

Danville, Pa., Dec. 24 1903.

CHLOROFORMED AND ROBBED

During Tuesday night burglars price open a window in the rear of Francis Bowman's home, on South Shamokin street, at Shamokin, and after chloro forming Mr. and Mrs. Bowman, ran sacked the house and stole $26 in cash, a watch, besides several other articles of small value.

The victims did not recover from the effects of the anaesthetic until about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning. Mr Bowman was the first to waken, and had a beating headache, and was a very sick man. An odor of chloto form soon told the story. He attempt ed to awaken Mrs. Bowman, but sh was still under the influence of th drug, and did not come to her sense until about an hour later.

A search of the premises was inst tuted, bureau drawers and cupboar doors were standing open and their contents scattered about the floor. Th search revealed that the above men tioned articles were missing. Als that the rear window had been force

Who the perpetrators are the victims have not the least idea, but the Sha mokin officers have the case in hand.

Beware of Ointmnts for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.

y will surely destroy cept on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold he good you can possibly derive from their Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no met and is taken internally, acting directly he genuine. It is taken internally, and made n Toledo, Oh o, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Te

Sold by Druggists, price 75c. per bottle Hall's Family Pills are the best.

List of Grand Jurors for Dec. Term of Court Anthony-Thomas Derr, William

Brennen. Cooper-Benjamin Buck. Derry-J. W. Lowrie, John E

Wolfe, John Seidel. Danville, First Ward-C. C. Mover

William Mincemoyer, George Freeze Thomas Reifsnyder. Danville, Second Ward-Edward

Mowery, Harry Phile. Danville, Fourth Ward-John Jenk ins, Theodore Baker, James Toohey Peter Deitrich, Thomas Gill.

Liberty- Charles Robbins, J. J. D. Cotney Mahoning-George W. Sandel. Mayberry-C. W. Eckman, Claud R.

Kimbel. Washingtonville-John A. Coope

A. L. Heddens. List of Traverse Jurors for Dec. Term of Coutrt, 1903.

Anthony--Bryan C. Dennen, C. C. Aohr, P. F. Brennen. Cooper-Isaiah Krum, William Dough erty.

Danville, First Ward-George E. I was devoted to dancing, and, whirling Ammerman, William Startzel, William M. Heddens, Samuel McCormick was a clerk put him on outside Elm Dale was the scene of joyful cork. In this he did so well that he reparation, for Mr. and Mrs. Ezra centually became managing partner Hammond were soon to celebrate their Had he written well he would neve ve been more than an accountant. colden wedding. From far and near their children and grandchildren were When I was young I was the pet aunt who was devoted to fash oming to the old country home under I was fond of society myself, he great id, being popular, my aunt was so All of the neighbors were interested sed with me that she made a will my favor, bequeathing me at he h a considerable fortune. I fel ave with a young lady who, like elf, was "in the swim," but unforhairs and china." Patience Saybin, amiliarly known as "Patty," and her

CAME

Copyright, 1903, by T. C. McClure

ately poor. My aunt, who was very was not at all displeased ith my marriage, declaring that she d quite enough for both of us. Inshe gave me an allowance which abled me to support a wife and live During the winter at the end of ur first child was born I was iged to go into society without my She was very notional in what ite and craved things usually un able. One evening she was selzed desire for some strawberries t was in February, and even if th rries were to be had the markets closed. I was going to a ball id was obliged to leave my wife pining for the fruit while I danced. It eemed like "fiddling while Rome wa What was my surprise to see on the upper table at the house where the took place a splendid dish o wherries. They had been brough om the south, but instead of bein eless, as such berries usually are re sweet and juicy. I ate a platefu of them and at the same time wa planning to purloin some of them t Pativ. take home to my wife. I loitered in th supper room till every guest had gone Il the while fearful that the straw perries would be gone as well. For perfect cherub" she cried. nately a waiter brought in a fresh dish just as the room was left vacan Seeing on the floor under a side tab ome paper boxes in which bonbo had been sent to the house. I selecte ne about the size of a quart stray perry box and, hastily filling it, slippe iseen into a pocket in the swalle tail of my coat. Then I went to th ss to bid her good night in orde hat I might at once carry the precid strawberries to my wife. he kitchen "Surely you are not going so early akes, and Pall, aid the lady. "You can't go now. need you to lead the cotillon was terrified. Lead the cotillo ith my pocket full of strawberries Can you not excuse me?" I asked I am not feeling well." "You are looking splendid. How er, Mr. Vincent will arrive soon. l relieve you when he comes."

"But I have no partner." "I will dance the figure with you ome, the music has begun. Fancy my feelings at sailing away in waltz with my coattails full of straw erries. Never did I guide a partne with such dexterity, gliding over the axed floor, dreading especially that I might slip, now extricating her from etween couples closing in upon us. rely saving my coattails from being rushed, now backing and stopping within a few steps to save the precious servies from being mashed by som nbering dancer who was in every body's way. Nevertheless there was an excitement in exercising my skill that was by no means displeasing to me standing there. Probably he had overeard Patiy's instructions to the girl, about on the slippery floor, passing and repassing beautiful women in artistic den and at the end of the figure, wh every one was sounding my praises for its originality and the skill with which "Quite as much of me?" he asked while preparations were being made for the next figure, and I was thinking of some new features I would in ut its welcoming arms in vain to this troduce with it when I felt that I was guest. David Terrell's eyes rested at nce upon the rocking horse and woolly dog, and his expression momentari-

she said, with a guilty glance WHEN DAVID His face grew crimson with suppressed when Mr. Terrell said, "How old By HARRIET G. CANFIELD "Twenty-seven," Patty answered deely, and John exploded with laugh-"No good pretending, Patty," he ried. "Better show him all of my old ons, including the trundle bed ut we'll not ask him to occupy it.'

The morning of the golden wedding awned clear and bright. It was a day illed with happiness for all who gathred at the old home. At 10 that night David Terrell gave John and Patty ful count of "the gathering of the clans," he called it. In conclusion he said.

I shall have to ask you to keep me n the coming event, and a number of mother night, but after that there will came back with flushed face and sparhem were pledged "to help out on be room for me at Elm Dale."

rother lived only a mile from Elm e glanced uickly at Patty-"I've made Dale, but they had not been asked to ontribute, and Patty felt slighted. are partners, and Jim is willing that I but her face was calm, even smiling. pose. "I've offered to lend them everyhould have my summer vacation now. hing on the place, even you, John," "Oh," Patty cried, "I'm so glad!

thing on the party bother, "but Mrs. Aren't you, John?" next week," she observed. that is what the paper said." angements made. I did want a finger | den change of plans made him suspi-

John laughed. "Never mind, little David made good use of those four Charlie was expectin' him before next cirl." he said consolingly. "Mr. Ham-nond says they may ask us to 'sleep' accused him of spending half of his va-him. They used to know each other of the start consed him of spending half of his va- him. They used to know each other. ne or two if the old house won't hold cation with the Saybins. The last day came, and David walked an' be goin'. They're all comin' up

The day before the celebration Mrs. Hammond drove over in the morning to see Party. "I thought we could be used as a way on business, she ex-trained by alone on the vine shaded porch. John was away on business, she ex-fixin' an' fussin'. An', say, Miss Wilo see Party. "I thought we could be also with a plained. "Never mind," David said bur, if you don't mind, I'd like to bring the frequence of the bishop see mind." There are used to his in-the how 1 cause to forget little David quiringly.

when I counted noses. I've been won-"Will you keep your word," he said ing, dear, if you'd let him sleep gently, "and take me?" "My word," she murmured wonder- him by all means." or one of the others?"

Patty cried delightedly. ingly Mrs. ilammond." stailed. "I brought his tell Lizzie that you were coming down- away to the seclusion of her own room. he said, "so you could stairs and you would take me yourit a lear little fellow he was." self." There was a mischlevous light in had been but a baby when they two easerly over the photo- his eyes now. pleasant little face smiled at the round, didn't mean"-- she began. impled face of a five-year-old. "He's He interrupted her anxiously. "But you will take me, dear, on trial for the

"I'm expecting most of my children sake of little David?" d if his folks come I'll She smiled into the honest eyes, so I lady forgot to tell Patty "Yes," she said, "for the sake of little are of David was taken David's successor."

ears before. All that day Palty was very busy Cafes In the Hungarian Capital. le Dacid's room." An The trees and the cafes in Pest are She knew him in an instant, for the and trundle bed were Parisian, only there are more trees years had brought but a stronger step good natured girl in do not have a crowded existence. There liberal sprinkling of gray hair. She and a few chairs forced into a narrow and tenderness as she rose from her a pink "D" on the top of two or three. space. It seems as if, when the city chair, for even in that brief instant she ame everything was was laid out and when the buildings remembered that there was not a sinfor the expected guest, were erected, special providence had gle gray intruder among her own soft hair, and his she associated with the on the dining room front of them in the same way that work which had conquered obstacles table, and the little rocker held out its space is calculated for gardens and welcoming arms in the sitting room. fountains and lakes in laying out an An old rocking horse that had been exposition ground. If old Paris was ward with extended hands. John's long ago waited patiently for all on a hill on one side of the Seine ts gallant rider, and a little woolly and new Paris had been built since dog stood on three legs with an air of 1860 and the Parisian had the free life of the gypsy in his heart and the Rus-The day had been a long one to Pat- slan's fondness for room whether outy. At 7 o'clock she was rearranging doors or in and art and architecture the furniture in little David's room had flourished in Hungary for cenwhen the doorbell rang. She went to turies, there might be some reason for ie head of the stairs and called to | that comparison which frequently occurs to the hurrying tourist.-Freder-"Hurry, Lizzie," she cried, "They've | tek Palmer in Scribner's, rought little David over. Take him nto the sitting room and amuse hlm. His Little Avocation.

a ray of

ear Lizzio's exclamation of astonishient when she opened the door and broad shouldered man not at your office?" capital stood for a moment abashed by threeven as he had lived it.

the simple candor of a young girl. Then inspiration swept over his Elizabeth

AFTER MANY

By FRANK H. SWEET Having been ordered by the blshop a brother clergyman who had been * the only vehicle then in use in Mon-"Here I be again, Miss Wilbur," a this time. The cows have eaten ours | lonely place, and I heard him talking a long time he followed broom mak- Nov. 27th off clean, an' we must have a good A cluster of freshly opened roses called her attention, and she ran for-

The stranger opened conversation ward to smell of them. At length she and we soon got into an animated discame back with flushed face and spar-kling eyes. "Oh, I forgot to tell you, that I was a clergyman of the Episco-"I thought you said you must go to norrow," John exclaimed. "Yes; that's so, but since then"-and to marry, you know." Miss Wilbur!" she cried roguishly, "He's come-Alfred Gray, the man l'm to marry, you know." Data church, and I told him that I was the Rev. Charles Dingley, going to Helena to preach the next day. Rev. Charles Dingley, going to Helena to preach the next day. "Well, now," he said, "that's strange. Miss Wilbur's hand closed a little ther arrangements. My brother and 1 more closely upon her pruning shears, I am going to Helena for the same pur-

Yes, she had heard the rumor. "I thought he was not expected until next week," she observed. "At least "Oh, I don't know," doubtfully. "We don't have a paper. But I think

But there! I'd better get the flowers themselves to say, "you must bring

"Yes. Before I saw you I heard you Whour left the flowers and hurried Bring him to her, this young girl who had been so much to each other! What did it mean? And he had not even written to her or in any way announced his coming. A week later she sat on the porch spread for our company."

Copyright, 1902, by T. C. McClure

DAYS

with her eyes fixed on the last visible like those of the child in the picture point of the street before it was shut out by the althea hedge. A firm, eager step came up the sidewalk from the opposite direction, but she did not notice until her gate latch clicked; then she turned inquiringly. on the attic and dust- and more cafes, and in Pest the cafes and nobler carriage, with perhaps a too gle gray intruder among her own soft and adversity.

"Alfred!" she said as she went for-"Elizabeth!"

"Come up on the veranda, Alfred," she said, with her eyes full of frank welcome. "I want to hear all about it. Of course I know in a fragmentary way, but it will seem new and more real from your lips."

And he told her, sitting in his old place behind the honeysuckle, with the swaying sprays sending alternate lines of sunshine and shade across his face in the same old way. And she listened with eyes full, lips half parted and Fill be down in a few minutes." She "But," said the bright and good look-filted back to her work and did not Ing young woman, "haven't you any or sympathy from time to time. It was pursuit that you follow for the simple a story of heroism and triumph, told in love of it in the hours when you are a straightforward, matter of fact way, without egotism or self depreciation, The great and powerful organizer of knowing it was her right to have it end, with a satis-

A Veteran Passes Away.

Sudday morning. o proceed to Helena to fill the place of The deceased had been ill for som months, death being due to general taken ill, I was proceeding by stage - paralysis. He was sixty-three years and alone in the coach. Shortly Post, No. 22, G. A. R. and for some blithe voice called, "beggin' for flowers before dusk the driver pulled up in a years was Chaplain of that body. For 1903 > with some one. Then a man opened the ing. He was a good citizen and held door and got in. He was roughly the esteem of all whom he met in his dressed, but his face was singularly walk of life. He was a widower.

"Certainly. I may not appear very elerical in this toggery," glancing at its high boots, corduroy trousers and blue flannel shirt, "but I will engage to preach you as orthodox a sermon as any regularly ordained clergyman in nued. "Meanwhile I must be makin ay preparations. You see, I was o fishing when I received the bishop's and get on my priestly garments, I c There was something very extrao "Of course," the strained lips forced dinary about this. Surely the bishop themselves to say, "you must bring would not order two men on the same

But after the girl's departure Miss ed for further development.

"I'll trouble you to take off your lothes," he said. Pa., deceased. Come," he went on. "I'm waiting.

to his hip, he drew a six shooter and nose. It was now evident that there wind, and, realizing my defenseless ness, I took off my coat, my vest, m trousers and turned them over. When Administrator's notice. I handed him the gold cross which I handed him the gold cross which the skin would always wore suspended from my neck Estate of Sabina Clatyon, late of the hold. We used your White Liniment Borough et Danville, Montour freely, and in a few days he was to work he hesitated a moment, as though the sacrilege was a trifle too much for him Notice is hereby given that letters lameness. It worked like mogi then put it on. When he donned my low crowned, broad brimmed clerical of Administration on the above estate hat he looked far more of a clergyman have been granted to the undersigned. than I even when appropriately dress-

All persons indebted to the said estate "I suppose you want my purse," I are required to make payment, and said. "You will find it in my trousers those having claims or demands against pocket." the said estate, will make known the

"Your purse?" he replied. "Do you same without delay, to suppose that 1, a clergyman, would rob you?" And, taking out the purse after glancing at its contents, he tosse M. J. BALDY, Atty.

"May I put on your clothes?" asked. "I must wear something."

I slipped on his garments and must confess that I looked more like a man of the wild west than he had looked

Notice is hereby given that letters partnership heretofore subsisting bein the same apparel. In less than half an hour we pulled up at the — hotel, and the coach doo was opened by the landlord. My con panion stepped out and shut the door I heard him tell the landlord that ther was a lunatic inside the coach and he all persons indebted to said estate are 1903 dissolved by material had better be careful. He then informed him that he was the Rev. requested to make payment and these debts owing to said partnership are Charles Dingley and had come to having claims or demands will make receivable by the said Ardar M. Hed preach the next day in place of the known the same without delay. Rev. Mr. Goggin, who was ill; that on GEORGE M. GEARHART, the way a rough looking man had got Executor of the last will of James L. presented for payment.

"But it is good to be home again, to be a clergyman, at once giving eviinto the coach, who conceived himself Riebl, deceased, Danviile, Penn'a. I thrust my head

REGISTER'S NOTICES.

Monday, the 28th day o

-The First and Final ac

count of Susan Shell, Administratrix of the estate of James K. Shell, late of Limestone township, Mon

The First and Final account of Mary E. Mitchell

Executrix of the last will and testament of David

Vansickle, late of the Borough of Danville, Mon

tour county, deceased.

The First and Final ac

count of George M. Gearhart, administrator d, b

n. c. t. a. of the estate of Elizabeth Riehl, late of the Borough of Danville,

Montour county, deceased.

WM. L. SIDLER, Register

GIVE IT A PUSH.

LIVONA CAMP, PA, APRIL 21, 1902

front foot, coming down the mountain with a trail of props, and feil forward get the collar off, and in two hours his again, and does not show any signs of

P. P. P.

Moyer Bros,

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS,

Bloomsburg -- Pa.

Notice of Dissolution of Partnership.

dens to whom all claims and demands against the said partnership are to be

Notice is hereby duly given that the essent. All

For sale by all dealers

J. A. BARTHAST.

Respectfully Yours.

neck was swollen to all the skin would

Register's Office, Danville, Pa.,

Nov. 28th, 1903.

MOYER BROS.

of W. N. Simington deceased. and strained his shoulder blade. That amentary on the estate of James tween Arthur M. Heddens and Joseph hl, late of the Borough of Dan- Breitenbach, Jr., under the term and County of Montour and State of business name of "H downs-Breiten-sylvania, deceased, have been bach Candy Company." was on this el to the undersigned to whom fourteenth day of Romender, A. D.

DEAR SIR:

tour county, deceased.

Jacob Reaser, a well known res lent of Mahoning township and a vetran of the Civil war, died at his home on Bloom road shortly before 2 o'clock of age. He was a member of Goodrich allowance, on Mond Dec. A. D., 1903, a Easy Pill Nov. 2861 Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver in stead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver onstipation, biliousness, jaundice headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers. PREPARED ONLY BY E. C. DeWITT & CO., CHICAGO

Liberty township, Montour.county,

M. G. YCUNGMAN,

Estate of James L. Richl, late of the Borough of Danville, Montour

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

County, deceased.

Administrator, Danville, Pa.

I smiled. The man was surely job Don't Forget the Name.

Early Risers Sold by Gosh & Co. Paules & Co. A GOOD THING A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

Estate of William N. Simington, late of duty. I stared at the fellow and wait-

Administration on the above estate have o serious in his manner that my laugh been granted to the undersigned. All I think that every man that has a persons indebted to the said estate are team of horses or any stock, ought to quired to make payment, and those have abottle of Moyer's White Liniment I laughed again. Futting his hand aving claims or demands against the in the stable or his house. I had a placed the muzzle disgustingly near my said estate, will make known the same horse that stepped in a hole with his vithout delay, to R. M. Simington, Admin.

was some desperado business in the Taring G. Brown. Danville, Second Ward-Joseph Bird, William Switzer. Danville, Third Ward-James Fin- I had handled it. I threw myself on t negan, Dan Lyons, Harry Patton, W. a pale blue damask sofa for a rest. J. Ritter, Dan Ryan, Henry Flecken- There was a hum of conversate stine

Danville, Fourth Ward-A. C. Angle, Wilson Fry. Joseph Sherwood, John Weniger.

Liberty-William P. Blue, Luther stant the presence of the strawberries Oromley, Andrew Billmeyer, Dan in my coat pocket and the fact that Shade

Mahoning-Frank Smith, Edward I sprang to my feet, and there on the Maus, W. T. Dyer, Jerry Donovan, robin's egg damask of the sofa was Henry Reich Mayberry-Joseph Brefee. Valley-E. V. Flick. West Hemlock-Matthew Maus, Pe ter Shultz, Albert Hartman.

Invented Oil Filterer.

W. O. DeWitt, superintendent of the Irondale Electric Light Co., has invent ed an oil filterer by which an elaborate absolute filtration can be secured of lubricating oils which are used in hostess reported to my aunt that I had stolen her berries, had made myself i manufacturing plants, making the oil as good as new and making possible a laughing stock and had offended a dot large saving in this item of expenditure. The invention promises to be a valuable and important one.-Blooms burg Press.

Mr. DeWitt is a son of Dr. A. T. Dewitt, Riverside

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take Laxative Bromo QuinTabine ets. All druggists refund the mone if it fails to cure. E. W. Groves signature is on each box. 25.

Steingenwalt-Klose.

In Danville at the parsonage of Trin ity Lutheran church, by the Rev. 1 D. Ulrich, Miss Maude M. Klose an Charles W. Steingenwalt, were unite n marriage on Wednesday evening December 16. The bride is of Sout Williamsport. Mr. Steinenwalt is in spector for the Western Union Te graph Company. They will reside this city.

P. & R.'s Action in Smallpox.

In order to prevent the spread of smallpox as much as within the power to do so, the P. & R. R. R. Company has issued an order giving instructions to their employes how t handle suspicious looking character and those who are afflicted with th disease. The order is issued by Ger eral Superintendent Dice and counter signed by the various division supe

Mr. Laumaster at Berwick.

On the 24th of January, in the M E. church, the Y. M. C. A.'s next an niversary will be held. Among th speakers secured are Secretary S. M. Bard, of the Pennsylvania State As sociation, and W. D. Laumaster, o Danville. The evening will no doubt be devoted to a mass meeting of the public.-Berwick Daily Enterprise.

y grew more cheerful. was sitting on them flashed upon me Were these abem-these preparaions made in my honor?" he asked Lizzie. But before the girl could ana strawberry blotch not unlike the ma swer a sweet voice came from the of North America, with the isthmu upper landing, "Are you amusing him, of Panama trickling on to the floor. A Lizzie?" Lizzie giggled hysterically. "Tell her you are," the young man the moment the music began, and th hostess, seizing me, whiried me awa whispered.

igain in the dance. Presently I no ticed that the couples were avoiding rom behind her apron. ne, at the same time regarding m "Show him the picture books voice went on, "and if the little fellow his last week.-Buffalo News. curiously. As I spun round drops of the juice were scattered from my coais tired take him up in your lap." Lizzie stepped into the lower hall tail like drops from a carriage whee and turned her laughing face up to her mistress "Please, ma'am, I can't," she said. "I'd hate to try." damaging the costumes of those wh My social career was ended. The

"I'm ashamed of you" the indigmant DO YOU GET UP eply came. "I'll come right down and a of her guests whose costumes Lizzie fled to the kitchen, and there was the quick elick of heels on the Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. the strength that God gave me. Now I stairs. Then David Terrell saw a pretty picture framed in the wide doorway. I never went to another My aunt dis nherited me, cut off my allowance, and and disappointment plainly written on was obliged to make my own living. her expressive face.

Now comes the sequel. I took up art, which I had dropped when my aun bewildered way. ook me up. 1 am a born artist and on secured a hanging at an expos where he is," he said. "If I did I'd get ion that made a permanent demane tim for you, Miss Saybin." for my pictures. About this time my unt died, and it was discovered that "Yes, I'm little David's successor. manager of her estate had sun ry dollar of it. The strawberry Will you forgive me for growing older de had not only led me to take u

ELUCIÓN PORTER.

"I very much wish," writes Loretta J. Vail, of Hopewell Junction, N. Y., that I ght be able in a few lines, without put-g myself forward, to let the people un-stand how valuable Cal-cura Solvent, Terreil?" the auswer came. And who is he, Patty?" ew medicine discovered by Dr. David edy, is in cases of indigestion and the "Hush! He'll hear us. It is little Da-the sitting room, and in a few mins the three young people were on in exceedingly weak and excitable state of the nerves. I employed the best treatment within my reach, yet nothing really helped Late in the evening they adjourned of the dining room for a little lunch. ntil I began to use Cal-cura Solvent, and If your druggist does not have Cal-cura atty had forgotten the high chair and beeling of distancy that she saw their

If your drugges to be shot have calculated Solvent, write to the Calcura Company, Rondout, N.Y.; but ask your druggist first. $1.00 a bottle. Only one size. Guarantee: Your druggist will return your money if Calcura fails to cure, and The Calcura Company will pay the drug-cit. Remember Calcura Solvent cures gist. Remember, Calcura Solvent curos 98% of all cases of Kidney, Bladder and Liver disorders.

Miss countenance, and he answered: ing me, I believe? Lizzle stammered, Washington Star.

Canned Goods.

Employ the following infallible test has been with me through all the twenis perfect. Turn out the contents of all his volce, "I might have done so but rather, a large closet without a wintine immediately upon their being for what you said and the look you dow, where I was locked in. There opened. Basis.

"But, after all, is not good digestion the basis of beauty?" "Ave, what else may change the Beatrice, attacking the sirloin zestfully.-Detroit Free Press.

Down and Out.

Unton-Say isn't that richly dressed "Yes'm," she called in muffled tones woman across the street your cook? Suburb-No. We did make our home the with her for awhile, but she discharged

History repeats itself. You cannot

WITH A LAME BACK ?

Almost everybody who reads the newsy picture framed in the wide doorway. Miss Patty stoad there, with surprise and disappointment plainly written on ter expressive face. "Where where is" she began in a pewildered way. David came forward. "I don't know where he is," he said. "If I did I'd get im for you. Miss Saybin." Almost everybody who reads the news-papers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medi-caltriumph of the nine-teenth century; dis-covered after years of ber, and an orlole lifted up his voice scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the emi-nent kidney and blad-der specialist, and is dollar sizes are sold by all good druggists.

id. Don't laugh so loud, John." She Don't make no mistake, but remem married." shapped her hand into his and led him ber the name, Swanp-Root, Dr. Kil mer's Swamp-Root, and the addres-Binghamton, N.Y., on every bottles.

R-I-P-A-N-S Tabules

Doctors find

A good prescription For mankind contains a supply for a year. All drug- would have seemed like six.-Puck. gists will them.

fled sigh, as he leaned back in his "Oh, yes. I'm a coin collector."- chair and surveyed the veranda and but I saw at a glance the futility of out of the coach door and protested. the flower garden beyond. "The memdoing so. Then for the first time the ory of these flowers and their owner seriousness of the situation came u me. I had never been to Helena and of preservation: Upon the first inser- ty years I have been away. Many did not know a soul in the town aughingly Lizzle gigged and led the way to he string poent. The little chair held its to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small rush of air. If this is to be heard, the preservation of a small ru

> gave me when we last stood together | was a cot in the room, and soon after among your honeysuckles. I knew I my incarceration the door was opened could only return to the sentence of a and my supper handed in. There was deserter who had forsaken his colors." nothing for me to do but accept the She was looking at him in a wonder- situation, so I ate the supper, then grub into the butterfly?" exclaimed ing, startled way, with the color coming softly into her face.

> > "And you are"-

"The Rev. Charles Dingley." "Gentlemen; we have been sold." "Well?" I asked.

"But-you never wrote, Alfred." It was the next afternoon about "Yes, twice. One of the letters was o'clock that I heard a number of for lost, however, for I heard later of the steps on the stairs, and my door wa ship's going down in midocean." suddenly unlocked and thrown open. "I never received it." Then, "But There stood three well dressed me you have been in the place a week, "Do you know anything about the Alfred, and only just called." man who came in the coach with you He looked puzzled. "I came in on the train an hour ago, Elizabeth, and would have been here before but for e clothes, and when we arrived to complication over a telegram. It seems landlord I was a lunatic." there is another man of the same dame in town"

"But Susie? "Never mind Susie, whoever she may be. I have gone through my proba-tion and have done my work with all "The Rev. Charles Dingley who preached this morning made an impassioned appeal for funds to be used have come 10,000 miles for my reward in erecting a reformatory where road -for you. If there is more work, bid me do it; but for charity's sake do not agents and swindlers could be gently led back to the paths of virtue. He got the biggest collection we have had since Easter, but when we whose duty it is to take charge of all church funds went to the vestry to count the money we found the door locked. When we succeeded in getting in, the bird had flown, and the collection was not to be found. It was afterward discovered that the

The sensitive mouth She had anticipated so much. She had anticipated so much. form of kidney trouble. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not rec-ommended for everything but if you have kid. "I've brought him at last, Miss Wflregion. THEODORE RICHARDS.

erown of the plant, it is the end of regarding further formality, and with that burdock bubbling gladness in her volce, "An', oh, say, Miss Wilbur, we've coaxed him

Purely grass fed Texas cattle sold who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

Indout if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Bing-hamton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and Home of dramp-Root dollar sizes are sold by all cood dramp-Root wilbur said, with something in her yolec which the girl could not under-The range cattlemen have a great "This is Mr. Gray, too, Susie," Miss prospect ahead - the best growth of Wilbur said, with something in her grass known for years and an abnor mally high market in sight for their voice which the girl could not understand, "and we, too, are-going to be fatted cattle this coming fall.

Ingenuity In a Flat.

Alyce-What a lovely cozy corner, Mayme! Such a prefty couch! Mayme-Isn't it? It's made out of ing its growing season and the size five trunks and a hatbox, seven pillows, of the tubers, two bolsters and an old piano cover.

Detroit Free Press A Measure of Time,

The Pupil 4t seemed to me 1 must have practiced all of two hours.

The 5-cent packet is enough for usual The Professor- But I'm sure you did cocasions. The family bottle (60 cents) not. If you had practiced two hours, fi nts, which are so common among

I suffered from a severe variety of liver aplaint, with dizziness, numbress, and