RUSSIANS HAVE ATTACKED JAPANESE AT TOWN OF ANJU

SEoul, Tuesday, May 10.—1,300 p. m.—A Russian force, estimated to number 200 men, is attacking Anju, about sixty miles southeast of Wiju, Korea. The small Japanese garrison of that place is fighting fiercely.

CHE FOO, May 11.—5 p. m.—An unofficial Japanese despatch has been received here to the effect that the Russians have destroyed their fleet in Port Arthur.

TOKIO, May 11.—Noon.—Admiral Togo reports that since the sixth of May many explosions have been heard coming from the vicinity of Port Arthur but their cause has not been ascertained. The impression here is that the Russians, despairing of their ability to defend Port Arthur, are destroying their ships before evacuating the place.

ALEXIEFF ANGRY AT KUROPATKIN

PARIS, May 11.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Echo de Paris says:

"Vice Admiral Skrydeloff and Vice Admiral Bezobrazoff have been notified of the resumption of communication with Port Arthur, so that they may attempt to reach that place."

"Military circles affirm that the relations between Viceroy Alexieff and General Kuropatkin are strained, the former wishing to share in the planning of future operations."

"General Kuropatkin's telegrams to the Ministry of War indicate irritation on his part."

REAL LOSSES OF JAPS AT YALU

ANTUNG, May 6, via Seoul, May 11.—An official report of the casualties at the battle of the Yalu shows a list of thirty-one Japanese officers killed and sixty-six wounded; one hundred and sixty-nine killed and six hundred and sixty-six wounded. On the Russian side 1,362 men were found dead on the field; four hundred and seventy-five wounded are in the Japanese hospitals, and one hundred and thirty-eight men were taken prisoners.

Most of the Russians who surrendered at Hamatan, west of Chin Lien Cheng, where the Japanese charged the Russian rear guard, were wounded.

The Russian soldiers who have since died in hospitals are buried on a hill top near Antung and were followed to the grave by a Japanese guard of honor and the staff officers. A Danish Lutheran missionary, the only foreigner living at Antung, read the funeral services over the remains.

The captured Russian munitions of war being brought into Antung include twenty field pieces, ten machine guns, much small arm ammunition, twenty transport wagons, two ambulances and hand instruments, the latter perforated with bullets. Most of these things were abandoned in the precipitate flight of the Russian troops.

EMPEROR TODAY REVIEWED TROOPS

ST. PETERSBURG, May 11.—Emperor Nicholas, who was accompanied by the Empress and several of the Grand Dukes and a brilliant staff, reviewed 50,000 troops on the Champ de Mars this morning. A great concourse viewed the brilliant spectacle. As each regiment marched past the Emperor the soldiers shouted "Good health, your Majesty." A grand charge of Cossacks ended the review.

The Imperial party was accorded a hearty reception by the people. Seats on balconies overlooking the review grounds sold for $25. The money will be devoted to the Red Cross.

Base Ball Notes.

In a glorious and easy manner Berkwick defeated the Scranton semi-professionals at Scranton Saturday afternoon by a score of 13-7. Berkwick scoring almost double the runs of her opponents. The Berkwick team showed up in grand form, handling all kinds of hard chances, and rubbing the ball hard at the bat. And it will be remembered, too, that several of the Berkwick boys did not have a bit of practice this season, while Scranton has played a number of games and in almost every instance came out victorious. The Berkwick boys were not up against an easy proposition by any means, but they played with an eagerness and sureness that would have done credit to professionals. Berkwick hit heavy, and better yet, bunched their hits to make them count. Indeed they hit so hard that Griffin, Scranton's pitcher, was forced to retire in the sixth and give place to another man.

"Doc" Davis led ringing off with three hits, and he also played an excellent fielding game. White's pitching, too, was out of the ordinary. He was invincible at critical moments and just when Scranton needed hits they could not touch him. He pitched an excellent game and together with the fine team support behind him, it could not help but be in glorious triumph for Berkwick.—Berkwick Enterprise.

Dr. Edward Davis, member of the Berkwick team, formerly resided in Danville.

American Boy Day.

At the solicitation of the publishers of the American Boy, of Detroit, Mich., many copies of which are sold in this section every month, the managers of the World's Fair at St. Louis have set apart July 5 as American Boy Day. Fine programs for boys will be given in Festival Hall on that day—the programs being under the supervision of the editor of the American Boy.

A DANGEROUS EXPERIMENT

Two itinerant organ grinders with a new fangled apparatus that thumps a base drum and cymbals as well as emits doleful strains of Italian Melody gave the city post house a serenade yesterday afternoon. Just why this was done is beyond conjecture, unless some benevolent or kind-hearted philanthropist sent the music makers to that obscure point to cheer the spirits of the single patient and his keepers. At any rate it was a most unheard of proceeding, as the hospital is located far from any other human habitation, being completely out of sight, and it is a cause for speculation as to how the organ grinders ever found their way there.

They ground out music for at least twenty minutes, the audience consisting of the one smallpox convalescent, the nurse and other attendants. All the latter sat out on the porch in the sun, while the "musicians" turned the crank within a few feet of the door. The spectacle was witnessed by a number from the Reading railroad tracks, two hundred feet to the south.

It would not be stated whether or not the occupants of the house tossed out any of Uncle Sam's minor coin, but if they did it would be well for the authorities to famigate the outfit. Of course no one would find fault with those imprisoned in that desolate building for obtaining a little musical recreation, but it seems like a dangerous experiment, to say the least.—Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin.

JUBILEE CONVENTION Y. M. C. A. WORKERS

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 11.—The International convention of the Young Men's Christian Association of North America convened here today. The convention marks the fiftieth anniversary of the first international convention in America when the International Committees formed and the first meeting on this continent of association delegates was held.

It has brought about 1,400 delegates, representing 600 city associations, 700 state associations, 600 railroad associations and a number of miscellaneous associations representing the army, navy, negro, Indian, races and industrial concerns. An interesting feature of the first international convention in America when the International Committees formed and the first meeting on this continent of association delegates was held.

The program includes not only meeting of the delegates but meetings for the women and the members of the boys' department. Workers are present from every state in the union, Canada, Mexico and European countries.

Died by His Own Hand. Scott Turnbull, for many years a resident of this city, committed suicide in Philadelphia Friday night or Saturday morning.

He was found dead in his room at the boarding house No. 2303, Christian street, Saturday. His throat was cut from ear to ear. Turnbull was a widower and was employed as a pattern maker at the Wharton Switch Works, where several other former residents of Danville are working.

The deceased failed to appear for breakfast Saturday morning and William Lall, who lives in the house, went to call him when he made the gruesome discovery that he had committed suicide. The dead man's friends can assign no reason for his terrible act and it is supposed that he was simply weary of life's struggle.

Scott Turnbull at one time was one of our best-known residents. He was employed at the Montour Iron Works for years and was foreman of the pattern shop. He later went to Reading, but returned to Danville after a year or so and accepted a position as foreman in the pattern shop at Curry & Vannan's where he remained for some years.

At that time his wife was living and the family had their residence on West Mahoning street, near Chestnut street. Mr. Turnbull was a skillful workman, an intelligent well-read man, and had many friends in Danville.

He left this city in 1893. The news of his terrible deed came as a shock to his friends here who remember him as a light-hearted fellow who always took a cheerful view of life.

Specifications Have Arrived. Work on the new road between this city and Mauch Chunk, which is to be built with State aid, should soon be under way. The specifications from the State Highway Department arrived at the Court House Saturday night, on the strength of which bids will be invited immediately.

The bids, which will be asked for through the daily newspapers, will have to be sent to Harrisburg by the bidders, where they will be opened by the State Highway Commissioner. All bids must be in by June 15th.

By this it will be seen that prospects are fair for an early completion of the road covered by the specifications. By July at latest work should begin.

Spent Pleasant Evening. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale entertained a number of friends at their home on Cherry street on Thursday evening. Those present were: Misses Edith Reese, Katie Shurt, Julia Gerzinger, Stella Nevius, Annie Springer, Edith Dorr, Charlotte Ross, Susannah Hale, Alice Martin, Mary Hankey, Barbara Haubert, Hannah Kear, Rella Davis, Charlotte McLenahan, Mary Hale, Messrs. Bert Gill, Frank McCarty, Thomas Dailey, Michael Hickoy, Charles McDermott, Arthur Lewis, Norman Hestilly, William Roberts, Thomas Mitchell, Earl McClanahan, Clyde Roberts, Thomas Gill, William Hale, Mr. and Mrs. George Hale and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale.

Revisiting Danville. Jacob Bueck, an old-time resident of Danville, who for a number of years past has resided in Philadelphia, is revisiting his friends in this city. Mr. Bueck is looking exceedingly well. He owns a newspaper route in Philadelphia and is prospering. When living in Danville Mr. Bueck conducted a barber shop on Mill street.

Recovering. Mrs. W. J. Messersmith of Washington, who was very critically ill last week, has improved very much of late and there are strong hopes of her recovery. She was suffering with congestion of the brain.

BIG FORTUNE FOR MR. JOHNSON

Thomas Johnson, one time a resident of Northumberland county and a miner by occupation, is the heir to a large fortune and efforts are being made to locate him.

Through the death of his brother, at Fort Worth, Texas, Johnson became one of the beneficiaries of an estate valued at an enormous amount, and until he is located, providing he is not dead, the estate cannot be settled.

This is the information that reached the Philadelphia authorities from Superintendent of Police O'Neill, of Chicago, who is conducting the search for the missing man. The letter received states that Johnson was last heard from in Philadelphia and this is why the Western police think he may be found there.

"Make a thorough search for him, as he has a lot coming to him," the letter reads. Detective Allmendinger communicated with every Thomas Johnson whose name appears in the city directory, but none of them are entitled to the estate, the man who died in Texas not being a relative. The search will be continued throughout the State, it being believed that Johnson may have moved to the coal regions. He at one time lived in Shamokin, Pottsville and also Lost Creek.

Bard Bros. Tent Collapses.

On account of the heavy wind blowing Monday night the large show tent of the Bard Brothers circus which exhibited at Berwick, blew to the ground, pinning under its heavy folds hundreds of frantic people. Many saw the tent falling and succeeded in getting under the seats before it fell. Pandemonium reigned for a while, and everybody rushed to get out, stumbling over each other's bodies and over the seats. Hats, umbrellas, pocket-books, coats and many other loose articles were lost in the struggle. Many people were injured by being hit by the falling poles and being trampled upon. The lights were immediately extinguished and left everything in darkness. This added to the excitement and many women fainted and collapsed. The officers at the entrance tried to ebb the wave of human beings that poured out under the tent but to no avail. Thieves got in their work and many articles were stolen.

A Word to the Boys.

The street loafer is an object of contempt everywhere. His influence, if he is fortunate enough to have any, is always in the wrong direction. No one has ever found out what he is good for except that of being in everybody's way. He is considered a common nuisance for which no one has found a successful remedy. No successful business man will employ any one who they see hanging around on the street corners. The boy who can find nothing to do but loaf around the streets would not be of very great value to his employer. When you have nothing else to do you should spend your time in trying to learn something that will be of benefit to you. Business men are on the lookout for boys of energy and thrift. A position is always ready for this kind of a boy. A street loafer does not want to work and could not get a position if he wanted it.

Milton Man Terribly Hurt.

MILTON, May 11.—William Hornberger a resident of this place, met with what it is believed will prove a fatal accident here at an early hour this morning. While on his way to work he was struck by a trolley car which he failed to see, and received terrible injuries.

Mr. Hornberger lives in the lower part of Shimer & Sons, and was on his way to work about 7:30 o'clock. He had reached a point on Front street, near the store of Harry Harris, when he started to cross the street. A south bound trolley car was approaching, but he failed to see it. The motorman thought that he saw the car and would get out of the way in time.

Among other injuries, Hornberger's jaw was broken and most of his teeth knocked out. He was also injured internally, and this afternoon he is in a very serious condition. He is a married man, twenty-seven years, and married, but has no children.

Spent Pleasant Evening. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hale entertained a number of friends at their home on Cherry street on Thursday evening. Those present were: Misses Edith Reese, Katie Shurt, Julia Gerzinger, Stella Nevius, Annie Springer, Edith Dorr, Charlotte Ross, Susannah Hale, Alice Martin, Mary Hankey, Barbara Haubert, Hannah Kear, Rella Davis, Charlotte McLenahan, Mary Hale, Messrs. DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable. Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, kidney, bladder, uric acid troubles and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for anything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work, in private practice, among the helpless too poor to purchase relief and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., 515 Northampton, N. Y. The regular fifty cent and dollar size are sold by all good druggists.

Don't make no mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

GOLDEN EAGLES TALK OF PER CAPITA TAX

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—The business session today of the convention of the State Grand Eagle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, was devoted principally to a discussion of a proposed amendment to the constitution, whereby a per capita tax may be levied instead of an assessment by castles as at present.

Another important matter to be discussed is a division of the constitution and by-laws so that the lieutenant general of commanderies, may be elected by popular vote.

The officers to be installed on Friday are: Grand Chief, Fred W. Anton, of Philadelphia; vice grand chief, State Senator Webster Grim, of Doylestown; grand high priest, John H. Ritter, of Freemansburg; grand master of records, L. G. Gallagher, of Chester; grand keeper of Exchequer, Howard T. Boas, of Reading; grand scribe, herald, A. L. Campbell, of Philadelphia. Bouton Patterson, of Pittsburgh, will become past grand chief.

Pretty Spring Wedding.

One of the most pleasing local events of the spring month was the marriage on Wednesday afternoon of Miss Nellie Williams only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Williams and Rev. John Essington Miles, pastor of Scotland Avenue Baptist Church, Detroit, Mich. About 35 relatives and a few friends assembled at the family residence, queen street, to witness the interesting ceremony, the officiating minister being Rev. B. H. Hayden, M. A., pastor of the Disciple's church. The wedding march was played by Miss Rogina Percy. The bride who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of white Swiss mull inserted with lace and silk braid, the long tulle veil being caught with a knot of orange blossoms. The bridesmaid was Miss Mertie Curtis, Port Hope, who wore a beautiful dress of pale pink silk mull. No flowers were carried and the groom was unattended. Immediately after the ceremony and receiving congratulations, a wedding supper was served, the tables being very prettily and daintily decorated in pink and white. The bride received a very beautiful assortment of wedding gifts, the groom's gift to the bride being a handsome diamond clasp. To the bridesmaid he gave a set of books. Rev. and Mrs. Miles left the same evening for Detroit where they will reside in the future. We can truthfully say that the bride was a very estimable and popular young lady and carries with her the good wishes of a host of friends in this town and also of Ontario Ladies' College, Whitby, where she was a very successful teacher of music. May her married life be as beautiful and bright as the sunshine upon the day of her marriage. Among the guests present from outside of town were: Mrs. John Curtis, the Misses Curtis and Mr. Fred Curtis, Port Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, and Miss Copeland of Ontario Ladies' College, and Sheriff, Mrs. and Miss Paxton, Whitby.—Howmansville Statesman, May 4th, 1904.

The Bar Mill of the Reading Iron Works has been shut down for a few days now, and it is not likely that it will resume any more this week.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they touch the liver instead of purging it. They never grip nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fever.
