ANNUAL CONVENTION

Of the Sabbath School Association of Montour County. The eleventh annual convention of the Sabbath school association of Montour county will be held in the Trinity Reformed church, Strawberry Ridge, on Thursday, November 21st. The session will open at 1:30 p. m., with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. George E. Lambert of this city. Rev. J. W. Bell will deliver the address of welcome. Conference on Teachers' Training will follow conducted by Rev. C. W. Oliver, of York. "Round Table" will be presided over by Mrs. A. W. Drinkwater, of Williamsport. A solo will be rendered by Miss Margaret Ammerman of this city. General Secretary W. D. Laumaster, of this city will give a Bible reading. There will be several impromptu addresses followed by reports of committees, which will bring the afternoon session to a close. The evening session will open at 7 o'clock. Devotional exercises will be conducted by Rev. A. B. Herr of Pottsville. The address of the evening will be delivered by Rev. H. C. Harman of this city on the subject: "The Sunday school as a Factor in the Making of Character." Mrs. A. W. Drinkwater will give a talk on "Primary work." Miss Ammerman will render a solo and Rev. C. A. Oliver will give a talk on "Bible study for Spiritual Growth." Each Sunday school is requested to send two delegates and to contribute one dollar or more for State and county work. Free entertainment will be furnished, delegates being requested to send their names to Rev. J. W. Bell, Strawberry Ridge, Pa. All ministers and Sunday school superintendents in the county are members of the convention and their presence is urged and desired. They will kindly secure the appointment and attendance of delegates and make repeated announcements of the committee in their churches and schools. All who are interested in Sunday school work are cordially invited to the convention.

PENNSYLVANIA.

This State, more than any other State in the Union, has been the beneficiary of the Republican policies so ably advocated by the martyred President. It is unnecessary to refer to the smoke and flames belching forth from her many furnaces, that were idle and becoming junk under the policies of the opposition. The eyes of the world are upon you, voters in Pennsylvania. Are you going to re-endorse the national policies and thus speak for the further up-building of the industries of this great State by an old-time majority for the State ticket, or are you, through dissensions and petty quarrels, going to become assistant Democrats and place Pennsylvania in the doubtful column in the Congressional elections next year? Puddle Mill Ready to Start. A considerable portion of the puddle mill at the Reading Iron Works is already under roof. A few days ago the announcement was made by the management that the puddle mill, which is now ready for operation, will start up next Monday. There now seems to be some hitch in the arrival of lumber, so that it is not certain that the rolls and engine will be under roof by Monday, a circumstance which may necessitate a postponement of starting up. Death of Patrick Conley. Patrick Conley, an old and esteemed resident of the Third Ward, died suddenly Saturday afternoon at the advanced age of 84 years, death being due to a general decline incident to advanced years. The deceased was born in Ireland, but emigrated to this country many years ago. His wife preceded him to the grave eleven years ago. He is survived by three children, Michael Cornelius and Mary, all of whom reside at the parental home, Mill street. Vote for Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. Vote for Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer. Vote for J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. A Very Late Haymaking. While his neighbors were husking corn Saturday last Judge Benfield was "hulling in" hay, and an abundant well developed crop it was, comprising several acres of meadow land. It is no unusual thing for farmers to cut a second crop of hay, but the work mostly comes along early in September. It is due to the late rains this season that hay making is made possible so near the first of November. Several of the handsome stained glass windows of Christ church have been shipped to Philadelphia for repairs.

GUARDING AGAINST CONTAGION

Four Cases of Diphtheria in the Second Ward. There are four cases of diphtheria in the second ward and the disease is beginning to interfere considerably with the attendance at school. Borough Superintendent U. L. Gordy assisted by the principal and teachers is taking every precaution to prevent the spread of the disease lest an epidemic ensue similar to what the town of Northumberland has experienced, which necessitated the closing of the schools, places of worship, etc. In dealing with the children from infected families Superintendent Gordy is being governed by the School law, which provides for their exclusion from school for a period of thirty days after recovery and disinfection. A circumstance, which leads to embarrassment and often to a misunderstanding with the parent, Professor Gordy says, is the fact that the attending physician in furnishing prescriptions with certificates setting forth their recovery is apt to be influenced by his own judgment and not the school law. It is not an unheard of thing for the pupil to reappear at school armed with a physician's certificate ten days or even a week after the quarantine has been raised. Professor Gordy is not inclined to question the judgment of the attending physicians, who undoubtedly know their business. Granting that a week or ten days are sufficient, yet the fact remains that the school law has adopted a wider margin of safety. Section seventy-three of the school laws and decisions of Pennsylvania very plainly sets forth what is required of the school principals in the premises. It says: No child or other person belonging to or residing with the family of any person or residing in the same house in which any person may be located who is suffering from small pox, variola or varioloid, scarlet or typhus fever, diphtheria, diphtheritic or membranous croup and like infectious diseases shall be permitted to attend any private, parochial, Sunday or other school in said municipalities, and all school principals, Sunday school superintendents or other persons in charge of such schools are hereby required to exclude any and all such children and persons from said schools, such exclusion to continue for a period of "thirty days" following the discharge by recovery or death of the person last afflicted in said house or family and the thorough disinfection of the premises. THE VOTER'S DUTY. You and each of you have a duty to perform. Do not shirk that duty by staying away from the polls. Do not drop your ballot until you have carefully considered the effect of your vote. You know that when you voted for President McKinley you benefited yourself, and you voted for him his second time. The bullet of the assassin has undone your work. Roosevelt is President. Vote to endorse and uphold him. Vote to tell him you will surely elect a Republican Congress to help him carry the country to a greater prosperity than ever before, and in doing so, you vote to benefit yourself and to continue the present good times. Purchased the Best Property. A. H. Grono and Leniger Bros. have jointly purchased the Best property on Mill street. They will erect a fine brick building on the corner, with two commodious store rooms fronting on Mill street. The upper one of these will be occupied by Leniger Bros. and the lower one by A. H. Grono. The price paid was $3600. Salvation Army. The temperance meeting at the Salvation Army hall tonight promises to be an interesting one. Rev. Harry Curtin Harman will deliver an address. Mrs. E. J. Allen, of Riverside, will sing. There will also be some short talks and readings. The meeting will open promptly at 8 o'clock and will last one hour. All are invited. Corn-Husking Party. Jacob Baker, Siller Hill, gave a ladies' corn-husking party yesterday consisting of Mrs. Adaline Owens, Mrs. Sarah Butler, Mrs. Edna Tompkins, Mrs. Amelia Mellin, Mrs. Gussie Burns, Mrs. Martha Baker, Mrs. Ada Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Owens, Miss Kathryn Baker, and Mrs. Jacob Baker. A very appetizing supper was served. Mrs. Goldsmith Injured. Mrs. Samuel Goldsmith met with a painful accident at her home on Lower Mulberry street late Tuesday evening. She was walking through a dark hall in the front of the house and fell over a trunk lying across the hallway. Though confined to her room no serious injury is feared. The campaign is now on its last lap and the Republican outlook in Montour county was never brighter.

LIGHT CONTRACT RENEWED

Special Meeting of Council With Every Member Present. The borough council held a special meeting Saturday night at which the action of the previous meeting was reconsidered and it was decided to renew the contract with the Standard Electric Light company. At 8 o'clock sharp Chairman Kemmer took his seat. His gavel fell with a loud ring when it was noticed that every chair was occupied, a circumstance which does not frequently occur. The president stated that the object of the meeting was, first, to reconsider the motion to enter into a new contract with the Standard Electric Light company which was voted down on the evening of October 14th and, second, if the will of council, to provide for the legal execution of said contract. Mr. Dougherty moved that the former motion be reconsidered, which was seconded by George Seehler. The motion prevailed. Following is the vote: Yeas—George Seehler, Fetterman, Kemmer, Dougherty, Laurer, Brandt and Gibson. Nays—Vastine, M. D. L. Seehler, McLain, Jones and Davis. The contract was then read, when it was found that since the rejection at the previous meeting a still further reduction had been made, the offer of the company now being to furnish arc lights at $72. For $432.75 per month or $5,205 per year the Standard Electric Light company obligates itself to furnish 65 arc lights of 2000 candle power each and 35 incandescent lights of 25 candle power each. Mr. Fetterman moved that the president of council be empowered to execute a contract as offered by the Standard Electric Light company for a period of three years. The motion was seconded by Mr. Gibson. M. D. L. Seehler said he couldn't understand why council wished to give the lighting of the borough over into the hands of a trust, especially, since the same members who favor the measure now a few months ago were in favor of borough light. Mr. McLain said he found the people of his ward generally opposed to it. Mr. Vastine said that the First Ward, which he represented, was opposed to renewing the contract. Mr. George Seehler declared that he represented the First Ward and that he found the people in favor of it. Mr. Brandt explained that he originally was in favor of borough light, but that things have changed and that there are other matters now such as pertain to sanitation, which require an outlay of money more important in his opinion than borough light. The session was on the verge of becoming warm when the question was put to a vote. The motion carried as follows: Yeas—George Seehler, Fetterman, Kemmer, Dougherty, Laurer, Brandt and Gibson. Nays—Vastine, M. D. L. Seehler, McLain, Jones and Davis. The above action in entering into a three years' contract for light, notwithstanding the sentiment in council in favor of municipal light, would seem to dispose of the question of establishing a borough light plant in a way to make further agitation of the matter futile for the present. Dr. S. Y. Thompson for Associate Judge is looked upon as a sure winner. He is growing more popular every day. Let his majority be as large as possible. Kicked to Death by a Horse. Mark H. Carey, of Derry township, who resides two miles this side of Exchange, was killed Sunday by the kick of a horse. He entertained some visitors during the day and was assisting to hitch up the team preparatory for their return home, when the accident occurred. The visitor was leading one horse, and Mr. Carey was following with the other when the animal in the lead kicked, both hoofs striking Mr. Carey in the abdomen, producing nearly instant death. The deceased was about 70 years of age and unmarried. He is the owner of a fine farm and a frequent attendant of our curbstone market. He was a prominent Odd Fellow, a member of the Exchange lodge. South Danville Schools Up-to-Date. The South Danville school, both grades of which are taught by young ladies from this city, are in a very flourishing condition. The attendance is exceptionally good, while the course of study has just been extended by the introduction of nature work. Upon graduating at South Danville pupils are prepared for the High school of this city. Miss Mary Pfahler has the upper grade and Miss Prudence Blizard the primary school. Coming Friday. The wedding of Miss Emma Bird, of this city, to Mr. John Jacobs, of Pittsburg, will occur, Thursday, November 14, in this city. The wedding it is said, will be a very quiet one. For County Treasurer vote for Charles W. Cook. For Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. For J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. For Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer.

SCHOOL BOARD IN SESSION

Purchase of Cyclopedias Authorized by the Board. The School Board held a regular meeting Monday night, the session being an unusually short one, a trifle over half an hour in length. The following members were present: Fisher, Orth, Burger, Black, Green, Harpel, Werkheiser, Curry, Keeler and Fenstermacher. Truant Officer Young reported a good deal of sickness among the patrons of school which kept children at home; otherwise he found little to contend with in getting along nicely. Mr. Orth reported that Curry & Vannan are making the castings needed for the furnace in the Second Ward school; also that a janitor has been procured for the Welsh Hill school. A broken furnace door in the Second Ward building was ordered repaired, while the Building and Repair committee was instructed to look after a stove in the stack of the Fourth Ward building which was reported as drawing badly. On motion of Dr. Harpel it was decided to purchase the Century Cyclopedias for use in the High school. The price named is $58. Mr. Keeler alluded to the prevalence of diphtheria and thought disinfectants ought to be freely used about the school buildings. This led to a discussion as to the relative merits of the different kinds on the market, when it was decided to leave the matter of disinfectants in the hands of the physicians on the board. The secretary stated that most of the fire insurance—$26,000 in all—carried by the district on the different school buildings will expire during next month. It was explained that representatives of several new companies have sprung up in town during the past year who now insist upon their share of the insurance carried on the school buildings. The renewing of the policies was left in the hands of the building and repair committee with instructions to make an equal division as nearly as possible among the local agents. The following bids were approved for payment: Teachers and janitors..... $125.50 Rand, McNally & Co..... 21.75 W. E. Young..... 5.00 U. S. Express Co..... .50 George H. Smith..... .75 Abram Lettue..... 2.97 Fred R. Miller..... 4.75 Vote for J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. Vote for Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer. Vote for Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. With Masonic Ceremonies. All that was mortal of Zachary M. Arms was consigned to the grave in Mt. Vernon cemetery Thursday afternoon. The funeral was one of the largest that has taken place in Riverside for some time past. The services were conducted by Rev. Erskine Wright, rector of Christ Episcopal church. The choir of St. Peter's M. E. church, Riverside, rendered the hymn, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and two other selections. The pall bearers, which represented the two Masonic lodges of this city, were as follows: Amos Vastine, W. H. Ammerman, Daniel L. Bloom, Will G. Kramer, George Maiers and E. S. Miller. The Episcopal burial service at the grave was followed with the Masonic ceremony. The turnout of Free Masons was quite large, there being three back lodges in line. The following persons from a distance attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Norman R. Arms, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Arms, Mr. Walter Arms, of Sunbury, George Kinter and daughter Mary, William Kinter, Miss Mary Kinter, Miss Sara Kinter, Mrs. Dennison, Dr. A. T. Poffenberger, of Danphin; Mrs. H. L. Schneider, Miss Cordelia Schneider, Mrs. Bruce Carey, of Nesquehock; Mrs. Jacob Seehler, of Jersey Shore; Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Campbell, of New Haven, Conn., and Mrs. Rosella Pursell, of Bloomsburg. The duty that every Republican owes his party next Tuesday is to stick to the ticket. If all follow this rule the victory will be suprising. Struck by Falling Pulley. Fred Jacobs met with a painful injury Tuesday afternoon. He was assisting to remove a lot of saw dust from the ice house at the rear of the confectionery and stood on an elevated platform under the pulley, which broke as a heavy load was being raised and fell striking him upon the head. He was considerably stunned and sustained a bad gash upon the back part of the head. Dr. Curry gave the injured man attention, inserting several stitches. Coming Wedding. The wedding of Miss Emma Bird, of this city, to Mr. John Jacobs, of Pittsburg, will occur, Thursday, November 14, in this city. The wedding it is said, will be a very quiet one. For County Treasurer vote for Charles W. Cook. For Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. For J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. For Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer.

AN HIGHLY PRIZED HEIRLOOM

Handed Down Through Four Generations of Time. There is scarcely a school boy or a school girl old enough to study local history but is familiar with the sad fate of Robert Curry who was murdered by the Indians and the thrilling escape of his wife who at the same time was taken captive. It is not so generally known however, that the identical pair of scissors still exists with which Curry cut the bands of bark with which the Indians had bound her. On Monday last it was the privilege of a representative of this paper to see and examine the historical pair of scissors, which a highly-prized heirloom has been handed down through four generations. They are now owned by Miss Hannah Welliver, of West Hemlock township, this county, whose grandmother Mary Caldwell, in her girlhood, as Miss McWilliams lived under the same roof with Mrs. Curry and at the latter's death fell heir to the scissors. Robert Curry and his wife were among the pioneers of this section. With one child they emigrated from the north of Ireland in 1772, settling on Mahoning creek. On June 9, 1780, as Mr. and Mrs. Curry were traveling on horseback from Northumberland to the Mahoning settlement now occupied by the site of Danville they were overtaken by a band of Indians. Mr. Curry was killed and scalped, his skull being battered into fragments by the tomahawk. Mrs. Curry was taken prisoner. She was young and beautiful. The savages greatly admired her long black hair. They told her that she was a "heap pretty squaw" and assured her that they would not harm her. Their intention was to carry her into captivity. They started on a journey westward. In a densely wooded hollow, located in the present limits of Liberty township not far from Moresburg, they camped for the night. They securely bound their captive, tying her hands and feet with bands of hickory bark. Suspended by a string fastened at her waist Mrs. Curry had a small pair of scissors, which, it seems, the Indians did not notice. When she thought her captors were sound asleep she managed to get hold of the scissors in such a way as to enable her to sever the bands of bark which bound her ankles and to make her escape. She was soon missed and finding herself pursued she concealed herself in the top of a fallen tree. It was a moment of thrilling suspense to the poor woman as the savages with lighted torches trod round the spot. One Reiskin mounted the fallen trunk and holding his lighted torch aloft peered into the tree top, exclaiming: "Come out, squaw; we see you." She lay quiet, however, and the Indians finally moved on. Mrs. Curry survived until 1826, when she was buried by the side of her husband in the old cemetery on Bloom street. A few years ago the bodies of both were removed to the new Presbyterian cemetery. The scissors are a very small pair, probably not more than three inches in length. A relic of greater historic interest or one more highly prized by the more descendants of Mrs. Curry in this county it would be difficult to imagine. Those who support Jacob Miller for Prothonotary will be voting directly in their own interests. Mr. Miller's record proves this. Ensign and Mrs. Young's Farewell. Ensign and Mrs. Young of the Salvation Army have been notified from the general headquarters in New York that they will be removed from Danville to a new field of labor. They have set their "farewell" meeting for next Sunday evening. Meetings will be held also on Monday and Tuesday evening. They have not been notified as yet just where they will be located; only that they will leave next Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Young have been very successful in their work during the past year and their removal will be regretted by many friends. Ensign and Mrs. Heift, formerly workers here, will also be removed from Du Bois after a year of successful labor. Next Door. Apropos of things farcical, a first rate looking at the Opera House is the revised pantomimic trick spectacle "Next Door" in a 20th century coat of paint as it were. This farce, for farce it is in every sense of the word, is a series of amusing incidents and extraordinarily clever acrobatic gyrations. The musical numbers are all new. This bill will be at the Opera House on Saturday night. New Bar Fixtures. Carl Litz has placed a handsome back bar with large plate glass mirrors in his restaurant on Mill street. With a number of other improvements this makes the place a very attractive one. This is the last week of the Pan American exposition and it is to be regretted that its financial success was not equal to its merit. Vote for Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. For J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. For Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer.

THAT CITIZENS' MEETING

The Court House Was Crowded in Response to the Call. The Court House was packed Tuesday night in response to a call for a citizens' meeting. The action of the meeting in effect sustained the five minority members of council who are in favor of municipal light, oppose sewerage, and advocate the immediate abatement of the nuisance existing in Blizard's run. Dr. P. C. Newbaker was chosen chairman and J. H. Wallace Secretary. After a short address by the President repeated calls were made for E. S. Gearhart, Esq., who responded, dealing in a very pointed way with council, the subjects of sewerage and municipal light, paying as he went along a nice compliment to the five minority members of council who "have stood so nobly by their guns." He declared that $60,000 would not sewer Blizard's run—that it was not a sewer that was wanted but a job. The proper way, he said, to abate the nuisance is to indict the brewery for polluting the stream. Speaking of a survey, he said, he did not know who authorized it, but a survey was made and now, if he has been properly informed, there is a little bill of $2,300 to pay—for results which could have been obtained for $100. Ostrander for $25, who on a prior occasion made a topographical survey of the town. Addresses along the same line were made by ex-Councilman Joseph Murray, F. P. Johnson and several others. Amos Vastine speaking for the minority in council stated that they had a plan for abating the nuisance in Blizard's run that did not involve sewerage and they only asked that the citizens and taxpayers stand by them. T. F. Patterson moved that the chairman appoint a committee of five to draft resolutions relating to the subjects discussed. The motion carried, whereupon the following committee was appointed: Dr. Harpel, David J. Rogers, W. G. Williams, Wellington Rote and Henry L. Gross. Another citizens' meeting will be held Saturday night when the committee will report. Vote for Charles W. Cook for County Treasurer. Vote for Doctor Thompson for Associate Judge. Vote for J. C. Miller for Prothonotary. Miss Jennie Lovett's Guest. Miss Jennie Lovett, Vine street, entertained a very interesting guest over Sunday in the person of Miss Anna Goytney, an Indian lady belonging to the tribe of Pueblos, who occupy lands in the Northwestern part of New Mexico. Miss Goytney, who is a graduate of the Indian school at Carlisle, and is now completing a course at the Bloomsburg Normal school, was brought East some twelve years ago. Although retiring in her manner she converses with an ease and fluency which is quite remarkable considering that the language used is one of another race and acquired only in recent years. Her mind is well stored with information. Her manners and language betray the best of breeding and reflect a great deal of credit upon the training school at Carlisle. Miss Goytney says that her people are very slow in availing themselves of the advantages of civilization. They till the soil, but have a hard time of it on the hard and lands they occupy which can only be made to yield by irrigation. She would much prefer to live among the white people of the East, she says. After graduating at Bloomsburg she expects to spend a year or so teaching in Pennsylvania, but after that she considers it her duty to return to her people in New Mexico and impart to them if in her power some of the benefits that she has received from her contact with civilization. There is no excuse for a stay-at-home Republican this year. The Undergrade Crossing. There are but little prospects of the undergrade crossing at the A. & K. track on Walnut street being built this fall. Owing to a delay in obtaining the grade necessary from the borough the plans have been kept back far beyond what was anticipated, bringing the beginning of the work too near the approach of winter. Charles W. Cook will make a good County Treasurer. Coming Home. Samuel M. Waite has received a letter from his son, Samuel R. Waite, who is at Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City, stating that his term of enlistment is about expired and that he will be home by November 10th. Salvation Army. Thursday evening Rev. Harry Curtin Harman will speak at the temperance meeting. Mrs. E. J. Allen, of Riverside, will sing. The service throughout will be interesting. Don't miss it. Vote for J. C. Miller for Prothonotary.
