Republicans of Pennsylvania Ready For An Aggressive Campaign.

CLUBMEN ARE IN THE VAN

Easton Expects a Great Crowd at the Convention of the State League of Republican Clubs.

[Special Correspondence.] Philadelphia, Aug. 22.

Within 10 days the Republican campaign in Pennsylvania will be well under way and work will be begun in earnest to assure the election of the entire Republican ticket by large majorities. Much has already been done in that direction in the preliminary canvass, and the September extra assessment out of the way, the Republican cause will be spirited and unceasing until the polls close on the 7th of November next.

Colonel Wesley R. Andrews, chairman of the Republican state committee, states that the county chairmen have never before accomplished so much work thus early in a canvass, and his reports from every section of the state are exceedingly gratifying.

Although this is what is styled an "off year," when it is not expected that there will be many mass meetings, Chairman Andrews has already got a number of appointments for young Republicans and many veteran orators offering their services to the state committee to address any mass meetings that may be held under the auspices of the state organization.

Young Men to the Front. The state organization is giving every encouragement possible to the officers of the State League of Republican Clubs who are preparing for their convention, which will be held in Easton the middle of next month.

The league is a powerful and important adjunct to the state committee and a political help to success. The state ticket this year is a good ticket, clean, able and Republican, and there is no reason why it should not receive the earnest and zealous support of all good Republicans.

Campaign of Misrepresentation. As an indication of how the Republicans of the interior of the state view the Philadelphia situation, this from the Pittsburgh Gazette is of interest.

Trolley Work Still Delayed. A car load of rails for the Danville and Sunbury Street Railway Company arrived at South Danville Monday and another car is expected to arrive this morning.

A Trip to the West. Our townsman, Henry L. Gross, is on his way to the West, where he expects to visit his sons, who are in business there. Toledo is his first objective point and after a week there he will go to Kansas City, later proceeding to Oklahoma.

SELINGSGROVE MAN BEATEN OUT OF $600

Lewis R. Amig, an aged and well-to-do citizen of Selingsgrove, a man who has had experience in all the various transactions that go to make up a lifetime, finally fell into a neat little game of fire-flam as it has been called to report for some time.

Monday was circus day at that little inland village, and all the country folk for miles around congregated there, for Snyder county does not offer ton experiences such a gala day. As is invariably the case, as the vultures follow the caravan, crooks of all the fake games in the category of "good things" followed and located in Selingsgrove, with the stamping ground of the show as the headquarters.

Mr. Amig came in contact with a pair of the gentry, apparently in interested conversation on a matter of advertising the show business. The attention of the Selingsgrove citizen was at once riveted by the sight of an envelope bulging with greenbacks, and around and about this were others containing less amounts—money in that little firm appeared to be no consideration. The big envelope mentioned held it made things appear as though he and his companion had not met before. He was evidently trying to persuade the party of the second part to try his luck.

The proposition was made to Mr. Amig that if he could cover the $50 he could play, and a trial for the fun of the thing was made. Mr. Amig first drew $10, and then again $20 and again $50, all the while with the $50 in sight as a possibility when out of sight and in the game.

He became more earnest and said he had no money with him, but could secure it. The party to the second part then stated that if Mr. Amig would raise $600, he, the party to the second part, would raise $150 and they would put the man with the little envelopes out of the business. This was planned in secret. The result was that Mr. Amig secured the endorsement of G. R. Hendricks, drew the $600 from the bank, met the fakers in an alley, accompanied them to a secret place, and it required but a few moments until Mr. Amig had bid a sorrowful farewell to his $600.

Unique Relic. Some months ago Captain H. H. Mertz found a land turtle on the battlefield of Gettysburg, which was inscribed with the insignia of the Engineering Corps, the American flag and "J. Lee, Company B, U. S. E."

Captain Mertz took pleasure in expressing the turtle to Lieutenant Lee and doubtless the owner is proud of this unique relic of a personal experience during the war.

The above was first discovered at half-past twelve o'clock, and it is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. So quickly did the flames come to spread that the men, owing to a scarcity of fire-fighting apparatus, were unable to make much of a fight to save the structure.

Not more than two weeks ago, improvements amounting to a cash outlay of ten thousand dollars were completed and these were all destroyed. There being no fire in the part of the structure where the flames were first discovered, the promoters believe that it was set on fire, but no clues have been secured.

BREAKER DESTROYED BY FIRE

SHAMOKIN, Aug. 23.—Fire completely destroyed the big breaker of the Greenough Rod Ash Coal Co., at Marion Heights near here early this morning.

One hour after the flames were discovered by a fireman the structure was a mass of ruins. The breaker was built five years ago at a cost of $75,000 and was insured for $12,000. It is owned by Pittston and Shamokin capitalists and was one of the largest individual operations in the Shamokin region.

The blaze was first discovered at half-past twelve o'clock, and it is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. So quickly did the flames come to spread that the men, owing to a scarcity of fire-fighting apparatus, were unable to make much of a fight to save the structure.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deep-seated and so insidious. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease.

Bladder troubles most always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

Pennsylvania Railroad Maintains Schedule (New York Tribune, August 13, 1905.)

During the month of July the Pennsylvania Special arrived in Chicago exactly on the minute of its schedule every day. The eastbound Pennsylvania Special arrived in New York on schedule time twenty-three days. The average detention on seven days was less than ten minutes, due entirely to conditions for which the train crew could not be held responsible.

The greatest breach in the schedule was on July 14, when the Special was held up behind a freight wreck, which blocked all four tracks on the Middle Division, entailing a loss of two hours and twenty-two minutes in the regular arriving time at New York.

It is difficult to find a match for this record. It demonstrates that the schedule has sufficient elasticity to take up any ordinary detentions which may occur between terminals, and that even faster regular schedule may be made should it be deemed wise.
