A Frenchwoman's Dot—The Essentials of Beauty—The Frivolous One's Cakes—Spoiled Children—Girls in Business Life.

loosely into a shallow bake pan, and at each end of the tin she had long handles attached. When thoroughly greased, the fish baked on it like a jelly on the pan. It was child's play to slip a thin, long knife under the fish when lifted from the pan and slip it whole on a hot platter—Good House-keeping.

Jobson was obeyed.
HIS REMARKS MADE A BIG CHANGE IN MRS. JOBSON.
But Even Then He Did Not Appear to Be Perfectly Satisfied and Had Something More to Say Regarding the Matter.

THE BEGGARS OF MEXICO.
They Abound All Over the Country and Are Well Treated.
All over the country beggars abound, for the Mexican people are the most carefully good natured and charitable on earth.

Somebody's Birthday.
This is somebody's birthday. But as sure as fate, Some little boy is six years old; Some little girl is eight; Some little boy is three today; Some little girl thirteen; Some little twin are exactly two—Two agree, I mean.

THE COOKBOOK.
Prunes are greatly improved by being cooked in a little cider.
Mix ginger cookies with cold coffee in stead of water. It will improve them.

DO YOU WANT ANY PRINTING DONE?

The Frivolous One's Cakes.
It was a progressive enche party, and she was the prettiest and most frivolous looking person present. Her husband was a man who looked like a doll and dressed like a fashion plate.

Pleasing Husbands and Wives.
The greatest secret of domestic happiness lies in husband and wife pleasing each other. It is quite as easy to say pleasant, gracious things to a wife as it is to say unkind things.

Have You Talent?
"One good way, I think, to judge whether we have a talent for anything or not is to see whether we are drawn toward doing a thing," writes Helen Watterson Moody in The Ladies' Home Journal.

THE DRUMHEAD BUSINESS.
A Huge Long Island Industry Which Prospers by War.
Few people know that more than half the banjo and drum heads sold in the United States are made in Long Island.

Mrs. Harriet M. Van Der Vaart. of Englewood, that a creche was needed in the locality of West 16th and Cold Spring is a little red building surrounded by frames, in which skins are stretched for drying.

Spilled Children.
Spilling children consists in letting one's darling have its own precious way on all occasions, and the way is spoiled. It is a habit that nobody can see any harm in. But grown up willfulness is quite a different thing from baby willfulness.

Association of Ideas.
The 3-year-old son of a fat dweller, who had heard his father complain occasionally of the pain in his head, was drunk and "in no condition to attend to his work."

New Insomnia Cure.
Brown-Say, I've been trying the finest cure for insomnia that I ever heard of. It is for one to come out each breath that he exhales while lying in bed.

They Eat Themself.
From various causes, such as anger and fear, many animals eat their own flesh. Rats, when caught in a trap by the leg, will gnaw off the captured member, and mice in captivity have been known to bite off their tails.

Marriage in France is quite a different institution from marriage in England. It is entered into from different motives and in a very different fashion.

He Is a Wonder.
[All who see Mr. C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, as he now, cheerful, energetic, without an ache, could hardly believe he is the same man, who, a short time ago, had to sit in a chair, supported by cushions, suffering intensely from an aching leg, in agony.
