CLEAR WEATHER FOR FORTY DAYS

Forty days of sunshine! This is the pleasant assurance which can be given vacationists...

Yesterday was St. Swithin's Day, and tradition has it that the condition of the weather for the next forty days depends on whether or not rain falls on St. Swithin's day.

And the weather man said it would be clear. Umbrellas, rain coats and rubber shoes may be safely stowed away...

Major G. H. Halberstam, the staff surgeon, has all the regimental surgeons and assistant surgeons summoned to witness the instruction and drill...

But although the Weather Man has promised a large share of sunny days, he is unable to say that the cool weather will last.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.

Take Lavative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.

Wives Work in Fields. Centre county farmers were never before so crippled for help as now.

Abolishes Brakemen. No longer does the Philadelphia and Reading Railway have brakemen on its passenger trains.

Hot Days and Outraging. The hot summer days will be productive of some forms of contagious diseases if care is not taken in the disposal of garbage.

To Dive Through Flame. Prosper Warg, aged 6 years was fatally burned while imitating a high diver who was at Hazleton recently.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble. Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition.

Will Open New Store. David Panoast, for many years the successful manager of Tooley & Company's fancy grocery store on Shamokin street, has resigned his position.

The Florida orange crop for this season will break the records of the last ten years. The crop will be worth $2,700,000, an increase of 1,000,000 boxes over last year.

SOLDIERS POISONED AT CAMP

CAMP HOFFMAN, Mt. Getz, July 15.—Governor Pennypacker upon his arrival in the camp tomorrow evening will be accorded the honor of salute of twenty-one guns by United States artillery and should the hour be seasonably enough to permit, the entire brigade will be lined up in the field in his honor.

With a view of rounding them into form as quickly as possible for the inspection, the boys were engaged in all kinds of drills today and there was little leisure time anywhere.

Several cases of ivy poisoning were reported in Colonel Clement's Twelfth Regiment today, but the spread of the affection was quickly checked and no dangerous results are anticipated.

Captain Bean's Battery O gunners in their practice with the Gatling guns yesterday afternoon made some record-breaking shots with the infantry ammunition and literally tore the K1 target to pieces at 500 yards.

Major G. H. Halberstam, the staff surgeon, has all the regimental surgeons and assistant surgeons summoned to witness the instruction and drill without fear of having his headgear wilted out of shape.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.

Take Lavative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

THERE IS MUSIC IN THE AIR

A contention has arisen between the American Federation of Musicians and the Benevolent Order of Elks, over the United States Marine Band, on Wednesday next, at Baltimore, there is to be a reunion and parade by the Elks, and the Marine Band has been engaged for that occasion by the Washington branch of the order, the contract having been entered into last February.

It seems that last May the Federation adopted a law forbidding affiliated bands to march in procession or in any manner take part in ceremonies in which the Marine Band participated.

This morning the Washington Elks have decided to adhere to their contract with the marines regardless of what may be done by the civilian bands. The chairman of the committee said Tuesday:

"The Marine Band will parade in Baltimore with the Washington Elks on Wednesday if it is the only band in the parade. Our contract with the Marine Band was made in February, and we intend to stand by it."

Major G. H. Halberstam, the staff surgeon, has all the regimental surgeons and assistant surgeons summoned to witness the instruction and drill without fear of having his headgear wilted out of shape.

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.

WORKMEN FALL EIGHT FLOORS

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—The parting of a cable today caused a large elevator in the New Hotel Stratford, in course of construction, at Broad and Walnut streets, to fall from the eighth to the first floor. Upon the fall at the time it took its flight were five workmen and a heavy load of building material. The men, all of whom were seriously injured, were: James Quinn, aged 27 years. Martin Finn, aged 23 years. George Cavanaugh, aged 29 years. John King, aged 36 years. Hugh Cuthrell, aged 28, of Stratford.

Cavanaugh and Finn are the most seriously injured, and may not live. The former sustained a fracture at the base of the spine. Finn received internal injuries.

Death is Expected Today. ROME, July 15.—The official bulletin issued by the Pope's physicians shortly after 9 o'clock this morning, announced that His Holiness remained in the critical condition in which he was last night. The bulletin follows: "During the night the Pope has had some periods of sleep. No change is observed in his general condition. His pulsation is 82, his respiration, 30; temperature, 36.2, centigrade."

Washington, July 15.—Cardinal Rampolla this morning urged the papal legation here as follows: "Holy Father passed a fairly tranquil night. His condition remains unchanged."

My son was afflicted with catarrh. He used Ely's Cream Balm and the disagreeable catarrh all left him.

The cool weather of yesterday, especially in the morning, is another new phase of this most remarkable summer. It was hard to realize that it was the middle of July. There have been late October days much warmer.

Could Have Waited.

A certain suburbanite was accused of being home some little time before for his little girl, who always ran up to him and put her hand in his pocket expectantly. "Once, however, he was delayed and at the last moment found that he could not catch the express train that he always took if he stopped to purchase anything. When upon his arrival home his little daughter started to put her hand in his pocket he shook his head.

"I had to disappoint you tonight, dear," he said, and seeing her quivering lip, he went on: "It was this way: At the last moment a man came into my office, which kept me later than usual, and I only just had time to catch my train. Now, if I had stopped as usual to get you something I would have had to wait an hour for another train, which would have made me get home too late for dinner."

His daughter thought a moment and said: "Well, papa, I could have waited." - New York Times.

Two Strange Gales. A Chinaman was summoned as a witness in an Australian court, in a case of being sworn in the usual manner a lighted candle was given to him, which he blew out and then stood solemnly. "If I do not tell the truth in this case may I be extinguished as this candle has just been extinguished." As there was no perceptible change in him after performing this ceremony it is reasonable to suppose that he did tell the truth.

A native of India, being summoned as a witness in an Australian court, informed the magistrate that he did not believe in the usual oath and that his testimony would be useless unless he could be sworn by the waters of the Ganges. The magistrate was non-plussed, but the interpreter, with a smile, left the court and returned in a few minutes with a glassful of water. "Is that water from the Ganges?" asked the astonished judge. "No," replied the interpreter, "but I'll tell him that it is, and he'll certainly believe me."

He was right. The Indian swore by the holy water, never dreaming that it had been obtained from a nearby pump.

Old Friend. What because of that beautiful full length portrait of yourself and your first husband? Mrs. Twombles: It is hidden away up in the garret. My second husband has never seen it yet. I'm keeping it for a surprise. "A surprise?" "Yes, if he ever again gives me a ten cent bottle of perfume for a Christmas present, I'll give him that painting for a New Year's present."

Reassured. The Scotch have a story of a little lad who was desperately ill, but who for all his mother's pleading, refused to take his medicine. The mother finally gave up. "Oh, my boy will die, my boy will die," she sobbed. "He will not take the stuff that would save him."

But presently piped up a voice from the bed. "Don't cry, mother," it said. "Father'll be home soon, and he'll make me take it."

The Light on the Isle of Pharos. The most famous lighthouse of antiquity stood on the Isle of Pharos, off the city of Alexandria, in Egypt. It was one of the seven wonders of the world and was put up during the reign of Ptolemy Philadelphus. After standing for 1,000 years it was destroyed by an earthquake. It is understood to have been over 500 feet high.
