

FRANK C. ANGLE, Proprietor. Danville, Pa., Oct. 2, 1902

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET

FOR GOVERNOR. Samuel W. Pennypacker, of Philadelphia.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR. William Brown, of Lawrence County. SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS.

Major Isaac B. Brown of Erie County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. Congress (Full term). Fred. A. Godcharles, of Milton.

Congress (Short term). W. K. Lord, of Mt. Carmel.

STATE SENATOR. Thomas J. Price.

LEGISLATURE. John E. Roberts.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY. Ralph Kiser.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. J. F. Mowrer, Charles W. Cook.

COUNTY AUDITORS. John L. Jones, E. V. Flick.

COMMUNICATIONS. All communications sent to the AMERICAN for publication must be signed by the writer, and communications not so signed will be rejected.

A couple of campaigners who at a loss for material that would disparage the Republican candidate for Congress in the eyes of the average voter on a recent trip to Danville concocted a story to the effect that he paid his dudders but 4.25 per ton when the facts in the case are that Mr. Fred A. Godcharles was the first employer in Milton to advance his men to $4.50 per ton—which was immediately after being notified by the management of the Reading Iron Co., that they proposed to do likewise. These same politicians promulgated, among other untruths, the story Mr. Godcharles was narrow in his religious views and that he headed not the support of certain congregations and sets to secure his election which carries "LIE" on the front, back and sides of the statement, in fact we have not in this district a more liberal minded man than Mr. Godcharles who scatters his favors with free hand to Presbyterian, Methodist, Catholic, Baptist, or any other denomination—asking no questions, but giving to one as liberally as to the other—knowing full well that contributions to all are well used. The fact is both Mr. Godcharles and Mr. Dickerman attend divine worship in the Presbyterian church and occupy pews but a few feet apart on the same section of the church and any such silly and so palpably untrue story could be contradicted by Mr. Dickerman himself—who we have no doubt would gladly avail himself of the opportunity.

AN INTERESTING CAREER. William K. Lord, of Mt. Carmel, who has been nominated by the Republicans of the Sixteenth district to fill the unexpired term of the late Rufus Polk, in Congress, stands more markedly than any other man in this district, perhaps, for the rise of the working man. Born in Schuylkill county thirty-eight years ago, his early life was spent between the coal breaker, where as a slate picker he began to learn the value of a hard earned dollar and the public schools where he gathered permanently that sort of lasting education which has made a success of so many lowly-born Americans.

Ever since those days he has been climbing. He moved up the ranks of colliery hands until he became clerk. Then he opened in Mt. Carmel, a small store which has grown today to be the leading house of the town, while its owner takes his seat at the directors table of the Guarantee Trust Company and is present at the meetings of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Lord is a man of more than the usual intellectual power. He is an omnivorous reader, a forcible and ready speaker and goes to his new work thoroughly well versed in the past doings and future plans of the national Congress.

DEMOCRAT OR REPUBLICAN. A democratic mass meeting was held in Trevorton last evening. Some speeches were made and some whooping for the ticket was done.

But the most significant thing that was done was the endorsement of Hon. Fred A. Godcharles for Congress. Mr. Godcharles is not to be on the ticket usually voted by these citizens but they knew a man who will work in their interests when they see him, and they have seen Mr. Godcharles in the state legislature and he was not found skulking out of his duty there. Now it can be confidently predicted that he will do his duty if placed in a higher position where there is greater opportunity for good work for the interests of our people.—Mt. Carmel News, Sept. 23.

STAT OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, LUCAS COUNTY. FRANK J. CHENEY makes oath that he is senior partner of the firm of F. J. CHENEY & CO., doing business in the City of Toledo, County and State aforesaid and that said firm will pay the sum of ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for each and every case of CATARRH that cannot be cured by the use of HALL'S CATARRH CURE.

FRANK J. CHENEY, sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 9th day of February, 1902.

A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

GOV. PATTISON AND THE SOLDIER

Why Grand Army Men are Opposing His Election.

HIS VETO OF THE BURIAL BILL

He Was Willing That Honorably Discharged Soldiers and Sailors Should be Buried in the Potter's Field. Only Nineteen Democrats Endorsed His Course.

Harrisburg, Pa., Sept. 30.—Hon. Robert E. Pattison, Democratic candidate for governor, lives in a glass house and should therefore avoid throwing stones. He is an official with a political and a partisan past. It is for this reason that almost to a man the members of the Grand Army of Pennsylvania are opposing his candidacy. They can never forget some of his actions when he was governor.

In 1885 the legislature passed a bill whose object it was to prevent honorably discharged soldiers and sailors from being buried in a pauper's grave. Governor Pattison vetoed it. He wrote a veto message that will live in the memory of the old soldiers as long as they live. To the credit of house and senate they passed this bill over the governor's veto. Only 19 Democrats dared to stand by their governor. The bill, House Bill No. 10, was entitled:

TO BURY THE SOLDIER HEROES.

"An act authorizing and requiring the county commissioners of each county in the state to appoint a sufficient number of suitable persons in each township or ward of their county, at the expense of the county, to look after, bury and provide a headstone for the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who served in the army or navy of the United States during the late rebellion or any preceding war, and shall hereafter die in this county leaving insufficient means to defray the necessary burial expenses."

Governor Pattison, then in the executive chair, wrote this veto message: "Harrisburg, May 8, 1885. 'To the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania: 'Gentlemen—I herewith return, without my signature, House Bill No. 10, entitled 'An act authorizing and requiring the county commissioners of each county in the state to appoint a sufficient number of suitable persons in each township and ward of their county, at the expense of the county, to look after, bury and provide a headstone for the body of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine who served in the army or navy of the United States during the late rebellion or any preceding war, and shall hereafter die in this county leaving insufficient means to defray the necessary burial expenses.'

"The bill requires the commissioners of every county in the state to appoint in every ward and township in their respective counties such number of persons as they shall deem sufficient, who shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the commissioners, and be charged with the following duties: 'To look after and cause to be buried in a decent and respectable manner, in any cemetery or burial ground within the state, other than those used exclusively for the burial of the pauper dead,' the bodies of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors or marines who served in the army or navy of the United States in the late rebellion or any preceding war, and who may die leaving insufficient means to pay for their burial. For the cost of every such burial, to the amount of $35, the county commissioners are required to draw warrants upon the treasury of the county. After such burial, the commissioners are required to erect over every such grave a headstone of such design and material as they think proper, inscribed with the name of the person and the organization in which he served; and for the payment of the expense of every such headstone the commissioners are authorized to draw a warrant to the amount of $15, which shall be paid out of the funds of the county in which said soldier, sailor or marine died."

"This bill is a remarkable exhibition of the unwarranted and preposterous extent to which a most laudable and patriotic sentiment may be carried. That principle which induces governments to pension and provide for injured and destitute soldiers, is founded in wise policy as well as dictated by the spirit of a liberal humanity. The United States and our own commonwealth have carried this principle into their laws with no niggardly hand.

DONE ENOUGH FOR THE SOLDIERS

"Thoughtful patriots have not hesitated to say that all that has been done in this direction that the most generous and generous of our country ought to do consistently with common prudence and wise public policy, and that the limit has been reached beyond which liberality will become extravagance and benevolence broad abuse. The bill herewith returned is a striking proof of the justice of such warnings, and an illustration of the thoughtlessness and crudity that may characterize legislation enacted under the pressure of misguided charity. By this bill, any man who fought in the United States army in any war, and who dies in any county of the state without leaving sufficient means for his burial, immediately becomes a charge upon the county for his burial to the amount of fifty dollars. He may never have had a residence in the county; he may never have been a citizen of the state; he may not have been wounded, or become diseased or disabled in the public service; he may die as the result of his vices or his crimes, by accident or by his own hand; he may have enjoyed and wasted the bounty of the Federal government for the last ten years; he may die in the perpetration of a felony, or be a criminal fleeing the justice of another jurisdiction; but no matter who he is or what he has been, he served in the army or navy of the United States in any war and dies destitute in any county, that county must bury him at an expense of thirty-five dollars, and erect a headstone over his grave at a cost of fifteen dollars."

MEXICAN WAR VETERANS

"A destitute soldier of the Mexican war, who enlisted from the state of New Jersey, and who all his life has been a resident of that state, may go

QUALITY COUNTS. In buying Watches, Jewelry, Silverware, Diamonds, &c., unless you are sure of the quality, prices don't count. Ten years of business has proven that things purchased from Rempe must be good, as our guarantee is back of every article we sell. HENRY REMPE, Jeweler and Silversmith.

NOTICE TO VOTERS.

For Congress. (Full Term.) Having received the nomination for Congress I come before the voters of Montour County with a clean record in politics and business and ask your earnest support, pledging faithful performance of my duties if elected. Respectfully yours, FRED A. GODCHARLES, Milton, Pa. County Commissioner.

To the Voters of Montour County: Having received the nomination for the office of County Commissioner, at the Republican County Convention, held on Saturday, June 7, 1902, I respectfully ask for your support. If elected, I pledge you a clean and efficient administration of the affairs of the office. I have the honor to remain, Yours respectfully, CHARLES W. COOK, Valley Township.

Northumberland Presbytery Meets. The one hundred and eighty-third stated meeting of the Presbytery of Northumberland met in the Presbyterian church at Lewisburg Monday afternoon at 2:30 and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. W. Gilland, D. D. Fifty-one ministers and elders were present. The afternoon session was occupied with the business of the presbytery with the exception of a very interesting talk on the work of the foreign population within the bounds of the presbytery and that of Lehigh, by Rev. C. E. Edwards, who in years past was pastor in Mt. Lebanon. The presbytery took action toward the raising of $500 for this work. It was reported that one church has been organized since the last meeting of presbytery, at Benton, Columbia county. At the evening session a fine sermon was preached by Rev. Joseph Hunter, of Berwick. This was followed by an address by Rev. James Carter, of Williamsport, on "Foreign Missions."

Out of Deaths Served.

"When death seemed very from stomach and liver trouble, that had suffered with for years," writes P. Kings, Durham, N. C. "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave me perfect health. Best pills on earth and only 25c at Paules & Co., drug store."

Bloomsburg Fair.

Single fare for the round trip via Philadelphia and Reading railway, to Bloomsburg from Williamsport, Tamawaga and intermediate ticket stations on direct line, via Catawissa branch; also from Mahanoy City, Ashland and intermediate ticket stations. Tickets will be sold for all trains from October 7 to 10, inclusive, and will be good for return on all trains until Saturday October 11, inclusive. No ticket sold for less than twenty-five cents.

Special Trains Thursday and Friday, October 9 and 10, as follows:

Table with columns: FROM, FARE, LEAVE, A. M.

Newberry, $1.67, 7.42; Williamsport, 1.62, 7.55; Montoursville, 1.50, 8.02; Halls, 1.54, 8.11; Muncy, 1.25, 8.16; Montgomery, 1.10, 8.24; Allenwood, .96, 8.31; White Deer, .90, 8.35; New Columbia, .81, 8.40; Milton, .75, 8.32; West Milton, .75, 8.50; Pottsgrove, .63, 9.02; Moersburg, .48, 9.12; Bloom street, .29, 9.26; Danville, .29, 9.31; Bloomsburg, (Arrive) 9.57.

RETURNING: Special train will leave Bloomsburg 6:10 p. m. for Milton and Williamsport, stopping at intermediate stations and at Bloom street.

The excitement incident to travelling and change of food and water often brings on diarrhoea, and for this reason none should leave home without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or sale by Paules & Co.

Improvements at Rupert.

J. H. Fries, of this city, Delaware Lackawanna & Western track foreman, is working at Rupert and has charge of all the trackmen between Northumberland and Espy. The tracks in the yard are being relaid and eight new switches are being put in, giving additional trackage for handling the freight traffic at that place, which is very heavy on account of the junction there with the Philadelphia & Reading road. Mr. Fries has forty-five men under him and an engine and construction train is also used in the work, which will not be completed for a month. The Reading will also make improvements for increasing the yard facilities at Rupert.

Get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets at Paules & Co.'s, drug store. They are easier to take and more pleasant in effect than pills. There is no use not followed by constipation as is often the case with pills. Regular size, 25c per box.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Anna L. Johnson of this city and Mr. H. B. Stees of Naco, Arizona. The wedding will be solemnized in the very near future. Miss Johnson is a highly esteemed and widely known young lady, while the groom-elect, who was formerly of Bloomsburg, is well known and popular.

SHOOTING SQUIRRELS OUT OF SEASON.

The attention of some of our sportsmen has been called to the fact that the game law is being violated by the shooting of grey squirrels, which do not come into season until October 15th. The red squirrel is not protected by the game law and while the hunters for these, it is charged the hunters miss no opportunity to bag grey squirrels when one presents itself. In this way a number have been illegally slaughtered.

It should hardly be necessary at this time to print any of the provisions of the game law, but it would be well for all parties to remember that there is a heavy penalty attached to the killing of grey, black or fox squirrels out of season. The offender is liable to ten dollars fine for each and every squirrel taken or killed or imprisoned in the county jail for a period of one day for each dollar of penalty imposed.

Squirrels, it is said, will be very plentiful this season. Pheasants have not been seen in very great numbers, but quail abound almost everywhere. Many of these are said to be small, and what is more remarkable and quite unheard of among sportsmen is the fact that some of the quail are still hatching.

American's Famous Beauties.

Look with horror on Skin Eruptions, Blisters, Sores, Pimples, They don't have them, nor will any one, who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cures the worst cases of Itch, Ringworm, Eczema, or Salt Rheum, unchapped hands, chilblains, Inflammation of Piles. 25c at Paules & Co., drug store.

Wedding at Klinesgrove.

Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock Miss Elizabeth A. Forrester of Klinesgrove, and Samuel H. Snyder, of Sunbury, were united in marriage at the home of the bride, the ceremony was performed by Rev. N. Noble, pastor of the Klinesgrove M. E. church, in the presence of a large number of guests. Miss Jean Crowl was the bridesmaid, and H. T. Eckert, of Sunbury, was the best man. A reception was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the groom in Sunbury, after which the happy couple left for Chicago on their wedding trip. The bride is an accomplished young lady and has many friends in Danville. The groom has been employed in the store of D. H. Snyder & Company, at Sunbury, for a number of years and is very popular.

When you wake up with a bad taste in your mouth, go at once to Paules & Co.'s drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. One or two doses will clear you up. They also cure biliousness, sick headache and constipation.

To Washington D. C. via Reading Railroad.

For the accommodation of members of the G. A. R. and others, Goodrich Post of Danville has arranged with the passenger department of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway to run through coaches to Washington, D. C., via Philadelphia, Monday, October 6th on train leaving Bloomsburg 7:37 a. m., Catawissa 7:40 a. m., Danville 8:03 a. m., and arrive at Washington 4:30 p. m. Tickets good to return until Tuesday October 14th inclusive, and stop-off allowed at Baltimore, Philadelphia and one other point on P. & R. Tickets can be extended to November 3rd on payment of fifty cents to the joint agent at Washington. For full details consult P. & R. Ticket agent. Excursion rate $5.91.

CARLISLE INDIANS-BUCKNELL FOOTBALL.

Reduced rates to Williamsport, via Pennsylvania Railroad. On account of the foot ball game between the Carlisle Indians and Bucknell College, to be played at Williamsport on Saturday, October 11, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Williamsport, good going on October 11, and returning until October 13, inclusive, from Baltimore, Ronow, Elmira, East Bloomsburg, Mt. Carmel, Lykens, Harrisburg, Middleburg, Coburn, and intermediate stations, at rate of single fare for the round trip (minimum rate, 25 cents).

CHARTER NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given of an intended application to the Governor of Pennsylvania, for a charter for the incorporation of the People's Bank, to be located in the Borough of Danville, Pennsylvania, with a capital of $200,000 to carry on the business of banking, under the provisions of the act entitled "An Act for the Incorporation and Regulation of Banks of Deposit and Discount." Approved May 14, 1876, and supplements thereto.

WILLIAM A. WILCOX, Solicitor.

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE.

Estate of William A. McAttee, deceased. Notice is hereby given that letters Testamentary upon the above estate have been granted to the undersigned. All persons indebted to the said Estate, are requested to make payment, and those having claims or demands against the said estate, will make known the same without delay to

EMMA S. McATEE, Executrix. 407 N. Main street, Elmira, N. Y. Or to her Attorney, B. F. McATEE, Esq., South Bethlehem, Pa.

PRIVATE SALE!

A GOOD FARM. Estate of A. F. Kase, Dec'd. Situated in Valley Township, Montour county, four miles north of Danville, near Frosty Vally, about one fourth of a mile from Kaseville. Bounded by lands of Thos. Crossley, James Robinson, Henry Yorks and Augusta J. Maus.

Good Farm Buildings. Reasonable Terms. The farm is in good cultivation and will be sold cheap to close up the estate. Apply to W. E. KASE, Danville Steam Laundry.

A PURE BUTTER CIRCULAR

Philadelphia Merchants issue a Circular to Farmers and Dairymen. The combined pure butter interests of Philadelphia have issued an unusual circular during the past week. It is addressed to the Farmers and Dairy-men of Pennsylvania and reads as follows: "We the undersigned dealers in pure butter, being especially interested in the success of the Great bill, made repeated visits to the national capitol when this measure was under consideration in the Senate and House. "We take great pleasure in stating that the Hon. Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania was uniting in his efforts to aid in the passage of this bill, which is of inestimable benefit to the dairy interests, and we very much doubt if it would have become a law, with its many desirable features, if Senator Penrose had not labored so earnestly in its behalf. "Wealthy oleomargarine dealers and manufacturers from various sections of the United States co-operating with other powerful interests, worked with unceasing zeal to defeat this measure and thereby seriously cripple the great dairy interests, but on account of the unwavering fidelity of Senator Penrose to the farmers and dairymen, their efforts were rendered unavailing. "In view of this we would respectfully urge all farmers and dairymen to actively elect members of the senate and house of representatives in Pennsylvania who will support re-election to the United States Senate the Hon. Boies Penrose, of Philadelphia, Pa."

PATTISON OPPOSED BY LABOR

Tinplate Workers Urge Wage Earners to Oppose His Election as Governor. At the recent tin plate conference of the Amalgamated Association the following resolutions were passed: "Whereas, R. E. Pattison has been selected as one of the candidates for governor of this great commonwealth; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Whereas, it is well known to organized labor that said R. E. Pattison is a most bitter enemy of organized labor as was evidenced by his action during his last administration by his vetoing Senate bill No. 19, session of 1885, providing for a better protection of wages of labor and providing for a better system of collection, and his vetoing House bill No. 628, securing to mechanics and laborers the right to file liens on real estate for wages due.

"Also by sending troops to Homestead during the strike of 1892, after he had promised a committee of the workmen that no troops would be sent there in view of the fact that Adjutant General Greenland had reported that peace prevailed and that the presence of troops was not necessary for the preservation of order; and

"Where