Hon. Fred A. Godcharles, of Milton, who has received the Repbulican nomination for Congress in this district, is very popular not only in his own county, but in all the other counties of the district. He has been honored with a seat in the legislature from Northumberland county, being elected two years ago after a spirited campaign. His colleague was a Democrat. He made a remarkable run and was only twenty-seven years old when chosen to represent his county in the House of Representatives. He has now been named by his party as a candidate for the national House of Representatives, an endorsement of his legislative record and a recognition of his ability.

Mr. Godcharles is the head of the Milton Nail Works and is a staunch friend of the working man. Every measure in which the laboring man had an interest received his support while he was in the legislature. He is one of the most progressive citizens in Milton and will ably represent the district in Congress. In this county he has many friends and will poll a large vote here. In Columbia and Sullivan counties he will also get a good vote, while he is confident that he can carry Northumberland county. His friends predict his election this fall and will make every effort to roll up a nice majority for him in the Sixteenth district.

The list of members of the Republican State Committee was given out yesterday by Senator Quay, who is chairman. The twelve members at large are appointed by the chairman, and the others were chosen at the recent state convention by the delegates from each Senatorial district.

PLANS FOR CAMPAIGN

Senator Quay Temporarily An Invalid at the Seashore.

URGED FOR NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

Democratic Newspapers Vainly Trying to Make Votes By Misrepresentation—Republicans Are Presenting a Solid Front to the Enemy.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—Contrary to expectation, State Chairman Senator Quay did not take charge of headquarters here in Philadelphia yesterday. He is sitting in a second-story front room of an Atlantic City cottage, with his right foot swathed in bandages and resting on a chair. It will be at least a week or ten days before he will be able to abandon this position.

The senator is suffering from a painful but not serious burn. The whole top of the right foot is blistered and a hole burned into the flesh. He was about to take a foot bath in a smooth porcelain tub with four faucets. In the semi-darkness of the room he turned on the hot water and could not get out of the way of the boiling torrent quick enough.

It was announced several weeks ago that Senator Quay would take charge of Republican state headquarters about September 1. He started for the Maine woods to recuperate and fish, but found the streams swollen and the land marshy. Then he tried to compromise on the Adirondacks, but the raw air threatened a return of his old cough, and he came down to Atlantic and rented a cottage. From here he will take up his residence in Philadelphia till Pennypacker is elected.

An interesting piece of gossip has been floating around Washington the last few days. It is that President Roosevelt is strongly disposed to urge Senator Quay for national chairman. There is a very logical basis for this story, too.

QUAY FOR NATIONAL CHAIRMAN

If President Roosevelt is nominated, and he is certain to be according to the belief of Senator Quay, Senator Hanna will not care to serve as national chairman, although his personal relations with the president are perfectly harmonious and pleasant. Besides, Senator Hanna's health is not good.

The New England contingent want to make Governor William Murray Crane, of Massachusetts, Hanna's successor. The western people are clamoring for Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, a young man like the president himself. The older heads in the party are looking for a man of ideas and experience combined, and they have seclected Quay.

Of course it is a long way ahead yet, and a great deal of the talk about a national chairman is largely speculative, but that Senator Quay is being urged for the place by men like Platt and Kean, of New Jersey, contingent always on the dropping out of Hanna, is a fact. Quay's combination with Platt put Roosevelt on the ticket with McKinley. His magnificent management of the first Harrison campaign made him nationally famous, and it is perfectly logical now that he should be urged for national chairman two years hence.

PATTISON ORGANS IN A HOLE.

"The hardest blow that the Democrats have sustained," said a Pittsburg visitor to state headquarters yesterday, "was the action of the Citizens party leaders in Pittsburg in placing the name of Pennypacker and the other state candidates on their ticket. The Democrats in Allegheny county expected to have Pattison endorsed by the Citizens party. This would have been a big card for Pattison all over the state, but the Citizens party leaders, all of whom are Republicans, decided to fall in with all the other Republicans of the state and stand by the colors."

The Democratic newspapers of the state are following out a plan of battle by which they hope to direct attention away from their own demoralized condition. It consists in claiming that the Republican party is still rent by dissentions and that a cut-throat policy is to be pursued by the dissatisfied. This is all bosh! It is a wail of despair!

INDEPENDENTS ALL BACK HOME.

The interview with Ex-Postmaster General Charles Emery Smith published last week in these dispatches settled such rumors. He was one of the most conspicuous Independents in the state. Others like Ex-Governor Hastings, Senator Alex. Stewart, of Franklin; Senator Drury, of Luzerne; Senator Robert W. Edmiston, of Bradford; Senator Hampton W. Rice, of Bucks, are all supporting Pennypacker. And yet they were in the fore-front of Independent battles for years along with Representative Robert K. Young, of Tioga; James Clarency and Elias Abrams, of Philadelphia; all the Allegheny county delegates, the Bradford county delegation and representatives from a score of other counties who are now firmly fastened by loyalty within party lines.

As for the Independent newspapers in the state there is not one that is not supporting the whole Republican ticket. This includes such conspicuous daily journals as the Philadelphia "Press," the Wilkesbarre "Record," the York "Dispatch" and a hundred and more interior daily and weekly journals whose influence has always been felt on which ever side they took their stand.

All talk of Republican dissatisfaction is too puerile to merit consideration. Scars are inevitable in politics. There was never a time when some one did not carry them. There are fewer this year than for eight years past. The leaders who differed with the organization in the last state convention are now foremost in fighting the common enemy.

PLANS FOR THE CAMPAIGN.

Secretary of the State Committee Col. W. R. Andrews is busy on the work of preparing for the campaign tour of Judge Pennypacker and his company of spell-binders. The calls for all over the state for a visit from this distinguished party are growing so numerous that it is going to be quite a job to satisfy everybody. But Col. Andrews is possessed of such ability as a manager that all parties are pretty sure to be satisfied. The attempt will be made to reach every county in the state.

The first great gun of the campaign will be fired at the Academy of Music on or about Sept. 15. Judge Pennypacker will be the star. The make-up of the campaigning party has not yet been completed. The speakers will work in relays or shifts. Some will remain with Judge Pennypacker to the end; others will go out on the road for two or three weeks only.

Among those who will make up the list are Major I. B. Brown, candidate for secretary of internal affairs; ex-Senator W. M. Brown, candidate for lieutenant governor; Senator Penrose, Ex-Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith, Governor W. A. Stone, Congressmen M. E. Olmstead, Thad. Mahan, Irving P. Wanger, John Dalzell, H. H. Bingham, Assistant Attorney General of the U. S. James M. Beck, Attorney General John P. Elkins, Ex-District Attorney George S. Graham of Philadelphia; Hampton M. Carson, Esq., and Jno. P. Kinsey, Esq., city solicitor of Philadelphia; J. Hampton Moore, city treasurer of Philadelphia; Ex-Governor Daniel H. Hastings, Albert Miller district attorney of Harrisburg, and possibly a number of speakers, members of congress who are now giving the invitation consideration.

Never before in the history of the state committee's work has there been so much interest displayed by county leaders in any campaign as the present. Secretary Andrews thus early in the canvass is fairly swamped with work, often remaining at his desk till midnight and double the number of stenographers usually employed at this time are now at work.

PENROSE SAYS IT MEANS VICTORY

Senator Penrose who has been in charge of state headquarters since the first of the month has been compelled to abandon even a semi-weekly visit to the seashore over night, so great have been the number of visitors and demands from correspondents.

"It shows how greatly the people are interested in this year's campaign," said Senator Penrose. "Republican prosperity is not a theory, but an established, self-evident fact, and everybody wants it to continue. It can only be continued by Republican activity, and Republican activity in Pennsylvania this year is going to result in one of the greatest victories the state has ever known."

The calls for literature of all kinds are very numerous. These will be answered, Secretary Andrews says, in a perfectly satisfactory manner. The committee is having a hand-book prepared which will be placed in the possession of every worker, and which will be one of the most comprehensive works of its kind ever published.

A YOUNG LADY'S LIFE SAVED.

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Chas. H. Utter, a prominent physician, of Panama, Columbia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady sixteen years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study for me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful results were effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by Paules & Co. No. 352 Mill street.

Dislocated Jaw While Gaping.

Boyd Foulk, of Limestone township, dislocated his jaw Saturday while gaping. He is employed by Cyrus Coleman and was engaged in burning lime. The inhalation of the sulphur fumes caused him to become drowsy so that he frequently yawned. One of these yawns was so hearty that the jaw bone slipped out of place and Foulk was unable to close his mouth. He was taken to the office of Dr. Hoffa, in Washingtonville, and the doctor reduced the dislocation.

A Cure for Cholera Infantum.

"Last May," says Mrs. Curtis Baker, of Bookwalter, Ohio, "an infant child of our neighbor's was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctor had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two day's time the child had fully recovered, and is now (nearly a year since) a vigorous, healthy girl. I have recommended this Remedy frequently and have never known it to fail in any single instance." For sale by Paules & Co.

Yesterday in the Jewish calender, was the 9th day of the Fifth Month, or Tish'a b'Ab, and was observed by orthodox Jews throughout the world as one of the most mournful days of the year. The day commemorates three direful events in Jewish history, viz: The destruction of the first and second Temples of Jerusalem, and in later years, the expulsion of the Jews from Spain (1492). The date appears to be a fatal one in the history of the Jews as the greatest disasters befell them in this season of mourning.

My Hair

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and it brought all my hair back again."
W. B. Orton, Marseilles, Ill.

One thing is certain,—Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. This is because it is a hair food. It feeds the hair and the hair grows, that's all there is to it. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

SEARCHING FOR THE OLD BIBLE

Jesse Dietz of Philadelphia, son of Jacob Dietz, East Market street, just now sojourning in Danville, is another one of the probable heirs to the $8,000,000 estate of Leonard Case of Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Dietz a day or so ago returned from a visit to Espy, Columbia county, where he had access to an old Bible in the possession of Ebenezer Case, by which he is able to trace his descent from Adam Case, who it is claimed was the nephew of Absalom Case, the pioneer who became wealthy in Ohio, and grandfather of Leonard Case of Cleveland whose millions are awaiting distribution.

Mahlon Case, born and raised at Numidia, Columbia county, was the son of Adam Case. Martha J., daughter of Mahlon Case, married Charles Ryan of Rush township, Northumberland county. Her daughter, Mary R., married Jacob Dietz of this city and is the mother of Jesse Dietz.

Adam Case, the great, great grandfather of Mr. Dietz, according to the Bible family record was a brother of William Case, grandfather of J. H. Kase of South Danville. Nothing now remains to be discovered but records to show that the father of Adam and William Case was a brother of Absalom Case. An old Bible containing a family record which will conclusively establish this fact, it is claimed, is extant and is supposed to be in the possession of George Berdanier, a former resident of Mahoning township, whose whereabouts unfortunately at present are unknown. Mr. Dietz is making a strong effort to locate the old Bible and any assistance rendered him will be thankfully received.

There is a rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

Three Fingers Sawed Off.

Charles Moser, who resides in Red Point Hollow about three miles from Danville, Saturday morning, met with an accident which will render him a cripple for life. With his father he owns and operates a portable saw mill, which at present is located on the farm of Charles Diehl, on Montour Ridge a short distance from Mooresburg, where a tract of timber land is being cleared.

He was busy at work Saturday when the accident occurred. A piece of timber being sawed, it seems, slipped out of position with the result that Mr. Moser's hand was thrown against the circular saw. In an instant the index and the two next fingers of his left hand were cut off, the thumb and the little finger alone remaining. Dr. Curry of this city was called who gave the injured man surgical attention.

Charles Moser's father is also a cripple as the result of a similar accident sustained some years ago, the little finger alone remaining on the left hand.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

POINTERS FOR HOREMEN.

On Wednesday morning the 23 inst., I found that one of my valuable mated bay horses had been kicked in the hock by the other one, some time during the previous night. I found him in a most deplorable condition. His hock was swollen as tight as the skin would hold. The joint was three or four times its normal size. The horse could not bear a single pound of weight on it.

I applied MOYER'S WHITE LINIMENT freely to the affected part at once. By evening the swelling was reduced one-half. I bathed it again and on Thursday morning the swelling had entirely disappeared. He could now stand firmly on the injured leg again and by Thursday night no sign of lameness could be seen.

This Friday morning he is working in the team as well as ever.

The value of such a liniment on the farm and in the stable is incalculable. I think the knowledge of its merits should be spread broadcast as rapidly and as thoroughly as printer's ink can make it known.

Letter From Corporal Gross.

A letter was received yesterday from Corporal George Gross, Company F, Twelfth Regiment, N. G. P., which stated that all the Danville soldiers are well and are kept busy doing guard duty. The corporal had very little to say concerning the strike situation, but sent his best wishes to all his friends at home.

An Apple Tree's Roots.

For the purpose of erecting a suitable monument in honor of Roger Williams, the founder of Rhode Island, his private burying ground was searched for himself and wife. It was found that everything had passed into oblivion. The shape of the coffins could be traced only by the carbonaceous matter. The rusted hinges and nails and a round wooden knot remained in one grave, while a single knot of braided hair was found in the other.

Near the graves stood an apple tree. This had sent down two main roots into the very presence of the coffined dead. The larger root, pushing its way to the precise spot occupied by the skull of Roger Williams, had made a turn as if passing around it and followed the direction of the backbone to the hips. Here it divided into two branches, sending one along each leg to the heel, where both turned upward toward the toes. One of these roots formed a slight crook at the knees, which made the whole bear a striking resemblance to the human form.

The Offertory.

The offertory occasionally yields its humors. I can see no fun myself in dropping into the plate buttons or peppermint drops or gilded farthings. But these and other such like votive offerings occasionally come our way.

On one occasion a mild hint was given to a dirty looking verger when a small coin was carefully wrapped up in a bit of paper inscribed, "For a bath for a prominent church official." On another occasion, when the officiating clergyman had been somewhat bungling through a difficult litany, a similar piece of paper was marked, "For a singing lesson for the curate."

After a somewhat rambling discourse from one of my colleagues, who shall of course be nameless, the church warden told me that a man at the bottom of the church, when he offered him the plate, took out a sixpence and looked at it ruefully and then cast it in with the remark, "Well, you shall have it, old fellow, but it's a deal more than that sermon was worth."—Cornhill Magazine.

A Singular Method of Treatment.

A peculiar case of poisoning by a physician was that of Dr. Stephen Eotvos in Hungary many years ago. Eotvos undertook to hasten the death of patients whose cases he considered hopeless by putting them out of their misery, as he termed it, with fatal drugs. He encountered no opposition to his peculiar methods of benevolence while he practiced them on people of no particular standing, but when the doctor hastened the death of a well known land proprietor named Szlavy, who was slowly dying of cancer, the relatives of the dead man presented a violent protest and demanded the prosecution of Eotvos.

The physician declared on trial he was actuated by humane motives and had merely eased the journey of his victims to the inevitable goal. This defense was not accepted by the court. Eotvos was acquitted of malice, but found guilty of homicide without malice and sentenced to a long term of imprisonment.
