Death of R. M. Buckingham.

Robert M. Buckingham, of Blooms burg, a prominent member of the Columbia County bar, died Tuesday in the Medico-Chirurgical Hospital, Philadelphia. Two weeks ago Mr. Backingham was admitted to the hospital suffering from a complication of diseases

For a few days after his admissio the physicians thought he would recover, but his condition last Saturday took a dangerous turn and his broth er, Dr. G. W. Buckingham, of Bloomsburg, and his brother-in-law, Dr. G. M. Biddle, superintendent of the Miners' Hospital in Ashland, Schuylkill County, were notified.

Mr. Buckingham was about 48 years old and was ad uitted to the Columbia County bar twenty-five years ago. Since then his life has been an active one, for besides participating in some of the conspicuous cases tried in Columbia County as a lawyer, he served a term as District Attorney. For twelve years he was deputy internal collector of the central Pennsylvania district. He was the son of Rev. W. R. Buckingham, a Methodist Minister, a member of the Wroming Conference and a stanch anti-slavery man for several years preceding the Civil War. Mrs. Biddl, his sister, and Dr. Buckingham were with him before he died. The boly was taken to Ploomsburg yester-(ay for burial.
