REPUBLICANS LOOK AHEAD

Party in Pennsylvania Must Line Up With the President for Coming Con gressional Contests.

[Special Correspondence.] Harrisburg, July 11.

Republicans of Pennsylvania are going to "stand pat."

They are going to line up again with President Roosevelt and show him that he has their full confidence and sup-Within the last 24 hours the chairmen of the Republican county committees throughout Pennsylvania have re ceived communications from Chairman Wesley R. Andrews, of the Republican State committee, warning them of the danger that lies in over confidence and seeking to impress upon them the importance of perfect ing the county organizations so as to insure the polling of a large Republican vote in November next.

While it is not to be expected that Pennsylvania will, in this "off year," be able to repeat the unprecedented majority of 505,000 given Roosevelt at the presidential election, Chairman Andrews is eager that every effort shall be made to get out a large percentage of the Republican vote so as to keep the majority under the circumstances up to the highest possible figures. That the chairmen and other members of county committees throughout the commonwealth intend to co-operate in this laudable work is quite manifest from the reports that are being received from every quarter of the state. Republican organization throughout Pennsylvania is harmoni ous and aggressive and there is a di position shown on every hand to maintain the prestige and the influence of the Pennsylvania organization in the party in the nation.

Must Stand By Roosevelt. Pennsylvania is the bulwark of national Republicanism and any faltering on the part of Pennsylvania Republicans at the coming election which would result in any material decrease in the Republican majority would be taken as indicating a lack of interest and a lack of sympathy in the great policies which the Republican national administration is fathering and is en deavoring to carry out to a successful conclusion. President Roosevelt needs the full support of Pennsylvania Republicans now as much as he did when he was a candidate before the people for the presidency. He requires the moral and substantial backing of the great Republican state of Pennsylvania in his magnificent undertakings. The opponents of the national administration at home and the Democrac throughout the union would hail with delight the news of a great falling off in the Republican majority in Penn sylvania next fall and would herald it as the turning of the tide from Re publicanism all over the country. Pennsylvania Republicans are to patriotic and too loyal to their party to allow anything of the kind to happen

They are also too practical from a business standpoint to permit that to occur. No state in the union has as much at stake as Pennsylvania in the continued success of Republicanism.

Her vast industrial and manufactur ing interests which have thriven under the policy of a protective tariff and which give employment to se many hundreds of thousands of he people, and which have added so much to the wealth and happiness of he citizens and those of other states, have been nurtured and developed under Republican administrations. Thei continued prosperity depends largely upon the ascendency of the Republicar party in the state and the nation. The large majorities for Republica candidates in this state which have been greatly due to the activity of th members of the Republican committee in the several counties must be again recorded at the coming election. Look Ahead to Congress.

This is essential that the Democrac shall not be emboldened to seek t make a desperate battle at next year's highly important elections. Pennsy. vania today, with her 31 Republican members, has the largest Republica delegation of any state in the union on the floor of the National House of Representatives. This delegation has been a powerful factor in obtaining much needed recognition of Pennsyl nia's interests at Washington. Appropriations of great sams of money have been secured for the deep ening of the Delaware channel, which means the ultimate completion of a harbor which will bring many millions annually to the port of Philadelphia, and which will directly and indirectly brief interview on the political situation in Pennsylvania, stated to a Pittsburg Dispatch representative Wednesday that he did not see any reason for resorting to any reform movement to regulate any evils that may exist in the Republican party. The senator stated in a few, but well chosen words, his idea of the situation, and it was for the Republicans to take care of their own affairs and to let the Democrats do the same thing.

"There are, of course, a good many people who call themselves reformers, out who are mostly soreheads, disap pointed aspirants for office or hopeful Democrats who are anxious for a break in the Republican ranks for no other reason than that they may profit thereby. Senator Knox is a safe, thorough going, highly respected official, and it did not take him long to size up the situation and put it in the proper light before the people of this commonwealth. The Republican party will attend to whatever reforms are necessary, and there will be no disposition shown to prevent all sincere reformers band wagon, but the leader of the band will be a Republican, and the Republicans will attend to the necessary reforms themselves That much may as well be understood first as last."

The country would be more anxious did it not become more evident every day that the 'reform' is prompted more by an effort to set up a rival organization than to really uncover political or business rottenness. Why should this not be so when it is noted that Mayor Weaver's right hand man is Ex-Judge Gordon, a discredited Democrat of Philadelphia. The mayor certainly cannot divest himself of all charges of playing to the galleries so long as he allows Gordon to lead and control him. "The Democrats of Pennsylvania need not get ready to parcel out the offices among themselves just yet. The Philadelphia matters will be settled in the courts and not in the yellow journals and when this is done the Republican party will be found doing business at the old stand."
