CONDENSED NEWS.

The Republicans of Montour county have presented for your approval for District Attorney Ralph Kisner, who is one of the younger members of the Bar of this county and who is rapidly building up a lucrative practice. He is a gentleman with all that term implies, courteous and affable and above all honest which means and should mean much in an official, who has in a measure control of your life and liberty. This is no political office. A Democrat cannot be accused for being the less a Democrat for voting for Ralph Kisner for District Attorney.

While the coal bucket is empty the chances are that even if the dinner pail is full the food is uncooked.

The Sunday School class of Mrs. Wesley Morrill will hold a social in the lecture room of St. Peter's M. E. church, South Danville, on Friday evening, Ice cream, cake, and candy will be on sale.

Some half dozen antiquated fire arms belonging to Will G. Brown form an attraction in the window at Cole's Hardware store. The collection is made up mostly of flintlock, muskets and horse pistols, several of which look primitive enough to have seen service in the revolutionary war.

State Supt. Dr. Schaeffer has issued a circular letter to the school authorities in which he says that trees can be planted in the fall as well as in the spring. Hence it has become customary for the many schools to celebrate autumn arbor day in addition to the arbor days which the governor annually designates by proclamation in the spring. For rural schools closing before the middle of April the autumn arbor day is the only one which they can observe. In accordance with this custom, Friday, October 17th, 1902, is hereby named autumn arbor day, and the directors, teachers and pupils of the schools are requested to observe the day by planting trees and other suitable exercises.

No matter when or how the coal strike may be ended, it is quite likely that anthracite will not for a long time be used so freely as heretofore. Many persons who have been using bituminous lately will continue to do so.

The Bloomsburg fair this week will be the last fair of the season in this section of the state. From there the horses will return and go into winter quarters. The season has not been a successful one for a majority of the horsemen on account of the rain and bad tracks.

Charles E. Evans, Esq., of Berwick, has been appointed as a lay delegate to represent the Central Pennsylvania conference in the World's Missionary Convention, which will take place at Cleveland, O., October 21-24. Rev. Harry Corbin Harman of this city, and Rev. Richard H. Gilbert, of Berwick, will represent the Central Pennsylvania Conference in the great convention as ministerial delegates. Hon. James Foster, of this city, is a lay delegate, appointed a month or so ago. The selection of Mr. Evans as the other lay representative completes appointments.

The apple crop while not phenomenally large is sufficient to keep the cider press busy, apples of the grade suitable for cider being out of all proportion to the better grade usually styled "winter apples," which are sacked from the trees and packed in barrels.

The stable of Doster Brothers, on Walnut street near Church, will be finished within a few weeks and will be one of the handsomest in this city.

PAVEMENTS TO BE REPAIRED

The pavements and crossings about town came in for their full share of attention at the meeting of council Friday. George Sechler stated that the crossing over Mahoning street on the east side of Mill street would have to be torn up and relaid to meet the grade of the new pavement at the Grove Building. He recommended that vitrified brick be used for the new crossing. These, he thought, would be more serviceable than stone, while the cost would not be a great deal more. The idea was vigorously combated by several members but on motion of Mr. Dougherty it was put to a vote when it carried as follows: Yeas—Vastine, Dougherty, Montgomery, Patton, Sechler.

Nays—Swank, Gibson and Lloyd. The plank in front of the property owned by H. L. Gross on the east side of Mill street was reported as loose. On motion of Mr. Montgomery Mr. Gross was ordered to repair the sidewalk replacing the plank with stone.

The borough will build a crossing over the alley below Mr. Dougherty's Hotel on Northumberland street and a person to cobble the gutter at the same point. On motion of Mr. Dougherty it was ordered that the Reading Iron Company be requested to take up the work, repairing the sidewalk and cobbling the gutter between said alley and Mahoning creek.

On motion the Street Commissioner was requested to meet the crossing at Ash and Centre streets, and to make repairs near the Mortimer property. Mr. Swank reported many pavements as in need of repair in the Second ward. There are brick pavements, he said, where many of the bricks are missing and the pavements whose surface is so uneven as to cause a person to stumble, while at other places there are no pavements at all. It was the sense of council that about the same state of affairs exist in nearly every part of the borough. On motion of Mr. Dougherty it was ordered that the Street Commissioner be instructed to notify property owners whose pavements are in need of repair that once bringing the sidewalk up to the proper grade.

On motion of Mr. Patton an order was drawn in favor of Mrs. I. A. Persing, Treasurer of the Woman's Benevolent society, for $72 representing interest on the Josiah Wolf bequest.

On motion of Mr. Montgomery it was ordered that repairs be made on the Continental Hose house as previously outlined, the work to be under the supervision of P. J. Keefe, assisted by Architect John Brugler. The following bills were approved for payment:

To Remodel Church Interior.
Architect John Brugler is perfecting plans for the remodeling of the interior of the First Baptist church of this city. The improvements contemplated are quite extensive and as shown by the plans will beautify the auditorium and give the church an up-to-date appearance throughout.

Both floor and ceiling will be new. The floor will be raised in the rear sloping toward the pulpit. The ceiling will be of metal and beamed. New pews, circular in form, will be installed. Stained glass will be placed in the windows and the whole interior will be renovated, repainted and frescoed. A congregational meeting was held Wednesday evening at the First Baptist church to act upon Mr. Brugler's plans.

Strike Stops Convention.
Owing to the strike, the Danville District Epworth League, which was to have been held in the First Methodist church, Shamokin, next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday has been indefinitely postponed.

The Danville District comprises the counties of Union, Snyder, Montour, Northumberland, Columbia, Luzerne and part of Schuylkill, nearly all the region covered by the strike. It is thought that the attendance of delegates would be small on account of the tie-up, and the postponement is undoubtedly depending probably on the length of the strike.

A Fine Old Landmark.
It is not generally known that the fine brick residence, Mill street, owned and occupied by James Scarlet, Esq., is nearly a century old. It was the first brick house built in Danville, the Magill homestead on West Market street being the second. The exact date when the Scarlet residence was built is hard to determine, but it is considerably older than the Magill dwelling which was erected in 1814. A portion of the bricks used in the former building were manufactured at Northumberland.

OLD RESIDENT PASSES AWAY

In the death of John Barber, which occurred in this city at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, our town loses one of its oldest, and most highly esteemed citizens—one of the few survivors of that group of skilled and sturdy workmen in ascendancy here during the preceding generation, to whose labors and industry Danville is indebted for whatever growth and development has marked its career.

Mr. Barber was ill during the greater part of the summer, his malady being one incidental to old age. Although his sufferings at times were most intense, yet he was occasionally able to leave the house. Only an hour or so before his death he arose from his chair and stepped into an adjoining room. He later lapsed into semi-consciousness and in that state passed away.

John Barber, although taken by most people for a Welshman, was in reality a native of Italy. When only nine years of age he found his way to Wales and grew to manhood in that country. He adopted the Welsh language, all knowledge of his own—the Italian—in time passing out of his mind.

As near as can be determined Mr. Barber emigrated to this country in 1857. He was an experienced miner and as a foreman was associated with the late Daniel Edwards in developing the ore mines at this place under Waterman & Beaver. He was a man of sterling integrity and a consistent Christian. For many years previous to his death he was an elder in the Welsh Congregational church of this city. He was a warm-hearted generous man and will be kindly remembered by many persons, who have received favors at his hands.

The deceased was 77 years of age. He was married three times, the third wife surviving. One son, James L. Barber, General Manager of the Shamokin, this city, an issue of the first marriage, also survives. The latter is absent on a business trip and during yesterday could not be located. He will probably be heard from today when arrangements for the funeral will be perfected.

A Republican representative in Congress from this district will be able to do more for his constituents than a Democrat can, because he will be in harmony with the National administration.

Forty Years Ago Yesterday.
John R. Jones, No. 4 Cross street, Wednesday quietly celebrated a very unique event. On this date, October 8, forty years ago, he moved into the house he at present occupies, which he built himself and in which he has continuously resided.

When Mr. Jones built his house there was but one other residence on the north side of the P. & R. railway and that was P. H. Foust's brick hotel, which was torn down a year or so ago to make room for the imposing entrance to the grounds of Castle Grove.

Mr. Jones, who has been a resident of Danville for fifty years, on November of last year celebrated his golden wedding. He is a well-known iron worker and at one time was puddle boss for Hancock and Foley.

Popular Chief Contest Ended.
The contest for the most popular fire chief, conducted by the Continental Hose Co., closed Saturday evening and the largest vote was polled by James Freeze, of the Washington Company, the present head of the department. In all over eight thousand votes were cast and Mr. Freeze received 4980. He will be presented with a handsome gold watch by the Continental Company. The presentation will probably be formally made on the return of Chief Freeze from the state convention at Bradford. He has many friends and was kept busy Saturday evening receiving congratulations on his success and the large vote he was given.

Horses Fell Into a Scale.
The horses attached to L. H. Kline's ice wagon fell into a scale at the foundry and machine shop of Curry & Vannan early yesterday morning and one of the animals was badly injured. The scale was being repaired and the platform had been taken up. Mr. Kline drives into the mill yard every morning and did not see the open scale yesterday until too late to prevent the horses from falling.

The Republicans of Montour have the best ticket ever placed before the people. It is in order for every man to support it.

Y. M. C. A. ANNIVERSARY

The Board of Directors of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the October meeting, fixed upon Sunday evening, October 26, as the date for holding the association anniversary. The exercises will be held in the Mahoning Presbyterian and St. Paul's M. E. churches. Two prominent speakers from out of town will be secured to address the meetings. The anniversary exercises are always very interesting and are attended by large audiences. The one of this year will be exceptionally good, as fine programs are being arranged.

The Board also decided to purchase the game of parlor croquet for the amusement room. This is similar to lawn croquet, only it is played on a table and is an interesting game for the winter evenings.

A gymnasium class for ladies is also to be organized and considerable interest will be taken in physical culture by the fair sex. Exercise is recognized as highly beneficial as a build and preserver of health and the ladies' class will be as popular as those for the men and boys. The preliminary steps for the organization will be taken in a few days.

Placed Under Heroic Treatment.

Our townsman, Henry Kerns, yesterday received a letter from Mercy Hospital at Pittsburg, conveying full information as to the condition of his son, J. Ward Kerns, who was injured in that city on October 1st.

The letter states that Ward was struck by a traction car. He sustained a very serious injury upon the head, as a result of which he has lain unconscious since—a period of eight days. As a result of the injury his left side is totally paralyzed.

The letter states that there is but one hope of doing anything to relieve his condition, and that lies in an operation performed on the head. The treatment is a heroic one, adapted only to desperate cases, so that the outcome is very uncertain. The hospital authorities accordingly decline to proceed with the operation until they hear from Mr. Kerns, the injured man's father.

In conversation with a representative of this paper yesterday afternoon Mr. Kerns stated that he would write the hospital authorities informing them that he would leave the matter wholly in their hands to do what their experience dictated as best in the case.

J. Ward Kerns is thirty-four years of age and the only son of Henry Kerns.

Relief for the thousands of striking miners, who are in need to keep up a struggle, not for the luxuries of life, but for a bare existence is being asked of the people. The Miners' Relief Association has come nobly to their aid, and the people of Danville will be given an opportunity to assist this organization in their work by patronizing the concert to be given at Trinity M. E. church on next Saturday evening, October 11, by the Welsh singers, from the coal field.

The company consists of ten persons, four female vocalists, a male quartette, piano accompanist and Master George Middleton, the boy eucleticist, of Kingston. They promise an interesting programme and for the benefit of the Welsh residents of this city will sing at least one selection in the native tongue. The male quartette will appear in miners' costume. The price of admission is 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for children. Persons desiring tickets can secure them from members of the church or Sunday school, or at Rickett's, Foster's and W. E. Lungert's store.

Well Known Man Breaks a Leg.

William Henry Lee will be absent from our thoroughfares for some weeks to come. He has had the misfortune to break his leg and is now laid up for at Sunbury.

Companion he visited Rickett's hotel near the D. L. & W. station and in leaving fell over the railing at the entrance, badly fracturing his right leg. He was conveyed to his home near the Grove Furnace in John Patton's express wagon. Dr. Shultz was called who reduced the fracture. On the 7:51 Pennsylvania train Lee was removed to the Mary M. Packer hospital.

The unfortunate man is known about town almost wholly by the nickname of "Doc Bates."

Entertained Their Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wyant entertained a number of friends Thursday evening in honor of their niece, Miss Bertha Miller, of Harrisburg. A luncheon was served and the evening was pleasantly spent with music and games. Those present were: Misses May Moyer, Martha Brown, Margaret Evans, Elizabeth Bloom, Elsie Bloom, Mary Heller, Elizabeth Daniel, Kathryn Marks, Louise Jamison, Mary Harder, Loua Ridgeway; Messrs. Arthur Campbell, Charles Hartt, Clyde Dyer, Raymond Clayton, Frank Edmondson, Eugene Pegg, Amelias Francis Joseph Breitenbach and William Bailey.

A Welcome Visitor.

Mr. G. M. Richard, an old time resident of Danville, and founder of the Pittsburg Gazette, fifty three years ago, is visiting Danville relatives and friends.

VOTED TO CONTINUE STRIKE

A bridge leading from the Philadelphia and Reading railroad to Slattery's colliery, Schuylkill county, was blown up by dynamite last evening. The length of the structure is forty-five feet. Outside of this the coal region was quiet last night.

The First Battalion of the Twelfth Regiment left its camp at Manila Park yesterday afternoon for Wilkesbarre. The Second Battalion, with Colonel Clement and staff left Columbia Park, Shenandoah, for the same place last night. The Fourth regiment left Mt. Carmel yesterday afternoon for the Luzerne region. Third brigade headquarters were transferred yesterday morning from the Hotel Ferguson, Shenandoah, to the Hotel Sterling, Wilkesbarre.

The vote of the Mine Workers' Union, at the various local regions throughout the anthracite coal region, yesterday, was in favor of continuing the strike until the concessions asked are granted, irrespective of the troops. President John Mitchell issued the following statement to the press yesterday afternoon:

"At 12:30 noon fifty telegrams had been received from as many mass meetings in the various sections of the anthracite region, conveying the information that by unanimous vote of the men on strike, all of whom attended such meetings, it was resolved that the presence of the entire United States army in the anthracite coal regions would not induce the men to return to work until the demands of the Shamokin convention had been conceded, the strike declared off by a delegate convention of mine workers, or by the district and national officers.

"Similar telegrams are constantly being received. Thus far the returns emphasize and substantiate the declarations of the officials of the miners' union, made at the Washington conference, that the strikers are not deterred from going to work through fear of bodily harm.

JOHN MITCHELL.

A representative of the American was shown the copy of a paper last evening, published in New York, which makes a bitter attack on President Mitchell and the strikers. It was secured at Hazleton and the papers were put out there yesterday.

A special from Shenandoah states that scurrilous literature attacking President Mitchell and his colleagues, in the shape of papers and circular letters, were distributed there. It is supposed that the purpose is to stir up dissensions among the strikers, but the men were forewarned of the coming of the circulars.

President Mitchell has returned to Wilkesbarre from Buffalo. He has written a letter to President Roosevelt in which he states that he cannot accept the President's proposition in regard to calling off the strike. He further says that while he has outlined his reasons for this decision he does not think it proper to make them public until President Roosevelt has received the letter.

From Washington and New York come rumors of breaks in the ranks of the operators. President Roosevelt has been informed, through an authoritative source, that an important part of the operators are willing to yield. Just what concessions they will make has not been made known.

Wall street is the source of the New York rumor and it substantiates, in a way, the information from Washington. Wall street understands that Mr. Morgan has said that since Governor Stone has "made good" on the question of military protection in ordering the state into the national guard of the state it is up to the operators to mine coal. This some of the operators are not so anxious to do, owing to the determined attitude of the miners in holding out, and they are beginning to think that it is time to arbitrate and compromise.

President Mitchell received yesterday from Brussels, Ontario, Canada, a letter, signed "Cannock," as follows: "Please take the advice in the third chapter and fourteenth verse of St. Luke's gospel, and let me have some coal." The verse referred to reads: "And the soldiers likewise demanded of him saying: 'And what shall we do?' And he said unto them: 'Do violence to no man; neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.'"

Died at Sunbury.

John Campbell, foreman of the weaving department in the Northumberland county prison, died Monday at his home in Sunbury, aged sixty-two years. He was ill a week, the cause of his death being a stroke of paralysis. He was well known in this city and South Danville. The funeral took place from his late home yesterday afternoon.

To Support Strikers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The miscellaneous session of the Confederated Union voted last night to support the coal strikers in every way possible, no matter how long it lasted. Delegates of about twenty unions reported that they have doubled their per capita assessments in aid of the strikers. In some cases this will bring the assessments up to 40 cents a week per member.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Coal is being sold to the East Side port at 30 cents a pail today. Sales agents of the various coal roads are taking no orders.

IMPORTANT TO ALL VOTERS

It is the duty of every qualified voter to cast his ballot at as important an election as that which will be held on Nov. 4 next, and it is every man's duty to become qualified to vote in order that he may take advantage of the right of suffrage guaranteed to him by the constitution. A qualified voter is one who has complied with the requirements of the law governing elections in Pennsylvania. The courts have decided that no man has a right to vote unless he has complied with the following provisions of law:

"First: He shall have been a citizen of the United States at least one month.

Second: He shall have resided in the state one year or having previously been a qualified elector or native born citizen of the state, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third: He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth: If twenty-two years of age and upwards, he shall have paid, within two years, a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

Presuming that he can meet the three first named requirements the citizen would still be unable to vote unless he has paid a state or county tax within two years, and this tax must be paid before midnight of Saturday, Oct. 4, one month before election.

HON. W. K. LORD, the Republican candidate for Congress from this district for the short term, began life as a slate picker at a coal breaker. He is to-day one of the leading business men of Northumberland county.

Improving First Baptist Church.

A congregational meeting of the First Baptist church was held last evening, at which the plans of Architect John H. Brugler, were considered and approved. The attendance at the meeting was large and the action was unanimous. Work on the improvements will begin immediately.

The interior of the church will be entirely remodeled and when all is completed the edifice will be one of the finest in this city. New memorial windows of stained glass are to be put in, there will be a new pulpit and choir platform, the pews are to be semi-circular and there will be an inclined floor and metallic ceiling.

An important part of the improvement will be the removal of the gallery. The following building committee was named to supervise the work: Arthur Meyer, chairman; G. L. McLean, secretary; John Vastine, C. P. Harder, Henry Knobler, George Myerly and John Sechler.

Funeral of Mrs. Wesley H. Gearhart.

The funeral of Mrs. Wesley H. Gearhart whose death was noted Monday morning took place at Scranton Monday afternoon from the family residence, Monroe Avenue. There were many very beautiful floral tributes. Rev. J. H. Odell, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, preached the funeral sermon. He based his remarks on Phil. 1:21: "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." He spoke of the Christian character and beautiful life of the deceased, and said that his dear influence would never be absent from those who knew her gentleness and grace.

The music was particularly impressive and beautiful. Professor Chance was the conductor. "Nearer My God, to Thee" and "Rock of Ages" were among the selections sung by a quartette from the Second Presbyterian church, composed of Mrs. Alfred Gutheuz, Miss Garragan and Messrs. Robertson and Ralph Williams. The pall bearers were: Messrs. J. L. Calk, J. A. Lansing, W. W. Watson, C. P. Matthews, J. F. Snyder, C. W. Kirkpatrick. The funeral was in charge of Director W. P. Price. Interment was made in Forest Hill.

United Telephones Installed.

The following United telephones have recently been installed in this vicinity: Danville Exchange, Call 2322; Michael Breckbill, sheriff, Market and Church; call 472; Danville National Bank, 101 Mill street; call 2323; O. S. Deibert, upholsterer, 101 Library avenue; call 1642; S. H. Dreifuss, residence, 122 Mulberry street; call 1713; A. T. Roberts, pay station, Mechanicsville; call 1342; Washington Hose Co., Library avenue.

Once a Fuel—Now a Gem.

A cute fancy of Jeweler Henry Rempe very appropriately reflects the rarity and high price of coal at present. In the midst of a fine display of jewelry in his window may be seen an elegant cut glass fruit dish heaping full of pure specimens of anthracite coal. A card lying on the coal reads as follows: "Genuine coal—once a fuel, now a gem."

TRANSFERRED TO WILKESBARRE

The Twelfth Regiment was transferred from Shenandoah and Manila Park to Wilkesbarre Wednesday and was relieved by troops from the First and Second brigades. The movement of the soldiers in response to the order of Governor Stone calling out the entire division, began Tuesday afternoon. Those from the western part of the state started first so as to arrive at their places of duty early Wednesday.

Some of the First brigade regiments left Philadelphia Tuesday night, while the remainder were removed yesterday morning.

General Gobin will establish Third brigade headquarters at Wilkesbarre and will have the Twelfth with him. The Ninth and Thirteenth have been in the field in the Lackawanna and Luzerne regions since last week.

The headquarters of the First brigade will be at Tamaqua and the troops will be located as follows: First Regiment and part of Battery A, Hazleton; Second Regiment and part of Battery A, New Philadelphia; Third Regiment, Minersville; Sixth Regiment and First City Troop, Panther Creek
