CHARLES EMORY SMITH

Says That Pennypacker Has Solidifled the Party.

ROOSEVELT MUST BE SUSTAINED

Interesting Interview With the Distinquished Ex-Minister and Cabinet Member-Is Heartlly In Favor of Pennypacker, and Will Take Stump.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) the cabinet of McKinley and Roosevelt, and editor of the Philadelphia Press, is the latest distinguished Republican to add his voice to the Pennypacker volume. He will be heard later on the stump.

The Philadelphia Press has always been noted for its independent Republican leanings; this year it is supporting the Republican ticket with all the virile force of its editorial page.

Your correspondent had a lengthy in terview with General Smith yesterday. Besides being a former minister to St. Petersburg and member of the Cabinet he is one of the best posted men or great national issues in this or any other state. In his interview, which follows, the Ex-Postmaster General expressed himself with great earnest ness and vigor. He said:

WANTS THE PARTY TO STAND TOGETHER.

January, I was practically out of Pennsylvania politics. While at Washington, in the Cabinet, I could not ac tively participate in State movements On my return in January to resume my place among the active Republicans of the state. I was exceedingly anxious that the party should act in such a manner that all Republicans of every shade could stand together in its sup-

"It was important on broad national grounds that the Republican organization of Pennsylvania should take this position. It is a transition time. The relinquishing its devotion to the economic, financial and moral principles with which its past history has been identified, the advance of the republic to new obligations and new responsibilities in the world has surrounded the nation and the party in control with new conditions. It is vital that the ability of the party to meet a new situation should be demonstrated and that its hold on public confidence should not be impaired.

A CRITICAL SITUATION. "The situation is critical in another respect. President McKinley had passed away and President Roosevelt had taken the helm. The accession of a Vice President to the Presidency under such circumstances has always heretofore been marked by trouble and conflict. In every case, except immediately after the war when the Southern States did not participate in the election, it has been followed by political revulsion. President Roosevelt's patriotic continuation of President Me Kinley's policies and the great ability courage and fidelity with which he has addressed himself to the highest interests of the people, have made the situ ation different from all previous suc cessions. But no risks should be taken and the Republican organization should holding the ship steadfast on her

While the Republican party is thus swinging to a new position and facing new and broader questions, it would be disastrous if Pennsylvania should do anything that would weaken the movement. The country and the party must become as fixed and stable on the new lines as they were on the old. It was this reason which made it specially important that the Republican organization of Pennsylvania should proceed in such a way as to make no divis ion and detract nothing from th strength of the administration and the national position of the party.

PENNYPACKER HAS PARTY'S

CONFIDENCE. "This fortunate result was assured in the nomination of Judge Pennypacker for Governor. That nomination made it certain that the Republicans of the state would stand together and that at this important juncture, when the party faces the future under new conditions, its successful career will not be clouded by any doubt or any extraneous issues in Pennsylvania. Judge Pennypacker possesses and deserves universal confidence. He has been twelve years on the bench and has been distinguished as a learned, fearless and upright judge. He is a man of an independent type of mind who thinks and sale by Paules & Co, acts for himself, and whose sense of right and honor controls all his ac-

REPUBLICANS EVERYWHERE SATISFIED.

"The strength of his nomination i hown in the fact that it has practi eally disarmed criticism and opposition and has been accepted by Repubicans of all shades as meeting the reguirements of the situation. It is within my knowledge that leading Republicans of every part of the country have expressed their great gratification at the wisdom of this action and their satisfaction that the Republicans of Pennsylvania will present a united front. The President, who is so earn estly laboring to meet the best demands of the country and to keep it on the high plane of prosperity and progress, is strengthened by the responsivenes of the Republicans of Pennsylvania to tory as may now be expected will uphold his hands in his good work." Later in the interview General Smith said that he expected to take the stump for Pennypacker this fall.

Take care of the stomach and the health will take care of itself. If people only realized the soundness of that statement the majority might live to a good old age like Moses, 'the eye undimmed, the natural force unabated.' It is in the stomach that the food is made. It is from the stomach that nourishment is dispensed to nerve and nuscle. If the stomach is "weak" it can't do its whole work for each part of the body. If it is diseased the disease will taint the nourishment which is distributed, and so spread disease throughout the body. It was the realization of the importance of the stomach as the very center of health and the common source of disease, which led Dr. Pierce to prepare his "Golden Medical Discovery." "Diseases which originate in the stomach must be The eured through the stomach. soundness of this theory is proved every day by cures of diseased organs, heart, 'Discovery' which is solely and singly medicine for the blood and organs of gestion and nutrition. It is a temperance medicine containing no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant.

At Panama, Colomubia, by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent phy cian, of Panama Columbia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had beome so weak that she could turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful results were effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better: inside events of the past four years have put three days she was upon her her feet the party on a new trial. While not well.' For sale 352 Mill street.
