FOR AN HONEST BALLOT.

From the Republican platform.

Unequivocally and with emphasis this convention declares for a pure and honest ballot in the state of Pennsylvania, and for the enactment of such laws or the amendment of existing laws as will most effectively and speedily accomplish this most desirable purpose. The Republican party of Pennsylvania stands prepared to aid any or all other parties in remedying any defects that may exist in the present system of popular suffrage or to advance any new plan that will vouchsafe to the people an honest ballot and fair count.

The Philadelphia Bulletin says Judge Pennypacker can be placed before the people with the confidence that they will find in his personal character and shortstop. capacity the kind of ability and fitness which Pennsylvania should recognize in the choice of a Governor. His whole career, public and private, is a guarantee that he is fit to administer the Gubernatorial office cleanly and efficiently as a public trust. A man conspicuously fit for the office; an easy winner at the polls-that is the sum and substance of the practical argument for his nomination.

Mr. Depew has recently been making observations and conducting inquiries with regard to the probable action of the Republican National convention Burns, Bruises, Boils Ulcers, Eruptions that will assemble in 1904. He is convinced as the result of these observations that the people are with President Roosevelt, and will insist on his nomination to succeed himself. The politicians may be against Roosevelt, but Mr. Depew believes the people will compel his nomination regardless of politicians "The sentiment is widespread," said the live from Williamsport, Shamokin, Senator, "that President Roosevelt is Bloomsburg, Catawissa and principal making a good Chief Executive, and the intermediate stations. These tickets people say he must have another term.'

Robert Emory Pattison is going to lead the forlorn hope in the campaign Philadelphia and Reading ticket against Judge Pennypacker. Well, agents. somebody must take the drubbing and having been honored by his party several times the former Governor probably feels that it is his duty to stand the Excursion Rates July 10 and 24, via lambasting.

HUNTER'S PARK

The picnic to be held by the Continental Fire company at Hunter's Park on the afternoon and evening of July 4th promises to be one of the interesting features of the day. The game of pase ball between the St. Elmo Club and Shamokin will be played on the Fair Ground, as Mr. Hunter is convinced that it will be impossible for him to get the new diamond ready by July 4th which is now being made in he park west of the pavilion.

The firemen's race is another event which will take place on the Fair ground. The firemen's race, which will be open to all the companies of town, will be followed by a "tug of war" with Danville on one side and he visiting companies on the other.

There will also be foot races, bag aces, and the like. Other features will be a nail driving contest between the ladies and waltzing contests, afteroon and evening.

At night there will be a fine display of fire works along the hillside north

Sale of Sunday Papers Stopped.

At a meeting held in the Y. M. C. A building at Berwick Sunday by the Women's Christian Temperance Union at which Rev. Gilbert, of the Berwick M. SIMON MOSER, Treasurer. family and many of the aristocracy used to visit her in the morning, an Queen Charlotte even presented her with a silver half gallon mug containing 5 guineas. The house remained in the possession of her family for some time, as Sir Richard Phillips, writing a few years before its destruction, mentions. After admitting that for upward of thirty years he had never passed the house without filling his pockets, he goes on to say, "These buns have afforded a competency and even wealth to four generations of the same family, and it is singular that their delicate flavor, lightness and richness have nev er been successfully imitated." Ranelagh was closed, the Bun House declined in popularity, though as lat as 1839 24,000 buns were sold on Good Friday alone.-London Chronicle,

POWERFUL VOICES.

Some Historic Shrickers Who Antedated the Famous Stentor.

The question has often been asked, Who was the most loud voiced man of history?" The answer usually is Eight Hunder that it was Stentor, of whom Homer says his voice was as loud as that of fifty other men combined and from which we get the phrase "stentorian olced." But we have record of two historic "shrickers" anterior to Homer. We read where Simeon and Levi fought against the twelve men of the city of Sarton and that Levi beheaded one man with his own sword. In chapter S, verse 41, of the book referred to the ory is related in the following words: And the sons of Jacob seeing that they could not prevail over the twelve, meon gave a loud and tremendous Simeon gave a loud and demonstrated thomotary's Office at Danvine to Shrick, and the eleven remaining men thomotary's Office at Danvine to Shrick, and the eleven remaining men May Term, 1908.
