London? We have no class ertion. Tea is a drug, not a food. Not only does tea contain no nourishthat delights in wearing grotesquely ment, but it interferes with digestion. bell shaped trousers with huge peari The craving for it is not natural, as is buttons down the sides and coats with the desire for food. Taste must beimmensely broad braid bindings and come vitiated by its habitual use bealso profusely covered with pearl butfore it becomes an apparent necessity tons as big as trade dollars .- New York Children drink it for the cream and sugar, older people for the effect. Huge Modern Caravansary. Every one knows that tea contains "The modern hotel," said the manager of one of Washington's big hostelries, annin. Add a little iron to tea, and it becomes black. Tea made in an iron "has developed into a municipality in it-self. The business has undergone a great kettle is as black as ink. Even stirring a strong cup of tea with an iron change within the past 15 years, and buildings and methods then in vogue have been greatly enlarged and modified. With spoon will make it turn black. The combination of the tannin of the tea with iron makes ink. Leather is made Waldorf-Astoria it was considered that the limit in hotel construction and by soaking hides in a decoction of bark management had been reached, and there which contains tannin. A man who eats a beefsteak and will ever be relegated to second place. I have no doubt, however, that within 50 years the metropolis will have a hotel as fond feminine heart. The male goes into rantures of joy when he succeeds in hitting somebody-a respectable elderly gentleman preferred-with his toy. The female trips gayly through the streets, tickling the ears of masculine persons to whom she has not been

And among our "lower orders," who introduced.

proved.

Chiggers on Turkeys.

question confronting most tur-The key raisers at present is "How can I manage my turkeys so as to reduce the death rate of the young flock?"

late day:

thing else."

this. The only remedy known to us is grease, and too much of that is fatal to the poults. If the gentleman meant mites, which often infest poultry buildings, liquid lice killer and whitewash will exterminate them. The houses or

FALL PRESERVING.

One of Its Elements Kills Cats and less Sugar Now Used With Fruits. Putting Up Peaches and Pears. Spring and summer preserving

ple, a substance called thein, which are the richest of the year. The preparing of peaches, pears, plums, quinces, blueberries (the one fruit The thein in tea is about 6 per cent which is as good cooked or preserved of the total bulk. Experiments have as raw), besides all the pickling and proved that one-eighth of a grain of it relish making-the list of delicacies the will kill a frog, 5 grains will kill a rab- housewife can make is irresistibly atnew in methods or results, but there are always variations of the common ways of making the old specialties. In these days of rich and varied living we feel a digestive recoil from old fashioned pound for pound preserves, popular up to a decade ago. "Preserves" today means or should mean one-half to three-fourths of a pound of sugar to one pound of fruit. Canned fruit been cases of delirium tremens from which should never mean more than one-fourth of a pound of sugar to one dealing missiles in every direction. pound of fruit. Even jams and mar-There were screams and a heartrendmalades are better if made in the proing groan, mirrors crashed, the house portion of two-thirds or three-fourths shook, women fainted and walls rockof a pound of sugar to one pound of ed to and fro. fruit instead of pound for pound. Jel-"When the first confusion was over, it was discovered that in all the crowd was the bride herself. She lay partly For any and all preserving, canning and jelly and jam making use only a on the floor and partly in her lover's porcelain lined iron kettle and wooden arms, crushed and bleeding, pale, but or silver spoons, says a writer in Wovery beautiful, her bridal gown drenchman's Home Companion, who gives the ed with warm blood and a great cut in following among other recipes: her breast. Do not waste time, sugar and jars on "Laying her on a lounge, the frantic fruit that is inferior. Fill a wire basbridegroom besought her by every ket holding a couple of quarts with term of tenderness and endearment to selected peaches and plunge it into a allow the ceremony to proceed, to pot of boiling water, letting it remain from three to five minutes, according to lying like a crushed flower no less white than the camellias of her bridal the ripeness of the fruit. Remove now and roll out on a platter. Skin and if to be canned drop into hot jars, as no more cooking will be necessary, then cover with boiling hot sirup and seal. Make the sirup of 11/2 pints of sugar to a quart of water, boiling 15 minutes. and all was over. Peaches are best when canned whole,

"She was laid to rest under the magbecause of the flavor the pit gives nolias, and the heartbroken bridethem. If halved, four or five pits groom, reckless with despair, returned should be put into each jar. In preto his regiment." serving peaches first weigh the skinned THE IRISH PEASANT.

weight in sugar. Make a sirup of this sugar in the proportion of one pint to He Is the Gavest Fellow In the one-half pint of water. As soon as it boils skim until clear, add the fruit, heaven, what Sir Walter Scott called er allowing it to boil violently, until him after the visit of the great novelist to Ireland in the early thirties-he is The Duchess is perhaps the finest still "the gayest fellow in the world under difficulties and afflictions." He has a cheerful way of regarding circumstances which to others would be most unpleasant and disheartening. A peasant met with an accident which few and never could tell why they and neatly core it and then lay it on a bors of course commiserated him. 'Arrah." he remarked, with a gleam of atisfaction in his eye as he regarded the bandaged limb, "what a blessing it is that it wasn't me neck." ioke for every occasion. Two countrymen who had not seen each other for a ing water to the parings as it wastes long time met at a fair. They had a lot of things to tell each other. "Shure it's married I am," said O'Brien. "You don't tell me so!" said Blake. "Faith, return it to the kettle, adding for canves," said O'Brien, "an I've got a fine, "Tell Mrs. Mackey that the trouble is ned pears one-half as much sugar as healthy bhoy which the neighbors say is the very picter of me." Blake looked served pears twice as much sugar. As for a moment at O'Brien, who was not, soon as the sirup has boiled enough to to say the least, remarkable for his good looks, and then said, "Och, well, chigger which buries itself in the flesh as can be managed without crowding. what's the harrum so long as the child's healthy?" And yet a peasant

hard to exterminate and very painful the fruit looks somewhat transparent

Cucumber Pickles.

vinegar.-Table Talk.

New Picealilli,

Maryland Chicken.

MARYLAND CHICKEN.

one pint of cream over the chicken,

Hardly That.

Gump-So you have gone out of poli-

Gump-Retired to private life, I sup-

Slump-Oh, no: not quite that. We

Force of Habit.

Miss Gushy-Mr. Tipps is so impulsive. He carries everything before

Miss Gabby-Yes, of course he does

He used to be a waiter,-St. Louis

Horrid Fear.

He-Well, the miners have finally gone on strike. That means a coal

She-Gracious! I wonder if it will live in a flat.-Detroit Free Press.

Home Companion

Slump-Yes.

Post-Dispatch.

tics?

him.

famine.

The old fashioned, ever popular pic-

Wash and wipe a half peck of small green cucumbers. Pack them in a jar or large bowl, pour over a brine made with one-half a pint of salt and two coops must be whitewashed early in quarts of boiling water. Let stand for gardens, gentiemen's cafe and private the morning and well aired during the three days, drain off the brine, heat to DEATH AT A WEDDING. DON'T WORRY. Pathetic Tragedy of the War Be-When things go contrary, as often they do, Recalling the historic incidents clustween the States.

ering about South Carolina's execuive mansion, Mrs. Thaddeus Horton rites in 'The Ladies' Home Journal

here toward the close of the war. This of the shocking tragedy that occurred

tions for the wedding continued.

bled, and the clergyman was proceeding with the solemn ceremony and had just joined the right hands of the happy pair when suddenly there was an my's cannon penetrated the mansion and burst in the middle of the marriage chamber, scattering its death

World Under Difficulties.

The Irish peasant is still, thank sulted in a broken leg. The neigh-

Yes, the irrepressible Irishman has a to whom a witticism thus spontaneously springs may be very simple minded.

still induces them to commit to memory imposing polysyllables which they often misapply, with the most amusing and grotesque results. I heard a nurse-maid exclaim at a crying child in her arms, "Well, of all the ecclesiastical

The peasants' passion for rhetoric

when things go contrary, as often they do, And fortune seems burdened with spite, Don't give way to grieving all dismal and blue-That never set anything right! But cheerfully face what the day may reveal, Make the best of whatever befall; Since the more that you worry the worse you must feel, Why waste time in worry at all?

as the death of the daughter of Gov-We all have our troubles, some more and som rnor Pickens immediately after her less, And this is the knowledge we gain-It's work and a brave heart that lighten the stree Of a life's share of sorrow and pain. marriage to Lieutenant Le Rochelle. On the afternoon preceding the evening of the marriage the northern army Then face with this knowledge fate's cruelest deal, Too plucky to faint or to fall; Since the more that you worry the worse you must feel, began shelling Columbia, but prepara-"Finally the guests were all assem-

Is it wisdom to worry at all? -Ripley D. Saunders in St. Louis Republic. LONSDALE A GOOD LOSER.

py pair when suddenly there was an awful crash, and a ball from the ene-try's coupon ponetrated the mansion He Had Been Up Against a Hard Game, but Ke Didn't Squeal.

ndless. Each model is refined and effective. Said a Washington man who does a lot of transatlantic voyaging: "No man can pat himself on the back and say to himself that he is too wise to be 'done' by card sharps. I've seen some pretty clever men get theirs at cards on the ocean liners. One of them was Lord Lonsdale, about as clever an all around man as ever climbed over the gangway of a ship, and nobody would ever have fancied that he'd only one person was injured, and that prove himself a 'mark' for professional gamblers. "At the time Lonsdale first came to the United States he was in the full tide of his rapid career. Amid the uproar over his landing in this country the fact did his landing in this country the fact did shoes, of $9,000 on the trip over by George Sampson, one of the most notable of the Sampson, one of the most notable of the older clique of steamship card sharpers. He has since died in Australia, I believe. "I think Sampson had it in mind to do young Lonsdale when he got aboard at Liverpool. Sampson had been working the steamers for 15 years, and at this time he was a map of 40 year thereabut which she weakly gave consent, and, time he was a man of 40 or thereabouts. bouquet, her breath coming in short The two men struck up a friendship from the very first day of the voyage, and it was Lonsdale himself who first suggest-ed—as he afterward acknowledged, for gasps and the blood flowing from this great, angry wound, she murmured 'yes' to the clergyman and received her he was a manly young chap—the game of draw. Lonsdale had only recently learned the hands at poker, and he had the poker husband's first kiss. A moment more initiate's enthusiasm for the game to an exaggerated extent. Before going any further I ought to say that Sampson always maintained afterward that in his play with Lonsdale he was perfectly on

"Lonsdale and Sampson started the game on the first day out and kept it go-

the level.

AND THE

game on the first day out and kept it go-ing almost until the steamer plowed past Sandy Hook. Of course Sampson beat him right along. He made no effort to let young Lonsdale win from him at first. He simply played poker and raked in the Snag Proof A SPECIALTY. A. SCHATZ.

He simply played poker and raked in the young man's money and checks. A lot of us aboard knew Sampson, and those of us who had met young Lonsdale in England got him aside on the second day out and diplomatically put it to him that he was engaged in a pretty difficult en-counter—that, in brief, Sampson was a professional player of cards. For our palns we were told that we were too confoundedly officious. "At any rate, when the steamer was drawing near the shore. Lonsdale decided drawing near the shore, Lonsdale decided that he had had enough. Several of us were in the cardroom when the last hand was played. Sampson took the pot, and Lonsdale scribbled a check on his American banker for the amount he had lost at the sitting. Then he looked up at Sampson for a moment and said: "'Some of my friends here estimate you a bit unkindly, Mr. Sampson.' "'How's that?' inquired Sampson coolly. He was a man who never betrayed surprise. "'Well,' said Lonsdale, 'they maintain that your skill at cards affords you some-thing better than a livelihood.' "'I never denied that,' replied Sampson calmly. "'In playing with me on this voyage you have employed skill alone?' inquired

Lonsdale courteously. "'At your suggestion,' replied Samp-son, with careful emphasis, 'I have play-you want it back? ""That was a magnificent bluff on Sampson's part, you perceive. The young chap, he well knew, would not Our designs rank with Frescoes in

> We keep no half-way papers, they all come up to a certain standard, at to 75 cents per piece.

Our prices are much below what you xpect to pay for such beauty and quality ---JOHNSON'S MILLINERY 122 Mill Street.

re hard to obtain. We show only the correct shapes and styles in trimmed Hats and Toques. The designs are exceptionally tasteful, and the variety

Shoes Stylish! Cheap! Reliable! Bicycle, Cymnasium and Tennis Shoes. THE CELEBRATED Carlisle Shoes

Rubber Boots

LOSSOMING EFFECTS

Distinguish the Wall ed draw poker with you for seven days. I understand the game of draw poker, and I have $9,000 of your money. Do their grace and art. You should buy them because you get only what is beautiful and correct here. squeal. "'Oh, if you elect to be insulting'- prices astonishingly low, notwithstanding the advance in price of all raw materials. Prices range from 3 cents

Paper this season

fruit, then get three-fourths of its tissue of the steak, soon transforms it which should be halved, and cook, nevtransparent. Most people can raise turkeys to three or six weeks. In this there really flavored and best pear for putting up. has been a change since we raised our It ripens very late and is of handson first turkeys. If in those days we shape and size. There are of course brought young turkeys to 6 weeks old, other pears which are excellent for we considered them safe at least until preserving. In either canning or prethe late fall, when we usually lost a serving first wash the fruit, pare, halve died. Last year and the year before platter under a wet cloth to prevent its the report was prevalent that after the discoloring. Put all the parings in the turkeys were 6 weeks old they seemed preserving kettle and more than cover to grow thinner day by day and finally them with cold water. Fit a steamer died without any apparent cause. Many over the kettle, put in two layers of of them were examined and no disease fruit and steam till tender. Repeat this revealed. This was mentioned several operation until all is done, adding boiltimes in The Reliable Poultry Journal, and a correspondent of The Journal away. When the fruit is cooked, put wrote the following, for which he will the parings in a jelly bag and drain off please accept our thanks even at this all the juice. Measure this juice and the poults are killed by the chiggers. there is juice in the kettle and for pre-They do us more damage than any-We presume this is the little grass be skimmed clear drop in as much fruit

-at least it does on people-and is very Cook ten minutes for canning and until to endure. We had never thought of for preserves.

are now few hotel men who will venture a prophecy that this immense structure drinks a cup of tea starts a leather manufactory in his own stomach, for the tea, combining with the connective The members of the church and con-gregation of Wesley chapel attended in an official of that kind by voting and the members of the members of the church and con-gregation of Wesley chapel attended in an official of that kind by voting and the members of the members of the members of the church and con-gregation of Wesley chapel attended in an official of that kind by voting and the members of the church and con-gregation of Wesley chapel attended in an official of that kind by voting and the members of the into strong leather. "Brooklyn, a city twice the size of Washington, looks like 30 cents in comparison with the capital on the score of hotels, and for years it enjoyed the distinction of having but one hotel, on the Heights, and that was a small affair. Commercial travelers and others went to New York to sleep. This sounds far fetched, but it is true. Recently a couple of modern structures have been put up, but the City of Churches will never be a

'hotel town.' "Washington has several fine shelters for strangers and in a few years will have a couple more big fellows. But without jealousy hotel men all over the country accord the palm to the Waldorf, and what is accomplished under that single roof every day is fairly monumental. "It operates a postoffice, doing as much business as an office in a good sized town, handling about 6,000 letters daily, requirng the services of four men who act as postal clerks exclusively. Callers send up 5,000 cards daily to guests through pneumatic tubes to the respect-ive floors, where they are received by the hallboys. There are 60 telephones. with a switchboard requiring three op-erators. All communication between the different departments, sections and hotel employees is done by telephone. There are enough clocks in the building to stock a large store; the number being 1,200, and two men are employed to keep them in order. "If you say a 'regiment of employees' you speak the truth, as the total number of employees on the pay roll is 1,400. There are in addition about 1,500 guests daily in the hotel during the winter season, and 2,500 people sit nightly at dinner in the two restaurants, two palm

Treasurer C. H. Hosler and Harry Burgass, the colored driver, both armed. The Huns were in ambush and open ed fire. killing the paymaster. The colored driver returned the fire, killing one of the foreigners and wounding another. The three would-be-robbers then ran toward Scottdale, without securing the money.

Armed posses are scouring the whole country and their capture seems probable. Young, Mr. Hosler came here will represent the interests of his confrom Chicago three years ago and leaves stituents. a widow and one daughter. He was about 36 years old and was one of the company's most popular officials.

TISSOT PAINTINGS.

The famous Tissot Paintings of the ple. The salary of the officers has been Reformed church

One hundred of these famous pictures will be exhibited in all the beauty of their original colors, by means of the Electro-Stereopticon upon a mammoth Collections from meetings, churches screen, containing four hundred square feet of canvas. Admission 25 cents, Reserved seats 35 cents.

Arrested for Murder of A. Goodling.

Liverpool, Pa., Oct. 31.-Absalom N. Barnard, a surveror living pear the village of Oriental, was arrested yesterday charged with having murdered Adam Goodling, his neighbor. This brings to a focus the story of a wanton crime, planned and executed with peculiar malice. Goodling was an inoffensive German struggling at the age of 65 to make a bare living, and was sitting in the kitchen of his house when he fell Funeral fund..... over dead, Some one standing outside of the one window in the room had Janitor for winter ..... carefully aimed a shotgun and fired. This was on the evening of October 2. and since then the Commissioners of Traveling ..... Juniata county have spared no effort to Postage and stationery ...... anravel the mystery, which seemed to Junior work ...... defy a solution.

Connellsville, Pa., Oct. 30.-Three little boys from the Jumonville Orphan School wandered into New Haven hatless, coatless and dressed in quaint overalls and shirts. They are 12 years of age. Last night Constable William Roland, of Dunbar township, completed arrangements for taking the boys back to the mountain home tomorrow.

HIGHWAYMEN GET $108.

Uniontown, Pa., Oct. 30-John Muz zelle, an Italian, was waylaid Sunday night near the Fry Glass Works on his way home and robbed of $108 by negro highwaymen. He was stabbed by the robbers.

FIRE INSURANCE ON WEDDING sentative at Harrisburg to care for these interests, one who can be a real GIFTS.

help to the county. Hon. Jas. Foster Bellefonte, Oct. 31.-Fire insurance has the experience and the ability to render excellent service and he should health. Only 25 cents. Money back if of $50,000 has been placed on the wedding gifts of Mrs. Ross D. Hickok (nee Hastings) the daughter of Ex-Governor be elected by a good majority. Hastings.

banqueting halls. It requires the serv-Wilkesbarre, Oct. 31.-Two more dead bodies were taken out of the illfated mine at Edwardsville, at 11 o'clock last night. Their names are Michael Galawehous and Adam Waynales. Both were married and leave families. All the missing have now been accounted for.

ocean steamers in one day and as many more will depart for Europe. From 2,000 bly. He is an able man and one that to 2,500 pieces of baggage are handled and accounted for every day. The office clerical force consists of 26 clerks, of

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The following financial statement of 100 tons of coal a day and heat 1,500 rooms." -Washington Star the Salvation Army for the past eleven months will be of interest to many peo-

Life of Christ will be produced at the very small, but Ensign and Mrs. Heift Opera Honse Tuesday evening. Novem- say they have gotten on very well. ber, 13, under the auspices of the Shiloh Quite a sum of money has been handled in this work, and the Army has accomplished a great deal of good

Following is the financial statement: INCOME.

etc.....$964.49

Profit from publications..... 42.41 Stable and scales sold ...... 75.00 Self Denial work ..... 68.20 Harvest festival..... 60.00 Total,.....$1584 28 EXPENDITURES.

officers, salary and help..... $260.33 Rent of Armory and house ..... 128.89 Light and heat.... Benevolent fund, Indian famine, etc..... 102.45 Divisional fund...... 71.36 Organ rent..... 10.50 13.50 Specials..... 97.29 House furnishing since opening 22.55 66 45 13.28 15.84 Opera house rent and printing. 47 04 Purchasing and remodeling hall 485.22 THREE LITTLE RUNAWAYS CAUGHT, Opening expenses, including house furnishing, hall fur-, nishing and one months rent paid in advance for house and hall..... 190 55 undries..... 11.19 Total,..... $1584.28 Opening expenses..... $257.20 Paid ..... 190.55 and rubbed lightly on the face is a #### Balance owing ..... $66.65 W. H. HEIFT, Ensign.

Montour county will have some very important interests before the legislature this winter and it is very necessary to have an experienced repre-ices of 96 cooks to feed these hungry folks, and the kitchen force alone is nearly as large as a battalion of troops, the mber being over 300. They con 150 tons of ice a day, and no one knows how many highballs, gin rickeys and small and large bottles. "There are 19 elevators and 180 hall boys and pages. A hotel which has a hall boy force of 12 or 15 is a large one. As many as 400 guests will arrive from the Send James C. Foster to the Assemwhom six are room clerks. A 3,000 horse power electric plant supplies the power

o burn every night 29,000 incandescent lights, more than in many good sized sities. Nine boilers for steam

> STAGE GLINTS. There are five acts to Otis Skinner's new play, "Prince Otto."

"The Parlor Match" is to be known in England as "The Matchboard." The Abbe Perosi has written eight oratorios in a few years and is now at work on another, entitled "Moses."

Carl Milloecker left behind him a fortune of $300,000, besides a number of ral drainage channels of the locality. compositions not performed in public. May Irwin next season will employ a vaudeville farce called "Mrs. Black Is Black," written by George V. Hobart.

dy" has been translated into French for Sarah Bernhardt's use during her tour in this country. Edmund Edmunds, who died a few weeks ago in London, was an actor as early as 1822. He knew Edmund Kean, and George IV was one of his 42 98 patrons. Dan Daly's catch phrase in "The Cadet Girl"-"Peculiar, isn't it? Very"

-is being repeated very generally and 4.86 bids fair to become a very popular colloquialism. The author of "Sweet Nell of Old Drury," the play in which Miss Julia

Neilson has just made such a success in London, is Paul Kester, a young American playwright. It is not generally known that Schuwrote in addition to his 600 songs and numerous instrumental works also a considerable number of operas. Edmond Rostand is said to be enjoying an income of $500 a day from "L'Aiglon" and "Cyrano de Bergerac." Sarah Bernhardt's daily receipts in the first are said to be $2,200, while Coquelin with the other has drawn an average of $2,000 for every performance,

A little borax sprinkled on a cloth good remedy for blackheads. Care should be taken to rub lightly, or it will make the skin smart. In general anything that tends to dry the skin should be avoided, such as bay rum, alcohol, camphor and amr If used in great moderation, they are all good.

gists.

That Throbbing Headache sumption, uninterraped, means speedy if you go about it right. Take two of three Krause's Cold Cure Capsules dur and certain death. Address T. A ing the day and two before retiring a Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills, Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. not cured, Sold by Paules & Co., Drug the AMERICAN day. It is dangerous to use the liquid boiling, pour again over the eucumbers lice killer for the little ones, as they and let stand for three days longer. might be smothered by the fumes .-Mrs. B. G. Mackey in Reliable Poultry Journal.

The Oregon bred cavuse, which, at $2.50 per head, went to the canneries on and let stand for half a day. Boil tothe coast and from there to France as choice canned corned beef, is now being shipped to the central states and sold to good people who jeopardize their lives and their eternal happiness by trying to break them in to do the work of decent horses.

The federal courts have recently held that a farmer cannot be forced into bankruptcy by his creditors, as may a merchant or men in other professions. The courts seem to wisely recognize the fact that a farmer's ability to meet his obligations is more subject to climatic conditions than is the case with other lines of business.

tion of corn. Add full grown sweet corn cut from the ear during the last Observation leads us to the opinion hour of cooking, using less green tomathat when three inches of rainfall octo to allow for this addition. One-third curs within one hour and a half, as or one-fourth as much corn as tomato sometimes happens, not more than half should be used, according to Woman's of it will find its way into the ground, Home Companion. the surplus running off into the natu-This explains why the effects of a heavy summer rain are often transient.

the Afflicted, Three Bottles of his Newly Discovered Remedies to Cure Consumption and All Lung Troubles.

Nothing could be fairer, more philanthropic or carry more joy to the afflicted, than the offer of T. A. Slocum. M. C., of New York City.

Confident that he has discovered a bert, though he lived only 31 years, reliable cure for consumption and all bronchial, throat and lung diseases. reneral decline and weakness, loss of flesh and all conditions wasting, and to make its great merits known, he will send, free, three bottles to any reader of the AMERICAN who may be suffering.

> Already this "new scientific course of medicine" has permanently cured thou sands of apparently hopeless cases. The Doctor considers it his religious duty-a duty which he owes to humanity-to donate his infallible cure. He has proved the dreaded consump tion to be a curable disease beyond any loubt, and has on file in his American affect the fire sales ?- Philadelphia and European laboratories testimonials Press. of experience from those benefitted and cured, in all parts of the world,

Don't delay until it is too late. Con-

Slocum, M. C., 98 Pine street, New night. This will insure a good night Stocum, M. C., 95 Fine street, New York, and when writing the Doctor, give express and postoffice address, and please mention reading th's article in Price 25c. Sold by Rossman & Son's March 49 Pharmacy, children I ever met you're wan of thim." A landlord in the south of Ireland recently received a letter from a Repeat for the third time. On the tenant in the following terms: ninth day drain and wash the cucum-Yer Honnor-Hopin this finds you in bers thoroughly. Cover with four as it laves me at present, your bulldog quarts of boiling water in which is dis-Bill has assa sinated me poor ould donkey.

solved one level tablespoonful of alum -Nineteenth Century. NO TIME FOR FRIENDSHIP. gether for ten minutes four quarts of vinegar, one tablespoonful of broken That Old Fashloned Quality Is Said to Le Out of Date.

stick cinnamon, two tablespoonfuls of Friendship is said to be out of date whole allspice, two tablespoonfuls of We certainly have not much time to whole cloves and four small red peppers. Keep one quart of this mixture spare nowadays, even to reflect on the fire and in it cook for ten minwhat the rush and hurry and bustle of utes as many of the cucumbers as it modern life are costing us. Now and again, however, there is borne in upon will cover. When all are done, put them into a stone pot or jar and strain us the sad realization of the losses we over them the remainder of the spiced sustain as we tear and scramble through what we now call life. And is not one of these the power of establish ing close friendships?

It is a sad reflection, but the more we think of it the truer we shall find it calilli is much improved by the addito be, that we no longer have time to knit together those bonds of true friendship and affection which bound our predecessors together and made life sweet to them We are always in a hurry, rushing here and there. We meet and know many people in crowds and yet never have time to understand them, to give them or gain from them sympathy. We Roll a disjointed chicken in flour, can scarcely spare an hour that is unthen salt and pepper, fry until tender and brown in hot pork fat and butter, connected with some form of enter ainment or some business matter to those we call our closest friends. Letter writing has been reduced to its least common denominator as time presses on us heavily, and we have no pursuits that we can share with our so called friends that enable us to study each other's characters. Friendship, in fact, has become a mere term with the general run of people .-- Chicago Record. pole.

All the bows for the hair have been infected by the gold microbe, and a bit of gold gauze ribbon is twisted into boil up once, arrange chicken on a hot dish, pour over the cream gravy, sur- the black velvet and the white satin round with boiled new potatoes and bows that are so practical for ordinary dinner and home wear. garnish with parsley, says Woman's sure Enough. A busy merchant who had not taken a vacation for years, in which time every other member of his family had enjoyed an annual outing, concluded to give himself a rest of a week or two and started for the mountains.

Hoods which are much like fitted vokes turned up around the edges and lined with a contrasting color are being used on many of the coats and tailor gowns. Occasionally the turned over flap is buttoned to the lining with gold buttons .- New York Sun.

When about a day's journey from home, he received a telegram from his wife to this effect: DEAR FRANK-Our house was entirely destro y fire last night. The children and I escaped nharmed. Come home at once. MARIA.

To this, after reflecting a moment, he replied as follows: DEAR MARIA-What is the use of coming home en there is no home to come to? Take the Idren to mother's, stay there with them till I join you and don't worry. Affectionately

-Youth's Companion. Easy to Cure a Cold. For Shattered Nerves.

if you go about it right. Take two rose from the card table and left the "Well, a couple of elderly Englishmen on board who knew Lonsdale and his father before him went to the young fellow and told him that it would be perfectly proper and right for him to stop payment who, they told him in so many words, who, they told him in so many words, was nothing better than a swindler. "You will be good enough to mind your own business, replied the hotspur.

'I'll do nothing of the sort.' And that was the end of it."-Washington Post.

A Light and a Burn In one corner of a smoker sat a heavy swell whose exterior was faultless, even to the aromatic Havana which he was in the act of lighting. Opposite to him sat workman who had just filled up his "nose warmer" with black plug and, bent on economy, exclaimed, "After you with the light, guv'nor!" The swell care fully and painfully lit his eigar and when the match had about a quarter of an inch to burn held it carefully between his thumb and forefinger and, with a po-lite smile, offered it to his neighbor. The workman, wrapping his huge hand around that of his benefactor, held it rigid while he leisurely lit his pipe, the match doing its double work of service and chastisement, and then, regardless of the tortures of the other, calmly said. "Thanks!"-London Globe. Keeping Cool In Peking. There are few places on earth where -:0:---- the art of keeping cool is so successfully cultivated as in Peking. In every house of any importance there is a coo lery, from which the sun is effectually shut out, while there is the freest access to air. The ceiling, walls and floor are built of bamboo, through the interstices cooled and per of which air, specially cooled and per-fumed, is wafted. Add to this cunningly concocted cooling drinks and the airlest of raiment, and the man who cannot keep cool in Peking should sit on the north

Many Chinese temples have windows made from the white mother of pearl found in oyster shells. The material is perfectly transparent and looks like opal glass.

One swallow may not make a summer, but a pin maliciously inserted in a chair will make one spring.—Chicago News. THE GLASS OF FASHION.

The flare at the skirt bottoms is distinctly modified, and the full gowns hang rather limply around the feet.

Bronze shoes are creeping back into favor, and many fancy shoes and slippers show bronze in combination with pastel colors. Pale gray stockings embroidered in silver are in demand to match the dainty cloth of silver slippers that have just appeared. The new fluorescent silk is a changeable silk under a new name, but it has a new beauty as well and obtains color effects never before achieved in changeable materials.

Next to the white cloth gowns in favor stand gowns of light blue and of mushroom pink cloth, and the indications are that this is to be pre-eminently a season of pale tinted cloths for reception wear. FRANK

When You Get a Headache

dont' waste a minute but go to your A remedy that will soothe, build up the wasted tissues and enrich the blood druggist and get a box of Krause's he waster waster in the waster of the waster ands of grateful people will testify. Sold by Rossman & Son's Pharmacy.

A. H. GRONE

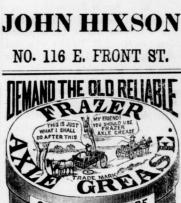

A Reliable TIN SHOP

or all kind of Tin Roofing. Spouting and Ceneral Job Work.

Stoyes, Heaters, Ranges, Furnaces, etc.

PRICES THE LOWEST!

QUALITY THE BEST!

Wanted-A Husband !

Must be strong and never have a lame back. Dr. Rankin's Kidney Tablets stop th

$500 REWARD!

We will pay the above reward for any case of

We will pay the above reward for any case of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Indigestion, Constipation or Costiveness we rannot cure with Liverita, the Up-To-Date Little Liver Pill, when the directions are strict-ly complied with. They are purely Vegetable, and never fail to give satisfaction. 25e boxes contain 100 Pills, 160 boxes contain 40 Pills, 56 boxes contain 15 Pills. Beware of substitutions and imitations. Sent by mail. Stamps taken NERVITA MEDICAL CO., Cor. Clinton and ackson Sts., Chicago, Ill. Sold by

PENNYROYAL PILLS

nail, po

Price $1.00 per box. Pink wrapp extra strength, $2.00 per box, stpaid. Address DR. MOREAU & C

Bldg., S. Clinton St., Ch

Wanted_A Wife!

Must be strong and never have a lame ba Dr. Rankin's Kidney Tablets stop

DR. MOREAU'S

TANSY AND

The Safest, Surest and Only RELIABLE French REMEDY.

ains at once and cure permanently. Sold by Rossman & Son,

BESTHE