THE MAJORITY IN PENNSYLVANIA

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Latest estimates from country districts indicate that the Republican State ticket will have majorities ranging from 220,000 to 230,000.

In the counties where judges of Common Pleas Court were chosen, the Republican percentage of victories was far greater than that of the Democrats.

The defeat of President Judge Harman Yerkes, Democratic, in Bucks County, by Mahlon H. Stout, Republican, was another victory which the Republican leaders were doubtful of.

The three-corner judicial fight in Dauphin County between Kunkle, Republican, Haine, Democratic, and Jacobs, anti-machine, was one of the most bitter ever waged in the county.

REPUBLICANS CARRY MASSACHUSETTS

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—With the exception of the falling off in the Socialist vote, the election in Massachusetts yesterday very nearly paralleled that of last year.

LATE ELECTION RETURNS

Late returns from the United States over, show that the Republicans have elected their ticket in seven States.

Ohio broke all records by giving Herriot, Republican nominee for Governor, a big plurality.

Nebraska went Republican by from 5,000 to 10,000.

Pennsylvania rolled up the remarkable plurality of 225,000 for the Republican ticket.

Iowa re-elected Cummings for Governor, by about 50,000, 25,000 less than two years ago.

Colorado has apparently gone Republican by 5,000.

New Jersey remains in the Republican column.

In Kentucky the Democrats made large gains, re-electing Beckham for Governor by about 30,000 plurality.

The returns from Maryland are slow and incomplete but Warfield, Democrat, for Governor, seems to have gained the day.

Garvin, Democrat, is re-elected Governor of Rhode Island, though the Legislature is Republican.

NEW JERSEY REMAINS EXACTLY THE SAME

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 4.—Revised returns from New Jersey show that the Republicans have carried Middlesex County for both senator and assemblymen.

The following are the Democratic counties and their representation: Hudson, 12; Hancock, 1; Monmouth, 1; Somerset, 1; Warren, 1; total, 22.

The Republican counties are: Atlantic, 1; Bergen, 2; Burlington, 2; Camden, 3; Cape May, 1; Gloucester, 1; Essex, 1; Gloucester, 1; Mercer, 1; Middlesex, 3; Morris, 2; Ocean, 1; Passaic, 1; Salem, 2; total, 38.

STATE OF PENNSYLVANIA: FRANK J. CHERRY, Governor, for the second term of four years, beginning on the 1st day of January, 1904.

FRANK L. CHERRY, Governor, for the second term of four years, beginning on the 1st day of January, 1904.

ON THE RABBIT TRAIL

By JOHN STRANGE

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure

It was the first snow of winter, and as Deacon Hastings of Hastings' Corners stood in the barn door after feeding his cows he saw the tracks of a rabbit leading across the meadow in the direction of the woods.

"I thought the matter over during breakfast, and just as he finished he came to a decision and said to his wife: 'Martha, I'm going to follow a rabbit down into the woods and cut him out of a log, and you can get ready to make a pie of him tomorrow.'

"Very well, Samuel," she replied, without any interest in the case, and a few minutes later the deacon was off.

When he had followed the tracks of a rabbit wandering about the woods, he found it had led him to a hole in the log.

Vogel's Big Minstrels.

Even the doubters and croakers confess their errors when John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels come to town.

"I rather like the idea," mused Deacon Hastings. "Yes, here's enough to build a good sized Baptist meeting house."

"Methodist, you mean?" "No, I don't. It goes for a Baptist."

"Not a dollar of it. I've always said I never would give a shilling to the Baptist, and I shall stick to my own."

"Then came a climax. Deacon White sprang over the log and pitched into his old friend and neighbor and fellow rabbit tracker, and the virgin snow was flung about by the heels of their snow-shoes."

"When he had followed both sides of the road, he found it had led him to a hole in the log.

"This may be a case of Providence, but I should rather call it a case for the food killer. This 'ere money is all hog's."

"These you, but it is!" exclaimed the justice after testing several pieces and shaking his head.

"By gum, but I guess I made a fool of myself!"

"And so did I!" replied Deacon White.

A GHOST ABOARD

[Copyright, 1903, by C. B. Lewis.]

We had left Cape Town 500 miles behind us on our voyage home in the English bark Eagle, when one night at midnight I came on watch, being the second mate, to find the men of both watches standing about and discussing a matter in whispers.

"Whitfield insured for $5,000, receiving a policy that contained a clause specifying that $500 only should be recovered in case of suicide."

"Although the statutes of Missouri declare that insurance companies may not make suicide a defense in refusing to pay a policy, Judge Phillips held that the pleading of the contract in question voluntarily entered into by the parties goes merely to the question of the amount of the recovery, and not to defeat a recovery."

"Predicting the Weather. Some of the weather sharps are predicting an open winter, basing their opinion on the fact that the witch hazel is in blossom, which they claim to be an infallible sign of mild winter."

"Entertained Friends. A party was given at the home of Wesley Diehl near Strawberry Ridge, Tuesday evening. Those present were: Misses Mary Johnson, Mabel Krumm, Ada Vognetz, Mary, Hattie, Myrtle Snyder, Catharine Patterson, Bessie Her, Winnie Shires, Katie Strouse, Etta, Lizzie and Belle Schooley, Emma Moser, Mary Springer, Grace Boone, Mabel Strouse, Grace Diehl, Sadie Diehl, Doyle Cotner, Lower Patterson, Alvin Moser, Hiram Temple, Harvey Diehl, Harold Stamm, John Heilmann, John Wolf, James Boone, Clyde Springer, Morris Moser, Charles Reader and Frank Diehl."

"Four Hundred Are Idle. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Four hundred workmen in the Bloom mill and the Iron and Steel finishing departments of the Pencoyd Iron Works were laid off today, making a total of nearly 2,000 men rendered idle by the gradual closing of the big plant."

"Complete Returns. NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Complete election returns this morning show that Mayor-elect George B. McClellan, the Tammany candidate, received a plurality of 63,617 votes over Mayor Seth Low, the Fusion nominee for reelection. Tammany made a clean sweep of it and has a working majority of 37 in the board of aldermen."

"Nineteen cows of a herd owned by Al. Lewis, a wealthy resident of Bear Creek, Luzerne county, ten miles from Wilkesbarre, were bitten by a mad dog ten days ago, and it is feared that the herd will have to be destroyed."

U. S. COURT SUSTAINS ANTI-SUICIDE CLAUSE

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 3.—Judge Phillips, of the United States District Court here, has held that insurance companies may enforce the anti-suicide clause where previously entered into by the insured.

The decision was in the case of James Whitfield, a newspaper sporting editor, who killed himself.

Whitfield insured for $5,000, receiving a policy that contained a clause specifying that $500 only should be recovered in case of suicide.

Although the statutes of Missouri declare that insurance companies may not make suicide a defense in refusing to pay a policy, Judge Phillips held that the pleading of the contract in question voluntarily entered into by the parties goes merely to the question of the amount of the recovery, and not to defeat a recovery.

A GOOD THING GIVE IT A PUSH.

LIVONA CAMP, PA. APRIL 21, 1902. MOYER BROS.

I think that every man that has a team of horses or any stock, ought to have a bottle of Moyer's White Liniment in the stable or his house. I had a horse that stepped in a hole with his front foot, coming down the mountain with a trail of props, and fell forward and strained his shoulder blade. Hardly it swelled so fast that we could hardly get the collar off, and in two hours his neck was swollen to all the skin would hold. We used your White Liniment freely and in a few days he was to work again, and does not show any signs of lameness. It worked like magic.

Respectfully Yours, J. A. BARTHAUST. MANUFACTURED BY— Moyer Bros, WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS, Bloomsburg Pa. For sale by all dealers.
