The gas range is in so many respects superior to the "hot plate" commonly used with gas that it may in time supersede the latter. At all events there is a growing demand for gas ranges and from indications it is not unlikely that in the future their manufacture will comprise a large proportion of the business at our Stove Works

Kerns, secretary. Before proceeding to the election of a poor director J. L. Krum called attenion of the delegates to the fact that Henry Schram is Mahoning township's nominee for that office—that the Second Third and Fourth Wards of the box ough, which nominated Jonathan Rudy in declining to endorse the township's choice had departed from custom and were making a mistake, which it was not too late for the delegates to correct. On one occasion before, he said, the borough had declined to endorse the ownship's choice with the result that when it came to the election the Democratic candidate was defeated. He begged the delegates to consider that if the discourtesy was persisted in and a ominee other than Henry Schram se lected for the ticket it would justify the ownship in retaliating at some future time by ignoring the borough's choice regardless of what the result might be He urged the delegates therefore to stand by Henry Schram. William Russell and George Bachinger each spoke in favor of Jonathan Rudy, while it eemed to be the general view that whatever might be the merits of Mr Schram's claim for nomination, the delegates had no choice but to vote ac ording to their instructions.

A vote was then taken, Jonathan Rudy receiving the votes of the Second, the Third and the Fourth Ward-six in all, while Henry Schram received the delegates of the First Ward and Mahoning township-four in all. Mr. Rudy having a majority was declared the
