BELGIAN HARES.

The Development of a Handsome Pure Black Variety.

The development during the past four years of a pure black variety of Belgian hare has illustrated the value of variation in breeding domestic animals and has demonstrated again the possibility of perpetuating a desirable variation.

BLACK BELGIAN HARES.

Colors and characteristic points of the breed. They breed freely, and several litters included one or two, sometimes three, dark or black colored young ones.

FORESTRY PRACTICE.

Pure and Mixed Woods—Some Trees Demand Light—Others Bear Shade.

A forest may consist of a single species, when it is known as a pure wood, or of different species, when it is known as a mixed wood.

A Good Type of Smokehouse.

There are smokehouses of several types for curing meats, but none so safe and satisfactory, according to "The Farm Journal," as the one in which no fire is ever put.

A Novel Walking Costume—The Universal Use of Fur.

A handsome gown that is at one and the same time a suit for ordinary walking and for the coldest days has been invented, and as a conscientious sort of fashion writer I make haste to explain just how such a thing may be done.

But here in New England, says American Cultivator, we have much land that is unsuited for any other purpose than pasturing and often scarcely fit for that.

PERMANENT PASTURES.

How to Make Them More Productive at a Small Expense.

There are many sections where such a thing as a permanent pasture is not known. The land all being alike suitable for tillage, a rotation of crops is the usual practice perhaps of three or five years, of which one year or two it may be used for pasturing.

But here in New England, says American Cultivator, we have much land that is unsuited for any other purpose than pasturing and often scarcely fit for that.

Many of these old pastures have for years had their crops grazed off and nothing returned but such grass and roots as have decayed on the surface or below it or the droppings of the animals as they roamed over the field in summer.

It is a woman's duty to be right in the swim, she must have fur everywhere and on everything where it can be put.

Some of the lace dress patterns are finished off at the foot with scalloped and edged with no end of bright and scintillating bits of metal, and below this is a double and sometimes a triple ruffle of chiffon, and this in turn is made with a ruche of itself, dotted with spangles.

How will your cough be tonight? Worse, probably. For it's first a cold, then a cough, then bronchitis or pneumonia, and at last consumption.

Consult your doctor. If he says take it, take it. If he says don't take it, don't take it. If he says leave it well alone, leave it well alone.

Good Words Score. "If we can't speak well of people," said the gentle young woman, "it is better not to talk of them at all."

Supply Unlimited. "Give me a kiss, my charming Pearl," a young man said to a blue-eyed girl.

The Worst Ever. "That," said the cheap barber, releasing his victim, "is what we call the Shakespearean style of hair cut."

Little Thread. Lisle thread is made of superior cotton treated in a peculiar manner. It is waxy surface of the cotton fiber is imparted by carding, but preserved by combing.

Smallpox Scars. No method has yet been devised by which smallpox scars may be removed.

via Pennsylvania Railroad. The last Pennsylvania Railroad tour of the season to Jacksonville, allowing almost three months in Florida, will leave New York, Philadelphia, and Washington March 4.

Mr. J. M. Kline, of Paxinos, Pa., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a number of years and have never had any doubt but that it has time and again prevented a cough, cold, and that alarming complaint, croup, which especially those who have small children, always keep it in their homes as a safeguard against croup."

Winter Care of Live Stock.

Now is the time of year when the farmer and stockman, in order to avoid serious losses among his stock, should see that his stables are warm and comfortable against the cold blizzards of the approaching winter.

Washed Wool.

One pound of washed wool produces an average of a yard of cloth thirty-six inches wide.

Old Age Deaths.

It is interesting to note that fifty-four in every hundred thousand deaths in the entire country are not caused by any disease at all, but simply by "old age"—the natural running down of the human clock.

State Aid Must Come.

State aid in building roads must come in every state. It is now in operation in New York, Massachusetts and other states and is giving satisfaction. It makes it possible to accomplish road improvements that the county would not attempt.

For Stomach Troubles.

"I have taken a great many different medicines for stomach trouble and constipation," says Mrs. S. Geiger of Dunkerton, Iowa, "but never had as good results from any as from Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets."

An enthusiastic audience that packed the Opera House from stage to foyer greeted the opening engagement of the Dot Karroll company in this city last night. "A Night in Chinatown" was presented in a truly realistic manner with all the oriental splendor of a Chinese opera, the horrible snake pit, and scenes and incidents that are of daily occurrence in a large city like New York.

Mr. Arthur Dunn, the well-known and clever comedian, is at the head of some fifty artists that will soon present the musical comedy "A Runaway Girl" at the Opera House. The success attending this production for the past two seasons is entirely due to its own intrinsic merit in the first place and to the lavish style in which it was produced in the second place.

In placing a house let it face the south or as nearly so as possible, says New England Homestead. It is cooler in summer and warmer in winter than one facing either east or west.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition, beauty, vigor and cheerfulness. It is a disease that is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with kidney trouble. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child is an adult, he is unable to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet-tell, containing all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonials of those who have been cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

In 1890 the area of the national domain occupied by the Indians aggregated 116,000,000 acres. Today it aggregates 85,000,000 acres, which is about as much land as we have in the states of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

There seems to be no longer any doubt that the United States in a few years will be a sugar importing country. The past two seasons have witnessed a remarkable development of the beet sugar industry.

When the first Bible society in this country was organized, the English language was spoken by only 20,000,000 people. Now 120,000,000 people speak it. Then the Bible was printed in 50 languages; now it is printed in 420 languages.

Dars-Salaam, the capital of German East Africa, which seven years ago was a village inhabited by a hundred natives, is now a town with 300 European and 21,000 native inhabitants. It has three hotels, several hundred stores and a newspaper.

It is estimated that the value of land along rural delivery routes has increased from $2 to $5 an acre. Then, too, there is an educational value in the rural free delivery in that thousands more magazines and periodicals are finding their way to people's homes.

Large quantities of dried inkblots of the cuttlefish and squid are received by artists' colormen for manufacture into sepia. It has been suggested that the Newfoundland fishermen, who annually destroy a large number of these mollusks, might make a considerable profit by selling their inkblots.

Sonerville is the name of the newest town on record. It is located sixteen miles north of Rice Lake, Wis., and the town site company owns 40,000 acres of land. No one was allowed to locate until Oct. 15, but the president of the company was elected beforehand and police appointed, who now rule the place with an iron hand.

Another bird believed to have become extinct is the California condor, twice as large as the condor of the Andes. Its length was 5 feet, weight 25 pounds and spread of wings 12 feet. An egg of this bird is worth $2,000 for seventeen years. Eggs of the golden eagle sell in San Francisco for $32 each.

During the last century the population of the territory which now constitutes the German empire has very nearly trebled, notwithstanding the enormous emigration. It has increased from 20,000,000 to nearly 60,000,000 souls, and at the present rate of increase Germany will have a population of 100,000,000 before the close of this century.

Hoboken, for its area, is the most densely populated city in the United States today. About 60,000 people are distributed over the limits of a square mile, which is about one mile square. The city surveyor will tell you that the 720 acres within the limits 450 are marshland and 270 upland. There is only 196 square feet of ground for every resident.

New York city's average daily sewage takes a rather gloomy view of Manhattan, Brooklyn and the Bronx is 340,000,000 gallons, and the consumption of Queens and Richmond brings up the total to 250,000,000 gallons, a larger quantity than is used by any other city in the world and nearly as much as is used by any other two American cities.

ONE CERTAINTY. When the back aches from kidney ills When urinary troubles annoy you, There's a certain way to find relief. A sure way to be cured.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do it. Danville people endorse this claim. Mr. Josiah Williams of 59 Ash street, barber, says: "I did not have to use a hole-ox of Doan's Kidney Pills before they cured my back of depressing aching and removed the lameness which had made every move painful. The lameness centered right over my kidneys and stooping or lifting sent a sharp twinge through me. When on my feet a dull gnawing pain took all the vim out of me. I gave some to Mr. C. H. Stoes of 217 East Mahoning street, as I had no further use for them, and he was as well pleased as I with the results obtained."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
