ATTORNEY GENERAL FILES EXCEPTIONS

Attorney General Carson, acting in behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania filed exceptions to the report of the viewers recommending the rebuilding of the Catawissa bridge over the North branch of the Susquehanna river.

The Attorney General takes the position that it does not come within the Act of Assembly of June 1895 which provides for the building of bridges by the state. That the destruction of the a much better crowd turns out on that bridges was only partial, inasmuch as day it is doubtful whether the club the original bridge contained four will feel encouraged to go on with the spans and only two were carried arrangements necessary to keep the away. Another objection raised by team in the field. the Attorney General is that the report of the viewers recommends the construction of an entirely new struc-Gosh, lf ture with a clear roadway of twentyfour feet, with a foot walk on each Renner, 1b side, six feet in width, while the old bridge was but twenty feet wide and Hummer, c had no sidewalks. Divorce Problem Before Presbyterians. BUFFALO, N. Y., May 23.-At the General Assembly of the Presby terian church of the United States to day, the special committee on marriage and divorce made its report and submitted the following recommendation for the consideration and action of the general assembly. "The general assembly again enjoins all ministers under its care and authority to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorc ed persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as scriptural in the standards of our church.
