EIGHT MEN TAKES FRIGID PLUNGE

The naphtha launch owned and operated by Daniel Ross upset Tuesday morning and spilled nine men into the icy waters of the Susquehanna. Luckily the boat was near the landing when the accident occurred; so all the passengers managed to reach shore before being overcome by the freezing water. Those in the boat were Peter Baylor and Station Agent W. R. Clark of South Danville, Dr. E. A. Curry of this city, Calvin Clark of Mayberry township, George Woodruff of Rush township, William Oberdorf, of Sunbury, and a traveling salesman, George E. Williams, of Rochester, New York. Frank Ross and his son Daniel were running the launch.

It was shortly after 9 o'clock when the accident occurred, the boat was returning from the P. R. R. passenger train. There was quite a heavy floe of ice in the river, but the launch had been easily plowing through such ice for days, so no trouble was anticipated from that source. When the craft had reached a point about 30 feet from the Danville shore it struck a stone that slightly tilted it, and a large ice cake, just then striking the boat, served further to unbalance it. At this critical moment Mr. Williams moved to the lower side of the launch and in a twinkling the little craft capsized, and threw men and bundles in a confused mass into the water.

The water was about three feet deep at this point and several of the passengers were not only to the waist. The others, however, were completely submerged, and barely escaped being thrown under the boat.

Those of the unfortunate party who reside on this side of the river started with all possible haste for home, their wet clothes clinging to them, and freezing on the way. The men from the other side were not so fortunate, for the river lay between them and the warmth of the home fireside, but they were not compelled to endure their suffering very long. Places were soon found where they secured a change of clothing and although the fit, in most cases, was not of the best, the dry garments were most acceptable.

SONS OF VETERANS CAMPS

Colonel George S. Brown of the Third Regiment, Sons of Veterans Reserve, and division organizer of that order, was in this city yesterday arranging for the establishment, in Danville, of a Camp of the Sons of Veterans. Colonel Brown is at present located in Shamokin. He was born in this city and is well known to many of our citizens. He was at one time employed in the office of the Montour American. Later he very ably filled positions with Shamokin newspapers.

The work that Col. Brown was engaged in yesterday was of merely a preliminary nature, and nothing definite has as yet been done in the establishment of a Camp here; although the men with whom Col. Brown talked all seemed to be very much in favor of the movement. He stated last evening that if his work of interesting Danville men in the organization proceeds with the same degree of success in the near future as it did yesterday it is probable that a Camp may be organized in this city in about three weeks.

The Sons of Veterans, an auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, has for its object the perpetuation of the deeds of our fathers in the civil war. Only sons and grandsons of veterans are eligible. Colonel Brown met the members of Goodrich Post, No. 22, after their meeting last evening and they all expressed themselves as being thoroughly in favor of the movement, and willing to lend their aid in the work of organizing a Camp in Danville.

An excellent characteristic of the Sons of Veterans is the military features connected with the order called the Sons of Veterans Reserves. Companies have been organized in many of the Camps throughout the country. Drilling is done under regular army regulations, and national and state encampments held annually. A company of Reserves was sworn in at Milton last night, and the state encampment is to be held there in June.

The order has taken a forward movement in this part of the state during the past year, many new Camps having been organized. There is also increased activity in the older camps.

RUSSIANS ARE AFRAID THAT ANOTHER OUTBREAK WILL COME

Strike Has Spread to Moscow and Kovno and Strikers Are Rioting—Strikers Are Arming for a Bloody Revenge.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—Thousands of strikers are at this hour assembling in the Nevsky Prospect. This locality contains the homes of many of the fashionable element of the capital.

The outgoing trains today are carrying the wives and children of many prominent St. Petersburg citizens to outlying places of safety.

KOVNO, Russia, Jan. 24.—The strike movement is growing here and rioting has begun. No serious damage has as yet been done.

Kovno is the capital of the Russian government of the same name. The eastern boundary line of the province touches on Germany, while the northern line comes within a short distance of the Baltic.

Few of the residents of Kovno are Russians, the majority of them being descendants of the Samogitians, a people speaking a language closely allied to the Lithuanians.

MOSCOW, Jan. 24.—The strike is this morning spreading rapidly through Moscow district. The gas works are idle and guarded by troops, while the same condition exists at the electric light works.

The demands of the strikers are the same as those of their fellow workmen in St. Petersburg.

The printers have all struck and as a result there will be no newspapers in Moscow tomorrow. There has been no fighting as yet, though the men are marching about the city, gathering recruits from factories and stores as they go.

Up to noon 10,000 strikers had quit work.

The employes of the hoppers factory this morning refused to join the strike but were forced to quit work. A mob of 500 workmen forced an entrance to the factory. They ejected the workmen and demolished all the machinery. The employes of the tanneries were persuaded to join the ranks of the strikers this afternoon.

All arms have been removed from the gunsmiths' shops, most of which have been closed to prevent the strikers obtaining weapons.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—While quiet again pervaded St. Petersburg and its environs today, it was evident even to the casual observer, that this was order of the enforced kind; that it was preserved by a circle of glittering bayonets, and that, for the time being, the people were overawed.

Will it last, or does the next few days, or perhaps hours, hold for the capital or the country scenes of carnage and rioting beyond, as the lamplight glimmers on the streets of Sunday night, will answer this, but indications are that the trouble has not by any means ended.

The streets today had a more normal appearance than yesterday except that the shop windows are still barred and shuttered. The number of troops has been reduced but reserves in large numbers are concealed at many points, ready for action, should they be called on.

In the interior the strike and revolutionary sentiment are rapidly spreading, especially in the Moscow district.

Here, as in St. Petersburg, the strikers are offering no offense for the reason as pointed out yesterday, they are not yet in a position to take any determined stand against the troops. This lack, however, is being gradually remedied by raids on various firms, factories where not only rifles, but cartridges and explosives have been obtained. With these in their hands the strikers will present a most formidable front to the troops, and should a clash occur, the results would be far more serious than even the horror of Sunday's massacre.

There is little question that the spread of the strike of Moscow has caused more perturbation in the official mind than even the widespread movement in St. Petersburg. The employes of many factories there have quit work, and the strikers are emulating the example of the capital workmen. They are marching from place to place prevailing upon others to join them. All the printers of the city have gone out, as have the workers at the gas plants and the electric light plants.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 24.—The capital is quiet this morning but it is feared the quiet will last for but a few hours when the storm will again break loose.

During the night the strikers were busy. They tore down the telephone wires which run from St. Petersburg to Tsarke-Selo. As a result the Czar has since been but partially informed of the progress of events during the night.

The strikers also attempted to plunder the big Universal provider store but were repelled. Fifteen hundred workmen succeeded in getting into the Sestroretsk rifle factory, and plundered all the rifles in the factory. They destroyed the narrow gauge railway from St. Petersburg to Sestroretsk.

It is reported the workmen have also destroyed a section of the railway running from St. Petersburg to Moscow.

Another report of sensational character current this morning is to the effect that the rebels have forced an entrance to the Gentiloff ammunition factory, and have seized large quantities of explosives and cartridges. These with the rifles they have obtained by force will give many of them the means to do the things which have prevented serious clashes with troops yesterday and last night, and which made possible the massacre of Sunday with out retaliatory measures against the troops.

All these indications this morning point to a renewal of bloodshed today.

FERRY AGAIN TO BE OPERATED

The ferry boat is once again safely moored at its old landing on the South side. It was brought back Saturday evening by a crew of fourteen men, under command of the Captain of the squad, County Commissioner Cook.

Twelve of these men went down to where the ferry boat was, early Saturday morning. They made the trip in row boats. Later Commissioner Cook started for the scene of operation, going by train and taking two more men with him, thus increasing the number of polemen to fourteen. However, the officer in charge, when once the up river trip was begun, did as much polling as any of his force.

When the men reached the boat, they discovered that they were up against an unlooked for proposition. The flat had been run up Wolverton creek some distance from its mouth, when the water was high. The water having fallen to a considerable extent since, had left one end of the flat tightly grounded on the bottom of the stream. Consequently, it had to be raised and pushed into deeper water before it could be floated on into the river. It took a great deal of time to accomplish this difficult feat, but it was finally effected and the long and uncertain trip back to Danville began. Everything went all right during the early stages of the journey, until Cook's riddles were reached. There the boat ran aground, the bottom having come in contact with a large stone that was just concealed from sight by the shallow water. The ferry was finally fastened. For three hours it bid defiance to the 15 strong team to push it from the top of that rock. Finally, though, it yielded to the powers against it and glided off into deeper water. From that on the men had no trouble.

The remainder of the journey was made without anything worthy of note transpiring, the landing being made on the South side, late Saturday evening.

IRON WORKERS ENJOY A SMOKER

The smoker given at the Army on Saturday night by Montour Lodge, No. 49 of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, proved to be one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in this city. Saturday was the first anniversary of the organization of the local Lodge and there was a large attendance at the smoker, over four hundred members and guests being present.

Vice President of the 10th District, J. B. Mincher, of New Haven, Conn., was the guest of honor, and the speaker of the evening. Mr. Mincher's address was very interesting and instructive and was received with much enthusiasm. He spoke of the benefits to be derived from the organization, and particularly advised the members as to how they could gain the goodwill and sympathy of the public. He also urged the hearty support of organized labor in all the trades as essential to the success of the Association. The past history of labor in this country, said Mr. Mincher, shows that organization is the only means of protection to the laboring classes. If manufacturers organize for their protection it is just as fair and right for labor to organize for the same purpose.

The interesting address was well received. Montour Lodge is in a very flourishing condition and has a membership of 385. After the address the members and their guests enjoyed a fine oyster supper, including all the side dishes, etc.

A fine musical program was also rendered by members of the local and the committee of arrangements deserve the highest praise for the manner in which the affair was conducted. The following members composed the committee: Michael O'Brien, Jacob Von Blohm, William Howe, Thomas McCaffrey and Stanley Friend. The program follows:

INTERESTING STORY OF THE WAR

One of Danville's old veterans is the proud possessor of a rare and valuable relic of the late Civil War. It is a guitar, and the owner is Richard W. Eggert, formerly editor of the Gem.

The instrument was presented to him while the army was in winter quarters at Bermuda Point, near Point of Rocks, on the classic and historic Appomattox River. It was while at Appomattox and Richmond. The "boys in blue" would cluster around in groups to tell stories and sing songs, and that pastime would carry their minds back to the dear old home and loved ones. As the singers had nothing to accompany them, it was suggested that a parson be raised for the purpose of purchasing a musical instrument. This was accomplished, and the following day a parson was given Mr. Eggert to go to City Point to procure the desired object. He purchased the guitar at a jewelry store, the proprietors of which a few hours later, were ordered to vacate the premises and fall to the rear as a battle in front of Petersburg was imminent.

On his trip for the guitar, after landing from the transport and ascending a steep hill fronting on the river, the first person Mr. Eggert met was his comrade in arms, Arthur Beaver, only son of the late Thomas Beaver, founder of the handsome library of which Danville is so proud. Mr. Beaver greeted Mr. Eggert, after which they strolled to a temporary dining room and partook of an excellent meal. At that time Mr. Beaver was interested in General Grant's headquarters. At the conclusion of the sumptuous dinner, the fellow townsmen bade adieu to each other and separated. They did not meet again until the "crucel war was over," when they clasped hands at the home of their boyhood days.

On the guitar which Mr. Eggert has been the owner since those dark and bloody days, is a handsome silver plate. Inscribed thereon are these words: "Presented to Richard W. Eggert by the members of Battery F, Second Pennsylvania Veteran Volunteer Artillery, near Petersburg, Va., March 28, 1865."

While speaking of this old time relic, and how he came in possession of it, Mr. Eggert told of the actions of the regiment of which he was a member—how it was highly engaged with the Confederates at Fort Harrison, on the James river, and during the dreadful carnage, two hundred of their rank and file were slain. Among the latter was the brigade commander, Brigadier General Burnham, in honor of whom the name of Fort Harrison was afterward changed to Burnham Fort.

"The charge on Fort Harrison," continued Mr. Eggert, "was a success, the enemy being compelled to fall back toward Richmond. Then the regiment recrossed the James river, and were confronted with the Louisiana Tigers. It remained there until the fall of Petersburg and Richmond, the capital of the Confederacy. Shortly after that General Lee surrendered to General Grant at Appomattox Court House, thus ending one of the most dreadful wars for supremacy in the history of any country, and through which the Union was destined to remain one and inseparable.

GOOD SHOWING AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Persons who are interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. in Danville, as well as those who are conversant with the world-wide influence of this agency for good among boys and young men, will be glad to learn that the Association in our midst is having one of the best seasons' work in its history. This is true in every department, as the following record for the past week will show:

The total number of visits to the building, for all purposes, during the past seven days, was one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven.

There were 32 persons in the Bible class for the study of the Sunday school lesson, on Monday evening.

On Tuesday the building was used morning and afternoon, by the School Directors of Montour County. In the evening, from 7 to 8 the Thomas Beaver Boys' Bible Class held its regular monthly reception, with a total attendance of 250, of which number 150 were members of the class. From 8 to 9 o'clock, the Directors held their regular monthly meeting.

Wednesday evening a concert was given by the Ithaca Male Quartette, with an attendance of 390 persons.

The regular weekly meeting of the Boys' Bible Class was held on Friday evening, with an attendance of 150.

In the various classes in the gymnasium there was an attendance for the week of 136, and over 250 baths taken.

The Sunday morning Bible class had an attendance of eleven men, and at the Sunday afternoon mixed meeting the record of the week, together with hundreds of incidents in and about the Association building, proves the value of the work, and persons who are contributing to its support will learn with pleasure that there is "something doing," and that Danville will keep up its end of the work, and thus prove, without a doubt, that it is one of the most active evangelistic enterprises in existence today, working three hundred and sixty five days in the year for the glory of God, the good of the church, and the winning of young men to Christ.

As long as our citizens will recognize its value, and remember that the Y. M. C. A. is a part of the church, and a part of a mighty organization that has gained favor in every quarter of the world, and will help to keep the Association up to the standard in Danville, the work will go right on in the right direction and prove itself the one agency in our midst where all men can meet and make the best of their opportunities from a social, physical, intellectual and spiritual standpoint.

Reporters Good Fellows.

Bishop Talbot, while in Pottsville, said to a Chronicle representative: "I have always found the reporters excellent fellows." The Bishop had voiced the sentiment of every man of prominence who has been frank with the newspaper workers. It is the man who wants to be mysterious who finds reporters good fellows because the latter usually get behind the mystery. Then there is another class which imagines the reporter is a being only fit to become the butt of ridicule—that is a jolly good joke to fool the reporter. But this class is soon meted by the discerning news man and set down at their proper level.

But the man who is frank with the reporter, and the reporter who honors his position sufficiently to grasp what the word confidence means, will get along together, and neither will have reason to complain.

On both sides, of course, but frankness and honesty will never cause any man to lose confidence in the news man, and the latter, if he constantly practices frankness and honesty and never violates a confidence, will have little trouble in bagging legitimate news. The mysterious man on either side are the ones who cause trouble. Bishop Talbot is not one of that class.

The reason that coughs and colds produce constipation and weaken the lungs is because they interfere with all digestion. That new discovery known as Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar cures all Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and assists in expelling colds from the system by gently moving the bowels. It is pleasant to take and contains no opiates. Sold by Paules & Co.

TIME IS THE TEST.

The Testimony of Danville People Stand the Test.

The test of time is what tells the truth. The public soon find out when the newspaper reports are made, and merits alone will stand the test of time. Danville people appreciate merit, and many months ago local citizens publicly endorsed Dan's Kidney Pills; they do so still. Would a citizen make the statement which follows unless convinced that the article was just as represented? A cure that lasts is the kind that every sufferer from kidney ills is looking for.

David B. Jones, printer, of 401 Church St., says: "I think very highly of Dan's Kidney Pills. They cured me of an excruciating backache and lameness across the small of my back. This trouble commenced with sharp shooting twinges just over my hips and later I found that they were coming over my back, even extending to the lower part of my chest."

I saw Dan's Kidney Pills highly recommended and procured a box at a drug store. It only required a short time to find out that they were doing me good, and after taking the treatment for a time, the trouble left me entirely and I have had no return of it for years. I made a statement to that effect in 1897 and that statement stands as good today as it did then."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50c. Post-Office-Milburo Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Dan's—and take no other.

Death of William Fox.

William B. Fox, a well known resident of Mayberry township, died very suddenly of heart disease Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mr. Fox had, for some time been subject to heart trouble. Monday afternoon he was taken suddenly ill and Dr. Ellison of Elvysburg was immediately summoned, but before his arrival the sufferer passed away.

The deceased was 56 years of age and is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. William Frazier and a brother, George Fox.

The funeral will be held from the family residence Friday morning at 11 o'clock.

Speedy Relief.

A salve that heals without a scar is DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. No remedy effects such speedy relief. It draws out inflammation, soothes, cools and heals all cuts, burns and bruises. A sure cure for Piles and skin diseases. DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve. Beware of counterfeits, they are dangerous. Sold by Paules & Co.

Undesired Element.

The foreign element crowding into the coal regions must be a valuable acquisition to the population if the following from the Hazleton Standard is any criterion:

"People should not throw dead chickens into the street as they are apt to be picked up by the foreign element, who cook and eat them. They make a practice of going about the city in quest of dead fowl and visit the offal barrels of the grocery stores, where they gather up spoiled fish and other cast off eatables. Health Officer Bonner has repeatedly warned this class of people to desist in this practice but they continue to violate the injunction."

Growth of the Royal Arcanum.

The Royal Arcanum, in its twenty-eight years' experience, by its constantly increasing membership, has become the leading Fraternal Beneficial Order of our continent, and its sheltering care of the widows and the fatherless, its contribution of fraternal and social life; its teachings of generosity; its lines of virtue, are only a few of its principles and objects. It has over 300,000 members. It has over $2,500,000 on hand in cash and bonds. Over $7,000,000 in benefits were paid in 1903. Over $88,000,000 in benefits have been paid since its organization.

Entertained at Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Starr entertained at dinner at their home on Bloom street, Saturday, the following friends: Rev. Dr. Shindel and wife, Mrs. Susanna Reynolds, Mrs. A. M. Russell, Miss Sue Shindel, Miss Katie Reynolds, Cleaver Wagner of Danville, and D. S. Gunter, of Canton, South Dakota.

Fire Police Sworn In.

The twelve special fire officers, three of whom are appointed from each company, were sworn in Saturday evening by Burgess Parrel.

Although it has been the custom for some years to appoint these officers, they were never on police duty at fires. It is intended this year to stringently enforce a set of rules that will greatly facilitate fire fighting. It will be the duty of these officers to keep back the crowd, stretch ropes, keep order at fires, etc.

The men sworn in on Saturday will hold the office for one year. They are as follows:

Friendship—John G. Vestine, George Repp and Edward V. Stroh.

Continental—Harry Yarrick, Robert Vincent and Charles Raup.

Good Will—William Everett, Charles Hemmerly and William Jordan.

Washington—William Dawson, John Trowbridge and Ezra Haas.

Sickening Shivering Fits

Of Ague and Malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of special benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to Quinine, having none of this drug's bad effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At Paules & Co.'s drug store; price 50c, guaranteed."

Funeral of a Child.

The funeral of Eleanor Edith Jones was held at the home of her parents, No. 11 Grand street, Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The pall bearers were: Miss Emma Pritchard, Miss Jennie Reed, Miss Agnes Hurley, Miss Theresa Baynam, Miss Ruth Dietz, Miss Ida Edmondson.

And to think that we still have to hear from the ground hog.

Viewers Sworn.

On Saturday the viewers appointed by the court, to assess damages claimed by certain Mill street property holders on account of a change of grade, were sworn to by the Prothonotary. They decided to meet at 10 a. m. February 7th.

The fresh air cure may be all right when the air is not too fresh.

Want to be Good Americans.

The Polish residents of Centria have organized a club for the purpose of instructing these people in the duties of citizenship. Victor Marchinski is at the head of the movement and a number of members are already enrolled.

The school board will be no better than the men who compose it. Remember this when you cast your ballot.

Tonic to the System.

For liver troubles and constipation there is nothing better than DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little Pills. They do not weaken the stomach. Their action upon the system is mild, pleasant and harmless. Sold by Paules & Co.

An Important Date.

On the second day of next month the ground hog will emerge from his temporary place of retirement to take observations on the prevailing atmospheric conditions. That date is his day out, for this special purpose, after a rest that began with the beginning of winter, and when he surveys the weather situation we shall have some prophecy on that interesting subject that will put in the background the goosebone prophet and other rival weather prognosticators.

The day when this intelligent animal makes his appearance to exercise his peculiar talent is generally looked forward to with much interest by an anxious public. The hope is entertained that he will not see his shadow, for his winter rest, being fully convinced by his climatic knowledge that there is going to be six weeks more of cold weather in which a groundhog that has any regard for his comfort is not willing to be out.

Why this remarkable animal is possessed of its prophetic talent is a mystery to naturalists. The only explanation is that it was born that way, the same as some individuals are endowed by nature with some peculiar genius.

Spilled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had Salt Rheum or Eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve. A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at Paules & Co.'s drug store."

Birthday Surprise Party.

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. Martha Getting at the home of Charles F. Poch, Valley township, on Thursday evening in honor of her 50th birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and games, after which a sumptuous oyster supper was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Miller, son and daughter, Clyde and Mary, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. William Flick, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yorks, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Sandel, Mr. and Mrs. Ned White, Mr. Samuel Puresl, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Kase, Mrs. Ivaiah Bine, Mr. and Mrs. John Marks and son Paul, Mr. and Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. David Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vestins, Mr. Thomas Getting, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. William Stettler, Mr. William Getting, Miss Maunie Crossley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stettler.

Dr. Foley for Bishop.

It is intimated that Rev. Dr. George C. Foley, D. D., of Williamsport, who was a candidate at the last convention for the position of bishop of the new Harrisburg diocese, may be nominated again, and if so will probably have the undivided strength of his home city's delegations, which were divided at his previous gathering. His is about the only name of a minister in the diocese, which has as yet been much spoken of.—Harrisburg Patriot.

Ayer's Hair Vigor.

Falling hair means weak hair. Then strengthen your hair; feed it with the only hair food, Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, makes the hair grow, completely cures dandruff. And it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.

My hair was falling out badly and I was afraid I would lose it all. Then I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. It not only stopped the hair from falling, but it made my hair all I could wish it to be. My hair is now as thick and healthy as ever. It is the only hair preparation I have used. I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over a year and it has done more for my hair than any other preparation I have used. I have never seen a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor that was not full of testimonials. I have used it for years and it is the best hair preparation I have ever used. It is the only hair preparation that makes the hair grow and restores the color to gray hair. It is the only hair preparation that checks falling hair, makes the hair grow, completely cures dandruff, and it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.

To Cure a Cold in One Day.

Take LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE Tablets. All druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signa ture is on each box.

Falling Hair.

Falling hair means weak hair. Then strengthen your hair; feed it with the only hair food, Ayer's Hair Vigor. It checks falling hair, makes the hair grow, completely cures dandruff. And it always restores color to gray hair, all the rich, dark color of early life.
