

Miss Eugenie Barnett looked discontentedly across the veranda at her "Don't get in here with that awful blond cousin in the cushion piled ham- dog! I can't bear the sight of blood!" mock.

"You've no business to be so pretty. Julia Knox, and to look so absurdly to lick Eugenie's face. Her pulse leapyoung. You are just as old as I am, ed as she met the doctor's eyes. and that is twenty-s"- quickly. "You mustn't, Eugenie. If to be a doctor?" we think we are young and never acknowledge that we are not young Knok, a trifle mallciously. we'll fool the people into thinking"- what Dr. Hunt called you, and it suits wife?' you too. I tell you, Julia, it's little "Well!" said the pretty widow exploshort of tragedy to worship beauty as sively, "I guess I'm not needed here. I do and be homely as a hedge fence Eugenie, if you can guarantee that ing to the former." myself!"

"The cypress hedge fence at the foot take him home for you." of my garden is beautiful, I think," said the widow, lying back among her ing for the third time across the hill. cushions again. "Find another simile, Eugenie with smarting eyes. She was so tired and drearly whistling buoy. She wish- nlty: ed she hadn't come to California to "If you'll cross your heart and hope Perfect Rest and Hot Fomentations visit Julia Knox. If Julia weren't a to die that you'll always love me berwidow or if Dr. Hunt weren't spend- ter'n Julia Knox." ing his vacation here or if Julia weren't so pretty and she so plain or if".

"Eugenie, dear"-Mrs. Knox looked out of half shut, baby blue eyes-"do the quarter sessions for Dublin, was so you think it was prearranged for you remarkable for his leniency to female and Frankie Hunt and me to play to- culprits that a woman was seldom congether as children and meet again at victed when he presided. Santa Cruz as grownups? Don't you On one occasion when this humane think that Dr. Hunt"-

"Who filehes my good name?"

Knox. Her cousin had disappeared. As Eugenie entered her room her open window. "She is having one of her spells the prisoner if she was ready to take again because she isn't a Helen of her trial. Troy, and it reminds me of our school days. Do you remember when she cut "No." She was told by the clerk she off her hair in a rage because it was must give her reasons why. brown and straight instead of yellow and curly like mine?"

"Now, I call that mean of Julia," Eugenie thought, her face growing crimson as she heard them laugh. If she had not shut the window just then she "No one but Eugenie thinks her face isn't good to look at."

By and by Julia ascended the stairs and tapped at her cousin's door. "Dr. Hunt has his auto here and hat and come on." "Thanks. I have another engagement.

"All right," answered the widow sweetly. "I'll try to make up for your absence.

"I don't doubt it," observed Eugenie. Mrs. Knox went down five steps and paused. She wrinkled her white brow unbecomingly, sighed and went back. "Honey," she called softly, her pretty lips at the keyhole, "did no one ever tell you that along with the Barnett nose you inherited the Barnett trick of making folks like you?"

red auto puffed away. Her mind trailed back into the past

She was a little, dark faced girl again, playing with Frankie Hunt, her sworn champion until her cousin, Julia Epps, came to school. Personified daintiness

"What's this?" and Dr. Hunt stepped old fellow, you are in luck to get a capable surgeon in your hour of calamity. Silk bandages, too. I wonder if the splints are gold or ivory." I had to use my neck ribbon," she ex-pet name as in the old days. "This is better than walking." "Oh, don't!" shrieked Julia Knox. produced "letters without the aid of reed or of metal."

contribute money to aid the king of "You did it scientifically, and you Cyprus against the Turks. This indul-"Hush." The little widow sat up aren't a bit pale. Shouldn't you like gence has the printed year date 1454, and a copy in The Hague museum has little beast not to bite I suppose I can "I can't," said Eugenie happily, start "But," interposed the doctor, "you from his press.-Saturday Review.

of the continually booming breakers eyes and answered with mock solem-

The late Counselor E., chairman of barrister was in the chair a prim looking woman was put to the bar of the When a tall young man came around commission court, at which presided the porch corner he saw only Mrs. the equally humane though perhaps

She was indicted for uttering forged cousin's clear tones floated through the bank notes. According to usual forms of law, the clerk of the crown asked

With becoming disdain she answered

As if scorning to hold conversation with the official, she thus addressed his lordship: "My lord, I won't be tried here at all. I'll be tried by my Lord E."

The simplicity of the woman, coupled might have heard the doctor's answer. with the well known character of E., caused a roar of laughter in the court which even the bench could not resist. Baron S., with his usual mildness, was about to explain the impossibility where us to ride with him. Get your and said, "He can't try you," when the woman stopped him short and,

> "Can't try me? I beg your pardon, my lord; he tried me twice before." She was tried, however, and for the

> > BE ACCURATE.

Man Entering Business.

Eugenie's grim features relaxed. pened that his partner, upon whom the principal responsibility of the business rests, came to attain that position while not yet thirty years of age.

"Purely and simply on his own merit," he replied. "He came into my office one morning some ten or twelve years ago and told me that he had just tchagan khan, and then by the Ruswas Julia Epps, from the blue bow on finished school and was looking for a

Art Preservative. The following are the earliest knows examples of printing-two indulgences, printed usually on one side only of a single piece of vellum and two magnif-feent Bibles. Of these one is known to be the first complete book that everVirginia tobaccos?ment, if a lady's maid is to be believed.

She has revealed the secrets of her mistress' boudoir, or, rather, torturehave to be sweetened artificially.
There are some establishments in Europe where they do this kind of thing. "I had forgotten my handkerchief, so single piece of vellum and two magnifplained, starting to go. be the first complete book that ever which is which at the first whiff, but mistress boudoir, or, rather, torture rope where they do this kind of thing "Get in here, Genle!" He used the was printed by the wonderful new in- if you ask him what the original discharge chamber. The lady herself is now You are taken into the sweetening de chamber. The lady herself is now you are taken into the sweetening de chamber. vention, which, as the early printers so often proudly state in their colophons,

TREATING A SPRAIN.

the First Requisites.

stands the nature of a sprain; that wrenching of a joint whereby some of any sort of pen, whether of quill, of The little dog whined softly and tried actually dated is the famous indulgence of Nicholas V. to such as should

"Or a doctor's wife?" suggested Julia the date "Nov. 15" filled in with a pen. Mr. Duff tells us that "in the years "Will you, dear?" he asked eagerly, 1454 and 1455 there was a large de-continued Eugenie morosely. "That's cheek. "Will you be this doctor's editions were issued. These may be divided into two sets, the one containing thirty-one lines, the other thirty lines, the first dated example belong-

This thirty line edition is shown to have been printed by Peter Schoeffer pear in another later indulgence of tually haven't answered my question. Will The girl turned away impatiently you be my girl, Genie? She looked back at him with radiant

She Had Her Way.

not so gallant Baron S.

is dry enough to apply.

with an inimitable sneer, exclaimed:

third time acquitted.

One of the Best Mottoes For a Young

The head of one of the largest dry goods commission houses in this city was asked the other day how it hap-

> London Times that this had been literally translated by the Mongols into

THE FIRST PRINTING. out of the auto. "Broken leg, ch? Well, Some of the Earliest Examples of the Turkish and Virginian Leafs Are Va- What One Woman Suffered For the How Poor Qualifies Are Brought Ug

if you ask him what the original dis-tinction is between the two he will tell you that one comes from Turkey and still alive. For months she lay flat on ready to be operated on. A cone is the other from the States.

TOBACCO SECRETS.

ish and Virginia tobaccos in the same eral hours every day. This was, it ap- this apparatus close to the apex or ield, for they are merely two different varieties of the same plant. Turkish the rest of the day, for the same period is poured on the flat end of the cone. is the leaf of Nicotiana rustica, while Virginia is Nicotiana augustipolia. Of course the two are often blended by to-backward and forward and form side bacconists.

ence between "strong" and "mild" to-baccos? It is simple enough. The strong product is so manufactured that it was corrected and made Grecian by the necessary quality. Another interesting fact in connec-tion with this article is that some of product is so manufactured that it was corrected and made of and night the pieces of "lump sugar" are really scranton... contained nicotine is distilled in an un- for months of a spring bandage. One made up of dust or fragments pressed altered state. Mild tobaccos are those nostril was originally larger than the together. which burn well, and thus their contained nicotine is consumed or decomcotic smoke is formed.

We often hear cheap cigars spoken of the initial letters which occur in it ap- many people believe that these are acadulterated with other sub-1489, which is known to have come stances than tobacco. Often in such a has been successfully achieved. Hav- Globe, weed the outside wrapper is noticed to be patched with pale green, and this fact is held proof of the cabbage leaf stated, is now beautiful.-Paris Letter. libel. The piece of greenish leaf is real tobacco which has been plucked unripe or not properly cured. It is only to be The question of how to treat a sprain found in thin, poor leaf.—London Ex-is often raised. Everybody under-the ligaments (those very useful bands A Practice That Does Not Help the which unite the bones forming the English Language.

USE OF FRENCH WORDS.

joint) are violently stretched or perhaps even ruptured. This kind of injury is rarely, except through unusual English words to serve the purpose? omplications, dangerous in its nature, It is a habit that is growing daily. For but it is certainly very painful and when of a serious nature may result in the permanent impairment of the joint, Such an injury, if at all severe, is immediately followed by marked swelling of the parts, and prompt attention serviette instead of a napkin, an Eng- by a mere material loss. should be given anticipating the strlish word, but originally of French orgeon's coming. The very first item in the treatment of a sprain is perfect igin, as is the Scotch word napery, small hope for any one who falls to rest of the limb until a doctor can be summoned. Reduce the swelling by applications of hot fomentations as hot as can be endured, changing about once in every three hours. If a piece of shirts or waists, and hose are of- boy who has nerve and grit, even of oilskin be not at hand use common newspaper. Wind it carefully outside the hot cloth. This will prevent the escape of the steam and prevent the bills and matinees in place of afternoon cloth from cooling. A good way to save the hands from being scalded is to place the hot, dripping flannel in a in a restaurant as cheerfully as in a towel, then, taking hold of each end of the towel, to wring it until the flannel guage is rapidly becoming a botch-THE WHITE CZAR. phy is doing its best to oust all Russia's Ruler Owes This Title to the crisp and racy Saxon speech. When-Slip of a Pen. ever possible let us determine to use The czar of P ssia owes one of his an English instead of a French word, titles to a slip of the pen. The Chinese both in literature and conversation .-character pronounced Hwang, meaning London Graphic emperor, was originally compounded of two elements, meaning "oneself" and BOILING WATER. "ruler," by which it was intimated that an emperor or ruler of men should, be-It to Hiss.

fore all things, be master of himself. In after ages, however, by the omission of a single stroke, this character boiling water, there is no commotion. assumed its present corrupted form. In which the component elements signify "white" and "ruler." white having tak-enthe place of the original "oneseit." Some years ago it was pointed out by a St. Petersburg correspondent of the assumed its present corrupted form, in consequent upon the bursting of innumerable bubbles.

When, on the other hand, a poker is tchagan khan, and then by the Rus-slans into biely show of the "white" thrust into boiling water, which is al-There are scores of girls who are neiready freely giving forth steam, the inther beautiful nor witty, but they are

THE QUEST OF BEAUTY. SWEETENING SUGAR.

How many people even among the You must suffer to be beautiful, ac-Sake of Her Appearance. to the Standard. There are certain kinds of sugar most confirmed smokers know what is cording to a French saying. There which fall short of the required standthe difference between Turkish and seems to be some truth in the state- and of sweetness, and these sugars the other from the States. He is wrong. You could grow Turk-her arms close to her sides, during sev-ward. You notice many little holes in ing suffered this complicated martyr-dom for a year, the lady, as already

YOUR GRIP ON YOURSELF.

Retain That Though You Have to Let Everything Else Go.

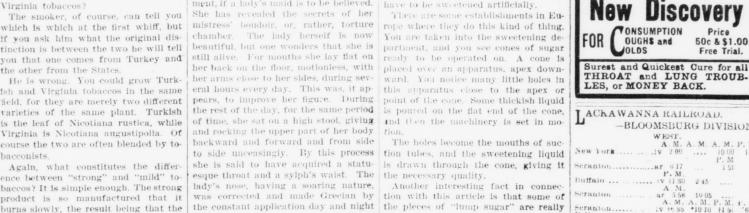

Some people get along beautifully for half a lifetime perhaps while everyaccumulating property and gaining friends and reputation their characters Why do people persist in using seem to be strong and well balanced, French words when there are good old but the moment there is friction anyseem to be strong and well balanced, where, the moment trouble comes-a failure in business, a panic or a great instance, at dinner people give you crisis in which they lose their all-they "menu" instead of "bill of fare," are overwhelmed. They despair, lose though the items are such English heart, courage, faith, hope and power to dishes as boiled cod, roast beef and ap- try again-everything. Their very manple tart. One is accommodated with a hood or womanhood is swallowed up This is failure indeed, and there is used for household linen. When you such a depth of despair. There is hope enter a shop you are served with cor- for an ignorant man who cannot write sets instead of stays, costumes by a his name even if he has stamina and costumiere instead of dresses by a backbone. There is hope for a cripple dressmaker. "Blouses" take the place who has courage, there is hope for a fered for stockings. The former word though he is so hemmed in that he has is, however, English. At the theater apparently no chance in the world, but we have programmes instead of play- there is no hope for a man who cannot or will not stand up after he falls, but performances. Toques are adjusted loses heart when opposition strikes him J J. BROWN with as much ease as hats, and we eat | and lays down his arms after defeat. Let everything else go if you must, dining room. There are, of course, un- but never lose your grip on yourself. translatable words which must be | Do not let your manhood or womanused, but our good old English lan- hood go. This is your priceless pearl, dearer to you than your breath. Cling potch of foreign words, while telegra- to it with all your might. Give up life itself first.-Success.

applies small pads made of certain dried herbs to the skin, then sets them alight, the ensuing blisters being supposed to be most effective as a cure Why a Redhot Poker Does Not Cause for various allments. Among the doc If a redhot poker be thrust into cold warranted a sure cure for tightness of water it bisses and sputters; if into the chest, gnashing of the teeth and the chest, gnashing of the teeth and depression of spirits, and "furidashi," other, so she wore a small sponge in it If you will examine certain pieces for a year. Her cheeks have been you will observe that the crystal forposed, with the result that a less nar- filled out and rounded by injections of mation of good sugar is not to be seen, paraffin. Her ears for months were and you will also discover that these compressed against the sides of her close grained "lumps" take longer to de Gernsheim by the fact that some of as "cabbage leaves," and doubtless head by springs, while heavy weights dissolve, though, of course, all sugar were attached to the lobes to produce that takes a long time to melt is not the required elongated shape, which necessarily made up stuff .- London

> The Duel Was Abandoned. An Irishman traveling in France was challenged by a Frenchman to fight a duel, to which he readily consented and suggested shillelahs as weapons. "That suggested shillelahs as weapons. "That won't do," said the Frenchman's sec-ond. "As challenged party you have the right to choose the arms, but cbiv-alry demands that you should decide upon a weapon with which Frenchmen Are familhar." "Is that so?" replied the Kast thing goes smoothly. While they are are familiar." "Is that so?" replied the Irishman coolly. "Very well, we'll fight with guillotines."

A Case of Quality.

A clever little gentleman well known in the scientific world was one day standing with half a dozen tall men Willow Grov standing with half a dozen tall men when one of them turned to him and said that he had not seen him before, as he was so very small. Berwick..... Beech Haven Hicks Ferry. Sbickshingy. as he was so very small. "Very likely," replied the little genleman. "I am like a sixpence among six copper pennies-not easily perceived, but worth the whole six together."-London Standard.

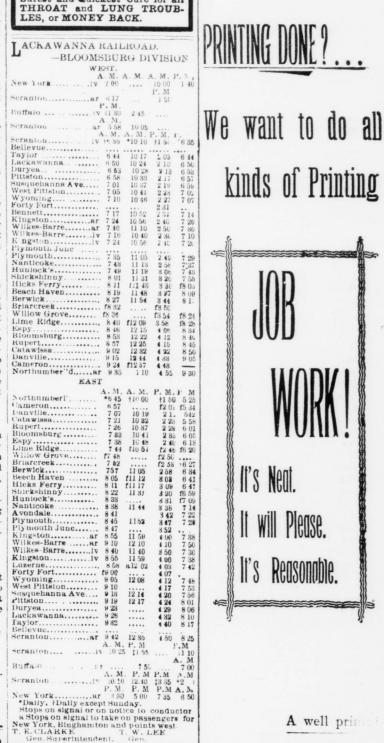

Magic In Art. There is a magic in the word that nakes men, even when they are so crass and ignorant that they don't know the meaning of it, profess a love for art .-- Chicago Record-Herald.

THE EYE'A SPECIALTY.

Eyes tested, treated, fitted with glassand artificial eyes supplied. Market Street, Bloomsburg, Pa. Hours-10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Moxa Doctors of Tokyo. A feature of low street life in Tokyo is the "Luisha," or moxa doctor, who A Reliable TIN SHOP For all kind of Tin Roofine

KILL THE COUCH

AND CURE THE LUNCS

WITH Dr. King's

New Discovery

CONSUMPTION Price OUGHS and 50c & $1.00 Free Trial.

JUB

Reasonable

A well prin

tasty, Bill or

ter Head, Pos

Ticket, Circular

Program, State

an advertisemen

for your business, a satisfaction to you

ment or Card

her tiny slippers. One miserable, lonely noon hour Eu- and started him in at $5 a week. His Another day she and Julia sat on Julia's mother's porch eating cookles. With her free hand Julia smoothed her ruffled white apron complacently.

"He says he loves me the best of anybody," she announced coquettishly. Tomorrow is the last day of mamma says I may wear my lovely new dress. Then you'll see whom he need be no fear of the ultimate out likes best."

The fair Julia tossed her golden York Commercial. curls and answered grandly, "I think dresses won't make any difference in Als love."

"You'll see," Eusenie replied darkly. That night Eugenie braided her somewhat curtailed tresses into numerous tight little braids. Next day, arrayed in the new dress-how well she remembered the gay "ands-with fluttering ribbons, kinky locks and the mien of a conqueror, she entered the schoolroom after the other children were seated.

With cleverly assumed carelessness young lady was wearing the same apron! Eugenie wore no apron. She had been forced to start with one, but in a fence corner. Retribution lay the peak. within its crumpled folds, but retribution could walt.

Just before recess she looked at he smiled entreatingly. Eugenie modstayed in her seat, being very busy was tying a refractory shoe string. When the teacher was out of sight he Eugenie's seat.

"You look awful nice, Genie. Will gyman wrote her epitaph, and here you be my girl?" he said. And Eugenie answered solemnly, "If you'll cross your heart and hope to die you'll always love me better'n Julia Epps.'

The woman Eugenie laughed and came back to the present. "History sometimes repeats itself,"

she remarked. "I don't see now why Julia Knox"

A half mile from Mrs. Knox's cottage the red auto, puffing back, came upon a surprising sight. A young woman, looking at once defiant and apologetic, her white dress mud spattered and blood stained, her brown hair blown about by a saucy sea breeze, stood by the roadside holding in her ages

"Eugenie, where in the world are perature is maintained.

her yellow curis to the black bows on position. I happened to have a posiczar," by which tion open at the time for an office boy Russia is no whole of Asia genle peered around the beech tree rise from that position to the one that where she and he had always played to- he now occupies was steady and rapid gether and saw something the memory and was due entirely to the fact that of which even after a dozen years made a green flame leap into the woman Eugenie's eyes. Frankie Hunt | carry them out, and do it correctly too. was putting on Julia Epps' finger the He never started off on anything 'half ring which he had been digging out of cocked,' so to speak. He was not a black button for her, Eugenie Bar- afraid to ask questions and thus get his instructions straight before undertaking the work in hand. In fact, I might say that he owes everything to the fact that he was always accurate in all that he did. You may think that I am preaching a sort of sermon, but if young men entering business positions, whether high or low, would take 'Please don't forget the beggar, who is school," answered her cousin, "and my for their motto the two words, 'Be acnow taking his luncheon.' curate,' and would live up to it there come of their undertakings." - New

A VERSATILE WOMAN.

some of the Things For Which Phoebe Bown Was Famed.

Phoebe Bown died something over half a century ago, aged eighty. This extraordinary woman, who lived with I'm a-working! Foreman-Oh, I beg her mother in a cottage nearly opposite the High Tor, at Matlock Bath, England, could walk nearly forty miles a day when young, could lift a hundred-weight in each hand and carry fourteen stone. She undertook any kind of manshe glanced in Julia's direction. That ual labor, as holding the plow, driving the team, thrashing wheat with the dress she had worn several times be- flail and thatching the stacks. Her fore, and, glory, that same old white chief avocation was breaking horses at a guinea a week. She always rode without saddles and was considered it was lying ingloriously under a stone the best judge of horses and cows in

But Phoebe had also a liking for sport and for art. She was a good shot and carried her gun on her shoulder. Frankie Hunt. His eyes had been fix- She was fond of Milton, Pope and ed upon her all the morning, and now Shakespeare and performed on several instruments, including the flute, violin estly lowered her eyes. At recess she and harpsichord, and played the bass viol in Matlock church. She was a carwith her geography. Frankie Hunt penter, mason and smith and mainly by her own haud labor built another room to the cottage for the reception of a jumped over four intervening desks to barpsichord which a lady presented to her. At her own request a local cler> it is: Eere lies romantic Phoebe. Ha." Gannymede, half Hebe; A maid of mutable condition, A jockey, cowherd and musician.

A Silent Partner.

plied the paternal. The boy immediate-father, it's hung to suit me now."

y hung it on a tree near by. "There,

Muscles That Shut Out Cold. "The muscles of the skin need training to educate them to contract vigor- kind of busines ously on the slightest cold," says a "Neither would L." "Well, he has." nedical writer, "to shut the blood out "What's he into now?" "He's got married."-Dallas News. of the skin so quickly that the precious body heat will not be lost. You notice The Weathercock. that when the skin is cold there is a The effigy of the cock so often seen 'goose skin' appearance. This is due to the contraction of the little muscles on church steeples is usually connected of the skin. The contraction of the with a legend in connection with St. muscles compresses the external blood Peter. As a matter of fact, however,

London Globe.

fern.

As a vessels and drives away the blood from the figure of a cock used to be placed ter nonconductor. Thus the body tem- movement of the bird in the breeze was supposed by the superstitious to ward the poker A Thoughtful Beggar. J. Stanley Todd, the portrait painter, was talking about the beggars of dif-ferent lands. "I have met," said Mr. Todd, "beggars of every descriptiongars, robust ones-but the most remarkable beggar of the lot was a man whom brightly.-London Answers. I never met, yet whom I never assuredly will forget. All I saw of this beggar was his hat and his chair. An Irish King of Portugal. An Irishman was once king of Porchair stood on a corner of the Rue St. tugal, or at least he once ruled in the Lazare in Paris. The hat lay on the chair, with a few coppers in it, and behind the hat was a placard reading,

A Humble Apology.

Animals and Rain

king's stead over that country. In No-vember, 1640, there was a revolution in Portugal, brought about by the tyrannical exactions of Miguel Vasconcellos, the secretary of state. The hated minister was shot and the vice queen, Margaret of Savoy, abdicated. The crown was offered to the Duke of Braganza, Conversation overheard in a London street; scene, laborer working on a who was living at Villavicosia. Meanscaffold, contemplating surrounding view, when his foreman comes along while, until the duke should accept the crown, the people of Lisbon elected a popular and influential Irish merchant, down below and, looking up and seeing him idle, calls out to him: "So yer named John Darcy, who resided in the 'aving a look round! What do yer city, as their nominal king. Darcy ac-cepted the honor conferred upon him think of the weather?" Workman (looking down with contempt)-Noa; and bore the title of "king of Portugal" from Dec. 1 to Dec. 6, 1640. yer pardon! I'm sorry I stopped yer!-

Living Stones

The visitor to the Falkland isles sees Much as animals dislike rain, none of them save the squirrel build themscattered here and there singular shaped blocks of what appear to be weathselves shelters to keep it off. Monkeys er beaten and moss covered bowlders set their backs against tree trunks as a in various sizes. Attempt to turn one protection from driving rain, but never of these bowlders over, and you will make a protective roof. It is a commeet with a real surprise, because the mon sight to see a drenched herd of stone is actually anchored by roots of cattle huddled together on some exgreat strength; in fact, you will find posed common in a downpour of raip that you are triffing with one of the nawhen they have no choice or chance of tive trees. No other country in the shelter. But even the orang-outang, world has such a peculiar "forest"

FLAGS IN BIG HOTELS.

Kept In Stock.

"No first class metropolitan hotel is thoroughly equipped until it possesses youth Daniel Webster was an assortment of flags almost as complete as that of an admiral's flagship,' somewhat opposed to physical labor, but he was quick at repartee. While remarked the manager of a prominent mowing he complained to his father caravansary. that his scythe was not properly hung. "Hang it to suit yourself, Dan," re-

"The leading hotels in the great cities have use for flags of all nations some time or other. Hotels are pretty nearly as punctilious in observing certain little ceremonles when distinguished visitors arrive as are naval fleets. If some high official of a foreign country is "I never thought that Tom would staying in the house it is the proper than bave become a silent partner in any thing to display his nation's colors. As all big hotels are likely to entertain home and foreign diplomats, army or navy officers, or even members of royal families, you can see where there is a necessity for an assortment of flags. "The hotel may not possess a complete outfit to begin with, but as time olls along and distinguished men of all lands are entertained the collection of bunting is continually added to arms a dilapidated yellow mongrel, the surface, hardening and thickening on the tops of sacred trees long be-one leg swathed stiff in plaid silk band-the skin, which thereby becomes a bet-fore it was used on buildings. The ganizations which make one hotel or another their headquarters on the oc casion of annual celebrations. They you going with that dirty dog?" shrill-ed the widow. "Home," answered Eugenie laconical-iy, turning teward a short cut across the hill. "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the constant expo-sure to cold that the Indian's body is "It is because of the skin of his whole body, "It is because of the face, has learned to take care of itself."

troduction of the hot iron by still fur- natural born coquettes, and as a conther assisting steam production causes sequence are perfection in the average come at once surround- man's eyes. The beautiful girl genered by a sheath of vapor, which effectu- ally banks on her face being her for ally prevents the water from coming tune, but the coquette cultivates the into actual contact with the metal. This sheath of vapor is comparative by a bad conductor of heat, so that but shy beggars, blustering ones, old beg- little passes from the iron to the wa- and of making each man think he is ter. There is no commotion, and the the one that is being especially favorpoker can be withdrawn still glowing ed.-San Francisco Call.

The Coquette.

The Home Paper

14 Martinova

Everybody Reads It.

Published Every Morning Except

Sunday at

No. II E. Mahoning St. Subscription 6 cents Per Week.

