DOUBT WHETHER PANAMA CANAL

NEW YORK, June 28.-Will the Panama canal ever be dug? A good many people are beginning to doubt it, especially when they consider the history of the project, which was first conceived some three or four hundred years ago. Hone ran high when the United States was given the job and and declaration promised well but a her right arm. year has passed and performance seems lacking.

First the old canal commission head ed by Admiral Walker was found to be unwieldy. There was too much divided authority and some how or other the thing wouldn't work. Then the shoulder. Dr. Newbaker was callcame a new order of things. Theodore P. Schontz, a hustling reilroad man was placed at the head of affairs, while John F. Wallace, an eminent engineer was placed in charge of the actual work of digging the canal.

Again hope rose that something would be done, but the old canal hoodoo is still at work, for now comes the news that engineer Wallace has handed his resignation to the president and that canal affairs are badly tangled. Yellow fever, too, has taken a hand, and is sadly interfering with the work Mr. Wallace is stopping in this city until the President shall act on his creditable one resignation, which is said to be of a tentative character. He has made certain requests upon the administra tion and these may be complied with, though the expectation in this regard is slight. If they are complied with Mr. Wallace will return to his post. MURDER SUSPECT IN JAIL

Frank Riko, an Italian, about 4: years of age, is now locked up in a cell the Northumberland county jail. The arrest was made on suspicion of is being the slayer of Michael Wanzie, whose brutal murder of last Tuesday, has aroused the greatest interest and indignation, and for the apprenepsion of whose murderer, two re wards, aggregating $5,000, have been issued. The work, leading up to the arrest will make a story by itself when the proper time comes.

County Detective Geise, Constable Harry Waters and Officers Morgan and Cannon assembled at Natalie about 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and went to Riko's home.

Riko's wife was not communicative, and seemed scared at the arrival of the police. She told them Mr. Riko was not at home. Just then a neighbor entered and told them he was on his way to the trolley road.

The officers gave pursuit. Riko, some distance ahead, saw them and went into the bushes. Later he reappeared on the public road. The police, thinking him armed, followed him warily some listance, and then, making a combined rush, captured him. He made no attempt to shoot and would not talk.

During that visit to the Riko resiing of the Centralia borough council dence, the wife was approached with some leading questions. She denied William J.
