LIVONA CAMP, PA, APRIL 21, 1902 nut street, Philadelphia, Pa., and MOYER BROS.

DEAR SIE:

I think that every man that has a have a bottle of Moyer's White Liniment in the stable or his house. I had a horse that stepped in a hole with his front foot, coming down the mountain with a trail of props, and fell forward and strained his shoulder blade. That it swelled so fast that we could hardly get the collar off, and in two hours his neck was swollen to all the skin would hold. We used your White Liniment freely, and in a few days he was to work again, and does not show any signs of ameness. It worked like magic. Respectfully Yours

J. A. BARTHAST.
