will hold a sock social on Thursday evening, April 4, at 8 o'clock.

Passion week and holy week will be closely observed in several of the churches of this city. Services will be held each day. At the Lutheran churches there will be services every evening next week. A class will be confirmed at Trinity Lutheran church on Sunday morning by the pastor, Rev. L. D.
Ulrich. At Christ church Bishop Talbot will be present on Friday evening and confirmation services will be administered. The Palm Sunday services at most of the churches will be very interesting.

Spring is not settled in its ways but is ardent in its promises for the future.

The story from Buffalo that the National Guard of the state is going to attend the exposition by brigades must have originated in the fertile mind of the exposition press agent. At Harrisburg it is said that the Guard will remain in Pennsylvania this summer, and its encampment will be a practical one.

LENTEN SEASON NEARING THE END

With Palm Sunday Services and Holy Week—Special Music and Confirmation.

Palm Sunday, or the beginning of Passion week, commemorating the triumphal entry of our Saviour into Jerusalem (described in the twelfth chapter of St. John), the multitude on the occasion casting branches of trees before Him, will fall on March 31st this year, and during the week following services will be held in some of the churches in reference to the peculiar character of the days immediately preceding Easter. The week will close the Lenten season.

Palm Sunday will be observed with impressive services at Christ Episcopal church. The chancel will be elaborately trimmed with palm branches shipped from the South. Sermons and music will be appropriate to the occasion. During next week there will be daily services.
Tomorrow night a good sized class will be confirmed by Bishop Talbot.

At both St. Joseph's and St. Hubert's Roman Catholic churches there will be blessing and distribution of palms at 10 o'clock mass.

At Trinity Lutheran church a class of nine will be confirmed on Palm Sunday.
There will be services every night the week following at 7:30 o'clock. On the evening of April 4th, Holy Thursday, as well as on Easter Sunday the Lord's Supper will be celebrated. There will be preparatory services on the evening of Wednesday, April 3.

At Pine Street Lutheran church the pastor will preach a special sermon on Palm Sunday. There will be services every night during passion week.

Fall Which May Prove Fatal.
James Ryan, No. 19 West Centre street is lying in a critical condition as the result of a fall down stairs. Mr.
Ryan, who is 60 years of age, retired as usual about 11 o'clock Saturday night.
Sometime between 12 and 1 o'clock the family was aroused by a loud racket in the stairway. Upon investigation Mr.
Ryan was found lying at the foot of the stairs in an unconscious state. It is supposed that he arose in the night and was in the act of going down stairs when he missed his footing and fell.

He lay in a comatose state all day Monday and up to a late hour Monday he had not regained consciousness. Dr.
Stock, who has the case in hand, Monday called in Dr. Curry. The physicians are unable to discover any bruises about the man's head with the exception of a slight injury to the right eye.

The state of coma which continues would seem to indicate an injury to the skull, probably a fracture, with resultant compression, which makes the case very grave, indeed.

Badly Bitten By A Dog.
George, the nine-year-old son of Beauregard Hummer, Rough and Ready street, was badly bitten by a dog on Saturday morning last. The dog, a big brute of the hound species, had been recently imported to this city from Epsy.

On Saturday morning the hound got fast in the door and Master Hummer was trying to release him when he turned upon the boy's foot at the instep, the big teeth cutting through the shoe leather and lacerating the flesh very badly.
The hound was made to pay for his ingratitude with his life, being taken out later in the day and shot.

Busy Florists.
The coming week will be a busy one for our florists. The display of plants and flowers at local greenhouses was never more beautiful for this season of the year. It seems as soon as the Easter trade is over one year, preparations are commenced for the next and though there will likely be a scarcity of roses for Easter Sunday—lilies, azalias and carnations will be plentiful and will appear in all their beauty in the churches and many homes.

Arrested For Disorderly Conduct.
James Kriner, Claude Gargas and George Reedy were arraigned before Justice Bare last evening charged with disorderly conduct. The offense was committed on the evening of March 24.
The arrests were made yesterday by Constable Young.

Each paid his fine of five dollars and two dollars costs, giving an order on the Reading Iron Company.

Danville Man Takes A Bath.
An individual who gave his name as James Barrett and his home as Danville came near losing his life by drowning at Harrisburg on Tuesday. The man, who was described as under the influence of liquor, fell from the Mulberry street bridge into the canal. He was rescued by a railway brakeman and cared for at the City Hospital.

Will Open Branch House.
Schoenfeld Bros. of Johnstown, will open a branch house in the Sweetsk store room, Mill street, this city, early in April with a complete line of men's and boy's clothing, hats, caps and furnishing goods; also a complete line of men's and boys' shoes. A new front will be placed in the store, which will be up-to-date in every respect.

Dr. Millin Dead.
Dr. Geo. W. Millin died at his home in Bloomsburg at 10:40 o'clock Saturday morning after a lingering illness of several months' duration. He was aged 66 years, 2 months and 23 days.

Moving and mud is the order of the day.

BOTH FEET AMPUTATED

Edward Jones Falls Under the Cars at This City Thursday.

The big army of cripples maimed by accidents on the railroad received another recruit at this city Thursday. Edward Jones of Tamaqua, a brakeman on the second section of freight train No. 84, South bound, about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon fell under the cars at the switch of the Reading Iron Works and had both feet cut off.

The train stopped at the Mill street crossing and two cars loaded with coal consigned to the Reading Iron Works went out loose and placed upon the switch. The track leading to the works is down grade and following the general custom the two cars Thursday were given a start and permitted to run into the works by gravity.

Jones was standing on the front end of the first car. He was checking the speed, using a brake stick as an aid to his strength in tightening the brake.
While pulling upon it with all his might, the stick broke which caused him to fall to the ground. He landed in front of the car, just outside of the track, with his feet over the rail. Both cars passed over his limbs nearly severing both feet just above the ankles.

Dr. Kimer was called, but nothing could be done for the unfortunate man beyond affording him temporary relief.
It was plain that amputation of both feet would be necessary and arrangements were made to take him to the Miners' Hospital at Ashland. Jones stood the shock bravely and with remarkable composure described the details of the accident. He was placed upon a cot and conveyed to the P. & R. station, where accompanied by Dr. Kim-er, he was taken to Ashland on the 4 o'clock passenger train. The injured man is 21 years of age and married.

Harry Eveland, a brakeman on the same train, had the fingers of his right hand crushed between the bumpers at Hall's Station on the same trip and was taken to the hospital at Ashland earlier in the day.

Extempore Debate.
The question discussed by the Extempore Debating Society on Friday was:
"Resolved, That the Navy has rendered our country greater service than our army." William Watkins, Randall Jacobs, Anna Dwyer, Charles Mortimer and Joseph Dyer took the affirmative side of the question. Thomas Reese, Myron Bernheimer, Clarence Derr, Charles Hartt and William Bailey represented the negative side. John Cornman and Carlton McHenry acted as judges, deciding in favor of the negative. C. W.
Gross acted as chairman, and Sylvia Cromley as secretary.

Rev. J. F. Hower Returns.
At the recent meeting of the Central Pennsylvania Conference of the Evangelical church held at Red Lion, York county, a committee was appointed to confer with the representatives of the Eastern Penna., Ohio and Pittsburgh conferences for the purpose of combining the New Berlin and Myerstown colleges.
No location has been decided upon, but it is quite likely there will be but the one college to represent the four conferences. The Rev. J. F. Hower was appointed to serve another year at the Evangelical church in this city.

P. O. S. of A. Banquet A Success.
The banquet held at the Hazleton House Friday eve by Washington Camp, 364, P. O. S. of A., was a decidedly pleasant event. As stated in the announcement it was given in honor of Landlord P. S. Moser, a member of the order, who on April 1st will remove to New Columbia. About 75 members were present. The banquet was a sumptuous affair, the event on the whole attesting the high esteem in which Mr.
Moser is held by his brethren.

The Last Rites.
The funeral of William Voris was held from the late residence of deceased, on Church street, Friday. Rev. Dr. W. L.
Steen conducted the services. The pall bearers were Alfred Voris, John Grier Voris, Samuel McCoy and Edward Stroh. Those present from a distance were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Voris, of Baltimore, Md., James Voris, of New York, Gilbert and John Voris, of Pottsville; Clarence Voris, Esq., of Milton; Miss Ida Henrie, of Hughesville, and Mrs.
Hess, of Bloomsburg.

Awarded $3,000 Damages.
The jury in the case of Peter Weaver vs. the P. & R. Railway Co. retired for their deliberations at 11 o'clock Friday forenoon. Between 12 and 1 o'clock, during the adjournment of court, they returned with a sealed verdict, which was read when court reconvened in the afternoon. The verdict was in favor of the plaintiff, awarding him damages in $3,000.

W. H. Khawn for the P. & R. railway company made a motion for a new trial, reasons to be filed in ten days.

Surprise Party.
Mr. and Mrs. William Blecher gave a surprise party for their son, Master Daniel, at their home on Mill street Sunday evening. Those present were: Marion Jones, Florence Price, Myra Saunders, Lorine Phillips, Clara Detweiler, Marie Fetterman, Francis Harpel, James Scarlet, Jr., Lewis Williams, Robert Ammer-man, Reber Moyer and Warren Heddens.

A Masquerade Ball.
An Easter masquerade ball will be given in the Army under the management of George Gross and Harry Morgan on Wednesday evening, April 10th.

A "MYSTERY" OF THE MINE

Startling Discovery in an Air-Hole by two Boys Sunday.

The abandoned mines north of the borough have figured in another tragedy, which bids fair to go on record as another "mystery of the mine." Down in the clammy depths of one of the old slopes Sunday was found the body of a new-born babe. It is an uncanny story unavoidably associated in the mind with some woman's shame, some mother's unnatural act.

John Woods and Benjamin Bookmil-ler, Jr., each about 14 years of age, while returning over the ridge from Hunter's park Sunday afternoon upon reaching the air hole of the monkey drift near the borough line, out of boyish curiosity stooped down and took a good view of its interior as far as they could see.

In the dim light their eyes discerned an object wrapped in heavy paper. They crawled in and partially unwrapping the bundle were amazed to see a baby's hand protruding. Amusement gave way to fright and the boys ran to the home of Benjamin Bookmiller, relating the story to Mrs. Bookmiller. The lady advised the boys to lay the matter before Officer Voris, who lives near. Officer Voris in turn presented the matter to Justice-of-the-Peace Bare, on whose advice a party consisting of himself, Officer Voris, Poor Director Theodore Hoffman and Dr. George A. Stock, Poor physician, with the two boys, Woods and Bookmiller, as guides, were driven out to the mine hole for the purpose of taking possession of the body and making an examination. The autopsy, conducted by Dr. Stock, revealed that the infant, a female, was of premature birth; that it had lain in the mine for a period of probably two days, not longer. Justice Bare took charge of the body. It was brought along back to town and Monday it was interred in the burying ground connected with the almshouse.

There seems to be no one on whom suspicion falls and the wretched mother who consigned her babe to that lone and unhalloved tomb will in all probability never be known unless overcome by remorse she should be driven to make confession.

The Man, The Woman The Child.
Notwithstanding the rain Tuesday night a good sized audience turned out to hear the address of Major James Evelyn Picher in the Y. M. C. A. hall. The speaker prefaced his address with some witty and good natured remarks containing a couple of hits, which were much enjoyed. Alluding to Dr. George Edward Reed, of Dickinson College, at whose request he had come to Danville he took occasion to say that the doctor is an exceptionally good fellow, but that he outdid himself in cleverness when he selected him to go to Danville.
He paid the town a little compliment alluding to his cordial reception and addressed dryly: "So fond of water" he thought as well of Danville, he said, he could not have had a Danville young man his staff during the war with Spain. He thought there were but few young men to be found better than Arthur Lane. Of course, he said, there might be a few better who were present and he hoped there were.

Major Picher took as his subject: "The Man, The Woman and The Child." It was an interesting address characterized by deep thought and earnestness. Beginning with the state of barbarism the speaker traced the rise and progress of the human race through successive ages until the present state of civilization was attained, dwelling upon the extent to which the family relations and the influence of woman have aided in the development of our moral natures and in harmonizing the race. Every substitute for marriage has proven a failure. Communion, free love and polygamy have all been tried and found wanting. In nearly every case it will be found, he said, that the worst criminals, fallen women and others of depraved lives were either left orphans or brought up without the restraint of home life.

Celebrated His 72nd Birthday.
The seventy-second birthday of Emmanuel Sider, West Market street, was very pleasantly celebrated Tuesday.
A big dinner was a feature of the event.
The following were present: Calvin Shultz and family, N. E. Sider and family, Horace Sider and mother, Mrs.
A. J. Sider, of West Hemlock township;
Mrs. Mary Wintersteen, of Bloomsburg;
Mrs. Mary Wintersteen, of Bloomsburg;
Mrs. Mary Wintersteen, of Bloomsburg;
Mrs. Mary Wintersteen, of Bloomsburg.

Chicken and Waffle Supper.
There will be a chicken and waffle super at Thornton Bennett's, Mansdale, under the auspices of Y. P. S. C. E. of St. John's Reformed church, this evening. Supper can be had from 4 to 10:30 p. m. Tickets for children under twelve years 15 cents, adults 25 cents.

A Reception This Evening.
Invitations have been received in this city for a reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. VanAllen at their home in Northumberland, this evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Waples, who were recently married.

Will Open a Grocery.
Raymond G. Ikeler, proprietor of the Nassau street livery stable, yesterday disposed of his horses, carriages, harness, etc., at public sale. Mr. Ikeler will go into the green grocery business in the room formerly occupied by David Lucker.

BURGLARS AT SOUTH DANVILLE

Operated at two Places Early on Sunday Morning.

The residents of South Danville Sunday morning were thrown into a state of excitement by the news that burglars, for several months inactive on that side of the river, had again begun their depredations. The residence of Harrison C. Kase, Sunbury street, was robbed during the early morning hours, the act being characterized by a spirit of boldness and audacity seldom equalled.

About 4 a. m. Mrs. Kase was awakened by some one in her bed room. Thinking that it was her daughter she addressed her by name. Receiving no reply she repeated her words, asking what she was wanted. By this time Mr. Kase was awake. There was no reply from the intruder, but the daughter, who occupied another room hearing her name, called out asking what was the matter.

There was a shuffling sound in the room and two men slipped out. By the aid of a light burning in the hall they retracing figures were reflected in a mirror in Mrs. Kase's room. The reflection of the men was only momentary and inadequate to convey any idea of the burglars' appearance. The men were heard to pass down the stairs and out of the front door, which they carefully closed after them.

A search was instituted about the house to see what was missing. Mr.
Kase's purse, containing $3.50 had been taken from the pocket of his pantaloons.
This money along with two umbrellas, which the robbers were heard to take from a rack in the hall when they left, so far as could be determined constitu-ed the booty. It was raining at the time of the burglary, which perhaps suggested the theft of the two umbrellas.

The key of the front door was found on the floor which would seem to indicate that the robbers possessed a duplicate key by means of which they pushed the right key, from the lock and unlocked the door.

Upon arising Sunday morning Mr.
F. H. Vannan discovered that he also had been robbed. During the night he was awakened by a noise and sat up in
