CONFERENCE MEETS TODAY

The Republican Congressional conference of the Sixteenth district will meet again at Sunbury today and will make another effort to choose a nominee. Last Thursday the first meeting was held at the Montour House, this city, and ten ballots were taken without result.

For seven ballots the vote was tied between Charles C. Evans, Esq., of Berwick, and Hon. Fred A. Godcharles, of Milton. The four conferrees of Columbia county and three from Montour voted for Evans, while Godcharles had the five from his own county and two from Sullivan.

The Godcharles contingent looked upon the adjournment to Sunbury as a Ball. practical victory and feel confident that their man will be named. On the other hand it is stated that Evans will hold all his votes and that the deadlock will not be broken today. The conference will be watched with considerable interest. S. A. McCoy, F. G. Schoch and H. A. Kneibler, of this city, who are the conferrees from can decide the nomination and thus Montour wields the balance of power of Bloomsburg, and Hon. C. H. Dickerman, of Milton, made the decisive battle for the Democratic endorsement. It was generally conceded that the winner of this county would get the district nomination and the campaign was a warm one.

At the Republican Congressional conference, Thursday, the following rules were adopted:

Resolved-That the rules which have heretofore governed the Republican party in its nominations of Congressional candidates in the Seventeenth Congressional district be readopted for the government of the Congressional conferences now holding and to be hereafter held in the Sixteenth Congressional district of Pennsylvania, viz:-

Rule I-All conferences shall be held at the Montour House, Danville, upon call regularly issued by the chairman of the standing committee of Northumberland county, addressed to the respective chairmen of the standing committees of the counties comprising the district.

Rule II-Representation in such conferences shall be upon the follow- merman, William Ammerman, Camering basis, to wit: Five conferrees from Northumberland county, four conferrees from Columbia county, three conferrees from Montour county, two conferrees from Sullivan county.

OLD PAPER

W. H. N. Walker, of the Second Ward hotel, has an interesting old paper, the columns of which contain curious reading for the people of this day. It is the Londonderry, (Ireland) Sentinel, of July 19, 1845, and was received by Mr. Walker's father, the late W. C. Walker. In its American news the paper states that the President of Texas, Anson Jones, has issued a proclamation announcing that Mex dependence of Texas on the condition that it will not unite with any other state. The Sentinel further says that it is thought that Texas will annex itself to the United States at any risk, this risk being a war between the United States and Mexico. Texas did take the risk and the war which followed was one that cost exico all the rich territory of the outh west and its Pacific coast posessions.
