FRANK C. ANGLE, Proprietor. Danville, Pa., July 24, 1902

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR GOVERNOR Samuel W. Pennypacker. OF PHILADELPHIA. LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR William Brown, of Lawrence County. SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS Major Isaac B. Brown of Erie County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET

Congress (Full term.) James Foster. Congress (Short term.) STATE SENATOR Thomas J. Price. LEGISLATURE John E. Roberts. DISTRICT ATTORNEY Ralph Kissner. COUNTY COMMISSIONERS J. F. Mowrer. Charles W. Cook. COUNTY AUDITORS John L. Jones. E. V. Flick.

REPUBLICAN CONFERENCE

The Republican Congressional conference of the Sixteenth district, in session at the Neff House, Sunbury, Thursday, took fifty ballots without changing the result of the previous meeting, which was held in this city. The vote was tied between Hon. Fred A. Godecharles of Milton, and Charles C. Evans, Esq., of Berwick. The conferees were the same as when the conference was at the Montour House, as follows: Columbia—J. H. Catterall, T. H. Doan, Berwick—W. O. Holmes, G. E. Wilbur, Bloomsburg. Montour—S. A. McCoy, F. G. Schoch, H. A. Kneibler, Danville. Northumberland—Dr. W. L. Shindel, Charles C. Bowen, Sunbury; W. H. Dappen, Dalmatia; J. B. DeHaas, Milton; William Eddy, Shamokin. Sullivan—M. P. Shoemaker, C. R. Funston, Laporte. Chairman W. L. Shindel called the conference to order at 11:45 o'clock and balloting was immediately begun. Eight were cast before a recess was taken for dinner. The Northumberland and Sullivan conferees voted for Godecharles, and the conferees from this county and Columbia cast their votes for Evans. At 2 o'clock there was a second session, at which 8 more ballots were taken. Then there was another adjournment of an hour in order that the short term conferees could meet. The nomination for the unexpired term of Hon. Rufus K. Polk was made under the Seventeenth title as that was the number of the district at the time of Mr. Polk's election. The conferees from Columbia, Montour and Sullivan counties were the same as for the long term. From Northumberland county W. K. Lord, of Mt. Carmel, had named W. H. R. Smink, of Shamokin; A. J. Baum, of Sunbury; H. Zeff, of Northumberland; J. H. Smith and C. L. Cleaver, of Mt. Carmel. J. H. Catterall, of Berwick, was chosen chairman, and the secretaries were S. A. McCoy of this city, and M. P. Shoemaker of Laporte. The only name presented was that of Mr. Lord and he was nominated on the first ballot. At 3 o'clock the long term conferees got together again and this time they balloted thirty-four times without a change in the officers or members of the conference, and was called to order at 2:24 o'clock. Balloting was immediately begun and fifty were cast up to 4 o'clock. At 4:30 another session was held and ten more ballots were taken. Then the motion was passed to meet at Berwick. The first meeting of the conference was held at the Montour House, this city, on Thursday, July 10, and ten ballots were taken. For three ballots Hon. Fred A. Godecharles of Milton, had the five votes of Northumberland county, and two of Sullivan county. Charles C. Evans, Esq., of Berwick, received the four votes of Columbia county and Hon. James Foster of this city, was given the three Montour votes. On the fourth ballot the Montour conferees voted for Evans and this decided the conference. On the following Thursday, July 17, another meeting was held at the Neff House, Sunbury, when fifty ballots were taken with the same result of seven votes for Godecharles and seven for Evans. With yesterday's balloting the whole number of ballots cast is 120, of which 117 have been tied between Godecharles and Evans. Under the rules of the Republican party the state chairman has the power to appoint an additional conferee to break a deadlock, provided a request is made by the candidates whose nomination is held up. The conferees from this district seem determined to make the nomination without asking for the extra conferee.

MADE MERRY AT BARN RAISING

On Tuesday the frame work of a large hip-roofed barn was raised on the farm of David Smith, in Anthony township. Early in the morning friends and neighbors came from far and near, and they worked so zealously that before noon every timber was in its place. While the men were busy at the barn a number of women were helping Mrs. Smith to prepare the dinner. Four long tables were laid in two large rooms of the spacious farm-house loaded down with the good things of the season. Mirth and good feeling prevailed every where, showing that Mr. and Mrs. Smith as host and hostess are popular and excel in the art of entertaining their many friends.

Among those present were: Samuel Hiller, John Welliver, William Ellis, Alfred Smith, Frank Smith, Frank Snyder, Patrick Demin, John Weaver, Edward Smith, James Demin, George Rishel, David Mills, Clarence Yeagle, Charles McLaughlin, Steward McLaughlin, Clarence Dewald, Scott Demin, Alex. Umstead, Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bell, Bernice Mills, Mrs. J. C. Caldwell, Mrs. John Demin, Mrs. Patrick Demin, Mrs. Frank Snyder, Mrs. William Mills, Mrs. M. E. Seehler, Miss Hannah Seehler, Mrs. Demin, Mrs. Margaret Schell, Mrs. James Snyder, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Alfred Smith, Mrs. Thomas Demin, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, P. F. Bronnen, John Watson, George Summers, Edward Caldwell, George Hill, Frank Deihl, Charles Umstead, Frank Kramer, Charles Dewald, Harvey Litchard, Peter Rishel, A. P. Cotner, John Yeagle, Charles Clemens, Gus Clemens, Joseph Coons, George Deihl, Thomas Dorr, Charles Derr, Arthur Leighow, Ellis Fowler, Roy Kramer, Ambrose Love, Jacob Deihl, Harry Dewald, Harry Ritter, Grant Smith, Boyd Deihl, Montgomery Derr, William Tanner, William Fuller, Charles Wagner, William Fuller, James Ellis, Howard Welliver, Alfred Bitler, H. THE OLD TONGUE AND THE NEW

His hobby was language. His pupils said of him, "Professor Robertson fed on Greek roots when he was a boy," and "Professor Robertson would rather ask for a stone in a dead language than for bread in a living one." These are samples of the jokes that irreverent undergraduates heaped upon "the old professor," as they were wont to call him, as he was thirty-eight; but it must not be understood that they did not love him. He was a simple-minded, ingenious creature who, like Uncle Toby, would not hurt a fly, and although he was in thirteenth with no one, every one would have been glad to be intimate with him. Among the students in the Woman's college attached to the university was one Eunice Middleton, who attended all of Professor Robertson's lectures so long as she was an undergraduate, and when her class finished and went out into the world she remained behind to take a postgraduate course in Sanskrit. Her friends wondered at this, because Eunice was by no means scholarly and was less proficient in languages than in any other branch. Perhaps it was this that led her to secure Professor Robertson's services to tutor her during her college career and to take a postgraduate course under him in a class of which she was the only member. She studied Sanskrit, and when she returned to Sanskrit she went at it with her hours pouring over her lessons, asking innumerable questions and making now and then a comment which caused the professor to sigh. "How does Miss Middleton get on?" asked one of the returned graduates of the professor. "I presume she speaks the language fluently by this time." The professor put his hand to his forehead and sighed.

THE SAME OLD STORY.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and re-told by the people of other lands. Last summer he had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which he used according to directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks, when I used other remedies. Mr. Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by Paules & Co. No. 352 Mill street.

Spent a Pleasant Evening.

The following from this city were pleasantly entertained at the home of William Churm, Frosty Valley, Saturday evening: Misses May Churm, Irene Cook, Margaret Churm, Anna Freche, Lizzie Churm, Lizzie Horton, Rachel Churm, Dorothy Horton, Stella Churm; Messrs. Henry Ditzel, James Rudy, Charles Marshall, Edward Snyder, Bert Gose, Walter Bonnel, James Johnson, Frank Bond, Frank Callon, Ira Churm, Lloyd Wartz, and Clinton Schellheimer.

Summer complaints are unusually prevalent among children this season.

A well developed case in the writer's family was cured last week by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy—one of the best patent medicines manufactured and which is kept on hand at the home of your scrubber. No family should be without a bottle of this medicine in the house, especially in summer-time. Lansing, Iowa, Journal. For sale by Paules & Co. No. 352 Mill street.

Cat Captures Water Snakes.

E. K. Hale is the owner of a cat which has a fondness for catching water snakes. The feline got five snakes out of the river last week and killed them all after a short struggle in which the snakes were unable to get away from the cat's claws and teeth.

Need More Help.

Often the over-taxed organs of digestion cry out for more help by Dr. Cassell's Pain-Expeller. Headaches, liver complaints, bowel disorders, such troubles call for prompt use of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are gentle, thorough and untransfected. Sent Paules & Co.'s drug store.

CAMERAS FOR SUMMER OUTINGS. We have just received a new stock of Cameras and supplies for summer vacation season. Kodaks from $80 cents up. Plate Cameras from $2.00 to $25.00. Stanley, Lovell, Eastman, and Seeds Plates. Solio print paper and everything for amateurs use. HENRY REMPE.
