BUILT IN 1812, STRONG AS EVER

Few people of Danville are aware of the fact that this city can boast of having in its immediate vicinity a house that is almost a centenarian, that was erected during the time of America's first war after the United States became a nation and that still stands firm and strong in spite of its weight of years.

Near the old canal, less than a mile beyond the hospital, is a quaint stone structure that has attracted the attention of many passers-by. They never dreamed, perhaps, that the sturdy house is nearing the age of a hundred years and was in process of erection when the United States was demonstrating to Great Britain that the rights of American seamen must be respected.

It was about 1867 that he bought the property and he lived there until about fifty years ago, when he removed to Danville. He improved the place a little, among other things removing an old-fashioned fire place. When he went to cut the wall to place a window in it he found the mortar as hard as the stone.

On a stone over the door are the figures, "1812" showing the time of erection. A huge block of stone is in the place of a door step and is itself a relic of the past, being of a size not commonly seen now. It is in one solid piece 14 feet long by 12 feet wide.

Myrtle lodge has an interesting history. It was instituted in 1873, starting with about a half hundred members. The number increased to 80, but a time came when the lodge went back ward a little, getting down to a membership of 30.

ITALIAN CUT AND ROBBED

A bloody Italian row is reported to have occurred across the river Sunday evening and one man claims to have been robbed of all his money, stripped of his clothes and badly cut with a razor wielded by a fellow countryman who has escaped, according to the account of the affair given by the man who was so brutally handled.

The Italian said to have perpetrated the bold outrage is called Dominic and is described as a big man wearing a broad-brim hat and big belt and usually a red handkerchief tied around his neck. He is spoken of as a familiar figure on the street here. The other man's name also is Dominic, but it is understood he is known to as Rossa.

At 2 p. m. the business session will occur. At this meeting officers will be elected and the next place of meeting will be selected. In the evening at about 7 o'clock a short parade will occur, the line of march to take in the main streets of Milton.

The banquet follows the parade. A substantial spread will be discussed and at the close the Veterans will enjoy a smoker.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hilbert of Liberty township, delightfully entertained the following friends Saturday evening in honor of their son, Wesley Hilbert and wife of New York.

1905 REUNION MAY COME HERE

The Danville members of the Twelfth Regiment Spanish American Veterans Association, who as stated will hold a meeting Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock and who hope to sell 100 tickets in order to get a special train to bring them home from the Milton reunion, are making plans for a good turnout and will go to Milton with the snowed out intention of bringing to Danville the third annual reunion of the Association in 1905.

An outline of the program of the Milton reunion has been received here and calls for an interesting lot of events. As each member of the Association arrives in Milton he is to report at Wilhelm's hall and on payment of $1, the annual dues, will be given a meal ticket for his dinner.

A RELIGIOUS CENSUS PLANNED

At a meeting of the Ministerium yesterday it was finally decided to make a thorough religious census of Danville and surroundings. The advantage of such a census will naturally commend itself to all Christian people, and for the information of the church people as well as the general public the method of procedure is here given.

Cards containing questions covering the information sought will be given to each canvasser. The card to be furnished will contain the following: Religious Census of Danville, 1904, name of canvasser, street, number, names of occupants of house, giving full name in each case.

The census taking will be facilitated by each person responding promptly to the questions asked, and as the ministers are entering upon this undertaking in the hope that much good will result it is believed the committees will be given courteous consideration.

The D. L. & W. railroad company yesterday began work of improvement from Bloomsburg to Rupert. Between Rupert and Catawissa the canal in the portion called the "narrows" is to be filled in to make a wider road bed.

The track is to be raised about three feet from Rupert to Bloomsburg in order to make it of sufficient elevation to give an outlet to Rupert in time of high water. At Rupert connection can be made with the Philadelphia & Reading and traffic in consequence would not be tied up. Many improvements also are to be made at the Bloomsburg station.

SUB CONTRACT LET FOR ERECTION

Definite news concerning the action of the King Bridge Company, of Cleveland, Ohio, in the matter of the Danville river bridge is at last within possession of "THE AMERICAN," and this paper now can give its readers information that will be gladly welcomed. In fact work on the superstructure of the new bridge will start on November 1st and there is a possibility of its completion within eight weeks, just about in time to come as a good, substantial Christmas present for Danville folks.

George E. Gifford, of New York City, representing the King Bridge Company, and P. J. Collins, of Horseheads, N. Y., of the Horseheads Construction Company arrived in Danville yesterday and last night were in conference with Engineer Leonard, of the Caldwell, Barry & Leonard Company to whom the sub contract for the masonry work was let several months ago.

Our representative last night interviewed Messrs. Gifford and Collins, who explained that the King Bridge Company will make and ship the iron for the bridge and the Horseheads Company will erect it. The material will arrive over the Pennsylvania railroad. The erection of the false work, Mr. Collins says, will begin on November 1st. By the time it has progressed far enough for the iron to be set upon the material will be here.

REV. MR. HARMAN GETS GOOD CALL

Concerning the Rev. H. C. Harman, a former pastor of St. Paul's Methodist church, this city, who left Danville last spring, the Milton Standard publishes the following: "The public in general and the members of the Methodist Episcopal church of our city in particular, have been interested and more or less concerned about certain rumors floating about that Rev. Harry Carrin Harman had been invited to the pastorate of a strong and influential church in Waterloo, Iowa. The facts are, that the popular minister did receive a call from the church above named, and the inducements offered were a flattering recognition of his ability. The local congregation would not have censured their pastor if he had accepted the call, much as they would have regretted his leaving. They brought a strong pressure upon him to remain in Milton, and Dr. Wilcox, the presiding elder of the district, insisted that Dr. Harman remain in this conference, where he was sure of a promising future. The determination of Dr. Harman to remain here is a genuine delight to his congregation and to the host of friends and admirers throughout the city."

The hunting season opened auspiciously on Saturday and in this section at least no accidents were reported, while on the other hand some of the nitrods were successful in getting much game. Charles Gibbons and a companion returned with eight squirrels. A hunting party composed of Oscar and Howard Riley and George Ross returned from a hunting trip on Saturday night with eighteen gray squirrels and one red fox. Arthur Lawrence and William Speiser bagged thirteen quail and a woodcock on Saturday. George Gardner and sons, Harvey and Charles, and grandson, George Gardner, spent Saturday hunting on Montour Ridge and killed four wild turkeys, each of the party securing a turkey.

Can You Eat? J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christian, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by Paules & Co., Gosh & Co.

In Her New Play. One of the coming attractions at the Opera House is Mildred Holland in her new play, "The Triumph of an Empress." The play is from the pen of that versatile playwright, Theodore Kromer, who has given to the stage many successes in the past few years. In writing the drama for Miss Holland Mr. Kromer has wisely stepped from the paths of historical accuracy, and in presenting his Catherine has shown only the good qualities of her nature. Her whims and caprices were touched upon, but her selfishness and the bad side of her nature was not in the play. Mr. Kromer's Catherine is far from being the historical one. The play is a good one, however, being a well written and exciting drama, with a Russian setting, which by the way was beautifully designed and painted and everywhere showed the care and practical knowledge of Miss Holland, who spent many weeks last summer in Russia in search of ideas for stage settings.

Operating Another Launch. Persons who frequent the small boats on the river now may have better accommodation than hitherto, since another launch began operating yesterday. It is the one run by Charles Hillen and is ready for good service, having just been thoroughly overhauled. Gougel-Rinchart Wedding. George Gougel, of Delaware, and Miss Anna Mary Rinchart, of Danville, were united in marriage at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Dr. Shindel at his residence, 115 Lower Mulberry street. They will reside in Delaware.

An Old Exhibit. Among the exhibits at the Bloomsburg fair last week was a two quart jar of peaches that were on exhibition and took a premium at the first fair held at Bloomsburg fifty years ago. The jar has been exhibited at several fairs recently, because of their antiquity, and are as whole as the day they were canned.

Berwick's Big Pay. On Saturday the American Car & Foundry Company of Berwick paid out to its employees, for two weeks work, the immense sum of $72,000. One can hardly realize the possibilities of itself a fortune, and when the fact is taken into consideration that this pay is but for two weeks work, the figures seem almost incredible.

Stalds Giving Much Trouble. Dr. Scalds yesterday said that the case of Stephen Molinoski, the Polish workman scalded nearly two weeks ago at the Reading Iron Works, then showed a little improvement. However, the unfortunate fellow last week was very low for several days. Over a third of his body is burned and his recovery will be slow.

Improving Trolley Road. The Danville and Bloomsburg Street Railway Company evidently intends to make the new trolley road as nearly perfect as it is possible to have it. Now a new switch is being constructed at the Mensch farm. It will be a great improvement to the line, which so far has had no passing places between Bloomsburg and Grovania. Now there will be three switches on which cars may pass, at Paules' Grove, Govania and Mensch's. A force of fifty men will regrade the track from Danville to Bloomsburg, starting at once. The rail, of last week and the heavy traffic has caused the earth to sink a little at some points between ties and all such places will be filled in and repaired. The top of the corn is once more heard throughout the land.
