Pennsylvania Republicans to Show Their Loyalty to the President.

NOVEMBER'S VOTE TO BE A TEST

Bympathies of the National Administration Are Strongly With the Party Organization In This State.

[Special Correspondence.]

Philadelphia, Sept. 12. Every vote cast for the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania at the approaching election will not only be a vote of endorsement of Republican principles but a vote of confidence in Roosevelt well as an additional guarantee to the national administration that the great Republican organization of the Keystone State stands firmly and loyally by the president .

The scandalous conduct of the new insurgent-Democratic combine in Pennsylvania make it essential that the honest Republicans of the state shall assert themselves at the next election. A member of the Union League has received from President Roosevelt a Labor World we publish a brief sketch personal letter which absolutely dis- of the career of J. Lee Plummer, Reposes of the rumors circulated by assistant Democrats in this city and state of Pennsylvania. The facts of this to the effect that one or more members of the president's cabinet will figure in opposition to the regular Republican cause.

While such reports would ordinarily be regarded as too ridiculous to necessitate denial, the repeated announcements from insurgent and Democratic newspapers that Secretary Bonaparte will make a speech or write a letter to be used in the present campaign in the interest of the anti-Republican candidates prompted the correspondence which brought forth the letter from the president to one of his personal friends n the Union League.

Roosevelt's Interest In Pennsylvania. Not only does President Roosevelt make it clear that Secretary Bonaparte will not figure in the Pennsylvania campaign, but Republicans who have been curious about the foundation for other stories indicating that the president's sympathies are not fully with the regular Republican organization in Pennsylvania are given no excuse to be longer in doubt as to the attitude of the federal administration on the question of loyalty to the Republican party in the Keystone State. President Roosevelt fully realizes that the two Republican United States senators and the 31 Republican members of the national house of representatives from Pennsylvania have been heartily in accord with his administration, and they intend to stand by him in his future efforts for the development of the country's resources under Republican policies. He also knows that the present contest in Pennsylvania will have a far-reaching effect upon the great struggle for the election of congressmen next year.

Lines Must Not Be Broken. "Should the Republican lines be broken in Pennsylvania this fall disastrous results would surely follow in the congressional election next year.' declared Chairman Andrews, of the Republican state committee. There are several close congressional districts in this state, and it may require the most strenuous work in the approaching congressional campaign to hold Pennsylvania's record of having the largest Republican delegation of any state in the union on the floor of the national house of representatives.

"The great manufacturing and industrial interests of Pennsylvania which are so dependant upon Republican sucontinued Chairman Andrews "will not allow factional bickerings or the work of a few aspiring and reckless individuals to imperil the election by a large majority of every one of the candidates on the Republican state ticket next November.

"Insurgent and party wrecking organizations formed to advance the personal interests of a clique of wealthy and ambitious men cannot get a foothold in Republican Pennsylvania this fall to endanger Republican success in the great struggle of next year when the vital interests of the commonwealth will be so deeply concerned."

Gordon-Weaver Combine. In the Machiavellian game that is being played in this city to further the insurgent movement, former Judge Gordon's fine hand has been disclosed from time to time.

In line with the circulation of reports that Secretary Bonaparte and an office and not much in one. possibly other cabinet officers would be heard from during the course of the campaign in favor of the so-called "re- that young puppy that came to see you form" agitation was the attempt to last night," said the irascible father have it appear that Presiden Roosevelt "and that is he's healthy." sought a conference with Mayor Weaver on his return visit to Wilkes-Barre

It is known that this much adver- ter. tised "conference" had no political significance. The fact is, there was no when you met him in the hall last "conference" between the president and hight I heard you say, 'Oh, George how cold your nose is!" subject. Mayor Weaver met the presi deat as thousands of other citizens greeted him during his visit to the coal ing their meeting at which there were

It has been boldly charged and not denied that Gordon wrote the speed which Weaver made. It was a brilliant literary effort. Weaver is not a good scholar, as texts of his annual reports to councils have shown. No one who knows him can believe he wrote that Wilkes-Barre speech.

The people are beginning to understand the significance of the Gordon-Weaver combination and they are going to vote accordingly.

Gordon represents the old insurgent Democratic combination that has recently been rehabilitated and which is seeking to get control of the Republican organization in Pennsylvania. He is using the patronage of the

RECALL HIS PLUCK AS A BOY

Career of the Republican Nomine For State Treasurer Appeals to the Masses.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, Sept. 12, It has been a source of gratification to the friends of J. Lee Plummer, the Republican nominee for state treasurer, to find that on every hand workingmen of Pennsylvania are expressing keen interest in his candidacy.

Mr. Plummer is recognized as a man who has worked his way up from very humble circumstances and who is entitled to the consideration and support of every Pennsylvanian who appreciates worth and merit in a fellow

What may be termed the "labor vote" is practically solid for Mr.

Plummer. The name of "Plummer" was heard on many lips in the great popular demonstration of Labor Day. Out in Pittsburg, where the labor parade was the largest ever given in that section of the state, many of the leaders in the labor movement are among Mr Plummer's staunchest supporters.

A Labor Editor's Tribute. In a special edition of his paper put lished for Labor Day the editor of the Labor World had this to say about Mr. Plummer:

"In another part of this issue of the publican candidate for state treasurer sketch prove Mr. Plummer to be in truth a remarkable man, both as to mental ability and moral fortitude. His great and creditable success in life shows that he is not such stuff as dreams are made of. He is typical of those immortal Americans who have sprung from the lowly cottage or cabin and rocky paths of ill-requited toil to become great public blessings. "From a wage worker's viewpoint there is much to be proud of in the early struggles of J. Lee Plummer, He was compelled when at tender years to 'get out and hustle' to support the family. His father had met with a serious accident when on public duty. Young Plummer worked with a will and with hope. He soon displayed marked ability and he became a 'prominent man' before he had attained his majority.

True to the Masses. "It is natural that such men of talent as Mr. Plummer should reach impartant public offices of trust. He has been no exception, and to his credit let it be recorded that he has been true to the interests of the wardly forty-six feet and eleven inches As chairman of the committee on appropriations, his work exists as a and 47 in Block No. 11 in Alexander interests of the people. His sympathies with the appurtenances, they, the said and efforts were for the poor, the very poor. Doubtless his struggles in early life prompted him unswervingly in this direction. His policy as chairman of the appropriations committee re garding free beds in hospitals and the the same to be done, do not permit, treatment of the insane poor cannot but win for him the help of the workers for wages. His noble effort to have the state care for consumptives unable to help themselves is another proof of his strong desire to aid and uplift struggling humanity. "Such men as Mr. Plummer, embodying all the sterling qualities characteristic of the truest Americans afford the very best examples to the sons of the wage workers. Depend upon it, they prove that poverty is not a barrier to success when determination and honesty of purpose are employed. Thus it is that these examples should be encouraged by those who benefit most by them, that is, the workingmen themselves.

"Let the honorable and progressive course of the quondam newsboy be continued. His past gives assurance for the future. He comes from the ranks and is one of the people."

Andrews Is Satisfied.

Republican State Chairman Andrews is entirely satisfied with his reports from the counties, says the Pittsburg Gazette. They indicate the usual "offyear" plurality for J. Lee Plummer, or more. There is no good reason why of the victims of the frightful disaster this should not be so. Mr. Plummer is a man of high character, who has the heartlest support of all Republicans in Blair county, where he resides. He is well qualified for the position to for the place. He is a self-seeking politician, a place hunter, a chronic candidate for office who is willing to be nominee of any party that has a chance of success-Prohibitionist, Free Silver Ite, by turns-Mr. Berry is anything for
