THIEVES BREAK INTO FARM HOUSE

The farm house of Milo Reed above Boyd's Station was invaded by thieves Sunday night. They, however, left only a slight trace behind and took no booty.

Mr. Reed was spending the day at Newark. When evening arrived Mrs. Reed and the rest of the household left for church, closing up the house in the usual manner. When they returned they were confronted with unmistakable evidence that thieves had gone through the house. Mr. Reed and his family, however, like wise people make it a practice to keep as little as possible about the house that thieves might covet. Even the safe, although generally locked, contains nothing more valuable than books and papers. It could not be ascertained that any articles were missing beyond some articles in the cellar.

The burglars evidently effected an entrance through one of the windows, in which a fly screen was inserted and fastened in that position. On returning from church Mrs. Reed found the fastening with which the shutters were secured broken and the shutters themselves wide open, while the fly screen had been torn and the contents of the safe, which all seem sure was closed when they left the house, was found open, although its contents not being of a sort to tempt burglars were undisturbed. In the cellar were found also evidences that thieves had been on the premises.

The affair following closely on the heels of the daring hold-up in Pine Swamp Hollow, Thursday, has caused a great deal of anxiety among the farmers on the South side of the river, as no one knows at what point the robbers may operate next. It is safe to say that Mr. Reed's house will be impenetrable hereafter and that all over that section the farmers will be on the alert. Some in market yesterday were heard to describe the precaution that they have employed. In most instances the family shut gun well loaded and kept handy is relied upon, while in not a few cases the more effective revolver is just now kept within easy reach to protect the house.

Honors for Rev. Koch.

The Very Rev. J. J. Koch, Vicar General and rector of St. Edward's Roman Catholic church, Shamokin, will shortly round out the fortieth year as spiritual head of that congregation.

Father Koch is well known in this city, having on numerous occasions visited Danville, and having assisted at church functions of note in the local parishes. It was under the pastorate of Father Koch that St. Hubert's German Catholic church was dedicated July 26th, 1864. Rev. Koch also performed the very impressive ceremonies at the dedication of St. Hubert's fine new parochial school building on the 14th of last February.

The celebration of the anniversary which will take place on Sunday, September 10th, will not only mark the priest's long and faithful administration of the affairs of his parish, but will be the occasion of his investiture with the purple insignia of a Monsignor, an honor which came to him from Pope Pius IX, and which is a source of much gratification to his friends in this city. Father Koch's anniversary will be presided over by the Right Rev. J. W. Shanahan, Bishop of Harrisburg. Bishop Shanahan will invest Father Koch with the purple just before the mass at 10.30.

By Father Koch's energy St. Edward's Parish in forty years has acquired property valued at $300,000. There is but $5000 debt on the property and Father Koch hopes that it will be materially reduced at the anniversary services, and wholly wiped out by the new year.

Hands Severely Burned.

John Brichard, Pine street, was severely burned on both hands at the Structural Tubing Works Saturday. The accident was caused by Mr. Brichard slipping and falling against a piece of red hot iron at the rolls. Dr. Stock rendered medical attention.

THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL

The public schools of the Borough Monday afternoon opened with 1145 pupils enrolled, which is considered very nearly normal. In the High School there are 147 pupils. In the four grammar schools the following numbers are enrolled: First Ward, 40; Second Ward, 34; Third Ward, 25; Fourth Ward, 19. In all the lower grades the rooms were well filled.

Borough Superintendent Gordy last evening stated that there are still pupils to come in. Some of those absent under the mistaken idea that their presence will not count during the first few days of school, when the time is largely devoted to outlining the work and imparting of the pupils as definite an idea as possible to what is to be done and what methods are to be employed during the term. Those pupils who miss this essential part of the instruction will find later on a serious time, as they are laboring under a handicap, the effect of which will be apparent in the general result. The pupils, therefore, who desire to make a good showing during the term had better get into school without the loss of a single additional day.

At the close of yesterday's session Borough Superintendent Gordy held a teachers' meeting in the First Ward Grammar school room. The teachers after their vacation have gone back to their task invigorated and full of hope. In the group were some strange faces, for in addition to the principalship of the High School filled by Professor Taylor there were three other vacancies which are filled as follows: First Ward Grammar school, Professor J. H. Shaw; Second grade, First Ward, Miss Bertha Miller; Welsh Hill, Miss Alice Small. Professor Shaw, who last year was principal of the Nescopeck schools, comes to Danville very highly recommended. That he is a teacher of experience, well equipped for his work is already quite manifest. He will undoubtedly succeed in his new field.

A STEADY DRAIN.

Sick Kidneys Weaken the Whole Body—Makes You Ill, Languid and Depressed.

Sick kidneys weaken the body during the continual drainage of life-giving albumen from the blood into the urine, and the substitution of poisonous uric acid that goes broadcast through the system, sowing the seeds of disease. Loss of albumen causes weakness, languor, depression. Uric poisoning causes rheumatic pain, nervousness, nausea, cricks in the back, gravel and kidney stones. The cure is a steady drain. The best treatment and the best remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Great Danville cures prove it.

Mrs. Nelson Hollister, of 611 Mill St., says: "When we lived in Lewistown some years ago my son was troubled with backache about which he was continually complaining. He was unable to sleep nights, always had headaches and felt depressed and tired the whole time. The kidney secretions were annoying and embarrassing. Doan's Kidney Pills worked a quick cure, and after taking them only a short time he was permanently cured. My husband also used some for lameness in the back and they gave him immediate relief. From my own experience with Doan's pills I can say that they are the best kidney medicine I have ever used. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills highly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBirn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

A Pointer for School Boys.

An exchange gives boys the following tip: A horse that is fast walker does not have to trot so much. Did our boys ever notice that? Well, it is much the same with boys. A boy who walks right up to and with his work—much abreast with his duties, has a more pleasant time than the boy who is always lagging to the rear. A boy must in some shape or other, do his share, and if he persists in poking along whenever the eye of the instructor is on something else, he must be made to trot to catch with the fast, even walker who finds his work easy and pleasant because he never allows it to get ahead of him. Take a lot of boys together and the fellow who tries to do the least has much the hardest time of any. The boy who has the easiest time is the one who peels off his coat and starts right in with the determination of doing well and promptly the work that is assigned to him to do.

Practical Talks for Farmers.

Deputy Secretary of Agriculture Martin has arranged for the holding of farmers' institutes throughout the state during the coming fall and winter. There will be 40 days of these institutes and in addition Secretary Martin has arranged to hold a series of practical schools, at which butter making, horticulture and poultry interests will be discussed and demonstrated by expert instructors.

Will Erect $100,000 Breaker.

The owners of the Greenough colliery at Marion Heights, near Shamokin, the breaker of which operation was totally destroyed by fire on Wednesday last, have decided to rebuild and have planned a $100,000 structure modern and complete in every particular.

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Exceedingly impressive ceremonies over the mortal remains of the late Rev. Amos S. Baldwin, presiding elder of the Danville District of the M. E. church, were held in St. John's M. E. church, Sunbury, Monday morning at eleven o'clock.

Fully a hundred visiting ministers, holding charges in the district over which Rev. Baldwin presided, were in attendance to pay their last sad tributes of respect and honor to all that was earthly of a man who had through his loving sympathy, kind and loyal disposition, integrity of purpose, and unflinching zeal in the prosecution of his labors, won the love, confidence and esteem of his fellow-laborers in the great work of the church and humanity.

Tears were prevalent all over the audience, as, in glowing words of tribute and praise, the speakers enumerated the good works and grand virtues of the life of this man of God. His was a life worthy of emulation, for the influence of that life will live on and on, resulting in untold and inestimable good. His works will follow him.

Rev. H. S. Wilcox read the first Scripture lesson and Rev. H. C. Pardo the second. Prayer was then offered by Rev. H. L. Jacobs. Following this addresses, honoring the departed, were delivered by Revs. Emory Stevens, B. Evans, Thomas Wilcox, George W. Stevens, C. W. Hartzell, J. W. Roe, R. H. Gilbert, and W. D. Eveland.

"Impossible" Port Arthur.

Less than a year ago a famous military expert said: "It takes more drunk with victory and strong and ancient might to dare the risk of taking Port Arthur; human energy and prowess cannot force it; only madmen would attempt it."

What prompted such a positive dictum from such an authoritative source may be realized from the only authentic reproduction in existence of the great battle-field to be exhibited by Lyman H. Howe in Trinity M. E. church on Thursday evening, August 31st.

This series of moving pictures in Mr. Howe's new program cannot fail to inspire true sensations of the elemental contest at the apex of the world, where two civilizations were in life and death throes—sensations and impressions that nothing short of scenes alone can afford. They begin where all mere description ends. Here is a great army from a warlike nation equipped for scientific fighting and officered by men trained in the world's best schools; twenty thousand men driven in a hole; men of the same blood that defeated Napoleon, stubbornly contested Sebastopol, and at appalling loss of life reduced the marvellous Bievna. Pitted against them is an entirely new world power, another army little known and less honored. They are engaged in a mighty struggle on the grandest battle-field the world has ever seen.

Only ten neutrals had the hardihood to confront. Only ten neutrals are accorded the privilege by the Japanese Government to do so. Only one of these ten secured an enduring history of it in moving pictures, and this one was the personal representative of Lyman H. Howe. Through special facilities extended him because of his indomitable zeal and personal bravery, by Baron General Nogi, he has secured for Mr. Howe the only absolutely authentic reproduction of moving pictures direct from the firing lines of Port Arthur. Mr. Howe will neither sell nor lease them to any exhibitor or theatre in America. They can be seen at his own exhibitions exclusively and form but one of many equally interesting scenes of world-wide interest in the new program.

Trash Cans Littered Up.

It would seem at times that people are decidedly careless about the appearance of Mill street, notwithstanding that Council has gone to so much expense and pains to keep the pavement clean and presentable.

The ash cans, intended to be a receptacle for papers as well as trash of every other sort, last spring were distributed at convenient intervals all along the street with hope that people would use them.

For a little while it seemed that they were put to the proper use but by and by people seemed to forget what was expected of them and now the street often looks about as bad as it did before the cans were installed. Banana peels are found lying on the pavement exposing persons to danger of falling, while on windy days newspapers and wrapping paper, dirty and uncleanly in appearance, may be seen circling about at almost any point.

It might be well to remind persons who are negligent in this respect that they are violating the law enacted and approved last winter, which provides a penalty for just such offenses as throwing papers or rubbish of any sort upon the streets.

Party at Grovania.

A party of young people from this city were pleasantly entertained Saturday evening at the home of James Lee, near Grovania. A watermelon contest was the feature of the evening. Ambrose Prentiss and John Jones winning the prizes.

Vacancies Perplex Officials.

The deaths of Rev. Amos S. Baldwin, Presiding Elder of the Danville District, and the election of Dr. W. P. Eveland, pastor of the First M. E. church, of Bloomsburg, as President of the Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary, have caused two vacancies which are giving the church authorities much concern. Just how they will be filled is not yet known. A number of the leaders feel that the Bloomsburg vacancy and the presiding eldership should be supplied by substitutes until the conference next spring. They argue that if one change is made a number are likely to follow, and all will be among the most important churches in the conference.

PEACH CROP LARGEST IN YEARS

The curbstone market last Saturday brought out an enormous quantity of peaches. Several well known growers were interviewed and they all agree that there is an enormous crop of peaches, the largest for some five or six years past. There will be plenty of peaches, therefore, for everybody, but just what prices may prevail is no so certain.

The fruit is divided into three grades—large, medium and small. To these may be added the culls, which are frequently sold in small boxes and are by no means to be despised either as a luxury or a source of profit. The large peaches sell at 75 cents per basket, the medium at 65 cents and the small at 40 cents. The culls sell at the rate of 10 cents per half a peck.

Peaches are just now being shoved on the market in enormous quantities—the high water mark will probably be reached this week, although they will be peaches in market until October. The crop, however, now is at its best and the fruit is more delicious than it will be later on. The heaviest demand for peaches is just now on. Should the latter not prove heavy enough to absorb the supply the price will fall, should the opposite be the case the price will remain as at present. The result will be watched with some interest during the next week or so.

The prices as quoted above are for half bushel baskets. In this connection it is worth noting that the prospective purchaser in pricing peaches should know what kind of baskets are used. There seems to be no law on the subject and baskets vary much in size, designated as 8 quart, 10 quart and 12 quart baskets in addition to the full half a bushel basket. Purchasers should insist upon the full half bushel or consent only to prices low in proportion.

Among the leading peach growers who are disposing of their crop at our curbstone market are: H. L. DeWitt, of Wainwale; William Metler, near Klingsgrove; John Hendricks, Rush town; the Parley farm, Rush township, managed by William Ryan; there are good crops elsewhere, for every tree this year seems to bear and there is scarcely a farm, but has more or less peaches to sell.

Large growers like Dr. S. Y. Thompson and others sold their entire crops to dealers from a distance who canvassed this section some weeks ago offering one dollar per bushel in the orchard. These large growers were wise, as they get rid of their big crop of peaches without any trouble at a good profit whereas had they thrown them on the local market they would have been a glut that would have led to waste and prices that would have been a poor return, indeed, for the risk and labor involved.

Over 1,000 Dogs Licensed.

Brass tags for licensing 1,105 dogs had been sold at the City Treasury up to the time the office closed for the week at noon today. More dogs than that number exist in the city, of course, and some tags are being sold every day. The poundmen are busy, too, and it will not be long before unlicensed dogs are very scarce. The number of three dollar tags sold is 657; of the cheaper variety 448 have been sold—Harrisburg Star Independent.

EAST MARKET STREET PAVEMENT

There are numerous inquiries as to the status of street paving on East Market street, which some two or three weeks ago was set down as an assured thing. Up to the present no petition has been presented to Council, nor does it seem that anything whatever is being done to get ready for the work.

Careful inquiry has brought out facts which seem to make it doubtful whether East Market street will be paved—at least this summer. In the first place there is an organized opposition against paying the street and a counter petition has been circulated. Just how many signers it has is not known, as neither of the petitions has as yet been presented to Council.

Those in favor of paving insist that at the present time there are enough signers to carry the proposition through. At the same time it was learned from a reliable source yesterday that complications of a rather troublesome nature relating to the cost of the work have arisen which is bound to cause considerable delay. The same authority admitted that things at present do not look favorable for paving the street.

Time is passing rapidly. Even though all difficulties were to be speedily and satisfactorily adjusted it is doubtful whether the work could be got under way before late in September and the period intervening between that and winter would be entirely too short to complete the pavement. It is pretty safe to conclude therefore that East Market street will not be paved this year.

Fast Run to Sunbury.

The fastest run ever made on the S. H. & W. branch of the Pennsylvania, was accomplished Saturday between South Danville and Sunbury by the noon passenger train with Thomas Atty, the well-known engineer, at the throttle.

The train due to arrive at South Danville at 12:10 was twenty-nine minutes late, which was a serious circumstance as there were on board two passengers who wanted to take the Buffalo flyer at Sunbury. The usual time between South Danville and Sunbury is twenty minutes but in order to connect with the flyer on Saturday it would be necessary to make the distance in about one-half of that time.

This then was the task that Engineer Atty started out to accomplish. Some of our town-people along with Chief Burgess W. T. Shepperson of Riverside, who were on board were unprepared for the rate of speed at the rate. They were not surprised later on learning that the distance between the South Danville Station and the D. Y. tower at Sunbury, eleven miles, was covered in just eleven minutes. The train connected with the flyer all right.

PRESIDING ELDER BALDWIN DEAD

Reverend Amos Smith Baldwin, Presiding Elder of the Danville District of the Methodist Episcopal church, died at his home in Sunbury, on Friday morning at half-past eight o'clock.

Death was due to cancer. Reverend Baldwin had been failing in health for a period covering over two years but his condition did not become alarming until May. Dating from that period, he grew slowly, but steadily, worse, in spite of medical skill and careful nursing, until death ended his earthly career.

Rev. Baldwin was born in Fulton county, Pennsylvania, and was 51 years of age. He prepared for the ministry at the Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa., and took his first charge in the year 1875. By close application and an undivided interest in his chosen life's work, he rapidly rose to the position of Presiding Elder.

Previous to coming to Sunbury, he was the Presiding Elder of the Juniata District, changing places with the Rev. Dr. Evans, about a year and a half ago.

Although his stay in Sunbury was marked by the fatal ailment which prevented him from coming into a closer contact with the people in his district, he was held in the highest esteem.

By his death the church loses one of its most ardent workers and the world sustains the loss of one of its best citizens. The grandest eulogy that can be written is that "He was a good man."

A widow left three children survive to mourn his death: Miss Mary, located at Tyrone; Miss Amy, who resides at Newton, Hamilton, Pa.; and a son, located at Tyrone. The funeral services will be held in St. John's Methodist church, in Sunbury, Monday morning at eleven o'clock. Interment will take place at Newton, Hamilton, Pa., Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock.

Death Invades a Happy Home.

Stella, the wife of Alfred Fry, Front street, died Friday afternoon under exceedingly sad circumstances. A little girl baby born about 10 o'clock yesterday forenoon survives.

Mrs. Fry was twenty-four years of age, a young woman of most lovely character. She was the daughter of sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary Mrs. George Myerly and had a large circle of friends. On July 11th, 1901, she became the bride of Alfred Fry, and her happy wedding, solemnized at her home, had nothing about it to foreshadow the deep sorrow which was so soon to be the lot of those who loved her.

With her husband she went to house keeping on Front street and their little home became a great shock and was utterly unexpected. After the birth of her babe she seemed to be doing fairly well until a few minutes after 4 o'clock when she suddenly grew worse and death ensued. The babe is quite a healthy child and there is no reason to doubt that it will survive, despite the loss of a mother's love and care.

Mrs. George Myerly, mother of the deceased, was in Milton where she had been called to the bedside of a sick relative. She was summoned home yesterday, but did not arrive until after her daughter had passed away.

Pecuilar Disappearance.

J. D. Runyan, of Bartleville, O., paid the peculiar disappearance of his painful symptoms of indigestion and biliousness, to Dr. King's New Life Pills. He says: "They are a perfect remedy for dizziness, sour stomach, headache, constipation, etc." Guaranteed at Paules & Co's drug store, price 25c.

Resolutions Adopted.

At a meeting of the official members of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted as an expression of the esteem in which Rev. A. S. Baldwin, late Presiding Elder of the Danville District, was held:

Whereas, Brother Amos Smith Baldwin, our beloved Presiding Elder, has been called by God from his field of labor here, therefore be it

Resolved, That while in sadness we note his suffering and death, yet it is with pleasure that we testify to his beautiful life. "He was a good man," and lived the religion he professed.

Resolved, That in the death of Brother Baldwin we recognize the fact, that the Danville District has lost a great leader in the cause of Methodism, a man of the finest moral impulses, of rare executive ability, of great force of character and yet possessed of deepest sympathetic nature, whose soul was ever keenly alive to the needs of his people.

Resolved, That our deepest sympathy goes out, with the people of our District, for the bereaved family of our Brother.

A Touching Story.

is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Elyer, Cumberland, Md. Her little "At" was in declining health, with serious throat trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief, after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health.

MAY PIPE CANAL BEFORE WINTER

Affairs relating to the old canal seem to be reaching a crisis and it is a question just how great a nuisance to this sort the people are obliged to tolerate. As the season advances rank and noxious weeds conspire with the sluggish and half concealed sewage in the bottom to render the long ditch doubly unsightly and disgusting, while as a menace to public health the
