JAPAN WINS ANOTHER VICTORY

LONDON, Feb. 10. - The news from | Salutation the far east following yesterday's in- Recitation-"The Lost Mitten" itial victory by the Japanese, continues to be most exciting. A dispatch from the Tokio correspondent to the Central News, received this morning, says that three transports in the Russian Tableau volunteer fleet, conveying about 2,000 troops, were captured off Asau, Korea, yesterday by Japanese.

TOKIO, Feb. 10. - A Japanese report of a fight between a portion of the Japanese fleet and two Russian vessels off Chemulpo, Korea, yesterday afterpoon, has it that the Russian cruiser Variag was set on fire and disabled, and the torpedo gunboat Karietz was sunk. The battle lasted four hours. A previous dispatch told of the capture of these two vessels. That dispatch says the Russians surrendered without A First Class Company.

The "Belle of Virginia" as produced by the Bennett & Moulton company at the opera house last evening proved a most pleasing entertainment. The ing and Jennie Groce. play was a pretty one and was intensely interesting. It was happily cast and the scenery was most appropriate. Miss Dorothy Lamb, the leading lady of this company has greatly pleased our theatre goers this week. She is an accomplished actress. Mr. Allen and Mr. Vincent as Union and Confederate officers were exceptionally strong.

A complete change of vaudeville acts enhanced the performance greatly. Tonight the company will produce 'Shipwrecked,'' a very strong play.
