Home Paper

The circulation of this paper is increasing rapidly. It will pay you to advertise in the AMERICAN.

SUBSCRIPTION $1 PER YEAR

DK TRVING H. JENNINGS, ___DENTIST.__

Office Hours 9 A. M. to 12 M.

104 Mill St., Danville, Pa. 1 P. M. to 4 P. M.

C. SHULTZ, M. D.

425 MILL ST., DANVILLE, PA. Diseases of the Stomach and Intestine a Specialty

DR. W. P. ANGLE,

-DENTIST-

218 MILL STREET OFFICE: eeth Extracted without Pain.

Crown and Bridge Work a Specialty Equipped with the latest and most improved Instruments and prepared to execute the ost difficult work DR. C. H. REYNOLDS, -DENTIST

Office, Opposite Boston Store, Danville, Pa.

Dentistry in all its branches. Charges Moderate and all work Guaranteed Established 1892.

CONDENSED NEWS.

Lent will begin Feb. 25.

James L. Riehl, landlord of the Montour House, is on the sick list. There'll be gleanings for the ash man next spring.

Many "slipped up" on their calculations yesterday. Charles Ammerman, South Danville.

is convalescent after a bad attack of rhenmatism. Veterinarian J. J. Kline of Allentown, begs to inform our citizens that he will arrive in this city today and will remain during the remainder of the week. He will be glad to meet any McClure. of his old patrons who have need of his services.

Joseph Lowenstein has accepted a position as traveling salesman for a years. Ladies skirt house, New York city. The valentine business is already beginning to brighten up. Dealers are ordering large quantities this year. Keep your good resolutions and you will be happy after a while if you aren't now. Mrs. A. O. Sparr, formerly of Danville, is seriously ill at her home in Lehighton has twenty licensed fifty of the population.

Coal corporations say they are not responsible for the coal famine; the independent operators say they aren't: the retailers say they aren't, and the miners declare their innocence. It is evident that the whole responsibility rests with the consumers, who burn the coal as fast as they can get it.

FOR RENT-A house, suitable for small family. Inquire at 212 Ferry street.

The average citizen hopes that the coal problem will be solved before the spare bed and the baby's cradle find Dr. J. M. Vastine and J. B. Waters of fire had already eaten through the their way to the furnace. But if he has faith that it will such faith seems surely to be the evidence of things

In the opinion of many sportsmen the severe weather of last week has been hard on quail. Farmers have noticed the absence of coveys that had been flying about, and when the snow greatest difficulty that the people manmelts the farmers expect to find many of the birds frozen to death. If the present severe weather continues any length of time the outlook for next ed her arm above the elbow. season will not be encouraging for even an ordinary, let alone a prolific season.

It might as well be understood now that the coal problem will be solved if it takes all the investigating committees in the country until the middle of next July to solve it.

The observation locomotive that was built by Baldwin's for the officials of the Reading Company has just been turned out. It is somewhat similar in construction to the one now used by the company and known as No. 101, except that it is heavier and faster. Ten persons can be accommodated in the cab of the new engine, but it has been built to haul the private car of the president.

The Liars club, of Shamokin, held a pig roast at their rooms several black in color and are veritable beauevenings ago. There were only seventy present, which would indicate that all the Shamokin liars were not there.

The new caps for the National Guard strikingly like those worn by Pennsylvania Railroad conductors many years ago, will soon be issued to the several commands.

In many towns throughout the eastern part of the state the churches have only a limited supply of coal. Special at the Montour House. services, such as revival meetings, etc., have been cut out until the coal famine is relieved.

The crowned heads of every nation The rich men, poor men, and misers All join in paying tribute to DeWitt's Little Early Risers. H. Williams, San Antonio, Tex. writes: Little Early Riser Pills are the best I ever used in my family. I un hesitatingly recommend them to every body. They care Constipation, Bill ousness, Sick Headache, Torpid Liv er, Jaundice, malaria and all other liver troubles. Gosh & Co., Paules &

For the Home ---- The circulation of this paper is in-

American

"THIS COUNTRY WILL NEVER BE ENTIRELY FREE UNTIL IT SUPPLIES ALL OF ITS OWN DEMANDSWITH ITS OWN PRODUCTIONS.

VOL. 48--NO 4.

DANVILLE, PA., THURSDAY JANUARY 22, 1903.

ESTABLISHED (N 1855.

DEATH OF JAMES N. MILLER

Former Sheriff James N. Miller de parted this life last night. His death removes another well-known and repre sentative citizen of Montour county. His illness was about a month's dura Christmas with bronchial trouble, which later became complicated with ed heart trouble and dropsy. His sufferings during yesterday were quite inlast evening.

The deceased was 78 years of age. and his entire life was spent in this frame immediately above a lounge. In 1876 he was elected sheriff of Monterm he returned to Washingtonville. but later moved back to Danville where for many years he was in the Market square where he resided with his daughter, Mrs. W. H. Andy. Few men were more widely known hroughout this section than the deeased. He was a progressive public pirited man, well informed and oberving. He had many friends. In addition to his daughter, Mrs.

R. Miller, of this city. W. A. Sechler General Manager. The stockholders of the Danville Stove & Manufacturing Company held their annual meeting in this city

W. B. Chamberlin, B. R. Gearhart and James Foster were chosen as directors. Officers were elected as follows:

Tuesday.

President, W. B. Chamberlin; General Manager, W. A. Sechler; Secretary, Alex. Foster; Treasurer, W. L.

Hon. James Foster, the retiring general manager, has been in charge of affairs at the Stove Works for twelve at Lotus Conclave, No. 127, I. O. H., this city, last night.

Heptasophs Instali Officers.

Archon, John Richards; Secretary, Charles G. Cloud; Financier, W. L McClure; Treasurer, E. W. Wetzel; Warden, John Kilgus. The installation was conducted by

W. D. Williams of Pottsville, Alternate District Deputy Supreme Archon. Lotus Conclave No. 127 has one hundred and sixty four members and is in a flourishing condition.

For Benefit of Catawissa Band. A dance will be held at Catawissa on Friday night for the benefit of the band of that place, which promises to be a very interesting affair. The twosteps will be played by the band and the waltzes by an orchestra. Simon Ellenbogen of this city is on the committee. Others on the committee are Catawissa.

Pedestrians Had Their Troubles. The icy condition of the sidewalks yesterday morning after the rain was a source of much annovance to pedestrians. Many of the pavements were one glitter of ice and it was with the aged to get along at all. While on her way to work Miss Elsie Moyer of No. 20 Montour Row fell and fractur-

Death of Mrs. George Burger.

Mrs. Mina Burger, aged 48 years, wife of the well known dairyman, George Burger of Mahoning township, died last night after a short illness. Mrs. Burger had a wide circle of friends who will be grieved to learn of her demise. Besides her husband she is survived by seven children, two sons and five daughters. Due notice of the funeral will be given.

New Sleighs.

Our liverymen anticipate a brisk eason during the next month or so should sleighing continue. Charles Welliver has added four new sleighs to his livery at the rear of Hotel Oliver. Two of the sleighs are "Portlands" and two, "Old Comforts;" they are Married in Philadelphia.

Edward S. Harris, the well known stock broke: surprised his many friends in this city by returning from Philadelphia Sunday with a wife. The wedding took place in Philadelphia on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Harris have taken up their residence Windows Lettered.

The windows of the People's Bank are being lettered. The letters are of a departure in that kind of work. proved appearance.

Mismated Couples.

The trials and tribulations of mismated matrimonial couples in Northumberland county resulted in twenty two decrees of divorce within the past an equal number of applications.

SIX PERTONS IMPERILLED

The residence of Patrick McVey, No. 109 Center street, took fire Tuesday tion. He was taken ill just before to extinguish the fire a lamp exploded Vastine, Montgomery, Swank, George and Mr. McVey was shockingly burn-

About 10 o'clock Tuesday night the tense. Death ensued about 9 o'clock lamp burning for the accommodation of on the Borough Solicitor to determine He was a native of Montour county bracket light fastened to the window elected the remaining two could serve mercantile business in Washington | bedroom immediately above the kitch | would have been earned by all three. ville. He was previously in business en and communicating with it by a The question grew out of a precedent at Montandon and Jerseytown, at the stairway. In the front room the four of this sort said to have been establatter place conducting a large store. | children of the family slept. These | lished in the borough. were Mary, a girl of about fifteen, tour county. At the expiration of his William, a boy of ten or twelve, and fore council. It took the view that livery business. His home was on felt hot and uncomfortable and there the business of the office, yet proper

ered he rushed out the front door and take part in the official duties. thinking it was still early started for | The opinion further stated that the Andy, he is survived by one son, John house again, making his way through duties. the burning room to the second story | Ed. Y. Seidel, of the firm of Seidel where he gave the alarm.

set to work and soon had the flames tiations proceed. under control. At this point, however, a bad accident occurred.

intensely hot and Mr. McVey fearing meeting what it deems advisable. an explosion proceeded to remove it out of doors. He had scarcely more niture of council chamber-12 desks hands. He was in his underclothing by A. C. Roat and were now as good street. and these were saturated with oil and as new. took fire. His left hand and his left The following bills were ordered foot and leg from the knee down were paid most shockingly burned, the flesh be-Provo, Eimer Peters; Prelate, Frank ing literally roasted. Overcome by Regular employes. Herrington; Inspector, Charles E. pain and the effect of the smoke Mr. White; Sentinel, Robert Murray; McVey fell forward striking his head upon some farniture and inflicting a had gash upon his head. Dr. Paules was called to attend the injured man. Last evening Mr. Mc. Vey was resting easily and was able to talk over the thrilling experience of the night before. He says the only way that he can account for the origin of the fire is that the lamp, although turned down when the family retired, must have burned higher during the night and set fire to the window curtain which falling upon the couch se it on fire. While the latter was burn- Franklin Boyer... ing the fire communicated to the window sash and frame and soon enveloped the whole corner of the room. The window to the ortside when discovered. Nothing but prompt and coolheaded action on the part of the family they work that even the next neighhors, although aroused, were unaware that there was any fire. Reading Iron Works a few years ago few years previous he lost an eye in Christ disturbs the harmony there, and an accident at the mill, while on an- the father gets old too soon and the other occasion he was badly injured while working in a drain under the works. Another employe unconscious boiler with the result that Mr. McVey was overtaken by the deluge of boiling water and terribly scalded.

Will Leave St. Elmo Hotel.

sever his connection with that establishment. He will remove to Hazleton where on the 15th of the month he will take charge of his old estab- heaven. lishment on Broad street, below the Central Hotel known as the "Oasis", which he ran twelve years ago. The stand, which is one of the most popu- It means a gradual separation from lar in Hazleton, will henceforth be the right. There is no good in us. known as the "Hotel and Cafe Hazle"

Johnny Moyer as a landlord and as Bloomsburg Press. a caterer, has few superiors. He has been at the head of the St. Elmo Hotel for ten years. During this time he has built up the reputation of the hotel and won the full confidence and esteem of the people. Lawabiding himself, his hotel is always the acme of

As a caterer Johnny will be especially missed. He has served banquets Danville, in luding important lodge paring for a trip to Rome. and military events, weddings and gilt, raised in form, being something of other social functions. As a caterer he has a valuable assistant in the per-They give the building quite an im- son of Mrs. Moyer, who ably presides over the culinary department.

succeed Mr. Moyer as landlord of St.

No Friday Evening Service. On account of the scarcity of coal Episcopal Church Friday evening.

HARMONIOUS SESSION

The borough council Friday night held a regular meeting. The session night and it was only by a miracle was harmonious and a good deal of that thefamily of six persons were not business was transacted. The followburned in their beds. During an effort ing members were in their places: Sechler, Davis, Brandt, Gibson and ville.

Lloyd. At the previous meeting the finance family retired leaving the kitchen committee was authorized to wait upthe eldest son, James, who was absent | whether or not in event of the absence at a party. The lamp was an ordinary of one of the three borough auditors alone and if so whether or not they section. For many years he conducted Mr. and Mrs. McVey occupied the would be entitled to the full pay which

The Solicitor's opinion was read be Catherine and Lizzie, still younger. | while any two of the three borough Shortly after midnight William auditors duly convened would conawoke. He said the air in the room stitute a quorum sufficient to transact was a strong odor of smoke. He rushed caution would suggest that the at sent down stairs and found the kitchen in auditor resign in time to have his sucflames. Nearly overcome and bewild- cessor duly appointed and qualified to a neighbor's under the impression that per diem compensation-two dollarshis parents were there making an even- is fixed by law and that it can not b ing call. Remembering his three increased on account of any additionsisters and realizing that they might al labors occasioned by the absence of be burned to death he rushed into the one of such auditors from his official

& Bausch, appeared before council to It was the boy William who saved ask that the borough purchase the exthe family. His attempt to arouse his tra shelving which the firm installed sisters had the effect of awakening his at its own expense in the store room parents, who were made aware of their of City Hall. Considerably over one hundred dollars was spent for shelv-Rushing down stairs they found the ing, which is all of the most modern window on fire and the lounge already type and adds to the value of the buildconsumed along with a quantity of ing. Mr. Seidel said the firm desires carpet and other articles. Water was to sell out and that it is necessary that handy, however, and the entire family | 1t dispose of the shelving before nego-

On motion of Mr. Davis the building committee was instructed to look The lamp still burning was heated into the matter and report at the next The secretary reported that the for WATER DEPARTMENT.

	Tropular carpiojos	1101.00
	Buffalo Meter Co	12.78
d	Atlantic Refining Co	3.15
a	O. S. Janney & Co	4.19
	Harry B. Patton	20.00
е	Edward W. Peters	34.98
-	DOROUGH DEFARIMEN	T.
е	Regular employes	$82.50
e	A. U. Koat	5.98
y	D. W. I CUCIS	62 50
n	A. C. Amesbury	4.95
h	H. G. Salmon	4.42
l,	J. W. Crossley	18.00
е	J. W. Desnay	19.25
-	William Sechier	2.00
t	Labor and hauling	25.19

Very Attentive Audience. W. D. Laumaster, Secretary of the Danville Y. M. C. A. spoke in the Lutheran Church last evening to a good sized and very attentive audience basing his utterances upon John 17: saved the house and so quietly did 1-6. He asked those present to first settle down in quietness and take time to rest and think. The world is pushing on so fast they don't give the train yesterday for Bloomsburg. Mr. McVey has been the victim of Lord time to do anything with them. many accidents. He was very badly He said, "I pity the man who does burt in the boiler explosion at the not know he is saved. The natural and was laid up for a long time. A won't. How one in a home out of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Hale, West Mahmother looks distressed. "God saves us and then sends us they hung Him between heaven and William R. Welliver. earth. We are not to go off and live in a monastery, but right among men and shine. We are not to run into the world and then back to God, but Johnny Moyer, landlord of St. Elmo take our stand and stick. We are Hotel on the first of February will not to live always here. Some people do not make their doors big enough to get a funeral out, as if they were

> "Did vou ever, some one will say when told of the fall of some man. Wout of South Danville transacted 'I never thought he would do that.' We must enthrone the Savior."

A Letter From Miss Bright.

Mrs. Rebecca B. Sidler of this city Wyoming yesterday after a visit with has received a letter from her sister, Mrs. Howard Irvin, Walnut street. Miss Penina Bright, who is traveling in Italy. The letter was written December 21. Miss Bright was then at order and respectability. He is in- Naples. She is much interested in the N. J., and Mrs. John Pomeroy of deed a citizen that Danville regrets to strange scenes of that part of the Chambersburg, arrived at this city last world. The party, she said, went out sight seeing every day and had visited E. Moore, Ferry street. Vesuvius and the museum of Pompeii. on many notable occasions while in At the time of writing they were preterm.

Swallow Accepts Re-election.

PERSONAL TWO CLAIMED PARAGRAPHS

John Hurley, Jr., of Wyoming, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. John Hurley, Sr., Honeymoon street Miss Lourissa Leighow of Northumberland, spent Sunday with her aunt, Miss Helen Lesher, South Dan-

H. Buck of Williamsport, spent Sunday in this city the guest of C. M. Childs, Lower Mulberry street. Martin Mackert of Sunbury, spent Sanday with his father, William Mackert, North Mill street. Miss Grace Haag has returned to Wilkesbarre after a visit with Miss May James, East Market street. Miss Pegg has returned to Blooms

Jenkins, East Market street. Miss Laura Gilbert of Catawissa, is visiting at the home of Dr. C. H. Reynolds, Mill street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kisner of Millville, parents of District Attorney Ralph Kisner, spent Saturday in this city as guests at the home of James V. Wilson, Pine street. Frank McCne spent Sunday with friends in Bloomsburg. Miss Elizabeth Generia of Collegeville is visiting Mrs. Agnes Lynn, East Market street.

General Secretary W. D. Laumaster of the Y. M. C. A. spent Sunday in Howard Clark of Bloomsburg, spent Sanday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Clark, South Danville. John Scott spent Sunday with friends in Bloomsburg.

John R. Rote of Harrisburg, caller at the this office yesterday. Mrs. Maria Bondman, recently of Mauch Chunk, has returned to this city where she will reside with her on, George F. Boudman, Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. Phin Heddens, of Bloomsburg, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Heddens, Mill street. Dr. J. Beaver Gearhart spent last evening with friends at Lewisburg.

W. D. Williams, of Pottsville, arrived yesterday for a visit with his The following officers were installed than seized it, when it exploded in his and 23 chairs-had been overhauled daughter, Mrs. W. A. Sechler, Market Mrs. Anna Wrigley has returned to > in this city. A. M. Diehl left yesterday on business trip to Wilkesbarre. Mrs. Sarah Cole returned to Bento:

> vesterday after a visit with friends in Mrs. F. W. Jones has returned to > Catawissa after a pleasant visit with friends in this city. Mrs. J. R. Foust returned to Mon-tives in this city.

11.80

tandon yesterday after a visit at the home of M. D. L. Sechler, Honeymoon Mrs Katharine Bevan, Mill street.

left vesterday for a visit with relatives in Shamokin. Mrs. T. F. McGinnes is visiting relatives in Pottsville. A. Y. Whitemoyer of Shenandoah Valley, Va., who has been visiting his daughter in this city left yesterday for a visit with relatives in Bloomsburg. Miss Tillie James left on the 10:19

I. X. Grier, Esq., left yesterday or a business trip to Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Burnman returned to man can not do good, the carnal man Milton yesterday after a visit with oning street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Welliver of this city, and Mrs. Charles Ammerman of South Danville, returned home from back into the world to do good. No Philadelphia, last evening where on of his presence in the drain emptied a place for Jesus on this earth and so Monday they attended the funeral of D. J. Rogers spent yesterday after-poon in Sunbury. William Oliver left yesterday on a business trip to Wilkesbarre. Architect John Brugler returned from a visit to Pittsburg last evening. Miss Clara Beaver left on the 9:14 always to stay here. Our home is in train yesterday for a visit with relatives in Harrisburg.

> Justice-of-the-Peace C. G. Haugha business in Sunbury yesterday. F. P. Johnson left yesterday on business trip to Philadelphia. General Secretary W. D. Laumaster returned vesterday from Bloomsburg.

Mrs. Abraham Bowman returned to Rabbi Meyer spent yesterday afternoon ia Bloomsburg. Dr. Simpson and wife of Elizabeth. evening for a visit at the home of J.

Elks' League Will Reorganize. The Mt. Carmel Item says:

The men who were instrumental in organizing the Elks' base ball league Rev. Dr. Silas Swallow was elected last summer propose to duplicate their superintendent of the Methodist Epis- work the coming season and hope to copal book rooms at Harrisburg for the extend their circuit. Ashland, Sham-Paul Swentek, the proprietor, will eleventh succeeding year Tuesday, the okin, Mahanoy City, Pottsville, Tanew year beginning April 1. Dr. maqua, Danville, Mount Carmel and Lizzie Generie of Collegeville, Mr. Swallow had tendered his resignation Sunbury are expected to put teams and Mrs. William Beagle and chiland would like to have been relieved in the field. The league pays no salof his duties at the book rooms, as aries and devotes the proceeds of Katie Campbell of Rushtown, spent road officials have issued a new book they are more than he cares to attend games to charity. The Ashland team, Monday very pleasantly at the home of rules to take effect March 1. The year. There are still pending about their will be no services at Christ to, but was induced to serve another last year's pennant winners, were of Mrs. Agnes Lynn, East Market men are spending their evenings study well patronized during the season.

BY DEATH

The Reaper Death is still active in our midst and Friday claimed two additional victims from among our well-known citizens at very nearly the same hour. These were Alem Sechler of Kipp's Run and Samuel Foust of East Danville.

Alem Sechler passed away at 2:30 in the afternoon. For several years past e had been suffering from heart trouole and dropsy. At intervals his suff erings were severe. For some time previous to his death he was confined o his room, although unable much of was considered grave although death vas hardly looked for so soon. On Cuesday evening Mr. Sechler transactburg after a visit with Miss Edith ed some business with a neighbor, during which it was necessary for him to atfix his signature to a paper. The sick man was clear and rational and it was observed that his handwriting was river. firm, free from the least tremor.

About 2 o'clock Friday afternoon is son Lafayette called in to see him. The latter after a short conversation withdrew, leaving the deceased resting upon a couch. In this position he geemed to sleep away. His wife made it impossible to remove her until last the life of some one. It might have an attempt to arouse him but his spirit had taken its flight.

Alem Seehler was a son of the late Jacob Sechler, one of the early settlers of this section. He himself was for many years a resident of this city and was one of the pioneer iron workers at the famous plant here now owned by the Reading Iron Company where the first T rail in America was made. He was a rail straightener and was famous for his strength and skill in that difficult and arduous branch of colling mill work. Mr. Sechler followed the business of rail straightening for a period of 31 years and was employed not only in Danville but also at Braddock's Field, Brady's Bend, Harrisburg, Steelton, and at Youngsown, O. While employed at Braddock ne straightened a rail 120 feet long, which was among the most noteworthy exhibits at the Centennial Exhibiion in 1876.

In the years 1870-1, Mr. Sechler was proprietor and landlord of Union Hall ently retired to his farm at Kipp's Run, where he resided for many years. was denied by the plaintiff. Few men were more widely known Harrisburg after a visit with relatives over the state than Alem Sechler was in his day. He was a kind hearted felt wherever he was known. Of him it might truly be said that it was a tiff by reason of his having failed to respects to the deceased being a large person a favor. He was a public spirited citizen, whose integrity was Drangeville after a visit with relabeyond question. He was always a leader in the community and at the Miss Nellie Harder has returned to time of his death was one of the Supervisors of Gearhart township, Northamberland county, in which his farm s located.

The deceased was 79 years of age. He is survived by his wife, one son and two daughters: Lafavette Sechler of Kipp's Run; Mrs. C. W. Blakeslee of Long Branch, N. J., and Mrs. John Rebman of Philadelphia. He is also survived by three brothers: Councilnan M. D. L. Sechler and Frank echler of this city and James F. ochler of Nerrogue, La.

Samuel Foust died suddenly. He was a well-known farmer of Mahoning ownship, but at the time of his death lived retired on Bloom road. For some rears he was not in the best of health being troubled with attacks of dizziness. Friday, however, he was as well as usual,. Shortly after noon he was engaged in cutting wood for the kitchen stove, when his son William. who resides on the homestead farm. ame driving along. The latter stopped for a conversation with his father. The deceased lav down his axe and stepped over to the sled. In the midst of conversation Mr. Foust showed signs of fainting. He was on the point of falling over when his son caught him in his arms. The young man called for help, but before assistance arrived death ensued. Dr. Paules was called, who stated that death was caused by heart failure.

The deceased was a good citizen and nost highly esteemed throughout the community. He was 64 years of age. He is survived by his wife, three sons and three daughters: William, Michael and George, Ida (Mrs. C. C. Ritter) Alice (Mrs. Frank Schram) and Emma (Mrs. William Fiegles).

The funeral was held Monday at 0:30 o'clock. Interment taking place in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Willis Granger. Edward C. White's melodramatic production, "Gypsy Jack" will be een in the near future at the Opera House, "Gypsy Jack is making a rare record on the other side. It has been running in England for the past three vears, and its popularity does not seem to abate in the least. It bids fair to equal, if not surpass, its English record in this country, for it is being greeted by crowded houses every where. The title role, "Gypsy Jack" will be portrayed by the well-known young romantic actor, Willis Granger.

Birthday Party. Mrs. Kate Shaffer, Mrs. A. Generie and son, Charles, of Bloomsburg, Miss dren, and Misses Chrissie Kulp and

PLUNGED OVER RIVER BANK

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fetterman of Mill Grove, Columbia county, met highly honored citizens has been rewith a terrible accident near Blue Hill Sanday afternoon while return- ent instance to receive the dread suming from a visit to South Danville.

They had reached a very cangerous fies between the railroad, and the through the town, eliciting on every river bank, when a train was heard approaching. Mr. Fetterman get out and as the train dashed by the horse he time to lie down. His condition with fright planged down over the river bank, which at that point is over | mitted of hope. wenty feet high, dragging the buggy containing Mrs. Fetterman along with him. The carriage rolled over upside down, while the horse, which stripped his harness in his struggles turned a complete somersault and went into the carried to the Vastine farm near by, full of love as his. The ruling traits

The horse was finally rescued from while the harness is torn to shreds could assist as he would like to in reand the buggy is nearly a total wreck. lieving the wants of the poor.

Justice Renders Decision.

M. Herr vs. Alfred Litchard, which Henrie, daughter of William Henrie, was heard before him on the 8th inst. deceased. He is survived by his wife of 436 bashels, to the plaintiff for 50 Holloway) of Philadelphia. the plaintiff informing him that he had ley's residence in Danville he was eno another party for 57 cents per there was a breach of contract and business brought him into intimate resued for damages.

At the hearing the defendant con- wide section, who like the citizens of tended that the sale was made condi- Danville, where he was best known, tionally, the understanding being held his character in the highest ow the Heddens House. He subsequ- that if he could get a higher price he esteem. had a right to sell elsewhere. This

The Justice in his opinion took the view that a sale of the 436 bushels of o'clock from the family residence, buckwheat at 50 cents had been perman, whose benevolence made itself | fected between the parties and that the defendant is liable to the plainpositive pleasure for him to do anoth- deliver the buckwheat according to number from a distance. sold it to a third party at 57 cents per bushel. The Justice fixed the damages at thirty dollars and fifty-two cents, the amount received by the defendant over and above the price agreed upon with the plaintiff. The costs also fall upon the defendant. John M. Herr, the plaintiff, resides at Schuyler, Alfred Litchard lives near Exchange. E. S. Gearhart represented the plaintiff at the hearing and Charles Chaffant, the defendant, Governor Names His Cabinet. HARRISBURG, Jan. 21. - Governor Pennypacker has sent to the senate cominations for four cabinet places Hampton L. Carson, of Philadelphia is to be attorney general; Frank L Fuller, of Favette, to be secretary of the commonwealth: J. W. Shoemaker. of Cambria, to be superintendent of public buildings and grounds, and Thomas J. Stewart, of Montgomery, to be adjutant general.

There was much surprise expressed at the fact that the communication carrying Mr. Shoemaker's nomination. stated that T. Larry Eyre, the outgoing superintendent, was removed. There is the best authority for the statement that Major John C. Delaney, of Harrisburg, has been decided upon to succeed James Campbell as chief factory inspector. The governor's cabinet nomination

The governor did not send any non ination for banking commissioner, for which McAfee, of Allegheny, is supposed to be slated.

were confirmed without a dissenting

The following were among the bills introduced at Tuesday's session of the By Mr. Ammerman, of Montour, $209,600 to the State Hospital for the delphia.

Insane at Danville. By Mr. Colville, of Philadelphia, $167,500 to the Eastern penitentiary. By Mr. Rex, of Philadelphia, to en able city, county, poor, township, ward, school and borough tax collect ors to collect taxes for the payment of which they have become liable.

Buried at Shamokin.

David H. Davis of Shamokin, form erly of this city. who departed this life on Wednesday of last week was buried in Odd Fellows' cemetery, Shamokin, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services were conducted by Rev. Leinbach, paster of the Baptist church. The funeral was very largely attended.

and five children: John, Harry, El mer, Jessie and Hannah. The deceased was well known in Danville.

The deceased is survive d by a wife

New Book of Rules. The Philadelphia & Reading Rail street, in honor of her 75th birthday. ing the new features.

JOB PRINTING

The office of the AMERICAN bein furished with a large assortmen o ob letter and fancy type and job material generally, the Publisher announces to the public that he is prepared at all times to execute in the neatest manner

JOB PRINTING Of ah Kinds and Description

Get our prices before you place your orders.

R. H. WOOLLEY PASSES AWAY

Another one of our prominent and moved by death. The one in the pres mons was Robert H. Woolley, who passed away, about 8:30 last Thursday point at the narrows where the read evening. The sad news flew rapidly side expressions of profound regret. Mr. Woolley was not feeling well f the carriage and took the horse by for some time. About a week ago he the head. The read was icy, however, took his bed where in the course of a few days he developed symptoms of flung the man from his feet and frantic typhoid fever. He held his own, however, remarkably well and his case ad

> That evening he held a conversation with his son. A few minutes later ha expired, death being attributed to heart failure. He was conscious up to the very moment of death.

Mr. Woolley will be greatly missed He was known by nearly everybody Mrs. Fetterman was found under the and beloved by all who knew him. buggy very badly injured. She was Few men lived whose hearts were so tenanted by William Baylor. She of his character seemed to be kindness saffered from internal hemorrhages and generosity. There was scarcely a and her condition was such as to make day but he befriended or cheered evening, when she was taken to her been a little child on the street, but Her injuries will probably more likely some one older whose lines had fallen in hard places. It was the one great regret of his life that he was the river. He is very badly injured, not a man of large means, so that he

Mr. Woolley was about 62 years of age. He was born in Belvidere, N Justice J. P. Bare rendered his de- J., and came to Danville in 1861. rision yesterday in the case of John 1864 he was married to Miss Martha The defendant, it will be recalled, and a son and daughter, Arthur H. old his crop of buckwheat consisting | Woolley and Cordelia G., (Mrs. T. B.

cents per bushel. He afterward wrote | During the forty years of Mr. Woolchanged his mind" and sold his crop gaged in the wholesale coal business He was a man of refined tastes, in bushel. The plaintiff claimed that telligent and public spirited. His lation with prominent people of a

The funeral of Robert H. Woolley took place Monday afternoon at 2 West Market street. The obsequies were very largely attended, among those who assembled to pay their last

The services were conducted by Rev Erskine Wright, rector of Christ church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Henry L. Jones, rector of St. Stephen's Church, Wilkesbarre. The simple burial service was read at the house and in addition Dr. Jones made some remarks very beautiful and appropriate in their nature. Among the many tributes to the memory of the dead man there were none more expressive than the vast profusion of flowers which were piled around his bier, representing the offerings of loving friends not only in Danville but in distant places. Interment took place in the family plot in the Episcopal cemetery. The honorary pall bearers were: John N. Convugham, W. H. Convugham, Wilkesbarre; J. H. Boyer, Williams port, James Scarlet, Esq., W. J. Baldy, Esq., George M. Gearhart, George B. O'Connor and Joseph C. Boyd of this city.

The deceased was carried to his last resting place by six former employes: Ellis H. Rank, John H. Yorgy, A. Jackson Wintersteen, Charles Low, John Marshall, and Wilson Frey. Among those who attended the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. Myron Low, the Misses Woolley, Lime Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Otis, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barrett, Binghamton, N. Y., W. S. Rishton, Miss Sade Sloan and P. G. Miller of Bloomsburg; Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Stine, Harrisburg: H. H. Schrever and wife, Milton: John N. Conyngham, W. L. Conyngham, William H. Conyngham, Morris Williams, Harold Deemer, of Wilkesbarre, Miss Florence Jewett, New York: W. H. Burr and Penn Hastings, Milton; Mrs. B. H. Pratt. Scranton: W. H. Kilbourn, J. H. Boyer, Williamsport and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, Phila-

New Baggage Order.

The Delaware, Lackawanna & Westrn baggage department has received official notice that in order that baggage may be properly weighed, checked, and checks recorded, it must be presented at least ten minutes before the advertised departure of trains, otherwise it cannot be forwarded until the following train.

Death of Former Resident.

Mrs. Ann Goodall, widow of Edward Goodall, a former resident of Danville, died at her home, Wheatland, Mercer county, on the 14th inst. The deceased removed from Danville hirty years ago. Her husband held a esponsible position at the rolling mill f Waterman & Beaver.

The smallpox situation at Northum erland is greatly improved. After today Dr. Burg will cease to attend ll of the patients. Today the quarantine will be removed at two of the houses. At the other places where disease existed the quarantine will be ontinued for a week as a precaution.

Smallpox Situation at Northumberland.