CARNEGIE'S NIECE MARRIED DRIVER

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 19.—The Pittsburgh Times publishes this morning a copyright article in part as follows: "A story that has all the elements of romance came to light yesterday through the simple announcement of the arrival from Europe of Mr. and Mrs. James Hever and their infant daughter."

The bride is the youngest child of Mrs. Lucy Coleman and the late Thomas M. Carnegie and a niece of Andrew Carnegie. The groom was a widower, with two children one of whom a little girl, was being reared in a convent.

Although the marriage took place in New York almost a year ago it was not made public at the time and the secret has been so well kept that none but members of the bride's family and a few very of their closest relatives and friends had any inkling of the true state of affairs.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED. Local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear, there is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by an internal remedy.

Reminiscences of the Past. The old well discovered by Lincoln while planting a telephone pole Monday was the subject of discussion at M. H. Schram's last evening...

Heads House, then Union Hall, was the leading hotel of the town. He was a small boy and set up ten pins on the alley opposite the hotel on the lower end of what is now the Court House ground.

SECURING JURY TO TRY ACTRESS

NEW YORK, April 19.—Three jurors were in the box this morning when the trial of Nan Patterson, the chorus girl, charged with murder, was resumed before Recorder Goff and counsel expressed the opinion that the surprising expedition with which the examination was proceeded with yesterday gave ground for the hope that the jury box will be filled by tomorrow night.

Counsel on both sides have restricted their questions to the narrowest point and no time is being lost in needless quibbling. Nan Patterson pays the same keen attention to the selection of the jurors that she did on the two previous trials. She listens to each question and answer carefully and indicates the counsel whether the juror will be acceptable.

Yesterday she turned down a tall, man, who was acceptable to both counsel. The talesman in question was apparently desirable to both sides and was about to be accepted when Nan turned to Mr. Levy and said: "I do not want him. He does not suit me."

Levy seemed surprised and said after he challenged the talesman: "You must not think that every man who is acceptable will suit you. The talesman was very satisfactory."

There was the usual jam when the court room was opened this morning and the court officers had their troubles sitting them from the seats. Only one talesman was permitted to enter. Recorder Goff has decided that women shall be barred from the court room and many were turned away from the doors this morning.

Certificate Re-Extending Charter. Treasury Department. Office of Comptroller of the Currency. Washington, D. C., April 18, 1905.

Whereas, by satisfactory evidence presented to the undersigned, it has been made to appear that The Danville National Bank located in the Borough of Danville in the County of Montour and State of Pennsylvania, has complied with all the provisions of the Act of Congress "to enable National Banking Association to extend their corporate existence, and for other purposes."

WM. B. RIDGELY, Comptroller of the Currency. Charter No. 1078. Extension No. 677.

Profitable Office in Northumberland County. By act of the Legislature, signed by the Governor, the office of County Commissioner has been made worth running for and will no doubt increase the number of aspirants.

A Stabbing Affray. A stabbing affray occurred at Marion Heights, Northumberland county, on Sunday afternoon, and as a result the authorities are trying to apprehend Nicholas Verona, a foreigner with a bad reputation. Nicholas Getta is the person who was stabbed and the cause of the trouble dates back to the time of the big coal strike.

"Spotted Fever" Instructions. Dr. Benjamin Lee, secretary of the State Board of Health, has directed officers of local boards to take the same precautions against the spread of spotted fever, or cerebro-spinal meningitis, as is the case with other infectious fevers.

General of Mrs. Evans. The funeral of Mrs. Thomas Evans, which took place on Saturday afternoon, was very largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. N. E. Cleaver, assisted by Rev. C. D. Lerch. The pall bearers were: Wesley Loughbaugh, Charles Geiz, Alfred Forney and John Fox. Interment was made in Old Flowers cemetery.

They Were Roosters. James Wynn lately purchased some fancy fowl of Landlord Joseph Conkle of the Baldy House.

Some Lively Hustling. Shamokin will also make a bid for the victors of the fire companies and patriotic societies on the glorious Fourth that was simultaneously with Danville, yesterday declared for a celebration.

As the Train Rolled North

By FRANK H. SWEET

Copyright, 1905, by Frank H. Sweet

When the Southern Palm Limited drew out from Jacksonville, north bound, there were two young men on board under widely different circumstances. One was crouching upon the second step of a Pullman, forward, with his eyes fixed grimly upon the door through which the conductor would pass on his round of ticket collecting. The other was in the observation car at the rear of the train, two seats from the end, staring at an open letter with eyes widened in despair, horror and desperation.

This train made few stops, but at the first station, in obedience to a signal from the bell cord, it slowed down sufficiently for the conductor and brakeman to thrust the man from the second step of the Pullman; then it shot ahead at full speed to make up the few seconds lost. The tramp remained standing where he had dropped, his face now keen and alert, and his right arm upraised. As it swept by the train brushed his clothing and the wind of it stirred his rough, unkempt hair and beard. Three cars passed; then came the observation car. Sutter all in a letter from my partner.

THE TRAIN'S RIGHT ARM CLOSED LIKE A STEEL BAND AROUND THE OTHER.

Wanted Judge to be Overruled. Up a Maine street an old custom of opening the courts with prayer, which custom in one instance, described with considerable gusto by ex-Judge Henry E. Howland, led to a petition with which the judge couldn't exactly sympathize.

Hindoo and Cows. The Hindoos, or natives of India, worship idols of wood and stone. They also worship animals and plants. The cow is considered the most sacred animal; still they worship the ox and the bull, the fish, tortoise and bear; also serpents, monkeys, demons and spirits. They believe that when a person dies the soul passes into some animal or plant and lives another life, continuing to do so until it has lived millions of lives.

PRAIRIE DOGS. Choked by a River While Traveling. From Oklahoma to Texas. "The prairie dog migration from Oklahoma to southwestern Texas during July, 1874, eclipsed anything of that sort witnessed by white men in this country," said a veteran who saw it.

Indigestion Causes Catarrh of the Stomach. For many years it has been supposed that Catarrh of the Stomach caused indigestion and dyspepsia, but the truth is exactly the reverse. Indigestion causes catarrh. Repeated attacks of indigestion inflame the mucous membrane lining the stomach and expose the nerves of the stomach, thus causing the glands to secrete mucus instead of a normal quantity of gastric juice.

Three Queer Animal Tales. The Indians say that if a beaver sent out from the parents' lodge fails to find a mate he is set to repair the dam. If he fails a second time he is banished.

Ever Welcome. The exhibitions given by the Lyman H. Howe Moving Picture Company are always a revelation to the vast throng of people who wait for each new program. There are so many unreliable moving picture shows going around the country, that it is a treat to witness a truly reliable exhibition given by skilled people with the most advanced ideas in machinery and other details, which can only be said of Mr. Howe's entertainment.

A Salty Sentence. Daniel Holmes and Michael Murphy convicted at Scranston of having attempted to wreck a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western passenger train, were sentenced by Judge McClure, specially presiding, to seven years each in the penitentiary.
