desired, which among others included Candidate Fairbanks, Speaker Joe Cannon, Senators Penrose and Knox, Governor Pennypacker, Attorney General Hampton L. Carson, Charles Emory Smith and General Thomas J. Stewart.

County Chairman Ford and City Chairman Leslie informed Chairman Penrose that Allegheny county will give Roosevelt and Fairbanks the largest majority that has ever been given to any Republican national ticket. They informed him that the party is united in Allegheny, and that the greatest enthusiasm prevails among the rank and file of the party organization.

Several of the active spirits of the State League of Clubs were in Reading during the last week. They reported that the condition of the party organization in their respective localities is very satisfactory, and that the Republicans generally intend to give loyal and cordial support to the entire Republican ticket.

REPUBLICANS CARRY STATE OF VERMONT

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vermont, Sept. 7.—With eleven towns out of 246 cities and towns yet to be heard from, later and revised returns today indicated that the Republicans carried the state of Vermont yesterday by a plurality in the neighborhood of 31,800. This is a Republican gain over 1900 when the plurality at the state election was 81,312.

The total figures for all but eleven towns give Charles J. Bell, Republican, 46,815 for Governor and Eli H. Porter, Democrat 15,929, or a plurality of 30,886 for Mr. Bell. The vote for Congressman Sam slightly behind that for the head of the state ticket. Congressman Kittredg Haskins and David J. Foster being re-elected.

The latest reports indicate that the next state Senate will be solidly Republican, the Democrats losing their present five seats and that the Democrats will lose about 10 representatives.

Did Him Good.

A provincial clergyman during his sermon caught sight of a member of his congregation wearing a very worried look. Suddenly the man's face brightened, and during the remainder of the service his appearance betokened a perfect freedom from care.

"I am pleased to think, William," remarked the clergyman after the service, "that my words helped you somewhat this morning. I noticed during my discourse that your face lit up and the sunshine of smiles chased the clouds of worry away. Now, what portion of my sermon appealed so strong to you, eh?"

"To tell the truth, sir," replied William, "I wasn't payin' so much attention to your preachin' as I ought to have done. I was balancin' up the week's cash in my mind and found myself two and threepence short. I worried and worried about that money, but couldn't fit it in no how."

"Then I happened to catch a word or two of what you said about the preparations that man made for his prophetical son, and it came into my mind like a flash of lightning that I'd spent two and threepence for a new horse and to give my Jim a thunderin' good hildin'. It's wonderful, as you say, sir, what help a chance word may be Good mornin', sir."

A new song for the campaign

Chairman Penrose Procures Speakers of National Prominence For the State League's Convention at Reading.

[Special Correspondence.]

Reading, Sept. 6.

Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania! Pennsylvania!

She's going to blaze the way! For Teddy and Fairbanks too! (To air of "Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!")

The above campaign song will be sung in every section of the Commonwealth after the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs, which is to be held in Reading on September 21, 22 and 23.

Already enthusiastic Republican clubmen who are preparing to attend the convention are singing this song at home, and they expect to join in a mighty chorus when they get together in the convention from every county in the state and formally open the presidential election in Pennsylvania. The convention of the clubmen this year promises to be the greatest in the history of the league, and much of the credit for the success of the convention will be due to the active cooperation of Chairman Penrose and Secretary Andrews, of the Republican state committee, who have given every assistance possible to President John R. Wiggins and Secretary John Kelley and the other officers of the league and the members of the local committee of arrangements.

Senator Penrose made a personal appeal to Chairman Cortelyou, of the Republican national committee, and Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, to send speakers of national reputation to the league's convention, and they have promised to comply with his request.

As the result of Senator Penrose's visit to New York, Candidate for Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, of Indiana, and Senator Joseph B. Foraker, of Ohio, are among others who have been assigned to address a mass meeting under the auspices of the State League, which will be held in the Reading Academy of Music on September 21. It is expected that there will be a number of other distinguished Republicans from other states to address the meeting in addition to many of the leaders of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania. Senator Penrose, Senator-elect Knox, Governor Pennypacker, Attorney General Carson and a host of others have been invited to be present. Every Republican member of congress from Pennsylvania is expected to attend, and that the gathering will be a notable one.

There will be music and fireworks galore and special excursions to Mount Penn and other points of attraction in and about Reading will be arranged for the entertainment of the delegates, alternates and other visitors to the convention. Secretary Kelley estimates that at least 250 clubs will be represented, and that the number of visitors who will accompany the delegates will be the largest on record.

The convention of the club league will be the inauguration of a brilliant series of Republican mass meetings to be held under the auspices of the Republican state committee. Senator-elect Philander C. Knox, who has just returned from a trip abroad, had a conference with Chairman Penrose last week and agreed to speak at a mass meeting to be held in the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, under the direction of the Manufacturers' Club of that city. This will be one of the largest demonstrations that will be held in the state during the campaign. It is proposed to have a tremendous rally of employees of the various manufacturing plants in the Quaker City that have prospered under the protective tariff and which would be jeopardized in the event of the election of a Democratic president and of a Democratic congress favorable to the Democratic idea of free trade.

Capital and labor will figure conspicuously in this meeting which is likely to be one of the most unique features of the presidential contest.

A large delegation of active Republicans from Allegheny county were in conference with Chairman Penrose last week relative to a series of mass meetings which they propose to hold in Pittsburgh and vicinity. They submitted a list of orators they

AIMING NATIONAL COMMITTEE

State Committee Is Co-Operating With the Members of the National Committee in the Campaign For Roosevelt and Fairbanks.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 6.

A fitting compliment was paid to the Republican organization of Pennsylvania last week by Chairman Cortelyou, of the Republican national committee. It was upon the occasion of Senator Penrose's visit to the national committee headquarters in New York, when the subject of state organizations was under consideration.

Pennsylvania Republicans have the finest, most compact and most loyal Republican organization in the country," said Chairman Cortelyou, "and I fervently wish that other states would copy the methods and manifest the enthusiasm and the ardor which is being shown by the Republicans of the Keystone state in the present campaign."

Senator Penrose visited the national chairman upon a special invitation from Mr. Cortelyou, who desired to talk over a number of matters of importance in connection with the presidential campaign. Their interview was a most cordial and satisfactory one, and Chairman Cortelyou was assured that he could always count upon Pennsylvania for men and money, as occasion demanded.

A chairman of the Republican state committee, Senator Penrose has organized a corps of spellbinders, whose services have been placed at the call of Chairman Cortelyou for duty in the doubtful states, and he has already done considerable effective work in aid of the members of the advisory committee named by the national chairman to collect campaign subscriptions for the presidential contest. Pennsylvania is second only to New York in the amount of money contributed to Republican campaigns, and with the cooperation of State Chairman Penrose the representatives of the national committee who are soliciting contributions in this state will, it is believed, be able to make gratifying reports.

Information received at the state headquarters daily indicates a general disposition among Republicans to help make good Senator Penrose's prediction that Pennsylvania will even surpass the record-breaking majority of 307,000 for McKinley by giving Roosevelt at least 225,000 majority. It was this statement to Chairman Cortelyou that brought forth his very complimentary reference to the Republican organization of Pennsylvania.

No one not thoroughly familiar with conditions in this state can appreciate the ramifications and the sturdy character of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania. As it stands today it has stood for 70 years, ever loyal to the principles of Republicanism and ever steadfast to the Republican nominees.

This organization was not built in a day. It is the result of the careful, watchful interest of men of intelligence and activity; men who have labored hard to cement the various interests in the several counties and who have banded together into a compact body the brains and the brawn of stalwart Republicanism of every section of the Commonwealth.

The organization of Pennsylvania today represents hundreds of thousands of Republican voters who are in touch with the present committee and with the state committee. These voters are all enrolled, and their names and addresses are kept permanently at the headquarters of the state committee in this city. The lists are carefully arranged, and are always available for communications to be sent directly by the chairman of the state committee on a minute's notice.

In most of the states of the Union party organizations are formed for each campaign, and most of the preliminary work before each election consists of gathering together an organization for election day. The Pennsylvania idea is to keep a permanent organization.

The secretary of the state committee, Colonel William B. Andrews, who has been engaged in this work for many years, is proud to have been between campaigns pursuing his list as he is in the midst of a desperately fought political contest. Senator Penrose, who succeeds the late Senator Matthew Stanley Quay as leader of the Republican organization of Pennsylvania, was a trusted lieutenant of the great leader who preceded him, and he has endeavored to follow his example in keeping the party organization constantly on a "fighting basis." Senator Penrose has gone further. He has sought to harmonize the party where differences have existed, and he has made it a rule to consult the active Republicans of every district before acting upon any proposition affecting that district. He believes that the men who labor year in and year out in the interest of the party are the men to be consulted.

As chairman of the state committee, he believes that every young Republican ambitious to be a factor in his party's organization should follow his course, and he has advised many young men since the opening of the present contest to at once get in touch with the committee men from their respective precincts and volunteer for duty throughout the campaign. He holds that this is the only way for a young Republican to become a member in his party organization.

MARCHING TO MUKDEN

MUKDEN, Tuesday, Sept. 6.—Part of the Russian army which is coming to Mukden by wagon road is in danger of being cut off. All day and night Monday the Japanese in the hills on the east road, shelled the Russian troops. In one instance the Japanese infantry attacked a large force of Russian infantry and artillery which had taken to the hills running parallel to the Japanese, in protecting the flank of the retreating army.

Troops, guns and transports are pouring into Mukden by train and road. Considerable transport was left behind.

The roads are in a frightful state owing to the heavy rain Monday. The main Russian army pushing northward is evacuating Mukden.

BELIEVE KUROPATKIN HAS REACHED SAFETY

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—A 35 p. m.—From the latest advices received by the war office the authorities now believe that the danger of Field Marshal Kuropatkin being captured is practically passed. According to their calculations the whole Russian army should reach Mukden tomorrow night.

Generals Korok and Kuropatkin have been marching northward along parallel lines, both armies being greatly hampered by heavy roads, the Japanese in a rough region and the Russians along a flat country but embarrassed by the high Chinese corn, which prevented marching on the side of the main roads.

No difficulty is being experienced at the Hun river, a few miles south of Mukden, where bridges had been provided for crossing the stream. There has been constant fighting at the Russian rear and along the eastern wing but so far as is known by the war office nothing of importance has occurred since the retreat began.

The general staff naturally is reticent about Kuropatkin's plans, especially whether he intends to stop at Mukden. His decision probably will depend upon the intentions of the Japanese. Contingent preparations will probably be made to evacuate Mukden and there is considerable evidence that Kuropatkin, if compelled to go north will make a stand at Tieling, where the Russians wintered last year. Tieling is forty miles north of Mukden. At this point there is a narrow defile, with the Liao river on one side and mountains running almost down to the railroad on the other. Steps are being taken to guard against a possible attempt to cut the line there.

The report that the sailing of the Baltic squadron had been postponed until November is officially denied as also is the report that several of the ships composing it developed defects. The squadron will sail for Libau Sunday. Exactly when it will sail thence is not known.

Although the report that Rear Admiral Oukomsky in command of the Russian fleet at Port Arthur, is to be court martialed is untrue, the Admiralty has decided to recall him, probably placing Captain Wiren of the armored cruiser Bayan in command. It has been realized all along that Oukomsky lacked the requisites of a commander of a fleet under such difficulties but owing to the impossibility of sending a flag officer to Port Arthur he is allowed to remain in command.

The admiralty is greatly dissatisfied with his action in returning to Port Arthur, August 10, in the face of the order of the late Admiral Withoft not to do so and this led to the decision to supplant him.

YOUTH WAS SHOT BY A COMPANION

WEST CHESTER, Pa., Sept. 7.—Edward H. Hughes, aged six years, of Cheyney, near here, was shot and instantly killed today by his cousin, James Robb, aged 8 years. The body was literally torn to pieces by a heavy charge of bird shot. The two boys were playing about the Robb residence when they found the gun. Neither knew it was loaded and Robb pointing it at his cousin, pulled the trigger.

Sam Schmitt, vice president of the Butcher Workmen, said it was estimated that no more than 25 per cent. of all the strikers throughout the country voted on the peace proposition.

SILVER ANNIVERSARY

The silver anniversary convention of the Firemen's Association of the State of Pennsylvania will be held at Erie, October 4, 5, 6 and 7, and will be the most largely attended and interesting convention ever held by the state association. The committee which has in charge the arrangements for the big event has been actively at work for nearly a year, and the result of its endeavors will afford the most varied and entertaining program ever carried out at a similar gathering of firemen. Erie is one of the prettiest summer cities in America, and the weather, at the season of the silver anniversary convention, is the most propitious of any of the months of the year. Ample accommodation is guaranteed the largest number of visitors, and every detail looking to the comfort and convenience of firemen and visitors has been provided.

Purses aggregating $2,500 will be offered for hose racing, hub-and-hub race, hook and ladder race, prize drill, band contest, finest looking company, company coming the greatest distance, finest looking apparatus, best Darktown fire brigade, largest company, tallest man, smallest man, heaviest man and best looking man in the parade, and the heaviest man will not be overlooked, as well as fifty special prizes. All the prize events will be adjudged by a competent committee, and the liberal purses offered in the racing events have induced the speediest racers teams in America to enter the contests.

AMERICAN CONSUL SAFE IN HARPUR

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The American consul at Harpur has reported to the State Department that he has visited Bitlis and is now in Mosul. He says that the governor general of the latter province paid him a visit on his arrival and offered him an escort to visit the Sassan mountains if he desired.

The Consul states that the District of Samsun is tranquil and pacified and the strategic points are garrisoned by infantry detachments and permanent barracks erected. The survivors of the massacre are in destitute condition but are attempting to rebuild their ruined villages with a little government aid. The consular corps at Bitlis estimates the number of massacred and dead from exposure, and hunger, etc., as 3,500. The American colony at Bitlis appears to be in no present or prospective danger.

In the Mosul district insurgents have adopted a guerrilla form of warfare, ambushing troops and bodies of Kurds. They demand certain reforms which concern chiefly matters of local administration and economic questions not involving the integrity of the Empire. A number of villages have been plundered and burned and many persons killed and maltreated, and another massacre is daily expected by the armenian population which is in destitute circumstances.

About 15,000 have lost everything and are starving, many being ill and wounded. Small contributions toward their relief have been received through the American board of Commissioners for foreign missions at Bitlis but much more is needed.

DONNELLY BELIEVES STRIKE WILL LAST

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—The voting by the local unions interested in the question of whether the stock yards strike shall be declared off or not, is over and the ballots are to be counted this morning. The result will be first made known to the conference board of the Allied Trades Council and after that body has taken "final action" it will be known definitely what the strikers are going to do.

"I think the proposition has been defeated," said President Donnelly. "Of the 1,285 ball voters," he said, "750 met and 99 per cent. voted to remain out on strike. The teamsters have announced their intention to stay out despite the action of the other unions."

The beef loaders, 200 in number, voted unanimously to continue the strike.

It was stated by the packers that there were no desertions from the union ranks when their establishments opened today.

Carl Schmitt, vice president of the Butcher Workmen, said it was estimated that no more than 25 per cent. of all the strikers throughout the country voted on the peace proposition.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become a disease common to a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the kidneys are too often, if the urine scales the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is self afflicted with back-aching, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. The fire engines had just gone, and the crowd, rather disgusted to see nothing more than a little smoke, gathered on the basement window, had dispersed. But, says the Chicago News, a number of small boys still hung about the house, apparently expecting a fresh outburst of the fire.

They were as quiet as ten or twelve hogs, and together under cover of the circumstances usually are. They scuttled up and down the steps, peering into the window and shouting the result of their observations. They ran up the front steps and peered inquiringly into the vestibule.

Suddenly the front door opened, and a little woman came out. It was plain that she had not entirely recovered from the shock of the engines and the smashing glass, but she made a heroic effort to speak calmly.

"Now, boys," she said, "go right away, if you please! This is nothing here to interest you! There is just a little private fire!"

The upper part of the body is clad in a blouse of red and white literally covered with gold and silver ornaments that are handed down from generation to generation. A short skirt in the same style comes below the knees, and the legs are incased in brilliant colored strips wound tightly about like putters, often beaded and gaily adorned with tufts of tinsel, anklets, bracelets and other ornaments.

A short skirt in the same style comes below the knees, and the legs are incased in brilliant colored strips wound tightly about like putters, often beaded and gaily adorned with tufts of tinsel, anklets, bracelets and other ornaments.

An Idol's Long Sleep.

In Pegu may be seen an English sentry keeping guard over a Burmese idol. The Burmese believe the idol is asleep and that when he awakes the end of the world will come. The sentry is there to prevent any one from entering the pagoda, which is his place of repose, and awakening him. His slumbers have lasted 6,000 years.

A Friendly Call.

Little Tommy—Mamma, may I go over and play with Mrs. Nixdorff's children? Mother—You have never gone to play with them. Little Tommy—But my ball went over into their yard and they threw it back to me, and it was all sticky. I guess they've got some candy.

What They Missed.

"Did you attend the Wilson obsequies?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle. "Gracious, no," replied her hostess. "Have they had some? Why, me and Josiah was at the funeral of their grandmother only last week."—Chicago Record-Herald.

GRAND ENCAMPMENT OF KNIGHTS TEMPLAR

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The preliminary meeting of the Grand Encampment of the Knights Templar was held today. The opening address of welcome was delivered by Governor Pardee, of California, on behalf of the Knights of the State, who was followed by Mayor Schmitz on behalf of the city of San Francisco.

The routine of the first meeting consisted of appointing committees to handle the many questions which will come before the body. The reports of the officers on the current events of the week and also upon the work of the last three years were received and referred to the committees.

The grand masters of the Priory of England, Ireland and Wales were present as guests.

Onions on Exhibition.

The fine collection of curios brought from the Philippines by Mrs. Elizabeth M. Brinton, will be placed on exhibition in the Shelhart building, 429 Mill street, tonight. The public are invited to call and see the curiosities. An admission fee of 15 cents will be charged, the proceeds to go to the Pine Street Lutheran church.

A typhoid fever epidemic, which is raging in Williamstown, Dauphin county, has been traced to an old well. Many families have the disease.
